

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY JULY 7, 1894.

VOL. 58. NO. 27.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

W. W. JENNESS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
87 Milk Street, Boston, Mass.
Office Hours, 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. Rooms 28 and 29.
QUINCY OFFICE, ADAMS BUILDING.
QUINCY, May 26.

JOHN W. McANARNEY,
Counselor-at-Law,
Room 1, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
Hancock Street, Quincy.
Saturdays, at the office of COTTER & JENNEY, 202 Washington Street, Boston, August 11.

DR. CHARLES C. PATTEN,
DENTIST,
Will be in Wollaston every Tuesday and Friday.
OFFICE: BOSTON OFFICE:
Taylor Building, 3 Commonwealth Ave. June 21. 2w

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST,
At Quincy, No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston, HOTEL PELHAM, Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. CHAS. S. FRENCH,
DENTIST,
All kinds of work in Dentistry done in the best manner.
GAS OR ETHER ADMINISTERED.
No. 80 Hancock Street,
Quincy, Aug. 8. 1f

CITY OF QUINCY.
The Overseer of the Poor
Will be at his office in the CITY
HALL from 8 to 10 A. M. on SAT-URDAYS.
Z. S. ARNOLD, Overseer.
Quincy, Feb. 21. 1f

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Roo on 5 and 6, - Durgin & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office Hours, 8 to 12, 1 to 5, usually evenings
6 to 8.

DR. G. R. ENGLAND,
DENTIST,
14 Chestnut Street, Quincy, Mass.
Connected by telephone.

F. S. DAVIS, M. D.,
HOMOEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN,
No. 5 Elm Street, Quincy.
Connected by Telephone.
OFFICE HOURS until 9 A. M., and 2 to 4 P. M., and 6 to 7 P. M. on SAT-URDAYS, Quincy, Oct. 23. 1f

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.,
Specialist, Orthodontia.
REMOVED TO
No. 7 TEMPLE PLACE.
New Building Building, Boston.
Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.
Residence, - Linden Place, - Quincy.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
Nathaniel Nightingale,
Granite St., near Post Office.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
PEREZ JOYCE,
Quincy Avenue near Liberty Street.

Quincy Savings Bank,
145 Hancock Street, Quincy.
President, RUPERT F. CLAFIN.
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MARSH.
Trustee and Sec'y, GEORGE L. GILL.
Board of Investment, RUPERT F. CLAFIN,
EDWIN W. MARSH, JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
ELIAS A. PERKINS.
BANK HOURS: - On and after November
1, 1893, from 8.30 to 12 A. M. and 2 to 4 P. M.
Deposits placed on interest on the first
Tuesday of January, April, July and October,
Quincy, Oct. 1, 1893. 1f

Granite Firms.
E. F. CARR & CO.,
(Successors to Frederick & Field.)
Established in 1830. Monuments, Cemetery and Building Work. Granite Statuary artist finely executed. Quarries and Works at Quarry Street, Quincy, Mass.

CRAIG & RICHARDS'
Granite Co. Wholesale Dealers in all kinds of Rough and Finished Granite. Quarry-off Adams Street. Works of Water Street.

BADGER BROTHERS,
Granite Dealers and Machinists. Monumental Work of All Descriptions. Celebrated Ashland Quarry for sale. West
Quincy.

MILLER & LUCE,
Wholesale Manufacturers of Art Monuments from special designs. Works and Office, West Quincy. Boston Office, 178 Tremont.

JOHN FALLON & SONS,
Quarriers and Dealers in Rough and Dressed
Granite for Building and Monumental Work
Quarry on Quarry Street. Address, Quincy.

THOS. F. BURKE & BROS.,
Manufacturers of Monuments and every description of Cemetery Work. Office and Works, Willard St., West Quincy.

MERRY MOUNT GRANITE CO.,
Incorporated 1881. Manufacturers and Dealers in Monumental and Cemetery Work.
Works near Quincy Adams Street, Quincy.

McGRATH BROS.,
Large stock of Finished Monuments and Tan-table constantly on hand. Works at Quincy Adams Street. Established 1854.

FULLER, FOLEY & CO.,
Granite Manufacturers and Dealers. Works
opposite West Quincy Depot.

O. T. ROGERS GRANITE CO.,
Successors to O. T. Rogers & Co. M. P.
Wright, Gen'l Manager. W. F. Baker,
Treas. Building and Monumental Granite.
Cemetery work a specialty. P. O. W. Quincy.

McDONNELL BROTHERS,
Wholesale Dealers in Dark Blue and Gray
Quincy Granite. Finely executed Monuments a specialty. Works, Water Street,
Post Office address South Quincy.

THOMAS & MILLER,
Manufacturers of Monumental and Cemetery
Work and Statuary. P. O. address, Quincy
Branch Office, 18 Lake Ave., Saratoga, N. Y.

GEO. H. HITCHCOCK & CO.,
Medium Blue Quincy Granite for Building
and Cemetery Work. Quarry and Office
Quincy Street. Post Office address, Quincy.

JOSS BROTHERS,
Monumental Granite Works, Garfield Street,
Quincy. Best of stock, and workmanship
guaranteed. All orders promptly filled.

H. T. Whitman,
CIVIL ENGINEER
-AND-
SURVEYOR,
ADAMS BUILDING, - QUINCY -
Hours, 8 to 9 A. M.
Boston Office, - 85 Devonshire Street,
Hours, 12 to 2 P. M.

N. B. Plans of nearly all the Real Estate
in the City of Quincy can be found at my office, May 28. 1f

House Cleaners, Attention!
QUINCY
ELECTRIC CARPET CLEANING WORKS.
Carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid in
the best manner at short notice.

W. W. ADAMS, G. B. LINCOLN,
Orders may be left at T. F. Mitchell's or Lock Box 232, Quincy Postoffice.
Quincy, March 17. 1f

THOS. W. LINCOLN,
Awning Maker,
266 Washington Street,
QUINCY POINT.

ITALIAN AWNINGS,
ALL KINDS OF STYLES,
MADE IN THE BEST MANNER.
AT VERY LOW PRICES.
FOR -
STORES, HALLS, PRIVATE RESIDENCES,
BEACH HOUSES.
Best of references given. 4m

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER.
Office and residence corner of Canal
and Mechanics Streets,
Quincy, Feb. 6. 1f

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
No. 51 HANCOCK STREET.
Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,
Robes and Habits.
Having had several years' experience in the Undertaking business, the subscriber hopes to give prompt attention to all calls to assist in the disposal of the deceased.

JOHN HALL,
Quincy, Mar. 10. 1f

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimated given.
JOBBER SPECIALLY ATTENDED TO.
Hancock Court, Quincy, Mass.

WARREN D. HIGGINS,
Architect and Builder,
Can show you a large number of Plans
for Houses which will cost from
$1,000 to $10,000.
Residence, 7 Faxon Avenue, Quincy
May 21. 1f

WALTER S. RANDALL,
Carpenter and Builder,
Has removed to his new residence in Bigelow Street. He is prepared to furnish estimates for house building, and is also prepared to do all kinds of carpentering and building work, and is a continuance of past business.
Quincy, July 1. 1f

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER
Pearl Street,
SOUTH QUINCY.

NOTICE.
THE Board of Water Commissioners will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday evening in Room No. 2, Durgin & Merrill's Block, at 7.45 o'clock. All persons having business with the Board are requested to be present at these meetings.

HERBERT T. WHITMAN,
JOHN W. McANARNEY, Counselors-at-Law,
JAMES H. STEINSON, Counselor-at-Law,
Quincy, June 25, 1892. 1f

Ladies' and Children's
HAIR - DRESSING - PARLORS.
M. E. FISH,
10 Chestnut Street, - Quincy
SHAMPOOING, Singing, Bangs Cut and Curled and Hair Dressed in all the latest styles of Street and Evening.
Dec. 10. 1f

C. H. ABBOTT,
Piano and Organ Tuner
RATES REASONABLE.
Workmanship Guaranteed.
ORDERS RECEIVED AT
E. B. Southern's News Dept.
Quincy, Jan. 13. 1f

16 years' experience in
Piano and Organ Tuning.
FRANK A. LOCKE.
Best of references and thorough work.
All orders promptly attended to. Quincy office,
John O. Holden's Jewelry Store, Boston
office, Rose Music Store, 33 West Street.

HERBERT F. NYE,
TEACHER OF
PIANO, ORGAN, VOICE.
Residence - Coddington Street.
P. O. Address - Box 679, Quincy, Mass.
At home Tuesdays evenings.
Feb. 23. 1f

FRANK C. GILBERT,
Teacher of Piano-forte,
190 Hancock St. Quincy. 1f

A. L. HOOD,
TEACHER OF Voice and Violin.
Arrangements for Lessons can be made at
No. 2 Faxon Block, Hancock St., Quincy, March 24. 2m

JOSS BROTHERS,
Monumental Granite Works, Garfield Street,
Quincy. Best of stock, and workmanship
guaranteed. All orders promptly filled.

JOSS BROTHERS,
Monumental Granite Works, Garfield Street,
Quincy. Best of stock, and workmanship
guaranteed. All orders promptly filled.

JOSS BROTHERS,
Monumental Granite Works, Garfield Street,
Quincy. Best of stock, and workmanship
guaranteed. All orders promptly filled.

JOSS BROTHERS,
Monumental Granite Works, Garfield Street,
Quincy. Best of stock, and workmanship
guaranteed. All orders promptly filled.

JOSS BROTHERS,
Monumental Granite Works, Garfield Street,
Quincy. Best of stock, and workmanship
guaranteed. All orders promptly filled.

JOSS BROTHERS,
Monumental Granite Works, Garfield Street,
Quincy. Best of stock, and workmanship
guaranteed. All orders promptly filled.

JOSS BROTHERS,
Monumental Granite Works, Garfield Street,
Quincy. Best of stock, and workmanship
guaranteed. All orders promptly filled.

ETNA INSURANCE COMPANY
HARTFORD, CONN.
Incorporated 1819. Charter Perpetual.
Losses Paid in 75 Years $72,756,000.
JANUARY 1, 1894.

Cash Capital, $4,000,000.00
Reserve for Re-insurance, (Fire), 2,000,000.00
Reserve for Re-insurance, (Marine), 2,000,000.00
Reserve for Unpaid Losses, (Marine), 2,000,000.00
Other Claims, 2,000,000.00
Total Assets, $10,000,000.00

JOHN HARDWICK & CO.,
GRANITE STREET,
Agents for Quincy.

Norfolk Mutual Fire Ins. Co.
DEDHAM, MASS.
Statement January 1, 1894.
Amount at Risk, $18,986,176.34
Cash Assets, 140,745.56
Total Assets, including re-insurance, 15,126,921.90

Amount of Cash Surplus, 324,334.95
Contingent Assets, 275,981.53
Total Available Assets, 600,316.48
This Company insures Buildings and Household Furniture only strictly on the Mutual plan.
It is now paying dividends on one and two year policies, 35 per cent.; on three year policies, 50 per cent.; on five year policies, 75 per cent.
J. WHITE BELLINGER, President.
ELIAH BROW, Jr., Sec. and Treas.
HOKAKE B. SPEAR, Agent for Quincy
April 26. 1f

QUINCY
Mutual Fire Insurance Co
INCORPORATED IN 1851.
COMMENCED BUSINESS IN 1851.
CHAS. A. HOWLAND, WILLIAM H. FAY, Secretaries

CASH FUND JANUARY 1, 1893.
$627,778.42
(A gain of $17,751.82)
SURPLUS OVER ALL LIABILITIES,
$735,961.81.
(A gain of $13,839.98)
AMOUNT AT RISK,
$32,583,088.
(A gain of $649,821)
Losses paid in 1892, $50,352.29
Dividends paid in 1892, $65,380.98
Jan. 21.

INSURANCE AGENCY,
ESTABLISHED in Quincy in the year 1849.
Insurance effected in reliable and safe
Stock and Mutual Offices.
By W. PORTER & CO.,
At No. 27 State Street, Boston
Residence, Hancock Street, Quincy

DORCHESTER
MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE CO.,
OF BOSTON.
P. O. Address, Neponset, Mass.

JANUARY 1st, 1894.
Amount at Risk, $27,176,880.00
Cost to Re-insure and Pay Losses, 209,074.70
Cash Assets, - - - 340,237.00
Deposits, Notes, - - - 418,149.39
Cash Surplus, - - - 132,237.30
THOS. F. TEMPLE,
President and Treasurer.

W. D. C. CURTIS,
Secretary.
3 year, 5 years, 10 years' policies
Dividends, 25 50 75 per cent.

LACE CURTAINS
Grass Bleached and Refinished
EQUAL TO NEW.
James Oliver & Son
South St. Opposite Dr. Harlow's.
Box 25, Quincy Point, Mass. 2m
April 28.

YOU WEAR CORSETS.
Have You Tried the FAMOUS
Mme. GRISWOLD
MAKE?
In all styles from $1.50 up
Corsets made to order, boned with pure
Wholesale, $2.00 and upwards.
No. 7 Temple Place, Boston, Mass.
April 7. 6m

JOHN F. KEMP,
MACHINIST,
Bicycles Repaired.
82 WATER STREET, SOUTH QUINCY.
Sept. 18. 1f

F. T. APPLETON
HAS the largest stock of Wall Paper in Boston dealer, having Twenty Thousand Rolls in Stock
Of the Latest Designs.
First-class Work Guaranteed.
Room Mouldings and Window Shades to Order
Repairing Wringers and Squeegees.
Sept. 1. 1f

WHY EMPLOY BOYS
TO MOVE
Pianos and Furniture
It Touches
the Spot.
B-I
Tobacco
goes to the right place.
Is a chew that satisfies.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT.
PUBLISHED
Saturday Mornings,
- BY -
GREEN & PRESCOTT,
Editors and Proprietors.

THE PATRIOT is published in the only city in Norfolk County, and is one of the oldest newspapers in the State, being established in 1837. Its average circulation is over 2200
copies weekly.

OFFICE OF PUBLICATION,
No. 115 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
TERMS: - $2.50 per year in advance. $3.00
if not paid before the close of the year.
W. ELIZABETH GREEN, GEO. W. PRESCOTT,
Publishers.

July Days.
Softly drowsed the honey bees;
Blossoms scented in the breeze;
Golden is the grain.
Over all the faintest haze
Rests, and song birds pierce their lays
In a sweeter strain.

From the meadow comes the scent
Of the new hay clove sent;
In the topaz sky
Fleecy clouds, like ship at sea
Floating onward lazily,
Or at anchor lie.

Nature now is doubly dear
To my soul, for doubly near,
At July's behest,
Has come, and coming brings
Surcease from all weary things - Blissful sense of rest.
- Chicago Morning Post.

Miscellany.
A LILY LAD.
MARY LOWE DICKINSON.

Lazily the train pulled up at a sleepy
looking station in the heart of New Jersey.
Around the station a few languid looking Jerseymen lounged in their shirt sleeves, smoking or chewing a straw. Nobody got off the train, nobody got on. One of the straw-suckers started with a slow, swag-
gering stride to pick up the latest mail bag that was ever dropped. Before he could get it, a ten-year-old freckled boy sprang for it, seized and swung it around his young shoulders and gave it a toss into the corner's hands.

"He was barefooted and bare-legged, both
below and an inch or two above the knee,
for his knickerbockers had not kept pace
with a pair of little brown legs.

"He wore a checked cotton shirt, over which one striped suspender took the responsibility of the much striped trousers. A straw hat with a hole in the top, was pushed back from a forehead very white in comparison with the sun-browned checks. Out of this hole two or three yellow, curly locks stole, and against them
lay a half-blown water-lily.

"Oh, that lily, how lovely! I haven't seen one for years," said a lady at the window of a drawing-room. "Do give it to me. He drew near he took off his hat, and there, nestled against a bod of the coldest stems, lay a bunch of the unopened lilies.
Between them and his head a wet cotton handkerchief hid him. He stood on tip toe, and lifted the hat to her and she took them every one, and fumbled in her purse,
as the train began to move.

"Here boy, here's some change."
"No, no, toss me my hat, ma'am - I don't want any money."
"Why didn't you get them to sell?"
"I got them for my mother."
"Is she the train?"
"No, she's home - she's sick. She likes the lilies by her bed."
"But I don't wish to take them from her."
"I can get plenty more."
"Then let me pay you for your trouble.
See, here have your hat, and you will need, they're new; give it to me, please."

If you must draw the line
at lard

and have, like thousands of other people, to avoid all food prepared with it, this is a clean, delicate and healthful vegetable shortening, which can be used in its place. If you will

USE
COTTOLENE

instead of lard, you can eat pie, pastry and the other "good things" which other folks enjoy, without fear of dyspeptic consequences. Deliverance from lard has come.

Buy a pail, try it in your own kitchen, and be convinced.
Beware of imitations.

Sold in 3 and 5 pound pails, by all grocers.

Made only
by
The N. K. Fairbank Company, CHICAGO,
224 State St., Boston,
Portland, Me.

H. O. SOUTHER,
MASON AND CONTRACTOR.
Agent for Akron Drain and Sewer Pipe,
Quincy, Mass.

Plaster and Ornamental Brick Work,
Plastering and Cement Work.

ORNAMENTAL CENTRES
FURNISHED AND PUT UP.
Shop - No. 4 Canal St.
Residence - No. 142 Washington St.

JAMES R. WILD,
Manufacturer of all kinds of Carriages, Wagons
-AND-Harness,
46 AND 48 HANCOCK STREET,
Quincy, Mass.

REPAIRING A SPECIALTY.
Practical Horse Shoeing.
Telephone No. 9709.
June 5. 1f

S. SCAMMELL,
Wheelerwright,
CARRIAGE BUILDER AND PAINTER.
-ALSO-
HORSE SHOEING AND JOBBING
By First-class Workmen.
All orders promptly attended to and faithfully Executed.
Thankful for past favors, a liberal share of patronage is solicited.
Shop, Quincy Avenue.

YOU WEAR CORSETS.
Have You Tried the FAMOUS
Mme. GRISWOLD
MAKE?
In all styles from $1.50 up
Corsets made to order, boned with pure
Wholesale, $2.00 and upwards.
No. 7 Temple Place, Boston, Mass.
April 7. 6m

JOHN F. KEMP,
MACHINIST,
Bicycles Repaired.
82 WATER STREET, SOUTH QUINCY.
Sept. 18. 1f

F. T. APPLETON
HAS the largest stock of Wall Paper in Boston dealer, having Twenty Thousand Rolls in Stock
Of the Latest Designs.
First-class Work Guaranteed.
Room Mouldings and Window Shades to Order
Repairing Wringers and Squeegees.
Sept. 1. 1f

WHY EMPLOY BOYS
TO MOVE
Pianos and Furniture
It Touches
the Spot.
B-I
Tobacco
goes to the right place.
Is a chew that satisfies.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT.
PUBLISHED
Saturday Mornings,
- BY -
GREEN & PRESCOTT,
Editors and Proprietors.

THE PATRIOT is published in the
only city in Norfolk County, and is one of the oldest newspapers in the State, being established in 1837. Its
average circulation is over 2200
copies weekly.

OFFICE OF PUBLICATION,
No. 115 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
TERMS: - $2.50 per year in advance. $3.00
if not paid before the close of the year.
W. ELIZABETH GREEN, GEO. W. PRESCOTT,
Publishers.

July Days.
Softly drowsed the honey bees;
Blossoms scented in the breeze;
Golden is the grain.
Over all the faintest haze
Rests, and song birds pierce their lays
In a sweeter strain.

From the meadow comes the scent
Of the new hay clove sent;
In the topaz sky
Fleecy clouds, like ship at sea
Floating onward lazily,
Or at anchor lie.

Nature now is doubly dear
To my soul, for doubly near,
At July's behest,
Has come, and coming brings
Surcease from all weary things - Blissful sense of rest.
- Chicago Morning Post.

Miscellany.
A LILY LAD.
MARY LOWE DICKINSON.

Lazily the train pulled up at a sleepy
looking station in the heart of New Jersey.
Around the station a few languid looking Jerseymen lounged in their shirt sleeves,
smoking or chewing a straw. Nobody got off the train, nobody got on. One of the straw-suckers started with a slow, swag-
gering stride to pick up the latest mail bag
that was ever dropped. Before he could get it, a ten-year-old freckled boy sprang
for it, seized and swung it around his young shoulders and gave it a toss into
the corner's hands.

"He was barefooted and bare-legged, both
below and an inch or two above the knee,
for his knickerbockers had not kept pace
with a pair of little brown legs.

"He wore a checked cotton shirt, over
which one striped suspender took the responsibility of the much striped trousers. A straw hat with a hole in the top, was pushed back from a forehead very
white in comparison with the sun-browned
checks. Out of this hole two or three yellow, curly locks stole, and against them
lay a half-blown water-lily.

"Oh, that lily, how lovely! I haven't seen one for years," said a lady at the window of a drawing-room. "Do give it to me. He drew near he took off his hat, and there, nestled against a bod of the coldest
stems, lay a bunch of the unopened lilies.
Between them and his head a wet cotton
handkerchief hid him. He stood on tip
toe, and lifted the hat to her and she took them every one, and fumbled in her purse,
as the train began to move.

The Quincy Patriot.
PUBLISHED
Saturday Mornings,
- BY -
GREEN & PRESCOTT,
Editors and Proprietors.

THE PATRIOT is published in the
only city in Norfolk County, and is one of the oldest newspapers in the State, being established in 1837. Its
average circulation is over 2200
copies weekly.

OFFICE OF PUBLICATION,
No. 115 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
TERMS: - $2.50 per year in advance. $3.00
if not paid before the close of the year.
W. ELIZABETH GREEN, GEO. W. PRESCOTT,
Publishers.

July Days.
Softly drowsed the honey bees;
Blossoms scented in the breeze;
Golden is the grain.
Over all the faintest haze
Rests, and song birds pierce their lays
In a sweeter strain.

From the meadow comes the scent
Of the new hay clove sent;
In the topaz sky
Fleecy clouds, like ship at sea
Floating onward lazily,
Or at anchor lie.

Nature now

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JULY 7, 1894.

The Fourth in Quincy.

The boys made things lively "the night before the Fourth" and from the events of the day chronicled below it will be seen there was quite a little going on in this city.

The Night Before.

As usual the boys were out in full force "the night before the Fourth" to celebrate and they succeeded in getting out of a large quantity of alcoholic stimulants and in burning a considerable powder.

The mixing of beer with the amount of enthusiasm that generally fills some people on the night before the National holiday, resulted as might have been expected.

On the whole it was generally quiet until midnight when the cannon in the hands of some of the members of the Cycle club awoke the stillness of Granite street and put sleep out of the question for the time being.

Open house was the rule throughout the city. The Granite City Cycle Club, Quincy Cycle club and Francis L. Southern camp, S. V., serving refreshments to their members at midnight.

The concussion caused by firing a small cannon on Granite street Tuesday night broke some of the glass in the windows of the Granite bank.

The Sons of Veterans Drum Corps paraded through Hancock street in the vicinity of midnight, which served as a warning to the citizens that the Fourth was here once more.

Special Officer McNeil had a hard time of it Tuesday night at Brewer's corner, which is one of the worst sections in the city. The affair happened about the usual time. The officer was trying to prevent a crowd of hoodlums from committing some piece of devilry, when the crowd rushed into him and used him rather roughly, also tearing off his badge.

At Wollaston.

The night before the 4th at Wollaston was quiet for the acts of vandalism which were committed there for the usual amount of noise. Up to midnight there was some random firing and horn blowing, but when 12 o'clock came the 4th was ushered in with a fusillade of crackers and pistols, and the testing of horns.

Officers were on duty, Officer Behan being assisted by Officers Sparrow, Seelye and Dawson. Officer Dawson was detailed to cover the Park district, the other three covering Wollaston proper. The force was wholly inadequate to properly protect property.

At Hose 2's house Assistant Engineer Sparrow, Captain Burns, Driver Nicholson, John P. Thomas and other members of the company were on duty from Tuesday night to Thursday morning.

Several acts of vandalism were reported. Shortly after half past two o'clock in the morning Slag Hill and his two companions ran a laundry in the Wollaston hotel building, were awakened by a loud crash. A crowd of hoodlums had thrown several rocks at the doors, staving them in, breaking the glass and woodwork and smashing the screen door, badly wrecking the front of the building. A light of glass was also broken in one of the side windows by a cannon cracker. It was a dastardly outrage.

The locality around Lord's stable next came in for a share of the vandalism. The stable was entered by the hoodlums, who took one of the carriages was taken off and run out and strung up on top of a telegraph pole. A wrench was then procured by the crowd and one of James J. Lord's heavy express wagons was jacked up and the four wheels removed from the axle.

F. J. Perry's store was visited and several large pieces of drain pipe were blown up by exploding American crackers in them.

An attempt was made to burn the Beal street bridge, but Officer Sparrow, Dawson and Mr. Arthur Lilly extinguished the blaze before any damage was done.

All of the street sign boards at the Park were taken down and piled up on a lot of land.

A section of a plank walk was taken from Mr. Chandler W. Smith's residence and placed on the piazza of the Hewison apartment house, Brook street.

A large Wollaston Land Co. sign was found perched on top of the piazza of the Woodworth house at the corner of Beale and Taylor streets.

The Fire Alarms.

The alarm from Box 45 at 10.10 Tuesday night was rung in for a fire in a small barn on Common street, owned by Bernard Woodworth. The fire was incendiary but was put out before any damage had resulted, by a member of Hose 3, who was near by. A bottle that had contained oil was found in the hay lot.

The alarm from Box 30 at 2.55 Wednesday morning was a false one. Someone broke the glass in the box containing the key and gave the alarm.

The Bicycle Races.

Crowds gathered at Willard's corner and on Franklin street on the morning of the Fourth to witness the foot and bicycle races arranged by S. F. Willard.

At 10 A. M. there was a half-mile race for boys from 7 to 12 years of age. P. M. Donnell was first; time 3 min., 24 sec. Joseph Klock, second.

The Stouckner's race of 7 miles at 10.30 attracted the greatest crowd. Seven boys from four to twelve years of age were entered. Thomas Walker was not in it. John Yule won first prize in 19 minutes and 13 seconds. James Birnie was second in 19 minutes and 37 seconds.

The race at 11.30 was a novice race of seven miles for young men from 16 to 20 years of age. It was won by W. W. Slade in 22 minutes and 38 seconds. John Martin was second in 22 minutes and 40 seconds, and Joseph Bonner and Gus Anderson followed.

The boys' race of three miles occurred in the afternoon, and was won by Willie Patterson, with Willie Bigness second and John Cummit third. Bigness would have won had a dog not interfered.

The other two races were postponed because of the rain.

In the evening the band concert at this corner was very largely attended and much enjoyed, rounding out the day of pleasure. Mr. Willard deserves an increase of trade for the amusement furnished.

Squamous Regatta.

The first championship race of the Squamous Yacht club was sailed off the wharf at North Down Wednesday morning in a good southeast breeze.

In the first class the Gretchen was apparently an easy winner, as she finished 11 minutes ahead of her only competitor, the Agilis. The latter, however, protested her on the ground that she left the flag boat on starboard instead of on the port in the second time around.

In the second class sleep boats the Starlight won by nearly two minutes after the gun. The crew of the latter boat was the Nation's holiday, celebrated the event by dressing themselves in all sorts of costumes, divided skirts predominating. These skirts however, proved of no avail.

In the first class cat there were three entries and H. E. Burkhart's Myrtle had a walkover.

In the jib and main class the West Wind carried off the honors by 29 seconds. In the fourth class the 1492 was ruled out as she did not sail over the proper course.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JULY 7, 1894.

The Fourth in Quincy.

The boys made things lively "the night before the Fourth" and from the events of the day chronicled below it will be seen there was quite a little going on in this city.

The Night Before.

As usual the boys were out in full force "the night before the Fourth" to celebrate and they succeeded in getting out of a large quantity of alcoholic stimulants and in burning a considerable powder.

The mixing of beer with the amount of enthusiasm that generally fills some people on the night before the National holiday, resulted as might have been expected.

On the whole it was generally quiet until midnight when the cannon in the hands of some of the members of the Cycle club awoke the stillness of Granite street and put sleep out of the question for the time being.

Open house was the rule throughout the city. The Granite City Cycle Club, Quincy Cycle club and Francis L. Southern camp, S. V., serving refreshments to their members at midnight.

The concussion caused by firing a small cannon on Granite street Tuesday night broke some of the glass in the windows of the Granite bank.

The Sons of Veterans Drum Corps paraded through Hancock street in the vicinity of midnight, which served as a warning to the citizens that the Fourth was here once more.

Special Officer McNeil had a hard time of it Tuesday night at Brewer's corner, which is one of the worst sections in the city. The affair happened about the usual time. The officer was trying to prevent a crowd of hoodlums from committing some piece of devilry, when the crowd rushed into him and used him rather roughly, also tearing off his badge.

At Wollaston.

The night before the 4th at Wollaston was quiet for the acts of vandalism which were committed there for the usual amount of noise. Up to midnight there was some random firing and horn blowing, but when 12 o'clock came the 4th was ushered in with a fusillade of crackers and pistols, and the testing of horns.

Officers were on duty, Officer Behan being assisted by Officers Sparrow, Seelye and Dawson. Officer Dawson was detailed to cover the Park district, the other three covering Wollaston proper. The force was wholly inadequate to properly protect property.

At Hose 2's house Assistant Engineer Sparrow, Captain Burns, Driver Nicholson, John P. Thomas and other members of the company were on duty from Tuesday night to Thursday morning.

Several acts of vandalism were reported. Shortly after half past two o'clock in the morning Slag Hill and his two companions ran a laundry in the Wollaston hotel building, were awakened by a loud crash. A crowd of hoodlums had thrown several rocks at the doors, staving them in, breaking the glass and woodwork and smashing the screen door, badly wrecking the front of the building. A light of glass was also broken in one of the side windows by a cannon cracker. It was a dastardly outrage.

The locality around Lord's stable next came in for a share of the vandalism. The stable was entered by the hoodlums, who took one of the carriages was taken off and run out and strung up on top of a telegraph pole. A wrench was then procured by the crowd and one of James J. Lord's heavy express wagons was jacked up and the four wheels removed from the axle.

F. J. Perry's store was visited and several large pieces of drain pipe were blown up by exploding American crackers in them.

An attempt was made to burn the Beal street bridge, but Officer Sparrow, Dawson and Mr. Arthur Lilly extinguished the blaze before any damage was done.

All of the street sign boards at the Park were taken down and piled up on a lot of land.

A section of a plank walk was taken from Mr. Chandler W. Smith's residence and placed on the piazza of the Hewison apartment house, Brook street.

A large Wollaston Land Co. sign was found perched on top of the piazza of the Woodworth house at the corner of Beale and Taylor streets.

The Fire Alarms.

The alarm from Box 45 at 10.10 Tuesday night was rung in for a fire in a small barn on Common street, owned by Bernard Woodworth. The fire was incendiary but was put out before any damage had resulted, by a member of Hose 3, who was near by. A bottle that had contained oil was found in the hay lot.

The alarm from Box 30 at 2.55 Wednesday morning was a false one. Someone broke the glass in the box containing the key and gave the alarm.

The Bicycle Races.

Crowds gathered at Willard's corner and on Franklin street on the morning of the Fourth to witness the foot and bicycle races arranged by S. F. Willard.

At 10 A. M. there was a half-mile race for boys from 7 to 12 years of age. P. M. Donnell was first; time 3 min., 24 sec. Joseph Klock, second.

The Stouckner's race of 7 miles at 10.30 attracted the greatest crowd. Seven boys from four to twelve years of age were entered. Thomas Walker was not in it. John Yule won first prize in 19 minutes and 13 seconds. James Birnie was second in 19 minutes and 37 seconds.

The race at 11.30 was a novice race of seven miles for young men from 16 to 20 years of age. It was won by W. W. Slade in 22 minutes and 38 seconds. John Martin was second in 22 minutes and 40 seconds, and Joseph Bonner and Gus Anderson followed.

The boys' race of three miles occurred in the afternoon, and was won by Willie Patterson, with Willie Bigness second and John Cummit third. Bigness would have won had a dog not interfered.

The other two races were postponed because of the rain.

In the evening the band concert at this corner was very largely attended and much enjoyed, rounding out the day of pleasure. Mr. Willard deserves an increase of trade for the amusement furnished.

Squamous Regatta.

The first championship race of the Squamous Yacht club was sailed off the wharf at North Down Wednesday morning in a good southeast breeze.

In the first class the Gretchen was apparently an easy winner, as she finished 11 minutes ahead of her only competitor, the Agilis. The latter, however, protested her on the ground that she left the flag boat on starboard instead of on the port in the second time around.

In the second class sleep boats the Starlight won by nearly two minutes after the gun. The crew of the latter boat was the Nation's holiday, celebrated the event by dressing themselves in all sorts of costumes, divided skirts predominating. These skirts however, proved of no avail.

In the first class cat there were three entries and H. E. Burkhart's Myrtle had a walkover.

In the jib and main class the West Wind carried off the honors by 29 seconds. In the fourth class the 1492 was ruled out as she did not sail over the proper course.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JULY 7, 1894.

The Fourth in Quincy.

The boys made things lively "the night before the Fourth" and from the events of the day chronicled below it will be seen there was quite a little going on in this city.

The Night Before.

As usual the boys were out in full force "the night before the Fourth" to celebrate and they succeeded in getting out of a large quantity of alcoholic stimulants and in burning a considerable powder.

The mixing of beer with the amount of enthusiasm that generally fills some people on the night before the National holiday, resulted as might have been expected.

On the whole it was generally quiet until midnight when the cannon in the hands of some of the members of the Cycle club awoke the stillness of Granite street and put sleep out of the question for the time being.

Open house was the rule throughout the city. The Granite City Cycle Club, Quincy Cycle club and Francis L. Southern camp, S. V., serving refreshments to their members at midnight.

The concussion caused by firing a small cannon on Granite street Tuesday night broke some of the glass in the windows of the Granite bank.

The Sons of Veterans Drum Corps paraded through Hancock street in the vicinity of midnight, which served as a warning to the citizens that the Fourth was here once more.

Special Officer McNeil had a hard time of it Tuesday night at Brewer's corner, which is one of the worst sections in the city. The affair happened about the usual time. The officer was trying to prevent a crowd of hoodlums from committing some piece of devilry, when the crowd rushed into him and used him rather roughly, also tearing off his badge.

At Wollaston.

The night before the 4th at Wollaston was quiet for the acts of vandalism which were committed there for the usual amount of noise. Up to midnight there was some random firing and horn blowing, but when 12 o'clock came the 4th was ushered in with a fusillade of crackers and pistols, and the testing of horns.

Officers were on duty, Officer Behan being assisted by Officers Sparrow, Seelye and Dawson. Officer Dawson was detailed to cover the Park district, the other three covering Wollaston proper. The force was wholly inadequate to properly protect property.

At Hose 2's house Assistant Engineer Sparrow, Captain Burns, Driver Nicholson, John P. Thomas and other members of the company were on duty from Tuesday night to Thursday morning.

Several acts of vandalism were reported. Shortly after half past two o'clock in the morning Slag Hill and his two companions ran a laundry in the Wollaston hotel building, were awakened by a loud crash. A crowd of hoodlums had thrown several rocks at the doors, staving them in, breaking the glass and woodwork and smashing the screen door, badly wrecking the front of the building. A light of glass was also broken in one of the side windows by a cannon cracker. It was a dastardly outrage.

The locality around Lord's stable next came in for a share of the vandalism. The stable was entered by the hoodlums, who took one of the carriages was taken off and run out and strung up on top of a telegraph pole. A wrench was then procured by the crowd and one of James J. Lord's heavy express wagons was jacked up and the four wheels removed from the axle.

F. J. Perry's store was visited and several large pieces of drain pipe were blown up by exploding American crackers in them.

An attempt was made to burn the Beal street bridge, but Officer Sparrow, Dawson and Mr. Arthur Lilly extinguished the blaze before any damage was done.

All of the street sign boards at the Park were taken down and piled up on a lot of land.

A section of a plank walk was taken from Mr. Chandler W. Smith's residence and placed on the piazza of the Hewison apartment house, Brook street.

A large Wollaston Land Co. sign was found perched on top of the piazza of the Woodworth house at the corner of Beale and Taylor streets.

The Fire Alarms.

The alarm from Box 45 at 10.10 Tuesday night was rung in for a fire in a small barn on Common street, owned by Bernard Woodworth. The fire was incendiary but was put out before any damage had resulted, by a member of Hose 3, who was near by. A bottle that had contained oil was found in the hay lot.

The alarm from Box 30 at 2.55 Wednesday morning was a false one. Someone broke the glass in the box containing the key and gave the alarm.

The Bicycle Races.

Crowds gathered at Willard's corner and on Franklin street on the morning of the Fourth to witness the foot and bicycle races arranged by S. F. Willard.

At 10 A. M. there was a half-mile race for boys from 7 to 12 years of age. P. M. Donnell was first; time 3 min., 24 sec. Joseph Klock, second.

The Stouckner's race of 7 miles at 10.30 attracted the greatest crowd. Seven boys from four to twelve years of age were entered. Thomas Walker was not in it. John Yule won first prize in 19 minutes and 13 seconds. James Birnie was second in 19 minutes and 37 seconds.

The race at 11.30 was a novice race of seven miles for young men from 16 to 20 years of age. It was won by W. W. Slade in 22 minutes and 38 seconds. John Martin was second in 22 minutes and 40 seconds, and Joseph Bonner and Gus Anderson followed.

The boys' race of three miles occurred in the afternoon, and was won by Willie Patterson, with Willie Bigness second and John Cummit third. Bigness would have won had a dog not interfered.

The other two races were postponed because of the rain.

In the evening the band concert at this corner was very largely attended and much enjoyed, rounding out the day of pleasure. Mr. Willard deserves an increase of trade for the amusement furnished.

Squamous Regatta.

The first championship race of the Squamous Yacht club was sailed off the wharf at North Down Wednesday morning in a good southeast breeze.

In the first class the Gretchen was apparently an easy winner, as she finished 11 minutes ahead of her only competitor, the Agilis. The latter, however, protested her on the ground that she left the flag boat on starboard instead of on the port in the second time around.

In the second class sleep boats the Starlight won by nearly two minutes after the gun. The crew of the latter boat was the Nation's holiday, celebrated the event by dressing themselves in all sorts of costumes, divided skirts predominating. These skirts however, proved of no avail.

In the first class cat there were three entries and H. E. Burkhart's Myrtle had a walkover.

In the jib and main class the West Wind carried off the honors by 29 seconds. In the fourth class the 1492 was ruled out as she did not sail over the proper course.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JULY 7, 1894.

The Fourth in Quincy.

The boys made things lively "the night before the Fourth" and from the events of the day chronicled below it will be seen there was quite a little going on in this city.

The Night Before.

As usual the boys were out in full force "the night before the Fourth" to celebrate and they succeeded in getting out of a large quantity of alcoholic stimulants and in burning a considerable powder.

The mixing of beer with the amount of enthusiasm that generally fills some people on the night before the National holiday, resulted as might have been expected.

On the whole it was generally quiet until midnight when the cannon in the hands of some of the members of the Cycle club awoke the stillness of Granite street and put sleep out of the question for the time being.

Open house was the rule throughout the city. The Granite City Cycle Club, Quincy Cycle club and Francis L. Southern camp, S. V., serving refreshments to their members at midnight.

The concussion caused by firing a small cannon on Granite street Tuesday night broke some of the glass in the windows of the Granite bank.

The Sons of Veterans Drum Corps paraded through Hancock street in the vicinity of midnight, which served as a warning to the citizens that the Fourth was here once more.

Special Officer McNeil had a hard time of it Tuesday night at Brewer's corner, which is one of the worst sections in the city. The affair happened about the usual time. The officer was trying to prevent a crowd of hoodlums from committing some piece of devilry, when the crowd rushed into him and used him rather roughly, also tearing off his badge.

At Wollaston.

The night before the 4th at Wollaston was quiet for the acts of vandalism which were committed there for the usual amount of noise. Up to midnight there was some random firing and horn blowing, but when 12 o'clock came the 4th was ushered in with a fusillade of crackers and pistols, and the testing of horns.

Officers were on duty, Officer Behan being assisted by Officers Sparrow, Seelye and Dawson. Officer Dawson was detailed to cover the Park district, the other three covering Wollaston proper. The force was wholly inadequate to properly protect property.

At Hose 2's house Assistant Engineer Sparrow, Captain Burns, Driver Nicholson, John P. Thomas and other members of the company were on duty from Tuesday night to Thursday morning.

Several acts of vandalism were reported. Shortly after half past two o'clock in the morning Slag Hill and his two companions ran a laundry in the Wollaston hotel building, were awakened by a loud crash. A crowd of hoodlums had thrown several rocks at the doors, staving them in, breaking the glass and woodwork and smashing the screen door, badly wrecking the front of the building. A light of glass was also broken in one of the side windows by a cannon cracker. It was a dastardly outrage.

The locality around Lord's stable next came in for a share of the vandalism. The stable was entered by the hoodlums, who took one of the carriages was taken off and run out and strung up on top of a telegraph pole. A wrench was then procured by the crowd and one of James J. Lord's heavy express wagons was jacked up and the four wheels removed from the axle.

F. J. Perry's store was visited and several large pieces of drain pipe were blown up by exploding American crackers in them.

An attempt was made to burn the Beal street bridge, but Officer Sparrow, Dawson and Mr. Arthur Lilly extinguished the blaze before any damage was done.

All of the street sign boards at the Park were taken down and piled up on a lot of land.

A section of a plank walk was taken from Mr. Chandler W. Smith's residence and placed on the piazza of the Hewison apartment house, Brook street.

A large Wollaston Land Co. sign was found perched on top of the piazza of the Woodworth house at the corner of Beale and Taylor streets.

The Fire Alarms.

The alarm from Box 45 at 10.10 Tuesday night was rung in for a fire in a small barn on Common street, owned by Bernard Woodworth. The fire was incendiary but was put out before any damage had resulted, by a member of Hose 3, who was near by. A bottle that had contained oil was found in the hay lot.

The alarm from Box 30 at 2.55 Wednesday morning was a false one. Someone broke the glass in the box containing the key and gave the alarm.

The Bicycle Races.

Crowds gathered at Willard's corner and on Franklin street on the morning of the Fourth to witness the foot and bicycle races arranged by S. F. Willard.

At 10 A. M. there was a half-mile race for boys from 7 to 12 years of age. P. M. Donnell was first; time 3 min., 24 sec. Joseph Klock, second.

The Stouckner's race of 7 miles at 10.30 attracted the greatest crowd. Seven boys from four to twelve years of age were entered. Thomas Walker was not in it. John Yule won first prize in 19 minutes and 13 seconds. James Birnie was second in 19 minutes and 37 seconds.

The race at 11.30 was a novice race of seven miles for young men from 16 to 20 years of age. It was won by W. W. Slade in 22 minutes and 38 seconds. John Martin was second in 22 minutes and 40 seconds, and Joseph Bonner and Gus Anderson followed.

The boys' race of three miles occurred in the afternoon, and was won by Willie Patterson, with Willie Bigness second and John Cummit third. Bigness would have won had a dog not interfered.

The other two races were postponed because of the rain.

In the evening the band concert at this corner was very largely attended and much enjoyed, rounding out the day of pleasure. Mr. Willard deserves an increase of trade for the amusement furnished.

Squamous Regatta.

The first championship race of the Squamous Yacht club was sailed off the wharf at North Down Wednesday morning in a good southeast breeze.

In the first class the Gretchen was apparently an easy winner, as she finished 11 minutes ahead of her only competitor, the Agilis. The latter, however, protested her on the ground that she left the flag boat on starboard instead of on the port in the second time around.

In the second class sleep boats the Starlight won by nearly two minutes after the gun. The crew of the latter boat was the Nation's holiday, celebrated the event by dressing themselves in all sorts of costumes, divided skirts predominating. These skirts however, proved of no avail.

In the first class cat there were three entries and H. E. Burkhart's Myrtle had a walkover.

In the jib and main class the West Wind carried off the honors by 29 seconds. In the fourth class the 1492 was ruled out as she did not sail over the proper course.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JULY 7, 1894.

The Fourth in Quincy.

The boys made things lively "the night before the Fourth" and from the events of the day chronicled below it will be seen there was quite a little going on in this city.

The Night Before.

As usual the boys were out in full force "the night before the Fourth" to celebrate and they succeeded in getting out of a large quantity of alcoholic stimulants and in burning a considerable powder.

The mixing of beer with the amount of enthusiasm that generally fills some people on the night before the National holiday, resulted as might have been expected.

On the whole it was generally quiet until midnight when the cannon in the hands of some of the members of the Cycle club awoke the stillness of Granite street and put sleep out of the question for the time being.

Open house was the rule throughout the city. The Granite City Cycle Club, Quincy Cycle club and Francis L. Southern camp, S. V., serving refreshments to their members at midnight.

The concussion caused by firing a small cannon on Granite street Tuesday night broke some of the glass in the windows of the Granite bank.

The Sons of Veterans Drum Corps paraded through Hancock street in the vicinity of midnight, which served as a warning to the citizens that the Fourth was here once more.

Special Officer McNeil had a hard time of it Tuesday night at Brewer's corner, which is one of the worst sections in the city. The affair happened about the usual time. The officer was trying to prevent a crowd of hoodlums from committing some piece of devilry, when the crowd rushed into him and used him rather roughly, also tearing off his badge.

At Wollaston.

The night before the 4th at Wollaston was quiet for the acts of vandalism which were committed there for the usual amount of noise. Up to midnight there was some random firing and horn blowing, but when 12 o'clock came the 4th was ushered in with a fusillade of crackers and pistols, and the testing of horns.

Officers were on duty, Officer Behan being assisted by Officers Sparrow, Seelye and Dawson. Officer Dawson was detailed to cover the Park district, the other three covering Wollaston proper. The force was wholly inadequate to properly protect property.

At Hose 2's house Assistant Engineer Sparrow, Captain Burns, Driver Nicholson, John P. Thomas and other members of the company were on duty from Tuesday night to Thursday morning.

Several acts of vandalism were reported. Shortly after half past two o'clock in the morning Slag Hill and his two companions ran a laundry in the Wollaston hotel building, were awakened by a loud crash. A crowd of hoodlums had thrown several rocks at the doors, staving them in, breaking the glass and woodwork and smashing the screen door, badly wrecking the front of the building. A light of glass was also broken in one of the side windows by a cannon cracker. It was a dastardly outrage.

The locality around Lord's stable next came in for a share of the vandalism. The stable was entered by the hoodlums, who took one of the carriages was taken off and run out and strung up on top of a telegraph pole. A wrench was then procured by the crowd and one of James J. Lord's heavy express wagons was jacked up and the four wheels removed from the axle.

THE RISING SUN and SUN PASTE STOVE POLISH.

WE have yielded to the importunity of our customers to manufacture a perfect Paste Polish. We offer the "SUN PASTE" and recommend it for an after-dinner shine, and to touch up spots. Applied and polished with a cloth. Does not dry up or rust the box.

The "RISING SUN" Stove Polish in cakes has been upon the market thirty years, has an annual sale of three thousand tons, and for economy, durability and brilliancy, and for general blacking of a stove it is still unsurpassed.

MORSE BROS., Proprietors, Canton, Mass., U. S. A.

READ AND REFLECT!

10,000 ROLLS OF
WALL PAPER.
ALL NEW SPRING PATTERNS.

White Blanks, - - - 3 1-2 Cents per Roll.

Gift Papers at the Lowest Prices in the City

AT

FRANK F. CRANE,

4 CHESTNUT STREET, - - - QUINCY.

March 31.

WILSON'S MARKET

IS THE

Headquarters in the City of Quincy for

MEATS, FRUIT AND VEGETABLES.

1843 ESTABLISHED 1843

ALSO DEALERS IN

GROCERIES and WEST INDIA GOODS.

GEORGE F. WILSON & CO.,

Wilson's Building, Hancock Street, Quincy

What is

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Sucking Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria is the Children's Panacea - the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. Amos, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within their reach." CAROL MANTON, D. D., New York City.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARSONS, M. D., 1540 Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

"The Castoria Company, 71 Murray Street, New York City."

Bargains! Bargains!

Men's Tap Sole Working Bals., $1.25

Boys' Tap Sole School Shoes, 1.00

Ladies' Kid Pat. Tip Button, 1.00

Children's Kid Spring Heel Button, .50

And many other kinds too numerous to mention, at

D. B. STETSON'S,

54 WASHINGTON STREET, QUINCY.

Allen's Sarsaparilla

RECEIVES THE HIGHEST PRAISE FROM THE BEST PHYSICIANS.

DR. H. F. MERRILL, the wonderful specialist of Augusta, Maine, after giving it a thorough trial in his practice, writes the following convincing letter of praise:

"I have of late been using some of your medicine in my practice with the most pleasing and satisfactory results. I find that it acts like a charm upon the whole nervous system, and in scurvy and all cutaneous diseases. Its curative properties are fully equal to the claims made for it, and I do not know of one instance where it has not fulfilled all its claims. In cases of General Debility and Nervous Prostration it has proved itself invaluable. It also gives quick relief to dyspepsia and 'Canker' of the stomach, and is a remarkable fine restorative remedy. It is a great pleasure to be able to recommend such a remedy, as the results following its use are so wonderfully satisfactory. One great thing in its favor is its freedom from superior alcohol, and all injurious ingredients."

H. F. MERRILL.

Although Allen's Sarsaparilla is such a valuable remedy it is not at all expensive, being the largest bottle on the market for $1.00. Trial bottles 50 cts.

SOLD BY ALL DEALERS.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JULY 14, 1894.

The Brook.

You may say to the babbling brook that runs by:

What's the use of a streamlet so narrow, Why not let your white pebbles and mosses go dry.

And give your green larks to the harrow? But the brook with a ripple and wave would reply:

It is many a mile that I travel, Beneath the wood's shadow, beneath the blue sky,

O'er my long, winding bed of white gravel, I'm a narrow and shallow young brooklet I know.

But I'm merry in sunlight and shadow, And you know that I widen and deepen below.

And I musten the valley and meadow, You may say I do naught as I hurry along, But I leap over stones in light splashes, And I catch, while I'm singing the merriest song.

The sunlight in quick little flashes, The maiden-like ferns that dip in my edge, I enfold with most tender caresses; And on my far loam the low-bending sedges I entangle with sweet water cresces.

In my hurry and flurry, as onward I flow, I see no birds swing on the reeds, And catch little matches of song, as I go, From sky-larks and linnets and thrushes.

So you see I'm a merry and most busy brook, And I love my white pebbles and mosses; I love every shadow and vine-wooded nook, The gleams and the whiffs and the fumes of the forest.

If I hurry on down I shall reach the broad plain, Where the river in majesty flows; Perhaps I may reach the great rolling main, And mingle with ocean, who knoweth?

The state militia is going to be massed in Quincy on the 14th.

Barn dances are getting very popular with the summer boarders in Hingham, so says the Journal.

Bridgewater people are enjoying reduced rates for telephone service between that town and Boston.

The late Major E. P. Reed, the leading business man of Abington, left an estate valued at between $200,000 and $300,000.

The Norfolk County Gazette says, the blueberries, which are very thick this year, are attracting a great many to the Blue Hills and surrounding territory.

The picnic season is here now, and a young man can have a real good time eating luncheon on the ground, with his sisters, and his cousins and the aunts.

Brookton will issue a $40,000 school house loan, providing for the building of a two-room wooden schoolhouse and two four-room brick school buildings.

The old Baptist church at North Middleboro is being demolished. It is a famous building, being erected by Rev. Dr. Isaac Bachus during his ministry in 1805.

To marry an American, Nellie Grant Sartoris must forfeit an annual income of $25,000. In her case it isn't the first step that counts. - Somerville Journal.

A union picnic of the various temperance societies of Boston and vicinity will be held at Melville Garden, July 16. During the day addresses will be made by prominent clergymen and an entertainment will be provided.

The newspaper is a public servant whose service is so essential to the maintenance of liberty that nearly a century ago Jefferson said: "Better a free press without a free government than a free government without a free press."

The old confidence game of a man calling at houses and selling stationery with prizes of $5 and $10 in order to advertise the firm, has been played again in Abington and Hallowell recently, and several victims were caught in the toils.

Some weeks ago William Stranger of Kingston came across nine partridge eggs in a nest and he took them home carefully and placed them under a setting bantam hen. Eight of the eggs turned out the same number of frisky partridges, which are now giving their guardian serious worry with their wild antics.

Stocum's

OD LIVER OIL

WIK GUAIACOL

It is as easy to explain a cold as to catch one. The skin, exposed to a sudden change in temperature, ceases to throw off waste matter, and double duty is imposed upon the lungs. Hence, inflammation of the bronchial tubes and frequently consumption. A medicine to cure consumption must help not only the lungs but the stomach, because good appetite and good digestion are required to fortify the system. Stocum's Odorized Norwegian Cod Liver Oil, with Guaiacol, is a great flesh-maker.

Send for Book on Ome, mailed free. Prepared by T. A. Stocum Co., New York.

Allen's Sarsaparilla

RECEIVES THE HIGHEST PRAISE FROM THE BEST PHYSICIANS.

DR. H. F. MERRILL, the wonderful specialist of Augusta, Maine, after giving it a thorough trial in his practice, writes the following convincing letter of praise:

"I have of late been using some of your medicine in my practice with the most pleasing and satisfactory results. I find that it acts like a charm upon the whole nervous system, and in scurvy and all cutaneous diseases. Its curative properties are fully equal to the claims made for it, and I do not know of one instance where it has not fulfilled all its claims. In cases of General Debility and Nervous Prostration it has proved itself invaluable. It also gives quick relief to dyspepsia and 'Canker' of the stomach, and is a remarkable fine restorative remedy. It is a great pleasure to be able to recommend such a remedy, as the results following its use are so wonderfully satisfactory. One great thing in its favor is its freedom from superior alcohol, and all injurious ingredients."

H. F. MERRILL.

Although Allen's Sarsaparilla is such a valuable remedy it is not at all expensive, being the largest bottle on the market for $1.00. Trial bottles 50 cts.

SOLD BY ALL DEALERS.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JULY 14, 1894.

The Brook.

You may say to the babbling brook that runs by:

What's the use of a streamlet so narrow, Why not let your white pebbles and mosses go dry.

And give your green larks to the harrow? But the brook with a ripple and wave would reply:

It is many a mile that I travel, Beneath the wood's shadow, beneath the blue sky,

O'er my long, winding bed of white gravel, I'm a narrow and shallow young brooklet I know.

But I'm merry in sunlight and shadow, And you know that I widen and deepen below.

And I musten the valley and meadow, You may say I do naught as I hurry along, But I leap over stones in light splashes, And I catch, while I'm singing the merriest song.

The sunlight in quick little flashes, The maiden-like ferns that dip in my edge, I enfold with most tender caresses; And on my far loam the low-bending sedges I entangle with sweet water cresces.

In my hurry and flurry, as onward I flow, I see no birds swing on the reeds, And catch little matches of song, as I go, From sky-larks and linnets and thrushes.

So you see I'm a merry and most busy brook, And I love my white pebbles and mosses; I love every shadow and vine-wooded nook, The gleams and the whiffs and the fumes of the forest.

If I hurry on down I shall reach the broad plain, Where the river in majesty flows; Perhaps I may reach the great rolling main, And mingle with ocean, who knoweth?

The state militia is going to be massed in Quincy on the 14th.

Barn dances are getting very popular with the summer boarders in Hingham, so says the Journal.

Bridgewater people are enjoying reduced rates for telephone service between that town and Boston.

The late Major E. P. Reed, the leading business man of Abington, left an estate valued at between $200,000 and $300,000.

The Norfolk County Gazette says, the blueberries, which are very thick this year, are attracting a great many to the Blue Hills and surrounding territory.

The picnic season is here now, and a young man can have a real good time eating luncheon on the ground, with his sisters, and his cousins and the aunts.

Brookton will issue a $40,000 school house loan, providing for the building of a two-room wooden schoolhouse and two four-room brick school buildings.

The old Baptist church at North Middleboro is being demolished. It is a famous building, being erected by Rev. Dr. Isaac Bachus during his ministry in 1805.

To marry an American, Nellie Grant Sartoris must forfeit an annual income of $25,000. In her case it isn't the first step that counts. - Somerville Journal.

A union picnic of the various temperance societies of Boston and vicinity will be held at Melville Garden, July 16. During the day addresses will be made by prominent clergymen and an entertainment will be provided.

The newspaper is a public servant whose service is so essential to the maintenance of liberty that nearly a century ago Jefferson said: "Better a free press without a free government than a free government without a free press."

The old confidence game of a man calling at houses and selling stationery with prizes of $5 and $10 in order to advertise the firm, has been played again in Abington and Hallowell recently, and several victims were caught in the toils.

Some weeks ago William Stranger of Kingston came across nine partridge eggs in a nest and he took them home carefully and placed them under a setting bantam hen. Eight of the eggs turned out the same number of frisky partridges, which are now giving their guardian serious worry with their wild antics.

Stocum's

OD LIVER OIL

WIK GUAIACOL

It is as easy to explain a cold as to catch one. The skin, exposed to a sudden change in temperature, ceases to throw off waste matter, and double duty is imposed upon the lungs. Hence, inflammation of the bronchial tubes and frequently consumption. A medicine to cure consumption must help not only the lungs but the stomach, because good appetite and good digestion are required to fortify the system. Stocum's Odorized Norwegian Cod Liver Oil, with Guaiacol, is a great flesh-maker.

Send for Book on Ome, mailed free. Prepared by T. A. Stocum Co., New York.

Allen's Sarsaparilla

RECEIVES THE HIGHEST PRAISE FROM THE BEST PHYSICIANS.

DR. H. F. MERRILL, the wonderful specialist of Augusta, Maine, after giving it a thorough trial in his practice, writes the following convincing letter of praise:

"I have of late been using some of your medicine in my practice with the most pleasing and satisfactory results. I find that it acts like a charm upon the whole nervous system, and in scurvy and all cutaneous diseases. Its curative properties are fully equal to the claims made for it, and I do not know of one instance where it has not fulfilled all its claims. In cases of General Debility and Nervous Prostration it has proved itself invaluable. It also gives quick relief to dyspepsia and 'Canker' of the stomach, and is a remarkable fine restorative remedy. It is a great pleasure to be able to recommend such a remedy, as the results following its use are so wonderfully satisfactory. One great thing in its favor is its freedom from superior alcohol, and all injurious ingredients."

H. F. MERRILL.

Although Allen's Sarsaparilla is such a valuable remedy it is not at all expensive, being the largest bottle on the market for $1.00. Trial bottles 50 cts.

SOLD BY ALL DEALERS.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JULY 14, 1894.

The Brook.

You may say to the babbling brook that runs by:

What's the use of a streamlet so narrow, Why not let your white pebbles and mosses go dry.

And give your green larks to the harrow? But the brook with a ripple and wave would reply:

It is many a mile that I travel, Beneath the wood's shadow, beneath the blue sky,

O'er my long, winding bed of white gravel, I'm a narrow and shallow young brooklet I know.

But I'm merry in sunlight and shadow, And you know that I widen and deepen below.

And I musten the valley and meadow, You may say I do naught as I hurry along, But I leap over stones in light splashes, And I catch, while I'm singing the merriest song.

The sunlight in quick little flashes, The maiden-like ferns that dip in my edge, I enfold with most tender caresses; And on my far loam the low-bending sedges I entangle with sweet water cresces.

In my hurry and flurry, as onward I flow, I see no birds swing on the reeds, And catch little matches of song, as I go, From sky-larks and linnets and thrushes.

So you see I'm a merry and most busy brook, And I love my white pebbles and mosses; I love every shadow and vine-wooded nook, The gleams and the whiffs and the fumes of the forest.

If I hurry on down I shall reach the broad plain, Where the river in majesty flows; Perhaps I may reach the great rolling main, And mingle with ocean, who knoweth?

The state militia is going to be massed in Quincy on the 14th.

Barn dances are getting very popular with the summer boarders in Hingham, so says the Journal.

Bridgewater people are enjoying reduced rates for telephone service between that town and Boston.

The late Major E. P. Reed, the leading business man of Abington, left an estate valued at between $200,000 and $300,000.

The Norfolk County Gazette says, the blueberries, which are very thick this year, are attracting a great many to the Blue Hills and surrounding territory.

The picnic season is here now, and a young man can have a real good time eating luncheon on the ground, with his sisters, and his cousins and the aunts.

Brookton will issue a $40,000 school house loan, providing for the building of a two-room wooden schoolhouse and two four-room brick school buildings.

The old Baptist church at North Middleboro is being demolished. It is a famous building, being erected by Rev. Dr. Isaac Bachus during his ministry in 1805.

To marry an American, Nellie Grant Sartoris must forfeit an annual income of $25,000. In her case it isn't the first step that counts. - Somerville Journal.

A union picnic of the various temperance societies of Boston and vicinity will be held at Melville Garden, July 16. During the day addresses will be made by prominent clergymen and an entertainment will be provided.

The newspaper is a public servant whose service is so essential to the maintenance of liberty that nearly a century ago Jefferson said: "Better a free press without a free government than a free government without a free press."

The old confidence game of a man calling at houses and selling stationery with prizes of $5 and $10 in order to advertise the firm, has been played again in Abington and Hallowell recently, and several victims were caught in the toils.

Some weeks ago William Stranger of Kingston came across nine partridge eggs in a nest and he took them home carefully and placed them under a setting bantam hen. Eight of the eggs turned out the same number of frisky partridges, which are now giving their guardian serious worry with their wild antics.

Stocum's

OD LIVER OIL

WIK GUAIACOL

It is as easy to explain a cold as to catch one. The skin, exposed to a sudden change in temperature, ceases to throw off waste matter, and double duty is imposed upon the lungs. Hence, inflammation of the bronchial tubes and frequently consumption. A medicine to cure consumption must help not only the lungs but the stomach, because good appetite and good digestion are required to fortify the system. Stocum's Odorized Norwegian Cod Liver Oil, with Guaiacol, is a great flesh-maker.

Send for Book on Ome, mailed free. Prepared by T. A. Stocum Co., New York.

Allen's Sarsaparilla

RECEIVES THE HIGHEST PRAISE FROM THE BEST PHYSICIANS.

DR. H. F. MERRILL, the wonderful specialist of Augusta, Maine, after giving it a thorough trial in his practice, writes the following convincing letter of praise:

"I have of late been using some of your medicine in my practice with the most pleasing and satisfactory results. I find that it acts like a charm upon the whole nervous system, and in scurvy and all cutaneous diseases. Its curative properties are fully equal to the claims made for it, and I do not know of one instance where it has not fulfilled all its claims. In cases of General Debility and Nervous Prostration it has proved itself invaluable. It also gives quick relief to dyspepsia and 'Canker' of the stomach, and is a remarkable fine restorative remedy. It is a great pleasure to be able to recommend such a remedy, as the results following its use are so wonderfully satisfactory. One great thing in its favor is its freedom from superior alcohol, and all injurious ingredients."

H. F. MERRILL.

Although Allen's Sarsaparilla is such a valuable remedy it is not at all expensive, being the largest bottle on the market for $1.00. Trial bottles 50 cts.

SOLD BY ALL DEALERS.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JULY 14, 1894.

The Brook.

You may say to the babbling brook that runs by:

What's the use of a streamlet so narrow, Why not let your white pebbles and mosses go dry.

And give your green larks to the harrow? But the brook with a ripple and wave would reply:

It is many a mile that I travel, Beneath the wood's shadow, beneath the blue sky,

O'er my long, winding bed of white gravel, I'm a narrow and shallow young brooklet I know.

But I'm merry in sunlight and shadow, And you know that I widen and deepen below.

And I musten the valley and meadow, You may say I do naught as I hurry along, But I leap over stones in light splashes, And I catch, while I'm singing the merriest song.

The sunlight in quick little flashes, The maiden-like ferns that dip in my edge, I enfold with most tender caresses; And on my far loam the low-bending sedges I entangle with sweet water cresces.

In my hurry and flurry, as onward I flow, I see no birds swing on the reeds, And catch little matches of song, as I go, From sky-larks and linnets and thrushes.

So you see I'm a merry and most busy brook, And I love my white pebbles and mosses; I love every shadow and vine-wooded nook, The gleams and the whiffs and the fumes of the forest.

If I hurry on down I shall reach the broad plain, Where the river in majesty flows; Perhaps I may reach the great rolling main, And mingle with ocean, who knoweth?

The state militia is going to be massed in Quincy on the 14th.

Barn dances are getting very popular with the summer boarders in Hingham, so says the Journal.

Bridgewater people are enjoying reduced rates for telephone service between that town and Boston.

The late Major E. P. Reed, the leading business man of Abington, left an estate valued at between $200,000 and $300,000.

The Norfolk County Gazette says, the blueberries, which are very thick this year, are attracting a great many to the Blue Hills and surrounding territory.

The picnic season is here now, and a young man can have a real good time eating luncheon on the ground, with his sisters, and his cousins and the aunts.

Brookton will issue a $40,000 school house loan, providing for the building of a two-room wooden schoolhouse and two four-room brick school buildings.

The old Baptist church at North Middleboro is being demolished. It is a famous building, being erected by Rev. Dr. Isaac Bachus during his ministry in 1805.

To marry an American, Nellie Grant Sartoris must forfeit an annual income of $25,000. In her case it isn't the first step that counts. - Somerville Journal.

A union picnic of the various temperance societies of Boston and vicinity will be held at Melville Garden, July 16. During the day addresses will be made by prominent clergymen and an entertainment will be provided.

The newspaper is a public servant whose service is so essential to the maintenance of liberty that nearly a century ago Jefferson said: "Better a free press without a free government than a free government without a free press."

The old confidence game of a man calling at houses and selling stationery with prizes of $5 and $10 in order to advertise the firm, has been played again in Abington and Hallowell recently, and several victims were caught in the toils.</

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY JULY 21, 1894.

VOL. 58. NO. 29.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

W. W. JENNESS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
57 Hill Street, Boston, Mass.
Office Hours, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. Rooms 28 and 29
QUINCY OFFICE, ADAMS BUILDING.
OFFICE HOURS:
8 to 10 A. M. 6 to 9 P. M.
Quincy, May 25.

JOHN W. MCANARNEY,
Counsellor-at-Law,
Room 1, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
Hancock Street, Quincy.
Saturdays, at the office of CUTLER &
JENNEY, 220 Washington Street, Boston.
August 11.

DR. CHAS. S. FRENCH,
DENTIST,
All kinds of work in Dentistry done in the best manner.
GAS OR ETHER ADMINISTERED.
No. 80 Hancock Street.
Quincy, Aug. 8.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 5 and 6, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
Hancock Street, Quincy.
Office Hours, 9 to 12, 2 to 5, usually evenings
7 to 9.
Residence, Greenleaf Street.

DR. G. R. ENGLAND,
DENTIST,
14 Chestnut Street, Quincy, Mass.
Connected by telephone.

DR. CHARLES C. PATTEN,
DENTIST,
Will be in Wollaston every Tuesday and Friday.
OFFICE: BOSTON OFFICE:
Taylor Building, 2 Commonwealth Ave.
June 21.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST,
At Quincy, No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday.
At Boston, HOTEL PELHAM, Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

F. S. DAVIS, M. D.,
HOMOEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN,
No. 5 Elm Street, Quincy.
Connected by Telephone.
OFFICE HOURS until 9 A. M., and 2 to 4 P. M., and 6 to 8 P. M.
Quincy, Oct. 23.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.
Specialist, Orthodontia.
REMOVED TO
No. 7 TEMPLE PLACE.
New Building, Boston.
Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.
Residence, 11 Linden Place, Quincy.
Quincy, March 17.

House Cleaners, Attention!
QUINCY
ELECTRIC CARPET CLEANING WORKS.
Carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid in
the best manner at short notice.

W. W. ADAMS, G. B. LINCOLN.
Orders may be left at T. F. Mitchell's at Quincy, and at T. F. Mitchell's at Boston, Quincy Avenue.
Quincy, March 17.

Ladies' and Children's
HAIR - DRESSING - PARLORS.
M. E. FISH,
10 Chestnut Street, Quincy
SHAMPOOING, Singing, Bango and Carroll and Hair Dressing in the latest style for Street and Evening.
Dec. 10.

HERBERT F. NYE,
TEACHER OF
PIANO, ORGAN, VOICE.
Residence, Coldington Street.
P. O. Address, Box 670, Quincy, Mass.
At home Tuesday evenings.
Feb. 23.

FRANK C. CILBERT,
Teacher of Piano-forte,
190 Hancock St. Quincy.
Sept. 6.

C. H. ABBOTT,
Piano and Organ Tuner
RATES REASONABLE.
Workmanship Guaranteed.
Orders received at
E. B. South's News Depot,
Quincy, Jan. 13.

Best of references and thorough work.
All orders promptly attended to. Quincy office,
John O. Holden's Jewelry Store, Boston
office, Rose Music Store, 22 West Street,
Wollaston office, Rose's periodical store.

FRANK A. LOCKE.

LACE CURTAINS
Grass Bleached and Refinished
EQUAL TO NEW.

James Oliver & Son
South St. Opposite Dr. Harlow's.
Box 25, Quincy Point, Mass.
April 28.

F. H. CRANE & SONS,
Dealers in
HAY, GRAIN, FLOUR AND FEED
—also—
BRICK, LIME, HAIR, CEMENT
PLASTER AND DRAIN PIPE.
Bowker's Fertilizers and all kinds of Poultry Supplies, Thorley Food.
Washington St., Quincy.
Branch Store at Quincy Adams.
Telephone, 219-4. Jan. 7-11

JOHN G. THOMAS,
Slate, Tin, Copper and Composition
ROOFING.
Also Ready Roofing of all kinds.
Slate Roofs Cheaper than Shingles,
and makes your roof fire proof.
Residence, Warren Ave., Wollaston.
East side of Old Colony Railroad.
P. O. Box 144, Quincy.
June 16.

WALTER S. RANDALL,
Carpenter and Builder,
HAS removed to his new residence on Higelow Street. He is prepared to furnish estimates for house building, and will give prompt attention to all solicits a continuance of past favors.
Quincy, July 1.

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER
Pearl Street,
SOUTH QUINCY.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimated given.
Hancock Court, Quincy, Mass.

WARREN D. HIGGINS,
Architect and Builder,
Can show you a large number of Plans
for Houses which will cost from
$1,000 to $10,000.
Residence, 7 Faxon Avenue, Quincy
May 21.

NOTICE.
THE Board of Water Commissioners will until further notice, hold meetings every Thursday evening in Room No. 2, Durgin &
Merrill's block, at 7:45 o'clock. All persons having business to transact are requested to present it at these meetings.
HERBERT T. WHITMAN, Water
JOHN T. CAYANAGH, Commis-
JAMES H. STEFSON, sioners.
Quincy, June 25, 1892.

CITY OF QUINCY.
The Overseer of the Poor
WILL be at his office in the CITY
HALL, from 8 to 10 A. M. on SAT-URDAY, JULY 21, 1894.
Z. S. ARNOLD, Overseer.
Quincy, Feb. 24.

Quincy Savings Bank,
145 Hancock Street, Quincy.
President, RUPERT F. CLAFIN.
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MARSH.
Treasurer and Sec'y, GEORGE L. GILL.
Board of Investment, ROBERT F. CLAFIN,
EDWIN W. MARSH, JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
ELIAS A. BARKES.
BANK HOURS—(On and after November
1, 1893)—From 8:30 to 12 A. M. and 2 to 4
P. M.
Deposits placed on interest on the first
Tuesday of January, April, July and October.
Quincy, Oct. 7, 1893.

J. J. KENLEY,
PLUMBER.
All orders promptly attended to at reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed.
No. 9 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY.
In office formerly occupied by the Citizen's Gas Light Company.
Jan. 6. P. O. Box 808. tf

W. G. SEARS,
Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting.
WELLS DRIVEN
AND PUMPS REPAIRED.
SHOP IN PIERCE'S BLOCK,
Corner Washington and Hancock Streets.
March 24. QUINCY MASS. tf

E. M. LITCHFIELD,
HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting, and all other work will receive prompt attention. Estimates given. All work guaranteed. All work executed in a workmanlike style. Quincy, March 12.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
NATHANIEL NIGHTINGALE,
Brattle St., near Post Office.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
PEREZ JOYCE,
Quincy avenue near Liberty street.

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER.
Office and residence corner of Canal and Mechanics Streets,
Quincy, Feb. 6.

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
No. 51 HANCOCK STREET.
Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,
Robes and Hubs.
Having had several years experience in the Undertaking business, the subscriber hopes to secure the patronage of all who call on him in this line of business.
JOHN HALL,
Quincy, Mar. 10

Elocution, Physical Culture
AND
DRAMATIC ACTION.
MISS ELISE RUSSELL will receive a limited number of pupils at 211 HAN-COCK STREET, QUINCY, TUESDAYS
AND FRIDAYS.
Will also arrange and direct PANTOMINES, GREEK TABLEAUX, and STAFFE POSES.
March 10. tf

JOHN F. KEMP,
MACHINIST,
Bicycles Repaired.
82 WATER STREET, SOUTH QUINCY.
Sept. 18.

H. T. WHITMAN,
CIVIL ENGINEER
AND SURVEYOR,
ADAMS BUILDING, QUINCY.
Hours, 8 to 9 A. M.
Boston Office, 85 Devonshire Street.
Hours, 12 to 2 P. M.
N. B. Plans of nearly all the Real Estate
in the City of Quincy can be found at my office.
May 28. tf

Door Screens!
COME ONE,
HAVE YOUR Door Screens!

Door and Window
SCREENS
MADE AT SOMES' 5 Cent Store,
23 Hancock Street,
QUINCY.

Door Screens!
The greatest Hats Down Sale of TRIMMED HATS AND BONNETS
ever known in Quincy.

MILLINERY.
Call Early and Get Your Choice.
A. M. TINCLEY,
French Millinery Parlors,
Room 30 Adams Building,
QUINCY.
On same floor as Russell's store. Feb. 13

NEW
Millinery
NEW STOCK OF
HATS AND BONNETS.
In Straw and Frames.
Latest Styles in Shapes, Colors and Material.
Morning Goods a specialty.
MISS S. H. HUSSEY,
121 Hancock Street.
Opp. The Greenleaf.
Quincy, Oct. 13.

QUINCY
Mutual Fire Insurance Co
INCORPORATED IN 1881.
COMMENCED BUSINESS IN 1881
CHAS. A. HOWLAND, WILLIAM H. FAY,
President, Secretary
CASH FUND JANUARY 1, 1893,
$627,778.42
(A gain of $17,751.82.)
SURPLUS OVER ALL LIABILITIES,
$375,961.81.
(A gain of $13,829.98.)
AMOUNT AT RISK,
$32,583,088.
(A gain of $649,821.)
Losses paid in 1892, $50,352.29.
Dividends paid in 1892, $65,380.98.
Jan. 21.

INSURANCE AGENCY.
ESTABLISHED in Quincy in the year
1849 by
W. PORTER.
Insurance effected in reliable and safe
Cash Assets.
By W. PORTER & CO.,
At No. 27 State Street, Boston.
Residence, Hancock Street, Quincy

DORCHESTER
MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE CO.,
OF BOSTON.
P. O. Address, Neponset, Mass.
JANUARY 1, 1894.
Amount at Risk, $27,176,880.00
Cash Assets, $2,083,352.12
Total Assets, $29,260,232.12
Reserve for Re-insurance, (Fire), $5,025.41
Reserve for Unpaid Losses, (Fire), $5,171.01
Reserve for Unpaid Losses, (Marine), $6,000.00
Other Claims, $18,638.69
Net Surplus, $2,910,365.45
Total Assets, $32,170,600.56

JOHN HARDWICK & CO.
GRANITE STREET.
Agents for Quincy.

Norfolk Mutual Fire Ins. Co.
DEDHAM, MASS.
Statement January 1, 1894.
Amount at Risk, $18,386,176.34
Cash Assets, $70,145.26
Total Liabilities, including Unpaid Losses, $15,810.61
Amount of Cash Surplus,
Contingent Assets,
Total Available Assets, $745,827.00
This Company insures Buildings and Home-
hold Furniture only strictly on the mutual plan.
It is now paying dividends of one and two percent, 50% per cent. on three year policies, 50% per cent. on five year policies, 70% per cent.
on ten year policies.
J. WHITE BELCHER, President.
ELIJAH HOWE, JR., Sec. and Treas.
HORACE B. SPREAR, Agent for Quincy
April 25.

Education & Employment
The Quincy Patriot.
PUBLISHED
Saturday Mornings,
GREEN & PRESCOTT
Editors and Proprietors.

COMERS
COMMERCIAL COLLEGE FOUNDED 1840
Reopens September 4th.

A thorough and practical course of study in
BUSINESS AND SHORTHAND.
Preparation given to pupils to earn their own living.
Teaching by the best methods. Our record of 34 YEARS AND 23,000 PUPILS speaks for itself. Free examination by mail or in person.

COMERS COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,
COTTAGE STREET, COR. BEACH, CUSTON, MASS.
July 21. Sw to

THOS. W. LINCOLN,
Awning Maker,
266 Washington Street,
QUINCY POINT.
ITALIAN AWNINGS.
ALL KINDS OF STREETS,
BRAND IN THE MOST MANNER,
AT VERY SHORT NOTICE.

STORES, HALLS, PRIVATE RESIDENCES,
BEACH HOUSES.
May 5. Best of references given. 4m

Ranges and Parlor Stoves!
Large Assortment and Low Prices.
PLEASE CALL AND EXAMINE before purchasing elsewhere. We also keep on hand a large stock of

GRATES AND LININGS
Kitchen Furnishing Goods,
Zinc, Lead Pipe, Sheet Lead
Iron Sinks, Etc., Etc.

TIN ROOFING
A SPECIALTY.
All Furnace Work and Jobbing
will be promptly attended to.

Good Work and Low Prices Guaranteed
—AT—
SANBORN & DAMON'S.
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

BEAUTIFUL MELODIES FOR Violin and Piano
Twenty-Five Cents!!
WALTZ—Kathleen O'Connor.
"Daisy Bell."
"The Little Maid in the Woods."
"Waltz You Be My Sweetheart."
All Popular, All Perfect Goods.
Price 25 cts. each or the five Pieces
for $1.00.

JEAN WHITE,
238 Washington St., Boston, Mass.
May 12.

FURNITURE MOVING
N. C. HERSEY,
With Thirty years experience in Furniture Moving, has built another furniture wagon, and is better prepared than ever to move Furniture in and out of town.
Special attention given to the moving of Pianos and Organs.
Tip-work done at hard time prices.
All orders left at my office, No. 5 Granite
Street, or at my home, No. 10 New Road, rear of Seaboard's wheelwright shop, will be promptly attended to.
Quincy, June 9.

H. O. SOUTHER,
MASON AND CONTRACTOR.
AGENT for Akron Drain and Sewer Pipe.
Plain and Ornamental Brick Work,
Plastering and Cement Work.

ORNAMENTAL CENTRES
FURNISHED AND PUT UP.
Shop—No. 4 Canal St.
Residence—No. 142 Washington St

Does Not Bite
the Tongue
B-L
Tobacco is free from coppers or any injurious adulterations.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT.
PUBLISHED
Saturday Mornings,
GREEN & PRESCOTT
Editors and Proprietors.

THE PATRIOT is published in the
only city in Norfolk County, and is one of the oldest newspapers in the State, being established in 1837. Its average circulation is over 2200
copies weekly.

OFFICE OF PUBLICATION,
No. 115 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
TERMS:—$2.50 per year in advance. $3.00
if not paid before the close of the year.
W. ELIZABETH GREEN. DR. W. PRESCOTT.

The Berry-Pickers.
Sparrows are piping; the bold robins sing.
The blue jays are loud, and the pasture-bells
ring.
Let the grasses and burning briars,
Golden the pigeons that sit in the spires.
Happy, oh happy, oh happy today,
Out to the gates to the country away!

Sturdy arm and with finger and thumb
Eager for service the brown pickers come;
Bright in the morning the empty pails swing
Tuned to the tune the berry-songs sing.
Happy, oh happy, oh happy today,
Out to the gates to the country away!

Out of the dust and away from the streets,
Into the thickets and reedy meadows,
Ragged and shaggy they come from the city, to the gates to the country away!

Never a lull in a velvet gown,
Happy, oh happy, oh happy today,
Out of the gates to the country away!

Deep in the woods where the summer lies
dark,
Hark to the merry dog's echoing bark.
Golden-rods wave in the deep purple shades,
Nights, by the side of the little berry-
maids.

Happy, oh happy, oh happy today,
Out of the gates to the country away!

Lady Linacre's Bracelet.
On a morning early in the spring, two men stood leaning against the mantelpiece of a room in one of the Government offices. The taller of the two—who was at last in the room—was a slim, well-dressed man. "Well, the funny part of it is," he was saying lightly, "that I am dining at the Barton Smiths' this evening!"

"Ah?" his companion answered, "and
so you will see her?"

"Of course. She is to come to-morrow. But they do not know about our engagement yet, and she would not want to blurt it out the moment she arrives. Still
I thought I would tell you."

"I am glad you told me, old boy; and I congratulate you most heartily, believe me."

The Barton Smiths, whom we heard
mentioned, are tolerably well known in London. Barton Smith himself is a baronet, with money and many relations.
His wife is young, gracious and fond of society.

This particular dinner-party had been planned with some care. "Lady Linacre had said one day, at breakfast, coming a bit late, that she would be in to-morrow. But Barton Smith objected to May.
"He would talk about nothing but India,"
he protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT.
PUBLISHED
Saturday Mornings,
GREEN & PRESCOTT
Editors and Proprietors.

THE PATRIOT is published in the
only city in Norfolk County, and is one of the oldest newspapers in the State, being established in 1837. Its average circulation is over 2200
copies weekly.

OFFICE OF PUBLICATION,
No. 115 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
TERMS:—$2.50 per year in advance. $3.00
if not paid before the close of the year.
W. ELIZABETH GREEN. DR. W. PRESCOTT.

The Berry-Pickers.
Sparrows are piping; the bold robins sing.
The blue jays are loud, and the pasture-bells
ring.
Let the grasses and burning briars,
Golden the pigeons that sit in the spires.
Happy, oh happy, oh happy today,
Out to the gates to the country away!

Sturdy arm and with finger and thumb
Eager for service the brown pickers come;
Bright in the morning the empty pails swing
Tuned to the tune the berry-songs sing.
Happy, oh happy, oh happy today,
Out to the gates to the country away!

Out of the dust and away from the streets,
Into the thickets and reedy meadows,
Ragged and shaggy they come from the city, to the gates to the country away!

Never a lull in a velvet gown,
Happy, oh happy, oh happy today,
Out of the gates to the country away!

Deep in the woods where the summer lies
dark,
Hark to the merry dog's echoing bark.
Golden-rods wave in the deep purple shades,
Nights, by the side of the little berry-
maids.

Happy, oh happy, oh happy today,
Out of the gates to the country away!

Lady Linacre's Bracelet.
On a morning early in the spring, two
men stood leaning against the mantel-
piece of a room in one of the Government offices. The taller of the two—who was at last in the room—was a slim, well-
dressed man. "Well, the funny part of it is," he was saying lightly, "that I am dining at the Barton Smiths' this evening!"

"Ah?" his companion answered, "and
so you will see her?"

"Of course. She is to come to-morrow. But they do not know about our engagement yet, and she would not want to blurt it out the moment she arrives. Still
I thought I would tell you."

"I am glad you told me, old boy; and I congratulate you most heartily, believe me."

The Barton Smiths, whom we heard
mentioned, are tolerably well known in London. Barton Smith himself is a baronet, with money and many relations.
His wife is young, gracious and fond of
society.

This particular dinner-party had been planned with some care. "Lady Linacre
had said one day, at breakfast, coming a bit late, that she would be in to-morrow. But Barton Smith objected to May.
"He would talk about nothing but India,"
he protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take
me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let
me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He
would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take
me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let
me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He
would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take
me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let
me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He
would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take
me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let
me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He
would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take
me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let
me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He
would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take
me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let
me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He
would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take
me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let
me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He
would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take
me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let
me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He
would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take
me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let
me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He
would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take
me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let
me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He
would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let
me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He
would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let
me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He
would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let
me—what will be three. And Joanna
Burton—she comes that afternoon—four.
But Barton Smith objected to May. "He
would talk about nothing but India," he
protested.

"Well, James," Mrs. Barton Smith
replied to her husband, "the Hon. Verker May
is a son of Lord Hawthorn—he will take me in, and I do not mind. Only I must have Mr. Wiberley on the other side to make conversation and keep me alive. Let

The Quincy Patriot.
SATURDAY, JULY 21, 1894.

Bold Incendary.

It was about 10 o'clock Wednesday evening when the police were notified that F. H. Crane & Sons' grain store was on fire.

Officer Hanson rushed to Box 26 to give the alarm and Officer McKay to the fire. The latter officer seeing the location smashed in the window and saw a canvas bag blazing on a pile of grain. He seized a bucket of water which he threw on the flames and by that time the apparatus from the central station arrived and the fire was extinguished with trifling loss.

An investigation after the fire showed that the bag referred to was saturated with kerosene and had evidently been pushed through a broken light of glass in the side window and ignited, for Officer McKay says that when he arrived there one of the lights in the window was broken.

As usual, when Box 26 is sounded, a large crowd soon gathered.

That the fire was the work of incendiaries there can be no doubt, as several people saw three men hanging about the building, and then again the bag that was on fire was thoroughly saturated with kerosene oil.

Mrs. Joseph Harris, who resides on Codding street directly in the rear of the building, says she saw three men there all the evening.

Part of the time they were seated on the steps leading into the side entrance and part of the time they were walking up and down Codding street. Their actions were suspicious and she watched them and finally saw them run away.

George B. Nash says that he came out from Boston on the train late here at Quincy, when he went down Codding street on his way home he saw one man on the corner apparently on the watch and another standing near the side entrance. While Mrs. Harris says she saw three men, Mr. Nash saw but two.

The police are investigating the matter and it is hoped that the parties will be apprehended and brought to justice.

Grocers' Day.

All were grocers Thursday and Downer Landing was the objective point. The departure of the Quincy contingent was in a detachment. They met at Hingham about 9 A. M., where were waiting the Quincy contingent, from Braintree, Weymouth, Randolph, Holbrook, Hingham and elsewhere. Just previous to taking up the line of march at 9:30, Miss Ethel H. Studley, in behalf of the ladies, presented a letter to the grocers, a beautiful banner of purple, inscribed: "Old Colony Grocers' and Provision Dealers' Union." President Humphrey responded.

In the procession were several advertising features, making a most attractive parade. It was headed by Andrew McNeil as chief marshal and escorted by the Abington brass band.

All day long there was a continuous series of sports with valuable prizes, and all found time to partake of one of the famous shore dinners and enjoy the dance hall, bowling, boating, etc., as pleased their fancy.

The proprietors were very victorious in the great ball match, the score being 19 to 4. The race for the pig was one of the best features of the day, and his hogship was captured by F. H. Holmes of Weymouth.

The obnoxious race first took place at Braintree, and afterwards for a number of days. Contestants had to walk over a rope fence, crawl through a barrel, climb over a hay rack of boxes, pass under a ladder and back.

The race was won by William Pratt of Quincy, and J. Rayson won second prize in the swimming match.

There were also a potato race, high jump, low jump, and two 100-yard races. The potato race was won by George W. McNeil and Osborne Rogers were the committee on sports.

Among the incidents of the day might be mentioned the fact that Messrs. Tisdale and Dargis who gathered a quantity of corn and wheat for the day, and Wesley Walsh took good care of the baby; that Pratt and Rogers differed on the conduct of the police officer, that George Nash did not want to talk with the left Quincy, and that he sported one in the gardens which was quite a load for him; that Bob Johnson nearly burst when the officer wanted the crowd to stand back "that the referee might decide to whom belonged the pig."

Toot Thief Captured.

For the past two or three months Quincy thieves have been selected by a gang of thieves as a place where they could rob and enter and carry away a quantity of goods and not be detected, but like the pitcher that was carried to the well, they came once too often and thanks to the efforts of Chief Hayden and Officer Ferguson one of the gang is in the clutches of the law.

Ever since the first break these officers have been on the alert, and although up to the present time they were unable to capture the parties it has not been because they did not try.

Wednesday morning it was reported to the police that the sleds of E. C. Willison and W. A. Smith at South Quincy, had been entered and 30 bush barrels valued at $180 taken.

Word was sent to police headquarters Boston, and shortly after an Italian named Antonio G. Carisano was arrested by officers of station 4 in a pawn shop on Kneeland street in the act of pawning four of the barrels taken from Quincy Tuesday night.

Notice was immediately sent to Quincy and Officer Ferguson went in Boston and he brought the man out.

He is a comparatively young man, and although he doubtless can speak English if he chooses, he was silent, and all efforts to make him talk were without result.

Although this is only one of the gang it is hoped that his arrest will lead to the apprehension of the others and that the gang will be broken up.

Carisano was arraigned in the District Court Thursday morning.

Won a Diamond Medal.

Miss Elizabeth L. Randall of Attleboro, a granddaughter of the late Elizabeth Randall, of this city, and a daughter of Mr. George Randall, achieved great honors at Lakeview, Framingham, last week, which are very pleasing to her relatives, and also friends that she has made here by her marvelous golf.

It was a contest open to New England for a Demorest diamond medal, the first contest of the kind held in New England. All the States had representatives, but Miss Randall maintained the reputation and honor of Massachusetts with her selection. "A Glorious Memento" won the diamond medal valued at $150 and also a full three years' course in the Boston school of ornamental valuing at $500. Miss Randall had previously won two gold and one silver medal in similar contests.

Quincy Yacht Club.

Ladies' day of the Quincy Yacht club, which is the event in the social world in this city, will take place this year on July 25. The House committee has voted to issue to each club member two guest tickets, good for either ladies or gentlemen. These tickets will admit the holders to the upper hall of the club house where the spread, orchestra concert and hop takes place.

By issuing two guest tickets to each member it gives out a total of 400 complimentary tickets and with the 200 members makes a total of 600 people who are invited to this affair. Messrs. T. D. Cook & Co. of Boston will be the caterers.

CITY BRIEFS.

Dog days begin July 25, says the almanac.

Letter carrier Gardner is enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

B. A. McLean is the new secretary of the Quincy City Club.

Miss Mattie Stearns and sister Annie are visiting at A. A. Brown's.

Miss Grace C. North of West Medford is in town for a few days' visit.

Rev. D. M. Wilson and family are at North Chatham for the season.

Miss Lulu Bably of Lynn has been visiting her sister, Miss Abbie Phelps, for a few days.

Maj. Oakes and Adj. Gibson have been assigned to the 24th Infantry, Fifth Regiment, M. V. M.

George Perry, who drives a baker cart, was killed by his horse Saturday while on Washington street.

Miss Mamie and Master Robert, Riley of Mechanics street are spending their vacation at Houghs Neck.

Chas. A. Swingle, with Swingle & Falconer, leaves for his home in Ohio, this week to visit his parents.

Rev. Thomas Hyde preached at Christ's church Sunday morning. The communion service at 9:30 was Andrew Young on finger and middle toe in the hinge of the stable door at his residence last week.

A son of W. H. Doble lost one finger and middle toe in the hinge of the stable door at his residence last week.

The new bicycle law went into effect Monday. Every wheel must carry a bell, and riding over 10 miles an hour is punishable by a fine.

Friday was the hottest morning of the season. The thermometer stood at 90 in the shade at 9 o'clock. At 2 P. M. it had climbed to 95.

The street railway did not run half enough cars Saturday afternoon to accommodate the people who wished to attend the aquatic show.

The officers of Maple lodge, Knights and Ladies of Honor, were installed Wednesday evening by deputy W. C. Pierce and suite of Wollaston.

The estate at 103 Washington street formerly occupied by Gordon McKenzie has been sold to Capt. Eugene Hultman who will occupy it immediately.

An electric car left the track on Ben's hill, Wednesday night, and brought up head on against a telephone pole. No damage was done and no one was injured.

How about the legality of one of the marriages reported today, neither of the contracting parties or the minister being a resident of the place where the marriage occurred.

Mr. and Mrs. Southard of Scotland are the guests of Andrew Young on Grand street. They are spending their time visiting the many places of interest in and about the city.

Capt. Augustus D. Holmes of Plainfield, N. J., the father-in-law of Mr. John G. Faxon formerly of this city, died on Friday last. He leaves a widow and four children.

Miss Abbie L. Rowley of Fitchburg, who has been visiting relatives in Quincy the past two weeks, left for home Tuesday, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Helen A. Mitten.

If business continues to be as brisk with the street railway as it was Sunday, the cars and a double track will be necessary. Cars were run every half hour Sunday and every car was more than loaded.

All applications for the Civil Service examinations to be held August 11, must be filed with the secretary of local board at Quincy Post Office, before the close of business, Monday, July 23.

A memorial service was held at the cemetery on Sunday afternoon for Alfred H. and Mabel Louise, children of Nelson C. Hersey, who passed away within a few hours of each other on Friday last week.

Miss Elizabeth H. Boyd of Holbrook, who has filled a year's engagement as contralto soloist at the Church of the Unity, has accepted an advanced position at Quincy, says the Randolph Register.

The steamboat and street railway companies now advertise their attractions in the DAILY LEADER, having contracted for a space for the season. The people have caught on to, and look for the announcements daily.

At the drive-whist party on Wednesday evening, Mrs. S. A. Miller, Codding street, won the lady's prize, and E. W. H. Bass the gentlemen's prize. After returning from the fire they enjoyed some of Wales' nice ice cream and cake.

F. S. Clute of Milton released three of his carrier pigeons from Houghs Neck block Saturday, and in 4 minutes they had entered their coops on Baker's Chocolate Mills. The air line distance is 34 miles. The trip is said to have been an unusual quick one.

The promptness of the DAILY LEADER in carrying the fire and the W. H. Doble building on Saturday, and the completeness has been favorably commented upon by many. They will realize the promptness more fully when informed that the paper went to press at 2:30.

Mr. George N. Nash, the general manager of the Granite Clothing Co., met with quite an accident Friday, July 13. He was riding a bicycle on School street when his wheel slipped in the mud and throwing him off. The thumb of his left hand was badly sprained and his hand was also cut in several places.

Mr. Winslow Burrell who has been a long sufferer, died suddenly on Tuesday afternoon in his 52d year. He recently moved into a new house on Edison street, having lived for a number of years on Canal street, where he did business as an upholsterer. He leaves a widow, son and daughter.

Miss Hubbard advertises military below cost.

Prof. C. J. Brown has a new steam launch, "Emma."

John H. Griffin of Quincy avenue has gone to Centron Harbor.

Mr. John A. McDonnell and family are at the Vogel Cottage, Houghs Neck, for the season.

The permanent police and firemen have been given complimentary tickets on the new steamer.

They tell us it is not, very hot but that it is disagreeable and "Old Humidity" is responsible for this weather.

Past Grands Sietson, Folsom and Cobb attended the Houghs Neck picnic at Great pond, Braintree, Thursday.

Miss Edith Cole of Jamaica Plain is spending the week with Mrs. John W. Hersey of Codding street.

Dr. Hallowell has returned from his summer outing in Maine. He says the strawberries were just getting ripe down East.

A party of Epworth Leagues of Atlantic and their friends to the number of about 20 enjoyed a moonlight trip to Nantasket last Tuesday evening.

In the league game Saturday between the Quinys and Holbrooks at Merry Mount park, Slade plays in the Quinys in the place of Ward who has been dropped.

Mr. B. J. Langhorne of 19 Codding street, and bookkeeper for Cook & Watkins, left Friday for England, for a sojourn of two months among relatives and friends.

The question has been asked, when did the City Council make an appropriation for band concerts? The answer is they did not and the band is furnished by the street railway.

Mr. Edward Lovejoy, who recently sold his beautiful residence on Neponset avenue, Pope's Hill, has bought a large lot of land of Mayor William A. Hodges, and is now building a new house for himself and family on Butler road, Quincy.

The Swedish Lutheran society had a very pleasant lawn party Saturday evening at Mr. Faxon's orchard on Savin avenue. The band played several numbers, and Mr. Carlson entertained those present with quite a display of fireworks. The ice cream was furnished by H. H. Faxon.

Has one seen designs on the life of our Gales? It would seem so, for the other night while seated in Nabe's ice cream factory humming to himself that familiar air, "Come where my love lies dreaming," a brick went through the window and struck him on the head. Fortunately he has a thick skin, otherwise he might have been seriously injured. As it was, no material damage was done.

It was reported Thursday that an accident had happened to the City of Quincy, as she did not make her morning trip to the disappointment of a large party.

The management, however, says there was no accident, but the boat was simply beached that the new blade of the propeller might be put in. The holiday, however, was a bad day to suspend trips.

Considerable fault has been found by a large number of Wollaston citizens the past couple of months because the city has been spreading large quantities of non-binding gravel upon the sidewalks, especially on Lincoln avenue near the Congregational church, and also on Beale street. The Lincoln avenue sidewalk is so gravelly that for over two months pedestrians, who have had occasion to use that thoroughfare, invariable walk in the street.

New arrivals at The Greenleaf are: William O. Martin, A. P. Newcomb, M. J. Newman, J. C. Newman, J. W. Bartholomew, Mrs. F. C. Kimball, John Carr, C. Rohlfalt, Edwin T. Frost, S. G. Howe, J. D. French, M. D. French, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Morris, Boston; Frederick D. Ely, Dedham; and Mrs. Lavinia Cross, Ponkapog.

Mrs. H. W. Smalley, Mrs. William Robertson, South Framingham; M. S. Meyer, New York; William Duane, Cambridge; Arthur Gray, East Walpole.

Mr. Bernhard Schroeder of Wollaston Heights, who has been for 12 years at the head of the German department of the Boston School of Languages, began July 11 instructing a large class in German at the rectory of the Congregational church at Wollaston Heights. Mr. Schroeder will also have charge of a class being formed this week on Adams street. At his method is an interesting one and easily to be grasped, and claims to give a fair knowledge of the language in the shortest possible time, we may believe more of our literary people will avail themselves of the opportunity which his presence among them affords.

NORFOLK DOWNS.

The Squantum Yacht club race is today at 12:30.

The residents of Wollaston park greatly appreciated the band concert, which was given on Thursday evening. It is not often that that locality is favored with a concert.

Mr. Humphrey of Boston is putting in the foundation of a new house on Royal street.

Mr. Perkins of Boston has commenced work on the cellar of a $5,000 house on Billings road.

M. S. Sanford of Somerville has commenced work on the cellar for a new house on Freeman street.

The next race of the Squantum Yacht club will be sailed Saturday off Norfolk Downs at 12:30 o'clock.

Mr. E. F. Chute accidentally struck his head against a door casing Sunday, cutting a deep gash that required several stitches to sew up.

HOUGHS NECK.

Mass was celebrated Sunday at the new Houghs Neck chapel by Rev. F. A. Fringelicht.

Mails close for Quincy at 8 A. M. and 5 P. M. Arrive at 8:50 and 6 P. M.

A letter hanging in the postoffice is a letter hanging in the wind. A letter hanging in the wind is a letter hanging in the wind.

The Congregational Sunday School held its annual picnic at Downer's, Wednesday. The stores of East Milton closed Thursday in honor of Grocers' day.

WOLLASTON.

A delightful lawn party was given by Mrs. James J. Lord of Wollaston, on her extensive grounds, on Thursday evening, in aid of St. Chrysostom's Episcopal society. The affair was under the immediate charge of Miss Caroline Raymond Lord and Mr. P. L. Davidson, assisted by the Women's Guild of the society.

Among the distinguished gentlemen present were the Rev. Walter Russell Bred, rector of Christ's church, Quincy; the Rev. James E. Bagley of the Wollaston Unitarian church; the Rev. Edward A. Robinson of the Wollaston Congregational church, and Mr. Henry H. Faxon. Mr. Faxon very generously donated ten gallons of ice cream.

The grounds were illuminated by hundreds of Japanese lanterns and music was discoursed by a Boston orchestra.

The affair was a decided success both financially and socially.

The Ladies' Society of the Methodist Episcopal church held a lawn party on the church grounds, Thursday afternoon and evening, for the benefit of the Wollaston Unitarian church. The occasion was enjoyed both by the adults and children who were present. Lunch with lemonade and ice cream were served from 5 o'clock to 8.

Miss Emma Winslow of Wollaston is recreating at North Woodstock, N. H.

Mr. Charles H. Brigham and Mr. E. H. Sprague of Wollaston started Friday for New Hampshire over the road.

We welcome the Golden Age to Wollaston. Mr. Golden and sister from West Union in Lafayette, Indiana, and Miss Helen from West Union in Lawrence, Mass. Mr. Breen of Lawrence is spending his vacation with them.

Miss Grace Emery, teacher at the Lincoln school and Miss Mabel Townsend of Holbrook, teacher at the Blind Asylum, South Boston, with their escorts Mr. Hartley W. and Mr. Jesse Emery, accompanied by Mrs. A. B. Bagley of Holbrook are camping at Sherman's Point, Camden, Maine. Although each of these couples have been engaged during the past year, the young ladies have been re-elected to their positions and will teach the coming year. They are having splendid weather for their coast outing.

On Friday afternoon, the 13th inst., the Misses Linnell gave a lawn party in honor of their cousin, Master Fred L. Gross, at their residence in Wollaston Park. Among those present were Misses Julia and Susie Page, Rena Grant, Grace Milberry and Master Harold Polk. Refreshments were served, which were very delicious.

Mrs. W. R. Campbell of Wollaston is spending a few weeks at the Cape.

Mrs. R. B. Smith of Wollaston has gone to Amsterdam, N. Y., where she will spend a few weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. G. H. Brainerd scored 107 at the rifle shot at the Duck's Nest, Wollaston, and won a box of cigars. He also won the first box that was put up and Mr. Seymour Field won the second.

D. D. G. Murray and suite were royally entertained by Wollaston lodge, K. of H., on Monday evening. After a beautiful collation there were speeches by the guests and members of the lodge.

Miss Elizabeth E. Jones of Wollaston is visiting friends in New York.

Mr. Daniel B. Lincoln of Wollaston has leased one of the Mear's cottages at Houghs Neck.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. William S. King of Wollaston were held from her late home on Winthrop avenue, on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services were of a simple character and were attended by a large number of relatives and friends. The interment took place at the Watertown cemetery on Sunday.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Wollaston Co-operative Bank, held on Tuesday evening, $4,300 dollars was sold at 5 and 10 cents premium.

There has been an exciting rifle shoot at the Duck's Nest, Wollaston, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday last. The shooting was done by the Wollaston Rifle Club, and was very successful. The winners were: Mr. G. H. Brainerd, 107; Mr. G. H. Brainerd, 107; Mr. G. H. Brainerd, 107.

Carlton W. Stocker of Boston street, Atlantic, gave a birthday party to seven of his young friends from 3 to 5 Saturday. A collation of ice cream, cake and lemonade was served.

QUINCY POINT.

Superintendent Stowers and family of Hyde Park are spending the summer at Quincy Point.

Sunday was a busy day with the new steamer City of Quincy, something over 100 passengers being carried. Every trip would load on several trips all could be taken that desired to go. Even the band was sent home that the space occupied by them might be given to passengers.

The Sunday School of the Wollaston Street Congregational church, held its regular service on Sunday, July 15, 11 o'clock. Sunday School following, Epworth League prayer meeting at 6:45 P. M. Song service and preaching at 7:30 P. M.

WEST QUINCY.

The dividing line of the new voting precincts in Ward Four have been posted. Wollaston Street of Willard street is sick.

The frame of the new house shown in Ward Four is up.

Mr. E. F. Chute accidentally struck his head against a door casing Sunday, cutting a deep gash that required several stitches to sew up.

The water department is laying a ten-inch pipe on Centre street. It will ultimately be a main artery through West Quincy to Wollaston completing a circuit.

A large number of West Quincy people took advantage of the inducements offered by the Quincy & Nantasket Steamboat company to carry their families to Nantasket. West Quincy had a great attraction for Friday afternoon, a female ball club from New York being scheduled to play the West Quincy nine on Hall place.

William F. Powers of Quincy, took second prize in men's race at the picnic of the Knights of Columbus at Lovell's grove, Thursday.

Some of the young people of the Epworth League gathered on the grounds of the Methodist parlour, Wednesday evening, for a lawn party.

Ice cream and cake were served; and good cold water from Mr. Fuller's Shawmut Spring. Chinese lanterns were hung about the grounds, which were not all lighted on account of the wind. Fireworks furnished by Miss Emma Kimball followed the picnic, and a part of the company enjoyed music and the pictures and photograph albums of the pastor in the house. A very pleasant evening was spent, and quite a number of social folk looked on from the street.

SOUTH QUINCY.

The street railway had will give a concert Saturday evening at Willard's corner. On the South Quincy park today the South Quincy nine will play the Somerville.

Miss Margaret Ferguson, a sister of Officer Ferguson, died on Thursday, after a lingering illness, at the age of 39 years. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon, July 22, at 2 o'clock.

F. Barnicot & Co. report an unusual large number of orders for granite slabs, since the act of 1893 contemplates the establishment of sinking funds, which the cities and towns affected are to contribute, and which will in the course of 40 years reimburse the State for its expenditure now.

The scale and proportion of assessments remains fixed after being settled for five years, whatever the requirements in the matter of appropriations now unforeseen by the park commission may be. He pointed out that by amendment this year of the act of 1893 there is no limitation placed upon the amount that may be expended by the park commission in the acquisition and preservation of the park system in the metropolitan district.

The provisions of the numerous statutes under which the park commission exercises its authority, namely, the original park act of 1880, the amended act, the Revised Beach act and the Charles River act, were explained. By the first $1,000,000 was appropriated, a considerable portion of which has been spent; by the boulevard act of 1894 $200,000 was appropriated, and which nothing has as yet been done; the same is true of the $300,000 appropriated by the Charles River act, while the amount appropriated by the so-called Revised Beach act of 1890, was simply an addition to the original $1,000,000 given and was not to be spent specifically for the improvement of Revised Beach alone.

He explained that the park commission does not desire things under the park act, but that nothing could be definitely forecast as to what lands are to be taken in the future, or as to the prospects of the ultimate cost of those already taken.

He admitted that the problem to be solved by this board is a much more difficult one than that which confronted a similar board a few years ago assessed the cost of the construction of the metropolitan sewer system.

City Solicitor Blackman, in common with most of the solicitors who spoke, urged an adjournment of the hearing for several months, until plans and specifications could be submitted by the Metropolitan Park Commissioners as to all the takings and the proposed boulevards. He considered it unfair to all, to apportion the assessments now. In the case of Quincy the land taken was the outskirts, from three to six miles from City Hall, and in the quarry region. With a boulevard making it possible, it would be one thing, but otherwise quite another.

One suggested that it may turn out that the simplest and most judicious way of settling this matter will be to consider this whole district as one great metropolitan city so far as park purposes are concerned, assess the expenses upon the basis of valuation or population, but there was some objection to this.

It was urged that there could be no harm and no delay of any embarrassment in postponing this hearing, because the state treasurer will not send out his warrants calling for the cost of the takings until the cities and towns before next June anyhow. Meantime there will be an opportunity for this matter to mature and for the committee to lay out some more definite plans.

Metville Gardens, Dover Landing. Downer Landing is as attractive as ever, and Quincy people may reach it easily by train to Hingham where larger connect, or it is a very pretty drive from this city. The chalets and dance hall are very popular, but these are only a small part of the attractions. The familiar faces of J. D. Scudder, George L. Odiorne and others are there this season, and Quincy people are warmly greeted. Supper, Scudder hopes to see the line of Quincy electric extended to the gardens before another season, and so would Quincy and Weymouth people.

A number of years ago, a number of one of the old churches in Quincy presented it with some elegant stained glass which he had brought from Paris. It was rich crimson in color, and was very effective when the sun shined on the church, behind the pulpit. The course of time has faded it, and recently John H. Pray, Sons & Co. had new stuff made in Paris after the color and fashion of the original. About one hundred yards were required, which made a rather expensive drapery at something like $8 per yard.—Boston's letter to Philadelphia Upholsterer.

—Mr. Thomas Adams of Dorchester, died on Saturday at the residence of his son, Mr. Walter Adams, aged 92 years.

A horse kicked H. S. Shaffer, of the Free Press, Middlebury, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shaffer has recommended it to many others and says it is excellent for any kind of bruise or sprain. This same remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism.

For sale by Druggists and Dealers Every where.

THE LEADING WATERING PLACE.

SPECIAL TRIP

NEWPORT

WEDNESDAY, JULY 25, 1894.

READ THE LOW FARES.

LEAVE	QUINCY	RATE
BRANDREE	9:30 A. M.	$1.00
SOUTH BRANTREE	9:40	1.00
RANDOLPH	9:48	1.00
NORTH BRANTREE	9:58	1.00
NORTH EASTON	10:06	1.00
EASTON	10:10	1.00
RAYNHAM	10:20	1.00
WATERBURY	10:30	1.00
TAUNTON CENTRAL	10:35	1.00
WIR VILLAGE	10:40	1.00
NORTH DIGHTON	10:45	1.00
DIGHTON	10:51	1.00
SOMERSET	10:57	1.00

Excursion tickets must be purchased before taking the cars, or regular fare will be collected.

New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad.

OLD COLONY SYSTEM.
E. G. ALLEN, Gen'l Supt. Pass & Traffic Manager.
C. KENDALL, Gen'l Pass Agent.
July 21.

For Sale Cheap.

A PAIR of heavy Team Horses. Apply to Mr. H. W. Wainwright, Quincy, July 13.

WANTED.

QUINCY PATRIOT ESTABLISHED 1837.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY JULY 28, 1894.

VOL. 58. NO. 30.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

COAL, COAL, COAL!

Don't fail to have your coal put in at the low figures which we can now give you.

Just Received Fresh from the Mines, Several Cargoes of the ## BEST RED ASH COAL

EVER SHIPPED TO QUINCY.

Red Ash
Egg,
$5.75.

Red Ash
Stove,
$6.00.

Red Ash
Nut,
$6.00.

THESE ARE CASH PRICES.

We guarantee you perfectly clean coal free from Screenings and Dirt, which means a saving of from 25 to 50 cents per ton.

C. PATCH & SON.

P. S. PATCH.

Mention the PATRIOT in ordering.

Quincy, July 14.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST.
Room 5 and 6, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office Hours, 8 to 12, 1 to 5, usually evenings
7 to 8. Residence, Greenleaf street.

DR. G. R. ENGLAND,
DENTIST.
14 Chestnut Street, Quincy, Mass.
Connected by telephone.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy, No. 10 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston, HOTEL PELHAM, Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. CHAS. S. FRENCH,
DENTIST.
All kinds of work in dentistry done in the
best manner.
GAS or ETHER ADMINISTERED.
No. 80 Hancock Street.
Quincy, Aug. 8.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.,
Specialist,.....Orthodontia.
REMOVED TO
No. 7 TEMPLE PLACE.
New building, Boston.
Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.
Residence, Linden Place, Quincy.

F. S. DAVIS, M. D.,
HOMOEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN.
No. 5 Elm Street, Quincy.
Connected by Telephone.
OFFICE HOURS: 9 to 12 A. M., and 2 to 4 P. M., and 6 to 9 P. M.
Quincy, Oct. 22.

JOHN W. MCANARNEY,
COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW,
Room 1, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Saturdays, at the office of COTTER &
JENNEY, 220 Washington Street, Boston.
August 11.

W. W. JENNESS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
87 Milk Street, Boston, Mass.
Office Hours, 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. Room 28 and 29
QUINCY OFFICE, ADAMS BUILDING.
OFFICE HOURS: 8 to 10 A. M. 6 to 9 P. M.
Quincy, May 26.

JOHN F. KEMP,
MACHINIST,
Bicycles Repaired.
82 WATER STREET, SOUTH QUINCY.
Sept. 19.

W. G. SEARS,
Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting.
WELLS DRIVEN
AND PUMPS REPAIRED.
SHOP IN PIERCE'S BLOCK,
Corner Washington and Hancock Streets.
QUINCY, MASS.
March 24.

J. J. KENILEY,
PLUMBER.
All orders promptly attended to at reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed.
No. 9 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY.
In office formerly occupied by the Citizen's Gas Light Company.
Jan. 6. P. O. Box 808.

CITY OF QUINCY.
The Overseer of the Poor
Will be at his office in the CITY
HALL from 8 to 10 A. M. on SAT-
URDAYS.
J. S. ARNOLD, Overseer.
Quincy, Feb. 24.

NOTICE.
The Board of Water Commissioners will
until further notice, hold meetings every Thursday evening in Room No. 3, Durgin &
Merrill's block, at 7:45 o'clock. All persons having business with the board are requested to present it at these meetings.
HERBERT T. WHITMAN, Water Commissioner.
JOHN T. CAVANAGH, Water Commissioner.
JAMES H. STEINON, Water Commissioner.
Quincy, June 25, 1892.

FRANK C. GILBERT,
Teacher of Piano-forte,
190 Hancock St. Quincy.
Sept. 6.

C. H. ABBOTT,
Piano and Organ Tuner
BATES BUILDING
Workmanship Guaranteed.
ORDERS RECEIVED AT
E. B. South's New Dept.
Quincy, Jan. 13.

16 years' experience in
Piano and Organ Tuning.
Best of references and thorough work. All orders promptly attended to. Quincy office,
John H. Holden's Jewelry Store. Boston
office, Ross' Music Store, 32 West street.
Wollaston office, Ross' periodical store.

FRANK A. LOCKE,
TEACHER OF
PIANO, ORGAN, VOICE.
RESIDENCE—Coddington Street.
P. O. Address—Box 679, Quincy, Mass.
At home Tuesday evenings.
Oct. 23.

Elocution, Physical Culture
—AND—
DRAMATIC ACTION.
MISS ELSIE RUSSELL will receive a limited number of pupils at 211 HAN-COCK STREET, QUINCY, TUESDAYS
and FRIDAYS.
Will also arrange and direct
PANTOMIMES, GREEK TABLEAUX,
and STATUE POSES.
March 10.

Ladies' and Children's
HAIR - DRESSING - PARLORS.
M. E. FISH,
10 Chestnut Street, Quincy
SHAMPOOING, SINGING, Bangs Cut and Curled and Hair Dressed in all the latest styles for Street and evening.
Oct. 10.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED
PEREZ JOYCE,
Quincy avenue near Liberty street.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED
NATHANIEL NIGHTINGALE,
Granite St., near Post Office.

H. T. WHITMAN,
CIVIL ENGINEER
—AND—
SURVEYOR,
ADAMS BUILDING, QUINCY.
Hours, 8 to 9 A. M.
10 to 12 P. M.
N. B. Plans of nearly all the Real Estate
in the City of Quincy can be found at my office.
May 28.

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER
Pearl Street,
SOUTH QUINCY.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
JOINING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
Hancock Court, Quincy, Mass.

WARREN D. HIGGINS,
Architect and Builder,
Can show you a large number of Plans
for Houses which will cost from
$1,000 to $20,000.
Residence, 7 Faxon Avenue, Quincy
May 21.

JOHN G. THOMAS,
Slate, Tin, Copper and Composition
ROOFING.
Also Ready Roofing of all kinds.
Slate Roofs Cheaper than Shingles,
and makes your roof fire proof.
Residence, Warren Ave., Wollaston.
East side of Old Colony Railroad.
P. O. Box 144, Quincy. 3m
June 16.

Quincy Savings Bank,
145 Hancock Street, Quincy.

President, RUFUS F. CLAPLIN.
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MARSH.
Treasurer and Sec'y, GEORGE L. GILL.
Board of Investment, RUFUS F. CLAPLIN,
EDWIN W. MARSH, JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
ELIAS A. PERKINS.
BANK HOURS: (On and after November 1, 1893) From 8.30 to 12 A. M. and 2 to 4
P. M.
Deposits placed on interest on the first
Tuesday of January, April, July and October
Quincy, Oct. 7, 1893.

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
No. 51 HANCOCK STREET.
Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,
Robes and Habits.
Having had several years' experience in the Undertaking business, the subscriber hopes by strict attention to the wants of all called up to merit a share of patronage.
JOHN HALL.
Quincy, Mar. 10

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER.
Office and residence corner of Canal and Mechanic Streets,
Quincy, Feb. 6.

NOW IS YOUR CHANCE
To get something nice very cheap at the usual
Semi-Annual Mark Down of entire stock of Hats, Flowers, Ribbons
Laces and Novelties.
CALL SOON.

M. E. FISH,
10 Chestnut Street, Quincy.
MILLINERY.
The greatest Mark Down Sale of TRIMMED HATS AND BONNETS
ever known in Quincy.
Call Early and Get Your Choice.

A. M. TINGLEY,
French Millinery Parlors,
Room 30 Adams Building,
QUINCY.
On same floor as Russell's building.
F024-13

NEW Millinery
NEW STOCK OF
HATS AND BONNETS,
In Straw and Frames.
Latest Styles in Shapes, Colors and Material
Mourning Goods a specialty.
MISS S. H. HUSSEY,
121 Hancock Street.
Opp. The Greenleaf.
Quincy, Oct. 13.

F. H. CRANE & SONS,
Dealers in
HAY, GRAIN, FLOUR AND FEED
—also—
BRICK, LIME, HAIR, CEMENT
PLASTER AND DRAIN PIPE
Bowker's Fertilizers and all kinds of Poultry Supplies, Pottery Food.
Washington St., Quincy.
Branch Office at Quincy Adams.
Telephone, 219-4 Jan. 7-14

YOU WEAR CORSETS.
Have
You Tried the FAMOUS
MAKE?
In all styles from $1.50 up
Corsets made to order, boned with pure
Whalebone, $2.00 and upwards.
No. 7 Temple Place, Boston, Mass.
April 7.

The Quincy Patriot.
PUBLISHED
Saturday Mornings,
—BY—
GREEN & PRESCOTT
Editors and Proprietors.

THE PATRIOT is published in the
only city in Norfolk County, and is one of the oldest newspapers in the State, being established in 1837. Its average circulation is over 2200
copies weekly.

OFFICE OF PUBLICATION,
No. 115 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
TERMS:—$2.50 per year in advance. $3.00
if not paid before the close of the year.
W. ELIZABETH GREEN. GEO. W. PRESCOTT.

Poetry.
Sonnet.
Slow from the west the sunbeams fade away,
Eastward I watch the purple veil of night
I draw up the sky to the overland light:
The shades of darkness triumph over day.
The song of birds is stilled; through twilight gray
The everlasting stars are shining bright
In peaceful concord from undimmed height.
Watching the restless hours glide away,
The loving herds are waiting for their food;
The lowing whistle, glad his work is done,
By chimney lug the brown-faced farmer
waits
Till the warm meal is ready for his brood;
In the far distance stand the creaking
gates:
The work of day is o'er. Night is begun.

Miscellany.
MR. BENTLEY'S LESSON.
Be polite; be agreeable. There is nothing that will bring you such quick returns with so little invested. A smile takes nothing away from your face, but it beautifies it. A good action is a good cause, a civil word to the lowly, a helping hand to the needy, kindness to the suffering and gentle words for all, will bring you love in return, and will become you more than anything else that I know of.
Mr. Bentley was a young man who did not believe in politeness paid.
"I hate to see an overbearing grin on anybody's face," he said one day, when he saw several of the fellows who were the subject of politeness. "In the struggle of life it is everyone for himself. I have no time, nor inclination, nor hypocrisy to be spreading my mouth in a forced smile to everyone. I choose my companions and friends and they are few and select."
And this was Mr. Bentley's character. He was taciturn, morose and utterly selfish.
He never helped anyone in distress or trouble.
He never tried to cheer the sick or solace the bereaved. Even his "few and select" friends knew he could not be dependent on in a case of emergency. He rejoiced in perfect health, and never thought that this strong frame would some day be prostrate, languishing and helpless. He was prosperous, not rich, but he held a position that was remunerative, never dreaming that he might possibly lose that position. But in less than a year the fortune he had lost it and was out of employment.
The most prosperous will meet with reverses. Sometimes they teach great lessons. Mr. Bentley should have declined a lesson from the reverse that he followed in the wake of his loss of position.
But he did not. He had no friends to rally to his aid, for he had taken no trouble to make friends in his prosperity. He made every effort to procure amusements, but but all situation in his town seemed full.
He answered an advertisement in an O— paper. The city of O— was fifty miles away. In a short time he received a reply to his letter of application. The letter was from the firm of Thomas Brothers, and it invited the young man to pay them a visit in person as soon as possible. If his papers, personal appearance, etc., suited them they would employ him at a salary of $1,000 a year. This was for better than he expected. His luck was returning.
He donned his finest clothes; his head was lost in the clouds. He did not see Mr.
Little nod, nor hear Mr. Small speak.
Oh, no! What had he to do with the common herd? He could not see the poor and blind organ grinder, or drop a penny into his box. Not he! He was on his way to O— for the $1,000 clerkship.
An old lady at the depot stopped him.
"Will you please tell me," she said,
"but she was interrupted by the would-be clerk."
"Madam," he said rudely, "that ticket agent is paid to answer questions—apply to him."
"Yes—but—sir—" She stopped, for he had walked away and left her. "Law, what will I do?" she cried. "The agent hasn't got any better manner than he has.
When I was young, men didn't treat old women like that. Will, law me! I with Eli was here. This is the very first time I shall go to any place alone. Oh, my—oh, dear—the train is coming—how will I get on, or how am I to tell when I get on the train? The brother and presented the wrong one—oh, goodness me! Say, please—Mr. 'sir' will you help me?" Again stopping Mr. Bentley. "Is this the train that goes north? Take this satchel for me—oh! Mr. Bentley turned and hurriedly passed her. "Oh, shall I let her?"
"Let me help you," said a kindly voice, and the old lady looked up to find a young man in a broad-brimmed hat, but he was not the brother and presented her his hands for her bundles.
She surrendered them to his care, and thanked him heartily. He took her to the train, saw her safely and comfortably seated and then found her satchel for her in the same coach in order to see her safely to the station where she was going.
The old lady left the train at L—, as did
Mr. Bentley and the young stranger.
They hurried off to take the stage, as O—was not a railroad town.
"Madam," said the stage driver as the old lady went to get into the stage, "my order is to collect the fare before starting."
The old lady fumbled in her pocket a minute, then uttered an exclamation of dismay.
"My goodness gracious! I forgot to bring my money! Eli—that's my husband—told me I'd forget it. What shall I do—oh, what shall I do?" And she dropped a bundle, tried to pick it up, and dropped another. "I am going to O—" continued the distressed old lady. "I am going there to see my sons. They will pay you, indeed they will, if you will—"
"Won't do," said the driver. "My orders are strict. Can't disobey orders.

John looked puzzled. They both laughed and repeated:
"Good recommendation! Mother!" they called, and in came the old lady of the day before. "Mother, which of these young men do you recommend to us for a clerk?"
The old lady walked straight up to John and said—
"I recommend by all means, my dear sons, the young man who was kind enough to aid a helpless 'old beggar' to reach home; who loved the memory of his mother so well that he walked twenty long miles to let your mother ride. Not for a reward, boys; No; he thought I was poor and helpless; and now, if a deed like that won't recommend John Ray more than all the recommendations that were ever written, indeed, then I don't know my dear boys."

And each of the brothers got John by a crafty smile, while Mr. Bentley retired with a crestfallen air.
Let us hope that this little episode taught Mr. Bentley the lesson that kindness brings its own reward.

How to Repair Parasols.
The majority of women have stored away in some neglected corner one or more dilapidated parasols. If these superfluous relics are sent to the manufacturers to be re-covered they will cost as much as a new one. To recover them at home is a simple matter and can be performed by any one with average ability. The first step is to measure the parasol to find out the quantity of material required. To ascertain this measure the lowest and largest part, taking half the given height, with half of one of the quarters for the amount required. Supposing that your parasol measures three full yards around, the silk needed will be half that quantity, or one and a half yards; adding half of one of the pieces, about one and three-quarters. Having obtained the length, measure through the center of one of the sections, that is, from top to bottom, and the number of inches gives the required width.

Remove the cover carefully, so as not to draw it out of shape, for much depend upon this. Rip the sections apart. Select the best one for a pattern, and cut from the material as many pieces as are required.
These pieces must be laid horizontally upon the goods, the broadest part at the selvage, alternating from side to side in order to economize the material. Lay a narrow band across the selvage before they are basted together. Sew the seams up on the right side as narrowly as possible—just the merest holding of the goods. Turn on the wrong side, and baste as closely and evenly as possible, then stitch again, allowing about a quarter of an inch for the seam.
When all are finished draw a needle and stout cotton thread through each a trifle below the top, and draw tightly together.
Cut a circle of silk six inches in diameter.
Make a small hole in the center and place the upper part of frame. With the cover still on the wrong side, put the sticks through the small opening and draw tightly together, until the material is drawn out groove several times, which is at the top of the parasol. Turn the cover over on the right side, and fasten to the small holes designed for the purpose. Sew each seam to the ribs in two other places, to avoid splitting, which divides the re-covering—Good Housekeeping.

Facts about Refrigerators.
One of the most important articles of kitchen furniture is the refrigerator. Every housekeeper must have one and in a very short time during the hot weather its consideration must be given. Some housekeepers experience trouble in keeping their refrigerators sweet and cool. A practical housekeeper recently told a reporter for the Mail and Express how she kept her refrigerator cool day for this work and when the ice is low.
All the articles of food are taken out and placed in a cool place, and the ice is wrapped in a woolen cloth. She then takes out the chambers, shelves and ice rack and washes them thoroughly with soap and water—a little ammonia in the water will soften it.
The shelves and rack are then washed with dry and then it is a good thing to place them in the open air. Wash the inside of the refrigerator well with ammonia and water, using a pointed stick to go into the corners and wipe every part well with a dry cloth and leave all the doors and lids open until the inside is perfectly dry. Vinegar and water will take any stains off the zinc. To keep a refrigerator sweet, food that has the tendency to spoil should not be placed in it. Take care that the inside is well aired and thoroughly dry before replacing the shelves and racks and putting back the ice. Never put anything warm into the refrigerator, it is sure to injure some sensitive article of food. Don't let the refrigerator be without ice. Keep it in a cool place away from fire and sun.—
New York Mail and Express.

Secord fish.
Swordfish meat is firm and its flavor superior to that of the halibut, and it is entirely fresh and above reproach. It is a mystery that New York should so fail to appreciate a good thing. The coming of the swordfish is always an interesting fact, with no little mystery about it, too. They are not here and then they are here. Nobody knows where they come from and no one ever saw a young one on the American coast. They are raised in the Mediterranean Sea, and the old folks, leaving the little one behind, spend their summers along our shores, and chiefly about Block Island. It takes a pretty smart fish to lay his course from Gibraltar to Block Island every year without fail, and the movements and migrations of the swordfish are a noteworthy illustration of the strange and clever ways of fishes.—
Hartford Courant.

Spending Money.
It is an excellent thing to give children, as soon as they arrive at about twelve years, or even before, a little allowance for spending money and an account book.
Show them how to keep an account of small expenditures, and make it a condition that they do so, if they wish to receive their allowance. There is no instruction more necessary to children than instruction in the wise management of money. Children should be taught early what true economy is, and to exercise their judgment —not their fancy—in making purchases.
A little instruction now, and experience, if used by the good sense of the parents, will extravagance, may save them from much suffering in after years.—New York Tribune.

Overwork.
Overwork would be of little consequence
if it did not bring on fatigue in its train.
And one never knows what may come of being thoroughly over-tired—what plain people up-country call "all tuckered out." Between this depressed state of brain and nerves and the state of being simply healthily tired, with the sort of tiredness a child has after active play in the sunshine, or a strong man has after a day's ordinary work, there is a great difference. The healthy tired body and brain are rested and renewed by refreshing sleep. Then the muscles spring back to their duty with blithe alacrity, and the new task is taken up with enthusiasm.

It is quite otherwise after the troubled slumber which is the portion of the overworked person. In the first place, sleep does not come readily when one is worn down to the ragged quivering edge of the nerves, and when it does come it is the sleep of exhaustion rather than of rehabilitation.

The overworked person tries to spur nature by a dogged resolution, a determination to keep on till she dies, or has a long illness, which in some cases is nature's kind restorative, less disciplinary than gentle in its effect. The rest of the bed which cannot be taken, or will not be taken, by the woman on whose shoulders heavy burdens are bound, whose hands are full of duties, is taken before she falls a victim to some fever or other malady which makes her a prisoner. Pain and suffering are hers, and wearisome days are appointed her, but in the end she is a gainer, for she has been obliged to cease her overwork in the arrest of all her work.

Yet there is little use in preaching to the woman who is wearing herself out because of her many cares. She fancies that she cannot stop. Very likely this is true. The world is a busy one. The pace we must keep is rapid; the strain of competition is excessive; the atmosphere is full of excitement; the responsibilities we carry are tremendous. Most of us are overworked. Those who do not are considered lazy by their contemporaries, and are apt to be distanced in the race: "It is a mad world, my masters!"

Yet, wise and prudent are they who are warned in time.—Harper's Weekly.

Perils of Overfeeding.
Excessive eating is not the most striking or the most widely prevalent fault of the present generation. On the contrary, moderation and even sometimes undue fasting is the prevailing fashion. There is still, however, a considerable number of persons who habitually overeat at meals, and to such a few physiological hazards may not be without their value. Dr.
Hendon has been at the pains to make some careful investigations on the subject, and his results have recently been published. According to this observer, a not uncommon consequence of overfeeding is the development of a series of symptoms in many respects similar to those of typhoid fever. The temperature rises, there is a feeling of serious illness, the sleep is disturbed, the brain is incapacitated, and in severe cases the disability is complete.
The cause of these symptoms is insufficient elimination and an alteration in the blood brought about by the impregnation of the organism with accumulated waste products.
In addition to these typhoid symptoms thromboses occur in the vessels, and what is perhaps the most serious, gangrene, or mortification of parts without any obvious or sufficient cause. Now, these are conditions of very marked danger, particularly the thromboses and the spontaneous gangrene. There is danger to life here. The obvious remedy for such a series of evils is of course rest for the overworked digesting and eliminating organs. But the quantity and the quality of the food must be so changed as to admit of the performance of easy digestion and prompt assimilation and adequate elimination of waste. Lemonade and lemon juice are said to be of great service in diminishing the extreme craving for food; and this, from a limited experience, we can, to some extent, confirm.
Milk, also, in moderate quantities is useful, and in certain cases skim milk would be best. It is not always found that the resting of the organs is sufficient. The fever may persist for a long time, and with the danger of death from such a condition of the system. Dr. Hendon's results are demanded, and a competent physician should be consulted without delay.—From the Hospital.

What Causes Thirst?
The sensation of thirst is caused by a lack of fluids in the system. In a state of health it indicates that the body wants moisture. We should distinguish natural thirst from artificial thirst, the latter being caused by stimulating and heating drugs and beverages which produce a fever in the organs of digestion. Thirst is caused by a failure of the salivary and other glands to secrete a proper amount of saliva. In a healthy state of the system thirst is not only by the ordinary means, but through the blood vessels and the skin. Much of the water drunk passes out through the skin by means of the pores, and is known as insensible perspiration.
The loss of blood is always followed by intense thirst; this thirst is one of the most harrowing features of the battlefield, as every old soldier knows. The reason for this is that the blood vessels being drained of their moisture, the skin becomes parched and every pore is changed into a thirsty mouth. Thirst accompanies fever, but its causes are local, being due to dryness in the throat and mouth, the result of a high temperature.

Fruit at Meals.
As a rule, a fruit dessert in the evening and a mixed meal ought only to be lightly indulged in, for the average stomach will not rarely tolerate a heavy influx of such cold and usually watery aliment as fruit.
This is not the case if the fruit is eaten before or between the meal courses. A ripe melon eaten with salt or butter, before or immediately after the rest, can be freely indulged in. Experience teaches us that stewed or raw fruit may be largely taken between the courses. In many parts of the continent this custom prevails; it is a healthy and refreshing habit, being eaten with warm climes such fruits as grapes, plums, figs, melons, and sweet lemons are habitually eaten with all kinds of dishes, or as palate refreshers between the courses.—Food.

The National House of Representatives voted last Saturday, 187 yeas to 49 nays—more than the necessary two-thirds for the joint resolution proposing the election of United States Senators by a direct vote of the people.

Hints on Health.
This department is under the charge of Dr. J.
NEWTON JONES, of Atlantic, who will each week publish an article of general interest to our readers.

DIPHTHERIA.
We have been asked to write an article on diphtheria, and the disease is such a fatal one that we choose it as our subject for discussion this week. It is one of those maladies that have ended much interest and controversy among medical men, who are apt to smile at the many attempts of laymen, who, in writing to the press, advance in the most dogmatic manner some of their own pet theories as to its history, development and origin. We cannot say much more than this: That the malady owes its origin to a peculiar kind of bacterium, duly labeled and known as the "micro coccus diphthericus." But the fact remains that the same bacteria can also be separated from the spina, etc., in cases of scarlet fever, measles, and in diseases following parturition.

In its ordinary form it may be described as a severe epidemic sore throat, arising from some poisoning of the system, and characterized by the formation of a false membrane on the tonsils and surrounding parts. It begins with prostration, followed by a chilly feeling, which presently gives way to a more or less feverish condition. Then comes the sore throat, and examination of the part reveals a greyish white patch upon the tonsils and neighboring structures. The patches may extend down the wind pipe (diphtheritic croup) or upwards into the passages of the nose.
Next the glands of the neck become swollen and tender and respiration and swallowing difficult or impossible. The malady is often mistaken for quincy, or vice versa;
but its epidemic form becomes a guide.
The temperature only reaches its maximum in three to four days, and in true diphtheria the throat patches have a peculiar ashen-grey color extending to the pharynx, and comes on again if removed.

It is quite clear that it is, and the contagious matter may be carried far and near. The bacillus is found in the spina and other excretions, and clinging about the patient and his surroundings long after the throat is healed. Children should be kept from school for at least a month after the throat trouble has passed. The germ or particles of membrane in the dry condition may preserve its vitality for months;
therefore all linen, bedding, utensils and furniture should be disinfected. Linen, etc., should be boiled and the floor washed with a hot solution of corrosive sublimate in the proportion of one in one thousand.

ASTHMATIC INFLUENCES.
The heat of summer does not especially favor its propagation, nor can it be killed by a keen frost; its extension or expansion is not, therefore, influenced by atmospheric conditions. It appears alike in the crowded tenements of cities or in scattered rural houses, in moist or low swamps or elevated plateaus. Somehow or other it is a pest of civilization, for it is everywhere seen amongst savages or barbarous people.
Children and debilitated persons, those of highly nervous temperament, and all who have passed through mental worry or exhaustive muscular efforts are its chosen victims.

Ironing Shirt Waists.
First be sure that the waist is properly starched in boiled starch, and thoroughly dried; then iron it with a hot iron, and dip the collar and cuffs into it, being careful not to wet into the other parts of the garment, as it takes longer to dry, and the starch in those parts is not needed. Lay the waist on a flat surface, then proceed to the collar, fold it over, then proceed to the table, fold one sleeve upon it, then the other, lay over these the fronts, sprinkle each part according to the thickness of the cloth, roll tightly and let lie the starch in a moderate steam, then proceed to the body of the shirt, fold it over follows. With the sleeves still wrong side up, rub quickly the wristbands; now turn, and we are really commencing (what seems to many) an arduous task. We will iron first the outer

Education & Employment

Reopens September 4th.

A thorough and practical course of study in Preparation young people to earn their own living

54 YEARS AND 29,000 PUPILS

COMERS COMMERCIAL COLLEGE

666 Washington St., cor. Beach,

BOSTON, MASS.

July 21.

Door Screens!

COME ONE,

COME ALL.

Door and Window

SCREENS

MADE AT

Some's 5 Cent Store.

23 Hancock Street,

QUINCY.

Door Screens!

Prices Sure to Advance.

BUY YOUR COAL AT ONCE.

White Ash Stove, $5.25

White Ash Egg, 5.00

White Ash Furnace, 5.00

Lehigh Furnace, 5.25

Lehigh Egg, 5.50

Shamokin Stove, 5.50

Shamokin Egg, 5.50

Red Ash Stove, 5.75

Franklin Stove, 7.00

Franklin Egg, 7.00

OUR SPECIALTY:

Excelsior Nut, $5.25,

Which we guarantee equal if not superior to any highest grade bituminous coal.

—ALSO—

A Full Line of Mason's Materials.

Geo. E. Frost,

488 Neponset Avenue,

NEPONSET.

Telephone connection.

THOS. W. LINCOLN,

Awning Maker,

266 Washington Street,

QUINCY POINT.

ITALIAN A WINE

ALL KINDS OF STEAKS,

MADE IN THE MANNER,

AT VERY SHORT NOTICE.

FOR

STORES, HALLS, PRIVATE RESIDENCES,

BEACH HOUSES.

Best of references given.

May 5.

Ranges and

Parlor Stoves!

Large Assortment and Low Prices.

PLEASE CALL AND EXAMINE before purchasing elsewhere. We also keep large stock of

GRATES AND LININGS

Kitchen Furnishing Goods,

Zinc, Lead Pipe, Sheet Lead

Iron Sinks, Etc., Etc.

TIN ROOFING

A SPECIALTY.

All Furnace Work and Jobbing

will be promptly attended to.

Good Work and Low Prices Guaranteed

—AT—

SANBORN & DAMON'S.

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

CITY SCAVENGER.

THE UNDERSIGNED has been reappointed

by the Board of Health as City Scavenger

and will attend to all orders at short

notice.

Particular attention is given to see that the work is done thoroughly and disinfected all places.

PRICES: For vaults, $1.50 per load; Cesspools, 75 cents per load.

Additional price of 25 cents per load

between May 15th and October 1st.

PETER MCCONNARY,

Quincy, Feb. 18.

WILSON'S MARKET

Headquarters in the City of Quincy for

MEATS, FRUIT AND VEGETABLES.

1843 ESTABLISHED 1843

ALSO DEALERS IN

GROCERIES AND WEST INDIA GOODS.

GEORGE F. WILSON & CO.,

Wilson's Building,

Hancock Street, Quincy

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JULY 28, 1894.

Single Copies 5 Cents.

FOR SALE AT

The Patriot Office,

South of the City Hall,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

W. H. Doble's Store,

West Quincy,

Quincy, Mass.

Ladies' Day.

The Quincy Yacht club might try a hundred times but could not find a perfect day for its annual Ladies' day than that of Wednesday. In fact, it was a long time before the ladies electric cars began to deposit the ladies and gentlemen who were to accept the hospitalities of the club, and a little later was busy in getting aboard the various yachts that were waiting for the guests. Fortunately it was that all did not attempt to start from the club's float, for the chances are that some would have received feet.

Shortly before 3 o'clock the warning signal was given from the flagstaff and the figure "1" was displayed, denoting the course to sail. At 5 o'clock the yachts sailed away toward Jackknife ledge buoy, passing in review of the commodore's steam launch and saluting as they passed.

The only other steam launch to participate in the sail was the Marie, or as some of the ladies called it, "Sweet

Marie."

On board of this boat was a party of the general superintendent of the Quincy & Boston street railway, Benjamin

J. Weeks, and it goes without saying that Ben made it pleasant for them. The Marie's Captain, John G. O'Neil, and the duties of the Captain's duties do not clash with those of City Treasurer, they certainly do with the duties of Tax Collector. Mr. Adams is collector of Taxes for 1894, but it is for past years, the last City Book shows uncollected taxes for 1892, 1891, 1890, 1889 and 1888, and the receipts of the City Treasurer for July 1 do not show the payment of any of these taxes. It might be made as an excuse that the City Treasurer is not able to collect the taxes, but it is not likely that he is under bonds to collect the taxes. The City Treasurer is enough for one man in a city which disburse half a million dollars annually, and should not be troubled with any other duties.

Before time for the hop to commence,

which was to close the day's festivities,

a thunder shower came up and a view of the effects of a storm at sea in a small way was seen. The rain did not interfere with the programme, and at eight o'clock dancing commenced and continued with intermission until 11 o'clock.

The boats and their guests who participated in the sail were:

Commodore H. M.

Faxon, Mrs. Faxon, Mrs. E. M. Abercrombie, Mrs. Belle Morris, Dr. Elmer

Morrison, Master Allen and Joseph Morrissey, Wm. H. Butler, Mrs. H. H. Richards, Louis S. Anderson, Miss Mary Wals-

ley, Miss Louise Walsley, Miss Julia B. Arnold,

Miss Bessie Gray, Miss Antoinette Holbrook,

Miss Maria Lane, Miss George W. Taylor,

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin J. Weeks, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Weeks, Mrs. H. L. Lee, Mrs.

Wm. H. Butler, Mrs. H. H. Richards, Mrs.

and Mrs. G. M. Magee, Miss Clara A.

Graham, Miss Edith R. Graham, Fred E.

Jones, Robert B. Graham, Herbert A. Porter, John W. O'Neil, Capt. Gordon M. Keating,

Mrs. Burnes, Bailey, Sweetser, Hall and Ripley,

Mrs. Davidson, Miss Kate and B. J. Jones,

Ellie, Capt. Fred H. Smith, Mrs. Smith,

Master Morton Smith.

Thiety, Capt. C. F. Perry, Mrs. E. S.

Taylor, Miss Marion Taylor, Miss Blanche

Taylor.

Winna, Capt. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. W.

H. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Baker, Mr.

and Mrs. H. Young, Henry S. Scholander,

Miss Margaret, Miss Cheney, W. L.

Dewson, Miss Alice Gills.

Adolph, Capt. Joe Moebis, Mrs. Henry

Moebis, Miss Josephine Sherman, Miss

Does Not Bite

B-L

Tobacco

BADGER BROTHERS,
Monumental Dealers and Machinists. Monumental Work of all Descriptions. Celebrated Ashland Emery for sale. West Chester, Ohio.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY AUGUST 4, 1894. VOL. 58. NO. 31. FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

F. S. DAVIS, M. D.,
HOMOEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN,
No. 5 Elm Street, Quincy,
Quincy, Oct. 28.
OFFICE HOURS: 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., and 6 P. M. to 7 P. M.
Quincy, Oct. 28.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.
Specialist,.....Orthodontia.
REMOVED TO
No. 7 TEMPLE PLACE.
New Building, Boston.
Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.
Residence: 11 Linden Place, Quincy.

DR. G. R. ENGLAND,
DENTIST.
14 Chestnut Street, Quincy, Mass.
Connected by telephone.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy: No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET,
Quincy, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston: HOTEL PELHAM, Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. CHAS. S. FRENCH,
DENTIST.
All kinds of work in dentistry done in the
best manner.
GAS OR ETHER ADMINISTERED.
No. 50 Hancock Street,
Quincy, Aug. 8.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST.
Room 5 and 6, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office Hours: 8 to 12, 1 to 5, usually evenings
7 to 9.

W. W. JENNESS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
87 North Street, Boston, Mass.
Office Hours: 10 A. M. to 5 P. M., Rooms 28 and 29
QUINCY OFFICE, ADAMS BUILDING.
OFFICE HOURS: Room 2,
Quincy, May 26.

JOHN W. MCANARNEY,
Counsellor-at-Law,
Room 1, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
Hancock Street, Quincy.
Saturdays at the office of COTTER &
JENKIN, 290 Washington Street, Boston.
August 11.

NOTICE.
The Board of Water Commissioners will hold further notice, hold meetings every Thursday evening in Room No. 3, Durgin &
Merrill's block, at 7:45 o'clock. All persons having business with the board are requested to present it at the office of the board.

HERBERT F. WHITMAN, Water
JOHN T. CAVANAGH, Commis-
JAMES H. STETSON, sioners.
Quincy, June 25, 1892.

CITY OF QUINCY.
The Overseer of the Poor
WILL be at his office in the CITY
HALL from 8 to 10 A. M. on SAT-
URDAYS.
J. S. ARNOLD, Overseer.
Quincy, Feb. 23.

Ladies' and Children's
HAIR - DRESSING - PARLORS.
M. E. FISH,
10 Chestnut Street, Quincy
S. Currier and Hair Dressing. All the latest styles for Street and evening.
Dec. 10.

E. M. LITCHFIELD,
HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting,
and all its branches will receive prompt attention. Residence, Quincy Avenue.
All work executed in a workmanlike
manner.
Quincy, March 12.

Granite Firms.
JOHN FALLON & SONS,
Manufacturers of Monuments and every description of Cemetery Work. Office and Quarry on Quarry Street. Address, Quincy
Quincy, Mass.

THOS. F. BURKE & BROS.,
Manufacturers of Monuments and every description of Cemetery Work. Office and Quarry, Willard St., West Quincy.

MERRY MOUNT GRANITE CO.
Incorporated 1881. Manufacturers and Dealers in Monuments and Cemetery Work. Office and Quarry near Quincy Adams station, Quincy.
Quincy, Mass.

McGRATH BROS.,
Large stock of Finished Monuments and Tablets constantly on hand. Works at Quincy Adams Station. Established 1854.

FULLER, FOLEY & CO.,
Granite Manufacturers and Dealers. Works
opposite West Quincy Depot.

O. T. ROGERS GRANITE CO.,
Successors to O. T. Rogers & Co., M. F.
Wright, Gen'l. Manager: W. T. Babcock,
Treas. Building and Monumental Granite.
Cemetery work a specialty. P. O. W. Quincy.

McDONNELL BROTHERS,
Wholesale Dealers in Dark Blue and Gray
Quincy Granite. Finely executed Monuments a specialty. Works, Water Street, and Post Office address South Quincy.

THOMAS & MILLER,
Manufacturers of Monumental and Cemetery
Work and Statuary. P. O. address, Quincy
Branch Office, 18 Lake Ave., Saratoga, N. Y.

GEO. H. HITCHCOCK & CO.,
Medium Blue Quincy Granite for Building
and Cemetery Work. Quarry and Office
Quincy Street. Post Office address, Quincy.

JOSS BROTHERS,
Monumental Granite Works: Garfield Street,
Quincy. Best of stock, and workmanlike guaranteed. All orders promptly filled.

E. F. CARR & CO.,
(Successors to Frederick & Field.)
Established in 1839. Monuments, Cemetery and Building Work. Granite Statuary artistically executed. Quarries and Works at Quincy Street, Quincy, Mass.

CRAIG & RICHARDS,
Granite Co. Wholesale Dealers in all kinds
of Rough and Finished Granite. Quarry,
Adams Street. Works, off Water Street.

BADGER BROTHERS,
Granite Dealers and Machinists. Monumental Work of All Descriptions. Calculated Ashland Quarry for sale. West
Quincy.

MILLER & LUCE,
Wholesale Manufacturers of Art Monuments
from special designs. Works and Office,
West Quincy. Boston Office, 178 Tremont.

H. T. WHITMAN,
CIVIL ENGINEER
—AND—
SURVEYOR,
ADAMS BUILDING, QUINCY.
Hours, 8 to 9 A. M.
Boston Office,
Hours, 12 to 2 P. M.
N. B. Plans of nearly all the Real Estate
in the City of Quincy can be found at my office.
May 28.

C. H. ABBOTT,
Piano and Organ Tuner
RATES REASONABLE.
Workmanship Guaranteed.
E. B. South's News Depot,
Quincy, Jan. 13.

16 years' experience in
Piano and Organ Tuning.

FRANK A. LOCKE.
Best of references and thorough work. All orders promptly attended to. Quincy office,
John O. Henshaw's Jewelry Store, Boston
office, Rose Music Store, 32 West street.
Wollaston office, Rose's periodical store.

HERBERT F. NYE,
TEACHER OF
PIANO, ORGAN, VOICE.
Residence: Codding Street,
P. O. Address: Box 679, Quincy, Mass.
At home Tuesdays evenings.
Feb. 23.

FRANK C. CILBERT,
Teacher of Piano—forte,
190 Hancock St. Quincy,
Sept. 6.

Elocution, Physical Culture
—AND—
DRAMATIC ACTION.
MISS ELISE RUSSELL will receive a limited number of pupils at 211 HAN-
COCK STREET, QUINCY, TUESDAYS
AND FRIDAYS.
Will also arrange and direct
PANTOMIMES, GREEK TABLEAUX,
and STATUE POSES.
March 10.

JOHN G. THOMAS,
Slate, Tin, Copper and Composition
ROOFING.
Also Ready Roofing of all kinds.
Slate Roofs Cheaper than Shingles,
and makes your roof fire proof.
Residence, Warren Ave., Wollaston.
East side of Old Colony Railroad.
P. O. Box 144, Quincy. 3m

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER.
Office and residence corner of Canal
and Mechanics Streets.
Quincy, Feb. 6.

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
No. 51 HANCOCK STREET.
Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,
Robes and Habits.
Having had several years' experience in the Undertaking business, the subscriber hopes to attract attention to the wants of all calls to America's share of patronage.

JOHN HALL,
Quincy, Mar. 10

J. J. KENILEY,
PLUMBER.
All orders promptly attended to at reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed.
No. 9 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY.
In office formerly occupied by the Citizen's
Gas Light Company.
Jan. 6. P. O. Box 808.

W. G. SEARS,
Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting.
WELLS DRIVEN
AND PUMPS REPAIRED.
SHOP IN PIERCE'S BLOCK,
Corner Washington and Hancock Streets.
QUINCY, MASS.
March 24.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
Nathaniel Nightingale,
Granite St., near Post Office.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
PEREZ JOYCE,
Quincy Avenue near Liberty street.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
Hancock Court, Quincy, Mass.

WARREN D. HIGGINS,
Architect and Builder,
Can show you a large number of Plans
for Houses which will cost from $1000 to $10,000.
Residence, 7 Faxon Avenue, Quincy
May 21.

WALTER S. RANDALL,
Carpenter and Builder,
HAS removed to his new residence on Bigelow street. He is prepared to furnish estimates for house building, and will give prompt attention, and execute a continuation of past favors.
Quincy, July 1.

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER,
Pearl Street,
SOUTH QUINCY.

H. O. SOUTHER,
MASON AND CONTRACTOR.
A GENT for Akron Drain and Sewer Pipe,
Quincy, Mass.
Plain and Ornamental Brick Work,
Plastering and Cement Work.
ORNAMENTAL CENTRES
FURNISHED AND PUT UP.
Shop—No. 4 Canal St.
Residence—No. 142 Washington St.
Quincy, Oct. 7, 1893.

JOHN F. KEMP,
MACHINIST,
Bicycles Repaired.
82 WATER STREET, SOUTH QUINCY.
Sept. 19.

Quincy Savings Bank,
145 Hancock Street, Quincy.
President, RUPERT F. CLAPLIN.
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MARSH.
Treasurer and Secy., GEORGE L. GILL.
Board of Investment, RUPERT F. CLAPLIN,
EDWIN W. MARSH, JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
ELIAS A. PARKER.
BANK HOURS: (On and after November
1, 1893) From 8.30 to 12 A. M. and 2 to 4
P. M.
Deposits placed on interest on the first
Tuesday of January, April, July and October
Quincy, Oct. 7, 1893.

House Cleaners, Attention!
QUINCY
ELECTRIC CARPET CLEANING WORKS.
Carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid in
the best manner at short notice.
W. W. ADAMS, G. B. LINCOLN.
Orders may be left at T. F. Mitchell's or lock box 202, Quincy Postoffice.
Quincy, March 17.

AUSTIN & WINSLOW'S
Quincy and Boston Express
Boston Offices. Leave. Quincy Office, 52 Washington St.
34 Court Square, 8.30, 11.00 A. M., 3.30 P. M.
Merchandise, 8.00, 12.00 A. M., 3.30 P. M.
75 and 91 Kilby Street, 8.00, 12.00 A. M., 4.00 P. M.
75 and 91 Kilby Street, 9.00, 12.00 A. M., 4.30 P. M.
Franklin Street, 9.00, 12.00 A. M., 4.30 P. M.
Quincy Office, 52 Washington St.
Leave at 7.15, 8.15, 9.15 A. M. and 12.45 P. M.
Telephone: 9-2, Quincy; 2336, Boston.
Baggage checked to all depots and steam boats. Particular attention to early transportation.
Quincy Office, 52 Washington St.
Leave at 7.15, 8.15, 9.15 A. M. and 12.45 P. M.
Telephone: 9-2, Quincy; 2336, Boston.
Baggage checked to all depots and steam boats. Particular attention to early transportation.

ABBOTT & MILLER'S
Quincy and Boston Express.
Quincy Office, 52 Washington St.
Boston Office, 22 Court square, 42 Franklin Street, 12 Merchants Row, 47 Devonshire Street.
Quincy Office, Crane's Furniture Store,
Order Box, O. B. Tilton's.
South Quincy—Order Box at W. H.
Doble's Store, Depot and Brown's Store.
West Quincy—Post Office and Depot.
Leave Quincy for Boston, 9 A. M. Leave
Boston for Quincy, 2.30 P. M.
G. M. MILLER, General Manager.
Furniture and Piano Moving and General
Teaming. Post Office Box 67, West Quincy,
Telephone 554. Jan. 5-11

WILLIAM GARRITY'S
Quincy and Boston Express.
Leave Quincy at 9 o'clock, A. M. and
Boston at 2:12 P. M.
Quincy—Orders may be left at Whitney &
Nath's W. H. Doble's, E. E. Hall's, and the Stable.
Boston—174 Washington Street, 15 Devonshire Street, 4-2 South Market Street, and 10 Faneuil Hall Square.
Furniture, Piano Moving and Parties sophisticated at short notice.

F. H. CRANE & SONS,
Dealers in
HAY, GRAIN, FLOUR AND FEED
—also—
BRICK, LIME, HAIR, CEMENT
Bowker's Fertilizers and all kinds of Poultry Supplies, Thorley Food.
Washington St., Quincy.
Branch Store at Quincy Adams.
Telephone, 219-4. Jan. 7-11

Faxon's New Block,
Opposite City Hall, Quincy.

WALL PAPER.
F. T. APPLETON
HAS the largest stock of Wall Paper in Quincy and can sell as low as any Boston dealer.
Twenty Thousand Rolls in Stock
Of the Latest Designs.
First-class Work Guaranteed.
Room Mouldings and Window Shades to Order
Repairing Wringers and Sweepers.
Sept. 1.

FURNITURE MOVING
N. C. HERSEY,
WITH Thirty years experience in Furniture Moving, has built a roomy and modern wagon, and is better prepared than ever to move Furniture in and out of town.
Special attention given to the moving of Pianos and Organs.
Tip-cart work done at hard time prices.
All orders left at my office, No. 5 Granite
street, or at my home, No. 10 New Road, rear of Scammell's wheelwright shop, will be promptly attended to.
Quincy, June 5.

WHY EMPLOY BOYS
TO MOVE
Pianos and Furniture
When you can hire men who have been in the business for 25 years.
We move Furniture in or out of town at reasonable prices.
ABBOTT & MILLER,
4 Chestnut Street,
Quincy, March 17.

Education & Employment
COMER'S
COMMERCIAL
COLLEGE.
FOUNDED 1840
Reopens September 4th.
A thorough and practical course of study in the following branches: Bookkeeping, Penmanship, English, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, and the Elements of Mechanics. Our record is
54 YEARS AND 29,000 PUPILS
Spoke for itself. Prospectus free by mail or office.

COMER'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,
666 Washington St., cor. Beach,
BOSTON, MASS.
July 21. sw 10c

J. B. POORE,
BRAINTREE,
Cypress Shingles
Cost no more than Pine or Cedar and last three or four times as long.
Send for our book, "Cypress Lumber and
its Uses."
Order by mail or telephone.
KINDLING WOOD.
Mill-wood for kindling ready for immediate use.
Order by mail or telephone.
THE A. T. STEARNS LUMBER CO.,
NEPONSET, MASS. 1y 6w

YOU WEAR CORSETS.
Have
You Tried the
FAMOUS
Mme. GRISWOLD'S
MAKE
In all styles from $1.50 up
Corsets made to order, bound with pure
Wholesale, $5.00 and upwards.
No. 7 Temple Place, Boston, Mass.
April 7. 6m 4m

JAMES R. WILD,
Manufacturer of all kinds of
Carriages, Wagons
Harness,
46 AND 48 HANCOCK STREET
Quincy, Mass.
REPAIRING A SPECIALTY.
Telephone No. 9769.
June 5. 1t

S. SCAMMELL,
Wheelwright,
CARRIAGE BUILDER
AND PAINTER.
—ALSO—
HORSE SHOEING AND JOBBING
By First-class Workmen.
All orders promptly attended to and
faithfully executed.
Thankful for past favors, a liberal share of
patronage is solicited.
Shop, Quincy Avenue.

For Chewing
It's out of sight.
Just got on to

TOBACCO.

The Quincy Patriot.
PUBLISHED
Saturday Mornings,
BY
GREEN & PRESCOTT
Editors and Proprietors.
THE PATRIOT is published in the
only city in Norfolk County, and is
one of the oldest newspapers in the
State, being established in 1837.
Average circulation is over 2200
copies weekly.
OFFICE OF PUBLICATION,
No. 115 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
TERMS:—$2.50 per year in advance. $3.00
if not paid before the close of the year.
M. ELIZABETH GREEN. GEO. W. PRESCOTT.

Poetry.
Wild Flowers.
Along the pleasant country road,
Beneath a cloudless sky,
We saw the golden summer time,
My pet and I.
The deep, deep eyes were drinking in
The beauty, where it spread,
And busy thoughts were busier still Within her head.
She'd never known the country thus,
Dressed in its colors rare,
When nature strews her wild flowers, bright Beyond compare.
Then on her knees she prostrate fell,
Her laws and dower beds,
But here, unkept, the wild flowers shook
Their saucy heads.
"Mamma, who owns these pretty flowers,
Does this house or that one?"
I stopped a moment when my little girl
Stood in the sun:
"Neither, dear. God planted them
For little girls like you."
He'll let you know, if you can pick,
If you choose to.
Her hands were full—my heart was, too,
As with a mother's pleasure,
I watched her gather in her arms
Her treasure:
Then on her knees she dropped—Without a minute's warning—
"I thank you, God, for sending these."
Good morning!"
E. E. SHANNON.

Mrs. Raymond's Cousin.
Doctor Cadwalader had been an exile from his native land for eight years. One might imagine, from the joy which possessed him now that the May-side was bearing him home again, that this exile had been spent in Siberia. But far from this being the case, his term of banishment had been passed in no more dreary a retreat than Paris, where he had built up for himself a splendid practice in the American colony.
Now he had snatched a two months' vacation during the early spring to come back to the United States to be married.
Edna Deering had promised to be his bride eight years before, when he, an impatient youth of twenty, had asked the blushing girl if she would be content to wait for him as the face of one whom he loved.
Cadwalader loved to think of her as she looked then. He carried her photograph with him, and during all these years of separation had asked for no other.
He sometimes chatted on deck with Miss Orton from Buffalo, who sat next to him at table. One morning he was explaining to her how to mark her chart of the ship's speed.
"You are anxious to get across, Doctor Cadwalader," she said, lifting her eyes suddenly to look at him.
He blushed in spite of himself, and Miss Orton laughed.
Cadwalader wondered if she had guessed his secret. But it didn't matter he told himself. He should probably never see her again.
There was, of course, nobody to meet him at the pier. So when he reached New York there was nothing to detain him there, for the Deerings had long since moved to Peekskill. And leaving his trunks in temporary storage, Cadwalader started for Peekskill within three hours after the Majestic had landed him at the pier.
Edna would be twenty-four now. He could not realize it.
He was hungering now for a sight of her face more ardently, it seemed, than he had at any time since he had gone, eight years before. The train seemed to go very slowly for an express. Ah, now it had come to a stop! Cadwalader stroled to the rear door. The brakeman was just leaving the platform with his red lantern to signal that the track was blocked. Cadwalader noticed that there was a curve just behind them.
He stood watching the swaying light of the lantern carried it away from him, until it had disappeared around this bend. He turned and walked forward to the other end of the car. Two or three gentlemen were standing by the further door.
"The Tarrytown accommodation has broken down ahead of us," one of them explained.
Cadwalader chafed at the delay. He went out on the platform and thence to the ground. He crossed over the down track and sought for a moment by the edge of the Hudson. He had not yet quite got his "sea legs" off, and decided that it would be safer, as well as more comfortable in the car. He had brought a novel with him; now that there was no one he could read without discomfort to his eyes.
He returned to his seat and as he settled himself back with his head resting on the pillow, he thought with a sense of security that he was glad he had seen that brakeman go back with his lantern.
He opened his book and began to read.
A crash sounded in his ears and then he was conscious of no other sensation until he heard a canary bird singing. All was strange. He was in bed, but where he knew not. He heard the murmur of voices. He wondered if it could be his mother and Cousin Kate talking. He remembered now what had happened to give him this sort of stunned sensation in the back of his head. The great blob of the Hudson. He had not just come in.
He had run into Alonzo Peterman's farm wagon, and he, Will, must have been pretty badly hurt. But this house didn't seem like home. Perhaps, though, the doctors had thought it dangerous to have him moved far, and he had been carried into a neighbor's.
He had just arrived at this conclusion when the murmur of voices in the other room ceased, and some one came into the apartment where he lay. He kept his eyes fastened on her as she approached the bed.
He thought she was beautiful. And yet she was a stranger to him. He wrinkled his brow in a frown, trying to place her.

She noticed the movement and hurried towards the door, and recognized him as Miss Orton. She was smiling and smiling.
"Are you in pain?"
He shook his head and looked up into her face with a smile on his own.
"You are looking much better today," she said. "Won't you let me feel your pulse?"
She relaxed the clasp, and in his weak state his hand dropped, chancing to brush close by his face. In doing so he felt something strange. He lifted his hand again and passed it across his upper lip, covered by his blond moustache.
A look of perplexity, of horror almost, came into his eyes. He thought he placed himself right in putting himself back in boyhood's days. He could remember nothing beyond that point. He lost his own identity entirely and he was not Will Cadwalader at all. Raising himself in the bed for an instant, gave a look around the room, then an agonized, pleading one in the face of his mother, and fell back on the pillow again in a swoon.
Soon he was conscious that tender hands administered to him, that the soft, sweet voice he had already heard spoke of him as a poor fellow, "wish that we might help him," and then he slept to wake again with a light burning in the room and a young man sitting by the bedside and looking fixedly at him.
"Good," exclaimed the latter, as Cadwalader opened his eyes. "You look bright and cheerful. Do you feel better?"
"Where am I?" was the other's response to this.
"Kneeling his brows thoughtfully he gazed fixedly at his questioner.
"You don't know, Doctor Raymond's Tarrytown?"
"Tarrytown?" repeated Cadwalader, the look of perplexity deepening on his face.
"Yes, don't you remember the railroad accident? You were hurt very badly. It will all come back to you in time. I will turn down the light now and go out that you may get some sleep."
But Cadwalader did not sleep for hours after that. Again and again he tried to recall the railroad accident of which he had been told; but the only recollection he had of the cars was when he and Dan Clark had gone to the Adirondacks one summer and camped out. It was toward night when he finally fell asleep, and when he woke again, it was to hear once more that bird singing and see the golden shafts of sun stealing into the room.
"You will have some breakfast, now, I am sure," said the doctor.
Cadwalader turned his head at the sound of the voice whose sweetness he had already remarked. She was arranging a tempting repast on a little table by the bedside.
"Arthur says you may eat civilized food now," she went on with a little laugh,
"and give up gruels and all that."
"Who is Arthur?" he asked Cadwalader, as he took the napkin she handed him.
"Why, my cousin, the doctor," was the answer. "You feel a great deal better, today, do you not?"
"Yes! I think I do, now that I've decided to wait patiently as your cousin advised, till memory comes back to me. You can't tell me anything about Dan Clark, can you?"
"The pretty head was shaken, while a brief look of anxiety came into the hazel eyes.
"I believe you are a little afraid of me," Cadwalader began, musingly, a few minutes later. "But really, I can't blame you," he added.
"If a man doesn't know his own name, other people have a right to be a little shy of him. By the way, is there a hand mitten about here?" Perhaps if I took a look at myself it might help me.
Cadwalader looked long and earnestly at his own reflection. The sensation was the strangest he had ever experienced—that of looking at his own countenance and finding it as the face of one whom he had never seen before.
"Tell me something about myself, he said as he handed the mirror back. Don't you know who I am?"
"No, not yet," replied the girl, with her ready smile. "Somebody had robbed you while you lay helpless in the wreck. Arthur does not even know what station your ticket called for." The conductor was killed you know."
"No, I don't know," he rejoined, softly.
"Tell me about it, won't you, please?"
"Were any of the passengers killed?"
"Yes, eight or nine of them. The brakeman got to talking and let the train be run by itself. Oh, it was a dreadful thing!"
"Hasn't anybody inquired after me?"
he asked. "I ought to send a telegram to my mother. Will you write one for me?"
"Yes, indeed, responded the fair nurse,
"when I can find your name or town. I only recall Don Clark and Alonzo Peter-man." Cadwalader spoke soberly. Then, noting the seriousness reflected in the face of his companion, he said more cheerfully, "but I will pin my faith to your cousin's opinion and wait."
And in spite of all, these days of waiting were very pleasant ones. Doctor Raymond was a charming fellow. He would perpetrate his patient to worry for one instant about his strange position in the household. Doctor Raymond provided him with clothing as soon as he was able to get up. The doctor's wife, he learned from the nurse, was a very kind and loving mother. Her cousin was keeping house for her. "Cousin," the doctor called her, and Cadwalader found himself more and more dependent upon her. When she went out in the morning to market he was restless until she came back, and when one morning he entered the breakfast room and found her place vacant, he inquired of the doctor with great concern if his cousin was ill.
"No, she has gone home up the river,"
was the reply.
"And isn't she coming back?" went on Cadwalader, anxiously.
"Yes, but not just now. My wife returns tonight," and the doctor's face beamed.
Cadwalader said but little during the remainder of the meal. He was thinking of how much he would miss "Cousin."
It was a charming day—the first really warm one of the opening spring. When Doctor Raymond started off to make his morning call, Cadwalader went out into the garden and strolled reflectively up and down the garden paths. The railroad, ran past the foot of the Raymond garden. A train from New York had just come in.
There was some delay on the track ahead.
It stood up and came to a standstill with one of the parlor cars just the other side of the hedge.
Cadwalader raised his head and looked longingly at first, at the passengers gazing from the windows. All at once the languor left him; a strange, inexplicable expression flashed into his face. He began to move toward the hedge, his eyes lit fixed on a face at one of the car windows.

Now she saw and recognized him as Miss Orton. She was smiling and smiling.
Raising his hat he was about to speak when the train moved on, and the next second was out of sight. Cadwalader stood there in the same position, looking after it. It seemed to him as if he had just been born again after death. Every fact connected with his last conscious moment as Will Cadwalader came up distinctly in his mind—even to the point where he had left off reading.
And Edna.
But with the thought of her the happiness left his face. The image that kept coming up in his brain when he pictured his betrothed was always that of the first looked upon when returning consciousness came. Wishing that he might see her now, so that he could tell her who he was, and that—
But no, no. He must never see her again; he was afraid he could not even bring himself to talk about her with Edna.
Going back to the house he waited impatiently for Doctor Raymond's return, but at noon a message came from him stating that he had been called a long distance into the country and would not be home to dinner.
Cadwalader determined not to wait for him. Feeling now that every hour in this house estranged him further from Edna. So writing a note to the doctor, explaining how he had returned to him and announcing that he had gone to Peekskill, he would be back in a day or two to return clothes and so forth. Then he went off to the station and telegraphed to New York for his trunk. Thinking that he would send a message to Edna, but re-collecting that she could not have expected him yet, decided that he would surprise her. But when he tried to imagine what form of expression this surprise would take on her face, it was always the face of Mrs. Raymond's cousin he saw.
During the entire ride to Peekskill this mental face kept itself steadily before his vision. In vain he argued with himself on the absurdity of being in love with a woman whose name he did not know. By the time he reached his destination he was utterly miserable—desperate almost.
Mechanically he inquired of the station master how to reach the Deering residence, when he went out and made his way into the town.
Not having far to go, he saw Mrs. Deering looking at him from an upper window as he lifted the latch and entered the gateway. He thought it was strange she did not throw up her hands with an exclamation of surprise on seeing him, and hurry down to meet him, but then it came over him, that of course she did not recognize him,
and he was not Will.
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like this? But now the servant had opened the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her
love inform her who it is?"
Again came the vision of that other face
between them. He would be tortured like
this? But now the servant had opened
the door, and he asked if Miss Deering
was in.
"No, she was not."
"Mrs. Deering, then, I thought. Will her

Frightful Accident.

At the Mitchell Granite works at South Quincy a revolving machine is used for surfacing granite. The stone is placed on a platform which moves to and fro under the machine.

Between 1.30 and 2 o'clock, Friday afternoon, while George Wentworth was engaged in surfacing a granite, a plank fell from above and knocked him under the wheels. Fortunately Engineer Gould was standing close by the time and stopped the machine.

It is said that another half turn would have killed Wentworth. The stone may result fatally as it was. Wentworth was caught by the hand and also the chest, and is said to have broken a shoulder bone and probably received internal injuries. Two fingers were cut off, the sight of one eye endangered and other injuries inflicted. It was necessary for the men in the yard to lend their assistance to get the body from the clutches of the wheel. Wentworth was taken to the office of Dr. McGowan, where he was attended by the doctor and Dr. Sheahan.

Mr. Wentworth has run the machine off and on for several years, and was substituting for the past few weeks for William Michael, who returned from Scotland this week and would probably have resumed his position Monday.

John E. Drake Assigns.

It was reported Thursday that John E. Drake, one of Quincy's largest shoe manufacturers, had assigned and it is without doubt true. The parties to whom he has assigned are said to be Mr. Henry Rodgers and Mr. Timothy Reed, and the amount of said assignment is in the neighborhood of $30,000.

A gentleman who is well informed on Mr. Drake's affairs informed the Patriot on Friday that Mr. Drake had been working hard during the past year to reduce his indebtedness and that he had succeeded in reducing it about half.

The boot and shoe business like all other branches has been very dull during this time, and but for that, the whole would have been liquidated. The creditors are cognizant of the effort Mr. Drake has made and are disposed to be as easy as possible that this large manufacturer, which gives employment to so many of our citizens, may keep in operation.

Charles H. Porter, Jr.

The pupils of the First church were filled very acceptably on Sunday morning by Charles H. Porter, Jr., the talented son of Quincy's first mayor. There was a large congregation of prominent people of the city, including a great many of his young friends, and it must have been a trying ordeal for the young man.

Mr. Porter was unassisted in the pulpit, and few would have known that it was his maiden effort. The lyrics were clearly announced and distinctly read, the Scripture and responsive services read as well as a knowledge of the subject, and the prayer fervent.

The sermon was the crowning effort. The text was from Matthew 22:27—"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy mind." Naturally the young preacher was confined to his notes very closely, but he spoke with expression and eloquence and with easy gesture.

He considered the text as a summons to duty, and told how we could show our love for the Maker. Not in some great reform movement but as Christ, who did the duty of the heart.

At the close of the service to congratulate the young preacher and also his happy parents.

The pulpit was very prettily decorated, cat-o-nine-tails being conspicuous.

Bicycle Accident.

Mr. Henry W. French met with quite a serious accident Tuesday evening, shortly after 10 o'clock. He was thrown off, and besides being severely bruised and shaken up, he sustained a fracture of the jaw, a bad bruise over the eye and had his face cut. In fact he was pretty badly used up. He came on, however, to a physician and had his wounds dressed and then went to his home on Bigelow street.

He was in bed Thursday, and truly looked as if he had been knocked out. It was a serious accident with which met, and his head is all bandaged up.

In addition to the fractures of the jaw, the right, the sight of his left eye is endangered.

Later.

Mr. French was not on his way home at the time but was taking a bicycle ride from Houghs Neck on a friend's bicycle; several had taken turn. He went as far as the highway and in turning run into a fire alarm pole.

He says he was not rendered unconscious, but realized at once that his jaw was broken. He bound it up with his handkerchief and rode to Quincy, to the doctor. Dr. Huntington dressed his wounds, applying over an hour and it was 2 a. m. before Mr. French reached home. Naturally at that late hour his wildered mother was alarmed and as he could not speak, it was fully half an hour before she could get him himself known and gain admission, and then he was a sight to behold.

Mr. French was comfortable Friday, but the worst is not yet. When his jaw begins to knit it will be very painful.

Cost Bell Co. $50,000.

The time for the filing of returns of legislative expenses expired on Wednesday last. It appears that the Bell Telephone Company paid a big figure to secure its capital stock, nearly $50,000 to secure its $30,000,000 increase of capital stock and to protect itself from adverse legislation. This adverse legislation against which the company had to protect itself came in the form of bills to tax telephone companies, to put these companies under the supervision of a Commission to regulate corporate powers, etc.

The return filed was divided into two chapters. The first chapter, with expenses incurred to get the $30,000,000 increase, the second showed what self-protection cost. Hon. John D. Long, Robert A. Morse, J. O. Wardwell and Robert A. Southworth appeared as counsel throughout the session. The Bell Company says that these gentlemen were paid as follows:—Hon. John D. Long, $7,500; R. A. Morse, $7,500; J. O. Wardwell, $7,500, and R. A. Southworth, $5,000. The recognized legislative agent received following sums:—Frank J. Ladd, $2,500; George H. Fernald, $2,000; Robert A. Morse, $2,000; F. J. Ladd, $1,500; G. H. Fernald, $1,000.

The company paid to the press of Boston and vicinity over $8,000 for the expenses of Hon. John D. Long and R. A. Morse before the Committee on Mercantile Affairs published in full.

To Hon. John D. Long, retainer and services as counsel before the Committee on Mercantile Affairs, Taxation, Finance, Revision of Corporation Laws, on Bills relative to Taxation of Telephone Companies, Establishment of Telephone Companies, Regulation of Corporate Powers, etc., $2,500; R. A. Morse, $2,000; J. O. Wardwell, $2,000; Robert A. Morse, $2,000; F. J. Ladd, $1,500; G. H. Fernald, $1,000.

—The Dedham sportsmen were defeated at Hingham, Saturday, in their team shoot with the local gun club. There were ten men on each team and each shot at ten targets; score 69 to 55.

CITY BRIEFS.

High tides this week. It was h-o-t hot Sunday. Have you had your vacation? No probate court this month. No Council meeting this week. The sun will set at 7 o'clock today. The vacation of the public schools is half over. Mrs. Alice Cobb and son Herbert are at Cotuit. A Chestnut street boy flew a Malay kite on Wednesday. Another victory for the Quinys in the Old Colony base ball league. Miss Alice Litchfield left Wednesday for a visit to friends in Marshfield. The new High school building will probably be dedicated on Labor day. The new act relative to the selection of jurors went into effect August 1. Superintendent of schools, H. W. Lull, is in town the first of the week. Officers Canavan and Connolly commenced their vacations last Saturday. Master Arthur Flowers of Newcomb place is visiting friends at Middleboro. Dr. C. T. Sherman is taking a much needed vacation of two weeks in Maine. John Newcomb one of the clerks at Saville & Jones, was at Hallowell, N. H. The Rev. H. E. Cotton will preach at Christ's church the first Sunday in September. City Treasurer Adams and wife took the trip on the steamer City of Quincy on Saturday. Sola fountains were in great demand and had a rushing business Saturday and Sunday. Quincy was represented at the Knights of Columbus picnic at Downer Landing, Tuesday. R. A. Sears and family of Bigelow street return today from a month's visit at Hyannis. Mr. Elen G. Stanwood will retire from the bond house of Gay & Stanwood because of ill health. Mrs. B. Porterfield, Miss Porterfield and Mrs. Rice and family have gone to Wessauague for a month. Grand picnic today of the Quincy Foot Ball club at Houghs Neck. Games confined to members of the club. The Rev. and Mrs. Edward A. Robinson and family of Wollaston have been at Truro, Mass. the past week. Miss Abbie L. Curtis and Mr. Henry P. Tilden took the girls at the Granite City club on Wednesday evening. The Sallors' Song Harbor at German-town received a bequest in the will of the late Mary F. Swift of Milton. The Athletics of Atlantic will play the N. Y., N. H. & I. team at Merry Mount park on Saturday, at 3.30 p. m. Canal street is getting an artistic bridge like that on Bigelow street. They believe themselves to be "in it" sure this time. Monotiquet championship race last Tuesday and Squantum Ladies' day today were the local yachting events assigned for this week. Eddie Heffernan, one of the well known Lakewood boys, and his sister, Minnie, are spending their vacation with relatives at Canton. The hot wave was suddenly broken Sunday afternoon by a light temper. The mercury dropped 20 degrees in fifteen minutes. A new law relative to the removal of remains of veterans of the war employed in the civil service of cities, went into effect this week. Mr. Wm. Gardner Prescott exhibited at the Horticultural Hall, Boston, on Saturday last, some very fine early peaches, which took a prize of $2.00. Mrs. M. P. Nye, Coddington street, in company with her niece, Miss Bessie E. Knowlton of Camden, N. J., are visiting friends in Worcester and vicinity. Rev. E. O. Jameson of Boston will address the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. room, Sunday afternoon, on the subject: "Young men to the front!" The members of Paul Revere post 88, G. A. R., on invitation of President John L. Graham, enjoyed a trip Saturday afternoon on the steamer City of Quincy. The Quincy boys of the Y. M. C. A. will go to the summer camp at Silver Lake next Thursday. There are a few vacancies and those desiring to go should apply at once. Two ladies riding in a top buggy on Bigelow street Monday were thrown out. They escaped with slight injuries. The horse was somewhat cut and the buggy damaged. It seems to be the fashion now for gentlemen to lose their hair overboard from the City of Quincy and as Capt. Weeks was in the style he had to lose his Friday afternoon of last week. Strawberry plants, of the Marshall variety, the best in the market, are advertised for sale by Mr. William G. Prescott. The strawberries raised from the Marshall plants are very large and delicious. The civil war battle of Gettysburg was fought on Tuesday afternoon and came up quickly and was quickly over. A big gun threatened us in the evening but was so long in coming that it did not get here. Miss Margaret E. Haley, a teacher of the Quincy school, who has been acting as assistant in the City Treasurer's office, left Wednesday evening for Montreal, where she will be the guest of her cousin during the month of August. About fifty prominent business men of this city enjoyed Wednesday afternoon at Winslow's summer cottage at Germantown. After numerous games were played, the table seats at a long table, where a bountiful repast was served, including one of Maxin's excellent chowder. William Bennett, the 15-year-old son of Simon Bennett, met with quite an accident Wednesday afternoon. He was walking in front of his home when a companion tripped him and in falling his head struck the curb cutting quite a gash which required several stitches. The House appears to have been disappointed in its purpose to have some fun with the Boston while he was presiding over that body. It would seem to be about time for the Washington statement to have found out that the Quincy schoolmaster is a hard man to rattle.—Herald.

Brooklyn has settled with Quincy property in the smallpox case. The Quincy property will be remembered in connection with Isaac Saville's crime, and while they visited the bar on Saturday, and settled the city's indebtedness in the smallpox case. The board is very complimentary to the fairness of our sister city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Munroe returned Monday from a week's outing in Rochester, N. H. This town will be remembered in connection with Isaac Saville's crime, and while they visited the bar on Saturday, and settled the city's indebtedness in the smallpox case. The board is very complimentary to the fairness of our sister city.

Lovers of base ball will be pleased to learn that the Quincy team will defeat the Hallowell, in the Old Colony League, Saturday afternoon, at Merry Mount park. As the Quincy will probably play their home games in the future at Merry Mount park it is hoped that they will receive the necessary support on the part of the citizens.

Mr. John Carver and children are at Marshfield. Mrs. L. E. Lucia of Atlantic has gone to the White Mountains and to Lake Champlain. The East Norfolk C. E. Union will hold a convention in Memorial church next Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Coe have returned from a trip to Portland, Harpswell, and other Maine shore resorts. Among the recent additions to the list of Atlantic people who ride the bicycle are Mr. and Mrs. Roger H. Wilde, Mr. and Mrs. John Carver, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Dorman, Miss Edith Robinson, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. J. H. Yeoman, Miss Florence Priest. These added to those who have been riding some time, give this section enough riders to form quite a club.

During August the only service in Memorial church will be Sunday School at 12 and Y. P. S. C. E. meetings Sunday evening at 7.30.

Eight of our citizens living at Atlantic were leaving for "Egypt" one day last week with good success. They were accompanied by sixty-three quarts of nice huckleberries.

Everett M. Pope has been granted a patent for a rivet setting machine. Dr. and Mrs. G. Knoll of Atlantic have returned from a ten day cruise along the north shore as the guests of Commodore and Mrs. J. C. Cushing on the yacht Nimbus.

Misses Agnes C. Bennett, Susie M. Hall, Freda C. Stalman and Mr. Walter P. Hill, well known young people of Atlantic, were noticed enjoying a private box in one of the prominent Boston theatres last Tuesday evening.

Mr. John Carver and children are making a short stay at Marshfield. Albert Madden, clerk at Timberlake & Small's, is leaving his vacation. Mr. Charles K. Safford will go to St. John's next week for an outing.

A large party from Atlantic, took the 11.30 boat Friday for Nantuxet. Mr. P. A. Coombs and daughter, Helen, are spending a week at Cliffdale. Thomas Clark is to build a 20 ft. addition to his block on Newbury avenue.

Mrs. Jane Clean and daughters, Annie and Mattie, spent part of the week at Wintrop.

Mr. Lucius Bassett and daughter of Billings street have returned from their visit to Oust.

Mr. George Day of Warren, Ohio, spent Sunday with his sister-in-law, Mrs. M. Wood, at Atlantic.

A large party is being made up for Atlantic for a trip to Yarmouth, N. S., starting next Tuesday.

Atlantic beach was never so lively during high tide. It is no uncommon thing to see fifty in bathing at one time.

A big bicycle race is certainly on in Atlantic and it does seem as though the whole Ward was inebriated with the feeling Atlantic and Billings streets are alive every evening and all seem to enjoy the sport very much.

Why cannot Postmaster Lyons place a letter box at the corner of Newbury avenue and Depot street. It would be very much appreciated by people on the plains, as it is a hot walk to the office in the heat of the day.

Funeral services were held at Atlantic Wednesday, over the late Mrs. Abbie, wife of Mr. Edwin A. Allard.

To see Memorial Congregational church, brightly lighted Wednesday evening was a surprise to many, as it is the vacation season. The explanation is that Dr. John A. Bruce of Everett, and Miss Louise A. Martin of San Francisco, California, were married by Rev. J. Herbert Yeoman.

Mrs. W. R. Campbell of Wollaston has returned from a few weeks' stay at the Cape.

Mrs. F. J. Perry and Misses Maud and Annie Perry of Wollaston are spending a few weeks at East Pepperell, Mass.

You can have your baked beans delivered at your house on Saturday in time for tea, by leaving your order with the Wollaston bakery, Taylor building.

Monotiquet Yacht Club. The first championship race of the Monotiquet Yacht club was sailed Thursday, off Fort Point. But five boats were entered, two in the first class and three in the second.

The Beattie obtained such a lead over the Gypsy in the first class that the latter did not finish.

The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish. The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish.

The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish. The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish.

The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish. The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish.

SOUTH QUINCY.

Mr. George A. Sheahan, a brother of Dr. Joseph M. Sheahan, died at his brother's residence on Summer street Thursday night after a short illness, aged 37 years.

The South Quinys will play Saturday, on the South Quincy grounds, Water street, one of the best twenty-year-old clubs in the state—the Talmans of South Boston. No one should fail to see this game, which will probably be the best game ever put up in Quincy.

The Sunday School teachers, scholars and choir of St. John's church had a pleasant outing at Nahant Wednesday. They were accompanied by Mr. Francis A. Cunningham and Rev. John P. Cuffe.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

The six-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening while engaged in his play.

WEST QUINCY.

It is said ex-Congressman Fallon will have other complaints to answer to in the Quincy court on Saturday.

For a while back California and Mrs. William Livingstone of Lowell were the guests this week of their grandmother, Mrs. Martha P. Hall of Crescent street.

William B. Adams, a carpenter of West Quincy, gave testimony Thursday before the State Commissioners on the Unemployed. Next Tuesday night at 7 o'clock the Commissioners will hear mechanics, metal workers, engineers and firemen, carriage workers and teamsters.

Frank Walsh is building a house on Willard street.

Joseph Roberts of North Adams is visiting friends at West Quincy.

Andrew O'Connell of Augusta, Me., is the guest of George Turner of Crescent street.

The property owners along Copeland street will be out in full force next Monday evening at the public hearing before the City Council on widening and rebuilding the street.

The laying of the 12-inch water main on Copeland street will fill a long felt want, for in the upper end of Copeland street there have had to bring their water from Crescent or Willard streets.

The alarm from Box 44 at 5.45 Monday night was rung in for a fire in a small room shed near Fallon & Sons' quarry. The department was not long in extinguishing the blaze and the recall came in promptly. The fire was incendiary and the loss will not exceed $15.

Funeral of Miss Fegan. The funeral of Miss Teresa Fegan, a teacher in the Willard school, was held Tuesday morning from St. Mary's church, solemn high mass being celebrated by Rev. E. J. Fegan of Hopkinton.

Rev. E. J. Fegan of Hopkinton, a brother of the deceased, was present, as well as several other clergymen, and teachers in the Willard building.

There was special singing by a choir of soloists with an orchestra accompaniment. The interment was at the Catholic cemetery.

A Drowning Gutter. The alarm from Box 47 at 2.15 Saturday morning, followed five minutes later by another alarm from the same box, was for a fire in a large unoccupied house on the corner of Grove street and Bates avenue, owned by Jeremiah Shattuck.

The house was a mass of flames when the department arrived and before it was extinguished the house was badly gutted. The loss is estimated at $1500.

The second alarm was pulled in by some malicious pranks of the boys.

M. E. Church. Rev. E. W. Virgin, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Communion following address by the pastor. Evening service at seven o'clock.

NORFOLK DOWNS. Capt. Clark is erecting a new stable on his place at Wollaston Park.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hall of Dorchester visited Capt. A. E. Snow, Wollaston Park, Sunday.

Miss Millie Linnell of Wollaston Park is visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. A. Gross of Brockton.

Miss Harriet Knowles of Wollaston Park visited friends and relatives at Melrose Highlands the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Abiah Polk and son Halley of Wollaston Park are at Hancock, N. H., for a two weeks' stay.

Mr. A. E. Linnell and daughter Lizzie of Wollaston Park and Mrs. Fred Wallace are raising at Melrose Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. Stratton and daughter Emma of Wollaston, spent the Sabbath with Capt. Snow of Wollaston Park.

The annual ladies' day of the Squantum Yacht club will be held today at 2 p. m. and the annual regatta will pass in review between the commodore's yacht and a flag boat of the club house, Norfolk Downs, sailing over a course to be announced at the time of the review. On the return from the regatta a collation will be served in the club house.

Why Not Through Cars? Editors of the Patriot: Your suggestion of a circuit in Quincy for all the electric cars of the city is an excellent one. It would be a great convenience to many if they could take the cars of all the routes on either Hancock, Elm or Washington streets. But there seems a still better reason. There is a demand for through cars without changes and waits at Quincy Center and Neponset. The Quincy cars should run to Boston without change.

A few days ago the writer was at Alexandria, N. H., to spend their vacation. A parent was issued this week to Harry E. Gifford of Wollaston for a type writing machine.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sprague and family of Wollaston, are at the Glills House, Bradford, N. H.

The tournament at the Duck's Nest, Wollaston, closed at 10.30 on Tuesday evening. The first prize, a box of cigars was won by H. B. Brainerd. For the second prize there was a tie between V. J. Emory and Edgar King. King won by making 105 at the shoot off against Emory's 101.

The score out of a possible 110, those making less than 100 not included: Brainerd, 105; Emory, 101; King, 107; Stratton, 106; Sanborn, 105; Benson, 105; Field, 105; D. L. Lincoln, 105; Casey, 105; Tucker, 105; Whitman, 105; Oney, 105.

Mrs. W. R. Campbell of Wollaston has returned from a few weeks' stay at the Cape.

Mrs. F. J. Perry and Misses Maud and Annie Perry of Wollaston are spending a few weeks at East Pepperell, Mass.

You can have your baked beans delivered at your house on Saturday in time for tea, by leaving your order with the Wollaston bakery, Taylor building.

Monotiquet Yacht Club. The first championship race of the Monotiquet Yacht club was sailed Thursday, off Fort Point. But five boats were entered, two in the first class and three in the second.

The Beattie obtained such a lead over the Gypsy in the first class that the latter did not finish.

The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish. The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish.

The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish. The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish.

The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish. The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish.

The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish. The Beattie's crew was over half the latter did not finish.

MILTON.

J. B. Kendrick and family have gone to Maine for a few weeks.

Harry Riley is at home sick this week.

Mrs. C. S. Whittemore and children have gone to New York for a few days.

The new block near the East Milton depot is nearly completed.

The Congregational church will be closed during the month of August.

Rev. H. C. Yronman has gone to Elliott, Me., for the month.

Gerald Hughes of Milton, a clerk in the office of the Youtis Company, was present in town Friday at the meeting of the night watch at Devereaux and probably went in swimming at Fort Sewall, where his clothes were found. He was 35 years of age.

The new police telegraph system of the town of Milton, which went into commission Wednesday, is an up-to-date system, complete in all its details. The system used is the Gamewell and it has all the latest improvements.

It consists of about sixty miles of wire, divided into four circuits and twenty call boxes. At the central station is a hand some oak receiving board upon which are the annunciator drops, relays, ringing keys, automatic receiver and telephone.

In each box there is a telephone and a small dial from which calls can be sent in for a quick wagon, slow wagon, telephone and four numbers for officer's reports.

When an officer opens a box he moves a pointer to the kind of message he wishes to be sent and in pulls a lever, and at instant it is recorded at the central station on the automatic receiver, together with the box number and the time the call came in.

When a citizen desires to send a call he puts in his key and turns it, and a call is recorded for the quick wagon from that box.

Each citizen's key is numbered and after he has given a call he can not remove the key until the arrival of an officer.

When the Chief of Police desires to communicate with any officer he simply turns a lever at the station on the officer's circuit and the minute the officer opens his call he is notified by a bell and a light on the officer that he must communicate with the station immediately by telephone.

The location of the several boxes is as follows: Corner Washington and Adams streets. Adams street, near East Milton depot. Corner Granite avenue and Squantum street. Junction of Pleasant, Centre and Adams streets. Adams street, opposite Association hall. Corner Centre avenue and Elliott street. Corner Randolph avenue and School street. Corner Randolph avenue and Centre street. Corner Randolph avenue and Pleasant street. Corner Harland and Hillside streets. Opposite Town hall.

Corner Canton avenue and Harland street. Junction Matapan and Brash Hill road. Junction Brash Hill road and Robbins street. Corner Brash Hill road and Williams avenue. Corner Brash Hill road and Milton street. Corner Altherton street and Blue Hill avenue. Corner Canton avenue and Dolley street. Junction Brash Hill road and Canton avenue.

To complete the system, a handsome new patrol wagon is being built, but will not be ready for service much before the first of September.

Chief Pierce has an efficient department whose reputation is first-class, and he promises even better work with his increased facilities.

Ward Six Playground.

Editors of the Patriot: The citizens of Ward Six are wondering when the Park Commissioners will move in the matter of a playground for this ward. Last January two largely attended meetings were held and the citizens of Ward Six wanted a playground, and wanting it bad. A vote was taken after three hours' discussion which resulted in the meeting deciding that the lot known as the "pit" was the proper site for a playground for this ward. Since that time nothing other than rumors of haggling over price has been heard of Ward Six's playground.

BRYANT & STRATTON
COMMERCIAL SCHOOL
BOSTON.
Largest & Most Successful in the World.
Will Re-open Tuesday, Sept. 4th.
THE COURSE OF STUDY is thorough, complete and practical. Pupils are fitted for the duties of life. The school is open to all, and no fee is charged. The school is open to all, and no fee is charged. The school is open to all, and no fee is charged.

The Quincy Patriot.
SATURDAY, AUG. 4, 1894.
Single Copies 5 Cents.
FOR SALE AT
The Patriot Office, Quincy, Mass.
G. F. Carlson, Editor.
Thomas Gurney, Business Manager.
W. W. Brunsfield, Printer.
Post Office, Quincy, Mass.
No. 10, State Street, Quincy, Mass.

Tailless Kites.
The tailless kite experiments made by William A. Eddy, at Blue Hill Observatory, were continued Sunday and good progress made.
The results achieved by the first kite sent out were encouraging, and Mr. Eddy pronounced it the best one of the series of small kites yet made. It flew at a height of about 700 feet with remarkable steadiness from 11.30 a. m. to 5.30 p. m., or during six hours. It was 26 inches in diameter.
Sunday, seven Malay tailless kites, from three to three feet in diameter were completed and ready for flight. One of these kites is nine feet in diameter, two are six feet, one five feet, one four feet, six inches, one four feet and one three feet.
The nine-foot kite was constructed by Mr. William Ferguson of Blue Hill Observatory, and is, so far as known, the largest Malay tailless kite ever made.
On Tuesday special cord capable of standing a strain of 200 pounds was used, and later on the day the highest record was made by carrying a self-recording instrument attached to the kite string about 200 feet below the top of a line of tandem kites.
All day Tuesday Prof. W. A. Eddy was kite flying on Blue Hill, and succeeded in sending a kite a mile above sea level. For three hours in the morning they had refused to go above 600 feet, and up to three o'clock it required jockeying to keep them up, though they were then 1650 above the top of the hill or 2314 above sea level. A little before four the end of the string came, when a big ten-foot kite was sent on and took up the feet of seven and a half miles, the highest record to date. During this time they had travelled completely around the horizon, though the wind on the hill had continued to blow from the east and the southeast. The kite then registered a pulling strain of about 25 pounds, in a wind of not more than 16 miles velocity.
At 4.40 when the kites had been climbing for another half hour and probably had reached an altitude of 1000 feet above the hill, or over a mile above sea level, a 30-mile gust from the south to 45 pounds and the cord snapped, the feet falling away to be afterwards recaptured in the woods.
A great variety of winds were noticed about 2 p. m., when the six kites were being to fly in six different strata of air, each of which had a different motion. The kites described a quarter circle looking up. The highest one was flying in westerly wind, the second in a southerly, third southeasterly, fourth easterly, fifth west of south and the lowest in a northerly wind. In all his experience Mr. Eddy said he never saw so peculiar a combination of winds.
Thursday Prof. Eddy grouped his kites, three being sent up within 20 or 30 feet of each other, to test the lifting power of kites. An ingenious self-recording instrument of card board for measuring altitude was used. A self-recording thermometer is also ready to be sent up.

Peter F. Fallon Interfered.
Ex-Councilman Fallon is a man without a muzzle, and is as independent as he is fearless. It makes no difference to him if the city officials are of the same political belief as himself, he is not backward in expressing his views.
Monday evening there was a fire in the old shed owned by Fallon & Sons. On the arrival of the fire department that evening Chief Engineer Williams seeing the smallness of the blaze ordered the men not to lay hose but to put it out with the hand chemicals.
This they attempted to do but Mr. Fallon tried to prevent them and began scattering the old boards about which tended to spread the blaze. It is also alleged that he used abusive language and called the department some pretty hard names.
The next evening Mr. Fallon visited the Central station and is alleged, continued his abuse, calling them wooden heads and threatening assault.
A warrant was then served out by the chief engineer and Mr. Fallon was arraigned on Wednesday morning.
Council for the defendant immediately filed a motion to quash the complaint on the ground that it was not properly drawn. He also submitted cases in support of his motion.
Council for the government was not prepared to argue the point and asked for a continuance until Saturday to argue the motion, which was granted.
If the motion to quash is overruled this morning, a day will then be fixed for trial.

The Unemployed.
The State Board to investigate the Subject of the Unemployed wishes to secure information in regard to the conditions of employment in the principal trades and industrial occupations in the vicinity of Boston during the past year. For this purpose hearings have begun in the Council Chamber, City Hall, Boston.
And undertaking to consider methods of relief, the Board wishes to collect definite facts, so far as possible, on the following points:
The number of workers in the several trades at a normal period of activity as compared with 1893 and 1894.
The steadiness of employment.
The number of out-of-work benefits given by trade unions and labor societies.
The question of migration of workmen from, or to, the vicinity of Boston.
The stability of wages since January 1, 1893.
And organizations for assisting members of labor societies to secure work.
For purposes of convenience the hearings will be grouped as follows:
The building trades on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, August 1st and 2d at 7.7. machinists, metal workers, engineers and firemen, carriage workers and teamsters, on Tuesday evening, August 7th; garment workers, tailors, hat and cap makers, cutters, and those engaged in the boot, shoe and leather industries, on Wednesday, August 8th; the printing and typographical industries, and the tobacco industries, on Thursday, August 9th; miscellaneous industries, including street laborers, on Friday, August 10th.
The Board would be glad to receive the names of any persons who wish to testify at these hearings, and will welcome the assistance of those who are able to give information on the above line of questions. Those who intend to be present are invited to notify the secretary of the Board to investigate the Subject of the Unemployed, Commonwealth Building, 11 Mt. Vernon street, Boston.
It is intended to hold other hearings of a more general character at a later date.

Bowdoin Square Reopening.
The favorite Bowdoin Square Theatre in Boston will throw open its doors to its thousands of friends Saturday evening, August 4th. There will be no matinee the coming Saturday but the usual Wednesday and Saturday afternoon performances will be continued throughout the season.
During the short time the Bowdoin Square has been closed it has been put in splendid shape by a large force of painters and decorators and now it is one of the most sumptuous playhouses in New England. New carpets of exquisite color and design have been laid throughout the theatre and draperies have been generally hung. The interior presents a most inviting and charming appearance.
The opening attraction will be Walter Sanford's company in the thrilling melodrama "The Power of Gold," which will be interpreted by a splendid company of players and embellished with handsome scenery and appropriate costumes. "The Power of Gold" is a play of love, despair, poverty and murder, the harsh journey of the ruffianly thief and his scheming mate, find an echo in the soft, honeyed words of a pair of honest lovers; the rich trapping of the gilded saloon in aristocratic palace, fades away to give place to the squalor of a tenement garret in London's overcrowded slums. For the wonderful setting which frames the dramatic incidents, the scenic artists have chosen some of the most weird, squalid, as well as aristocratic quarters in the great British capital. Most of the localities are near that world famous church of St. Christopher Wren's, St. Paul's, which forms the hub of "old London."
Wished to See the President.
A Washington dispatch to the Journal says: Thomas Cadogan, a crazy seceder from Boston or Quincy, Mass., is all the information that can be obtained from the local authorities. He is a man of the ruffianly thief and his scheming mate, find an echo in the soft, honeyed words of a pair of honest lovers; the rich trapping of the gilded saloon in aristocratic palace, fades away to give place to the squalor of a tenement garret in London's overcrowded slums. For the wonderful setting which frames the dramatic incidents, the scenic artists have chosen some of the most weird, squalid, as well as aristocratic quarters in the great British capital. Most of the localities are near that world famous church of St. Christopher Wren's, St. Paul's, which forms the hub of "old London."

HOUGH'S NECK.
J. E. James and family of Waltham are at the Wild Rose cottage.
J. Walter Bradlee of Milton and family are at Rock Island.
Mrs. Dow of Cambridge is at the Pucco cottage.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dixon have left the Boston cottage and gone to New York to join the Bostonians.
The Darcy Duncans are on sale every afternoon at the post-office store.
Dances are held in a local hall twice a week.
J. B. Leland and family of Roslindale are at the Daisy cottage.
Table's casino looks deserted this year and the building used for the merry-go-round has been turned into a bowling alley.
Mrs. J. M. Pitts has purchased the saloon of the steamer Carroll and will move it to the plains.
Mrs. M. E. Driswell of South Boston is at the Hilltop cottage.
Mr. Legard and family of Stoughton are at the Legard cottage.
Walter D. Packard of Brockton is at his new cottage on Western road.
Two new mails have been added to the Hough Neck service and the time of arrival and departure of mails from this station now is: Arrive 9 A. M. and 2 P. M.; close 8 A. M., 12 M. and 5 P. M.
O. A. Dale, the car painter with his family are at the Jay cottage.
The entertainment at the Union chapel, Tuesday evening, was excellent and was largely attended.
Henry Kelley and family of Brockton are at their cottage off Jay street.
These guests are at the Riverside: Mrs. William Porter, Almer Starnett and Stephen Ross.
Mr. Kendall of Boston has taken the Berger cottage.
John J. Day and family of Boston are at the Hilltop cottage.
G. H. Heindel and family of Boston are at the Pleasant View cottage on Centre road.
C. W. Wiggins of Boston is at the Beau-sang cottage.
Miss Tucker of Hyde Park is a guest at the Wild Rose.
W. H. Jordan and family of Boston are at the Ideal.
John P. Lewis has purchased the cabin and pilot house of the Carroll and will move it to Great Hill.
Guests this week at the Loretta are: Mrs. Daniel Cronin and family, Charles Pfeiffer and family, D. Collins and family, William O'Brien and family, Miss Leslie Jones, Mrs. Devine and family, Miss Train, Masters Berie and Willie Keller, Charles Morton, Henry White and family, Misses Alice and Lottie White, Mrs. J. M. Pitts all of Boston, and Edward Daly and family of Everett.
The first championship regatta of the Monaquet Yacht club is being sailed today off Hough Neck and Fort Point. Summary tomorrow.
The season at Hough Neck is practically at its height, and few are the cottages that are not now occupied. The booth proprietors, however, claim that they are doing no business, for the reason that the cottages are so many that they can't get them all. This can be laid to several causes, principally the lack of money, as many of the people who frequent this place are now out of work.
The principal excitement for the summer residents is bathing, and every day at high tide scores of men, women and children can be seen all along the beach in gay bathing costumes, enjoying the refreshing bath.
Messrs. E. D. and L. B. West of Milton, with their families, are at the Bellevue.
G. L. Stengert and family of Jamaica Plain are occupying the Danielson cottage.
P. C. Creber and family of Boston Highlands are at the Cottage Home for the season.
William Agnew and family are at the Idlewild.
E. O. Bartlett and family of Boston are at the Spot and his wife as a guest Miss Louise Burroughs of Malden.
Mr. O'Neill of Roxbury is at his new cottage on Crosby street.
Fish markets are about as thick as flies on Sea Street from the clam shell to the cod house.
Stanley Meers is building a 25-foot driveway around Great Hill starting from the car house. The driveway will make an approach as high as the hill and will be a beautiful sight to see.
Mrs. Louise Eastman of Boston is occupying the Fort Cottage.
Mr. Simon Hershon of Boston is a guest at the Harbor Hotel.
W. S. McNary and family are at the Murray cottage.
Mrs. John Robinson and family of Braintree are at the Fayolite.
C. M. Thayer of Canton is at the Williams cottage on Great Hill.
Packard & Eldridge are building a new house on Rock Island road.
Mrs. J. F. Nolan of the Beatrice has as guests this week Mrs. Emma Shine, Misses Rebecca, Gertrude and Fannie Shine of Portland, Me.; Miss Gertrude H. O'Brien, Frank D. O'Connor, William Bazy, Miss Clara, Miss Margaret Callahan of Boston; Mrs. F. H. Wilgott of Dorchester.
The Hyde Park boys who have been occupying the Bell View cottage went home Saturday night.
Richard Turner and family of Boston are at Nut Island.
Capt. Tappen and family of Roslindale are at the Sea View cottage.
A party from Charlestown and one from Ashmont had an outing Thursday at Mr. Pierce's.
Mrs. Mary O'Neill and family of Roxbury are at the Warren cottage.
Those dudes at the beach July 22, are given away by the Dedham Transcript as follows:
Four prominent but modest youths of this town hired a barouche at one of our local lively stables on Sunday last, and set out for a day's outing at Hough Neck, Quincy. When they left the old shore town they were clothed in their usual Sunday attire, but in their hearts burned a desire to astonish the clam diggers at the seashore; and so, when they had reached a secluded spot near the bridge over the railroad at Mattapan, they drove their team to one side of the road, and, reaching beneath the seats of their vehicle, pulled out sundry bundles. These were quickly unrolled, and then all four, with lightning-like rapidity, proceeded to doff their Sabbath gear and don the contents of the bundles. Like butterflies shedding their chrysalides, they five minutes later, shone forth resplendent in full yachting costume—white pants, etc. Folding their cast-off garments, they hid them beneath the seats of the carriage, and then drove off toward their destination, happy in the belief that no mortal eye had beheld the living picture of their character change. "Fate spoke." A little bird gave them away.
Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Smith of Milton, East Dedham, are at their cottage.
Messrs. Charles Houghton, Charles McGlashen, Herbert F. Watson, John J. Smith and Charles Fanning of Dedham are camping out here.
Henry R. Alexander and family of Chaucery street, East Dedham, are at the summer residence.
Frank Tracy, Edward O'Sullivan, Owen McCaffrey and William Riley of East Dedham enjoyed last week at Camp Ejection.
Newly installed at Hough Neck before 12 M. will reach the Ledges in time for insertion that day. Items solicited.
—The hospital at Marlboro was closed Wednesday because of lack of funds.

WEYMOUTH.
The nomination of J. F. Dwyer as postmaster of Weymouth was confirmed by the Senate Thursday.
As one of our clergymen says: There's no Sunday in East Weymouth. But a small proportion of the former church-going people now attend divine worship, the day being given up to recreation and enjoyment. Nantasket and Duxbury Landing, as in former years, draw a good many to enjoy their pleasures, while Quincy Point, by its accessibility, has become a popular resort. Some say, "Is the electric railroad increased the respect for the fourth commandment?"
Officers Pratt, Bailey, Peare and Allen attended the premises of Henry J. Shaw at East Weymouth, Sunday, and selected six bottles of beer.
The announcement that Col. Benjamin S. Lovell will be a probable candidate for gubernatorial honors upon the retirement of Gov. Greenhalgh, is received with delight by his townsmen, who would be more than pleased to see him elevated to the chief magistracy of the good old Commonwealth of Massachusetts. There is hardly a better known man among the Grand Army in the State than Col. Lovell, and in the event of his receiving the nomination, the "boys" as he always calls them, will place him with the spirit of 1860 and place him in the governor's chair.
That he is eminently fitted for the position, one doubts and his friends in Weymouth and will heartily endorse his nomination.
For many years Col. Lovell was commander of Reynolds post, G. A. R., and if the boys had their way he would still be at the head of the post, but the increasing business of the John P. Lovell Arms company, of which he is treasurer, was such that he reluctantly resigned his command, although still retaining his membership. Upon Monday morning when the post turns out to perform service duty, Ben can always be found among the rank and file. Here's hoping he may be nominated and elected.
Weymouth also has a high tax rate this year. The assessors report a loss of $93,116 in valuation making the rate $18.50. Every ward gained in real estate, but lost in personal. The figures:
Real estate, $5,054,200.00
Personal, $1,496,250.00
Bank shares, $304,000.00
Rate per $100, $18.50
Total, $6,854,450.00
Increase real estate, $67,329.00
Loss personal estate, $140,445.00
Rate in 1893, $17.20
A hayrack party of about sixteen went to Nantasket July 27, returning about 10 o'clock. An enjoyable time was had by all.
The Old North Congregational society had its picnic July 27 in Deacon grove, North Weymouth. A large number were present and swings, hammocks and boats made the day enjoyable.
B. W. O'Neill of Boston has purchased the estate of Mrs. E. A. Carter on Torrey avenue.
N. W. Gardner is among the latest removals from the custom house, Boston, to the new building.
Ransom-May.
The friends of Miss Hesper Q. May at Atlantic will be interested in the following item from a Palatka, Florida, paper:
RANSOM-MAY-In Palatka, Fla., July 3, a. m. at 8, Mark's Episcopal church, by Rev. Dr. Avery, Mr. Howard R. Ransom to Miss Hesper Q. May.
Mr. Ransom is in the postal service, being in charge of a room from Macon to Palatka, Fla., and is a native of Weymouth, formerly resided in Palatka and has many friends who wish him much happiness in his new life. Miss May is from Atlantic, Mass., and spent last winter at San Mateo, where she has a number of friends.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.
OLD COLONY SYSTEM.
On and after June 17, 1894, the following rates will be in effect:
Quincy for Boston—6.10, 6.54, 7.26, 7.33, 7.50, 8.08, 11.00, 11.20, 12.00, 12.15, 12.30, 12.45, 12.55, 1.02, 1.20, 1.25, 1.30, 1.35, 1.40, 1.45, 1.50, 1.55, 2.00, 2.05, 2.10, 2.15, 2.20, 2.25, 2.30, 2.35, 2.40, 2.45, 2.50, 2.55, 2.60, 2.65, 2.70, 2.75, 2.80, 2.85, 2.90, 2.95, 3.00, 3.05, 3.10, 3.15, 3.20, 3.25, 3.30, 3.35, 3.40, 3.45, 3.50, 3.55, 3.60, 3.65, 3.70, 3.75, 3.80, 3.85, 3.90, 3.95, 4.00, 4.05, 4.10, 4.15, 4.20, 4.25, 4.30, 4.35, 4.40, 4.45, 4.50, 4.55, 4.60, 4.65, 4.70, 4.75, 4.80, 4.85, 4.90, 4.95, 5.00, 5.05, 5.10, 5.15, 5.20, 5.25, 5.30, 5.35, 5.40, 5.45, 5.50, 5.55, 5.60, 5.65, 5.70, 5.75, 5.80, 5.85, 5.90, 5.95, 6.00, 6.05, 6.10, 6.15, 6.20, 6.25, 6.30, 6.35, 6.40, 6.45, 6.50, 6.55, 6.60, 6.65, 6.70, 6.75, 6.80, 6.85, 6.90, 6.95, 7.00, 7.05, 7.10, 7.15, 7.20, 7.25, 7.30, 7.35, 7.40, 7.45, 7.50, 7.55, 7.60, 7.65, 7.70, 7.75, 7.80, 7.85, 7.90, 7.95, 8.00, 8.05, 8.10, 8.15, 8.20, 8.25, 8.30, 8.35, 8.40, 8.45, 8.50, 8.55, 8.60, 8.65, 8.70, 8.75, 8.80, 8.85, 8.90, 8.95, 9.00, 9.05, 9.10, 9.15, 9.20, 9.25, 9.30, 9.35, 9.40, 9.45, 9.50, 9.55, 9.60, 9.65, 9.70, 9.75, 9.80, 9.85, 9.90, 9.95, 10.00, 10.05, 10.10, 10.15, 10.20, 10.25, 10.30, 10.35, 10.40, 10.45, 10.50, 10.55, 10.60, 10.65, 10.70, 10.75, 10.80, 10.85, 10.90, 10.95, 11.00, 11.05, 11.10, 11.15, 11.20, 11.25, 11.30, 11.35, 11.40, 11.45, 11.50, 11.55, 11.60, 11.65, 11.70, 11.75, 11.80, 11.85, 11.90, 11.95, 12.00, 12.05, 12.10, 12.15, 12.20, 12.25, 12.30, 12.35, 12.40, 12.45, 12.50, 12.55, 12.60, 12.65, 12.70, 12.75, 12.80, 12.85, 12.90, 12.95, 13.00, 13.05, 13.10, 13.15, 13.20, 13.25, 13.30, 13.35, 13.40, 13.45, 13.50, 13.55, 13.60, 13.65, 13.70, 13.75, 13.80, 13.85, 13.90, 13.95, 14.00, 14.05, 14.10, 14.15, 14.20, 14.25, 14.30, 14.35, 14.40, 14.45, 14.50, 14.55, 14.60, 14.65, 14.70, 14.75, 14.80, 14.85, 14.90, 14.95, 15.00, 15.05, 15.10, 15.15, 15.20, 15.25, 15.30, 15.35, 15.40, 15.45, 15.50, 15.55, 15.60, 15.65, 15.70, 15.75, 15.80, 15.85, 15.90, 15.95, 16.00, 16.05, 16.10, 16.15, 16.20, 16.25, 16.30, 16.35, 16.40, 16.45, 16.50, 16.55, 16.60, 16.65, 16.70, 16.75, 16.80, 16.85, 16.90, 16.95, 17.00, 17.05, 17.10, 17.15, 17.20, 17.25, 17.30, 17.35, 17.40, 17.45, 17.50, 17.55, 17.60, 17.65, 17.70, 17.75, 17.80, 17.85, 17.90, 17.95, 18.00, 18.05, 18.10, 18.15, 18.20, 18.25, 18.30, 18.35, 18.40, 18.45, 18.50, 18.55, 18.60, 18.65, 18.70, 18.75, 18.80, 18.85, 18.90, 18.95, 19.00, 19.05, 19.10, 19.15, 19.20, 19.25, 19.30, 19.35, 19.40, 19.45, 19.50, 19.55, 19.60, 19.65, 19.70, 19.75, 19.80, 19.85, 19.90, 19.95, 20.00, 20.05, 20.10, 20.15, 20.20, 20.25, 20.30, 20.35, 20.40, 20.45, 20.50, 20.55, 20.60, 20.65, 20.70, 20.75, 20.80, 20.85, 20.90, 20.95, 21.00, 21.05, 21.10, 21.15, 21.20, 21.25, 21.30, 21.35, 21.40, 21.45, 21.50, 21.55, 21.60, 21.65, 21.70, 21.75, 21.80, 21.85, 21.90, 21.95, 22.00, 22.05, 22.10, 22.15, 22.20, 22.25, 22.30, 22.35, 22.40, 22.45, 22.50, 22.55, 22.60, 22.65, 22.70, 22.75, 22.80, 22.85, 22.90, 22.95, 23.00, 23.05, 23.10, 23.15, 23.20, 23.25, 23.30, 23.35, 23.40, 23.45, 23.50, 23.55, 23.60, 23.65, 23.70, 23.75, 23.80, 23.85, 23.90, 23.95, 24.00, 24.05, 24.10, 24.15, 24.20, 24.25, 24.30, 24.35, 24.40, 24.45, 24.50, 24.55, 24.60, 24.65, 24.70, 24.75, 24.80, 24.85, 24.90, 24.95, 25.00, 25.05, 25.10, 25.15, 25.20, 25.25, 25.30, 25.35, 25.40, 25.45, 25.50, 25.55, 25.60, 25.65, 25.70, 25.75, 25.80, 25.85, 25.90, 25.95, 26.00, 26.05, 26.10, 26.15, 26.20, 26.25, 26.30, 26.35, 26.40, 26.45, 26.50, 26.55, 26.60, 26.65, 26.70, 26.75, 26.80, 26.85, 26.90, 26.95, 27.00, 27.05, 27.10, 27.15, 27.20, 27.25, 27.30, 27.35, 27.40, 27.45, 27.50, 27.55, 27.60, 27.65, 27.70, 27.75, 27.80, 27.85, 27.90, 27.95, 28.00, 28.05, 28.10, 28.15, 28.20, 28.25, 28.30, 28.35, 28.40, 28.45, 28.50, 28.55, 28.60, 28.65, 28.70, 28.75, 28.80, 28.85, 28.90, 28.95, 29.00, 29.05, 29.10, 29.15, 29.20, 29.25, 29.30, 29.35, 29.40, 29.45, 29.50, 29.55, 29.60, 29.65, 29.70, 29.75, 29.80, 29.85, 29.90, 29.95, 30.00, 30.05, 30.10, 30.15, 30.20, 30.25, 30.30, 30.35, 30.40, 30.45, 30.50, 30.55, 30.60, 30.65, 30.70, 30.75, 30.80, 30.85, 30.90, 30.95, 31.00, 31.05, 31.10, 31.15, 31.20, 31.25, 31.30, 31.35, 31.40, 31.45, 31.50, 31.55, 31.60, 31.65, 31.70, 31.75, 31.80, 31.85, 31.90, 31.95, 32.00, 32.05, 32.10, 32.15, 32.20, 32.25, 32.30, 32.35, 32.40, 32.45, 32.50, 32.55, 32.60, 32.65, 32.70, 32.75, 32.80, 32.85, 32.90, 32.95, 33.00, 33.05, 33.10, 33.15, 33.20, 33.25, 33.30, 33.35, 33.40, 33.45, 33.50, 33.55, 33.60, 33.65, 33.70, 33.75, 33.80, 33.85, 33.90, 33.95, 34.00, 34.05, 34.10, 34.15, 34.20, 34.25, 34.30, 34.35, 34.40, 34.45, 34.50, 34.55, 34.60, 34.65, 34.70, 34.75, 34.80, 34.85, 34.90, 34.95, 35.00, 35.05, 35.10, 35.15, 35.20, 35.25, 35.30, 35.35, 35.40, 35.45, 35.50, 35.55, 35.60, 35.65, 35.70, 35.75, 35.80, 35.85, 35.90, 35.95, 36.00, 36.05, 36.10, 36.15, 36.20, 36.25, 36.30, 36.35, 36.40, 36.45, 36.50, 36.55, 36.60, 36.65, 36.70, 36.75, 36.80, 36.85, 36.90, 36.95, 37.00, 37.05, 37.10, 37.15, 37.20, 37.25, 37.30, 37.35, 37.40, 37.45, 37.50, 37.55, 37.60, 37.65, 37.70, 37.75, 37.80, 37.85, 37.90, 37.95, 38.00, 38.05, 38.10, 38.15, 38.20, 38.25, 38.30, 38.35, 38.40, 38.45, 38.50, 38.55, 38.60, 38.65, 38.70, 38.75, 38.80, 38.85, 38.90, 38.95, 39.00, 39.05, 39.10, 39.15, 39.20, 39.25, 39.30, 39.35, 39.40, 39.45, 39.50, 39.55, 39.60, 39.65, 39.70, 39.75, 39.80, 39.85, 39.90, 39.95, 40.00, 40.05, 40.10, 40.15, 40.20, 40.25, 40.30, 40.35, 40.40, 40.45, 40.50, 40.55, 40.60, 40.65, 40.70, 40.75, 40.80, 40.85, 40.90, 40.95, 41.00, 41.05, 41.10, 41.15, 41.20, 41.25, 41.30, 41.35, 41.40, 41.45, 41.50, 41.55, 41.60, 41.65, 41.70, 41.75, 41.80, 41.85, 41.90, 41.95, 42.00, 42.05, 42.10, 42.15, 42.20, 42.25, 42.30, 42.35, 42.40, 42.45, 42.50, 42.55, 42.60, 42.65, 42.70, 42.75, 42.80, 42.85, 42.90, 42.95, 43.00, 43.05, 43.10, 43.15, 43.20, 43.25, 43.30, 43.35, 43.40, 43.45, 43.50, 43.55, 43.60, 43.65, 43.70, 43.75, 43.80, 43.85, 43.90, 43.95, 44.00, 44.05, 44.10, 44.15, 44.20, 44.25, 44.30, 44.35, 44.40, 44.45, 44.50, 44.55, 44.60, 44.65, 44.70, 44.75, 44.80, 44.85, 44.90, 44.95, 45.00, 45.05, 45.10, 45.15, 45.20, 45.25, 45.30, 45.35, 45.40, 45.45, 45.50, 45.55, 45.60, 45.65, 45.70, 45.75, 45.80, 45.85, 45.90, 45.95, 46.00, 46.05, 46.10, 46.15, 46.20, 46.25, 46.30, 46.35, 46.40, 46.45, 46.50, 46.55, 46.60, 46.65, 46.70, 46.75, 46.80, 46.85, 46.90, 46.95, 47.00, 47.05, 47.10, 47.15, 47.20, 47.25, 47.30, 47.35, 47.40, 47.45, 47.50, 47.55, 47.60, 47.65, 47.70, 47.75, 47.80, 47.85, 47.90, 47.95, 48.00, 48.05, 48.10, 48.15, 48.20, 48.25, 48.30, 48.35, 48.40, 48.45, 48.50, 48.55, 48.60, 48.65, 48.70, 48.75, 48.80, 48.85, 48.90, 48.95, 49.00, 49.05, 49.10, 49.15, 49.20, 49.25, 49.30, 49.35, 49.40, 49.45, 49.50, 49.55, 49.60, 49.65, 49.70, 49.75, 49.80, 49.85, 49.90, 49.95, 50.00, 50.05, 50.10, 50.15, 50.20, 50.25, 50.30, 50.35, 50.40, 50.45, 50.50, 50.55, 50.60, 50.65, 50.70, 50.75, 50.80, 50.85, 50.90, 50.95, 51.00, 51.05, 51.10, 51.15, 51.20, 51.25, 51.30, 51.35, 51.40, 51.45, 51.50, 51.55, 51.60, 51.65, 51.70, 51.75, 51.80, 51.85, 51.90, 51.95, 52.00, 52.05, 52.10, 52.15, 52.20, 52.25, 52.30, 52.35, 52.40, 52.45, 52.50, 52.55, 52.60, 52.65, 52.70, 52.75, 52.80, 52.85, 52.90, 52.95, 53.00, 53.05, 53.10, 53.15, 53.20, 53.25, 53.30, 53.35, 53.40, 53.45, 53.50, 53

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, AUG. 11, 1894.

Deputy Fire Marshal Adams.

Ex-Postmaster Warren W. Adams has received his appointment as deputy fire marshal for this district with headquarters in Quincy, and has already commenced his duties as such.

The chief engineer of every town in his district makes a report to him of all fires on a blank similar to that filed with the city clerk.

The marshal then investigates all fires, especially those where no cause is given or when the cause is given as incendiary.

Although Mr. Adams' headquarters are in Quincy, he will have no office, for the special reason that he is on the road the larger part of the time investigating fires.

Quincy has as many incendiary fires in the future as it has had during the past few months, Deputy Adams will have his hands full at home and it is hoped that he may be successful in bringing some of the numerous firebugs to justice.

Gill Wanted in Quincy.

Some time ago Patrick E. Gill was arrested in Hyde Park for larceny, and entering, but escaped from the officers. It has since been learned that when Gill escaped he came to Quincy and pitched camp in the woods at West Quincy.

August 2 he went into the store of Mary D. La Pierre at 115 Copeland street, while the woman was out and stole the money box containing $4.00. Before he could get away the woman returned and a tussle ensued in which the woman came off victorious and got back her box. During all this time Chief of Police Hayden and his officers knew that Gill was in this district and had been chasing him up. So hot were their chase because Gill left town and was later captured in Boston.

Since that time it has been learned that Gill made his headquarters in Quincy and boarded with Mrs. Lapham at the Hancock house and when she broke up to go to Hough Neck, Gill went off probably to Hyde Park, but he left behind a bag which it is alleged contained a lot of burglar's tools which Chief Hayden took possession of Wednesday afternoon, but which contained only a "jimmy," nearly new. Gill is now in Dedham jail awaiting the action of the grand jury and when that is disposed of there will be three warrants issued in his case.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

As Gill was boarding in Quincy last winter when breaks were of a frequent occurrence, it is more than likely that he might have had a hand in the affairs. However it is too late now to connect him with the affair, and the police of this city will have to content themselves with issuing warrants against Gill for breaking and entering the premises of Mary La Pierre, as sent upon her, and having burglar's tools in his possession.

CITY BRIEFS.

Misses Cassie and Georgie Thayer are at Hanson.

People's party convention last night at Hancock's hall.

Mr. George Nelson has accepted a position at Mattapan.

Postmaster Burke is having the street letter boxes repainted.

Miss Hatlie B. Pierce is spending her vacation in New York.

Moonlight excursions this week on the steamer City of Quincy.

Edwin W. Newcomb and family are at Germantown for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Burrows of South street are at Kittery, Me.

John Ross and John Walsh have gone to Meriden, N. H., for two weeks.

Frederick F. Lapham is visiting relatives in Bangor, Maine, for a few weeks.

W. S. Osborne left Saturday for Kingsfield, Maine, among the Rangeley lakes.

Miss Charlotte L. Sargent is enjoying a two weeks' vacation at Mt. Washington.

Mrs. B. J. Weeks and children went to Exeter, N. H., last Saturday for a month.

John W. Hersey of Coddington street, celebrated his fiftieth birthday Wednesday.

Mrs. George F. Rand of Newcomb place has gone to Bradford, N. H., to visit her parents.

Mrs. Joseph N. Page has gone to Pleasant Beach, Nantasket, for a two weeks' visit.

Joseph W. Stancome and family has gone for their summer vacation, to Sandbach, N. Y.

The Quincy Electric Light and Power company has declared an annual dividend of 6 per cent.

Mr. E. C. Marshall, salesman at C. W. Guy's, is spending his vacation in New Hampshire.

Mrs. Mary H. Pevely and son Arthur of Chestnut street have gone to Portland, Me., for two weeks.

Miss Jennie Davis, bookkeeper for Rogers Bros., is spending her vacation in New Hampshire.

The Sons of Veteran Drum corps will hold an outing Sunday, in Bradley's woods, Weymouth.

Our aged and respected citizen, George H. Locke, is spending the month of August in Deerfield, N. H.

Canal street, from Hancock to Cottage street, is being put in first-class condition by the highway department.

Mr. Edgar Emery, formerly a clerk at Purkin's drug store, has accepted a similar position at Wilbur's drug store.

Miss Emma B. Biganes, the bookkeeper at A. G. Durkin's drug store, is enjoying a short vacation at Providence, R. I.

The Columbus band of South Quincy will give an open air concert at Hough Neck Sunday afternoon and evening.

The Quincy Yacht club are making great preparations for the open race of the club which takes place Saturday, August 25.

The old sheds and trees back of the Congregational church are being removed preparatory to the building of the chapel.

It was a fine day Sunday and the street railway was taxed to its utmost to accommodate the large number who desired to ride.

Mrs. Jas. Burr, Miss Mabel Burr and John Hamsell leaves Saturday to attend the Methodist Camp meeting at Attitash, N. H.

Mr. George N. Nash, manager of the Quincy Clothing Co., returned this week from a two weeks' outing at Boothbay Harbor, Maine.

Miss Nellie and Mary Davis of Main street have returned after making a pleasant visit with their uncle at Middlefield, Connecticut.

W. W. Mitchell and Dr. Halliwell were the attraction of the competitors at the drive wheel party, on Wednesday evening, at the Granite City Club rooms.

Mr. Edward E. Hayden, of the New York & Boston Express Co., and wife, left Tuesday for a two weeks' carriage drive through New Hampshire.

Mr. Amos G. Bennett has returned from Manchester, N. H., but continues as special representative of the Standard manufacturing company of Boston.

The Norfolk County Republican committee organized Saturday with Robert H. O. Schulte of Dedham as chairman; John H. Holden of Quincy as secretary; Morris M. Alden of Randolph as treasurer.

Edward Smith, a boy employed at the stable of the Hingham Polo club, who was the victim of a horse, was injured, the result of being thrown from a pony on Wednesday, and striking on his head.

The evening trip, 9:15, from Nantasket beach has been discontinued by the City of Quincy. The steamer now takes its regular route to Boston, via Boston Harbor, and gives its patrons a most delightful sail.

Messrs. C. F. Pettigill, George G. Salville, George Jones and W. A. Winslow left last Saturday in the yacht White Fawn for Casco bay. This is the fourth annual trip of the gentlemen here, and will take this locality. They will be absent about two weeks.

A little bird informs the PATRIOT that Mr. Fred Goss has captured a deer in the Green Mountain State, and that he left with a good heart on Monday to bring home his prize. His smiling countenance has become a feature at the store of John W. Nash, and as Fred is very popular a rousing reception will be given to Mr. and Mrs. Goss about the 10th inst.

The hand concert recently held in the square was a decided success. If South Quincy has any more such pleasant surprises for us, please spare them at once. The Columbus band which furnished the music certainly deserves much credit. The music was well rendered, the large number of people present were quite enthusiastic, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of such a concert. The only regret is that they should have kept their light under a bushel so long.

Dr. Halliwell was a sight to behold Monday morning. His family are summering at Germantown, and his son waded out on the beach until he got stuck in the mud. The doctor went to the rescue but also got stuck, and the more he waded the deeper he went. The tide was coming in and our friend got nervous, for he had read of death in the quicksand. It was not to be his fate, however, for he was rescued, and his best, go-to-meeting clothes were saved. He is now home, and it is left to him to decide whether or not he will ever wade again.

New arrivals at The Greenleaf are: Michael O'Hearn, and Mrs. Smith, E. O. Johnson, and Mrs. F. York, J. S. Gibson, J. L. Crosby, F. E. Wilcox, C. M. Waugh, Dr. Sweet, A. O. Black, Charles J. Tobin, recently returned, H. B. Bradstreet, J. G. Brackett, Boston; H. J. Greene, W. H. McLean, H. B. Holdridge, New York; H. Webster, Duxbury; Mr. and Mrs. S. J. King, Brookline; William H. Collins, Fall River; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hill, Bath, Maine; Winthrop Coffin, Brookline; Sumner F. Brown, Cambridge; W. J. Parker, Philadelphia; W. A. Alnoworth, Providence, R. I.; George A. Round, Mansfield; W. L. Sprague, F. Y. Sprague, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Wight, Brookline; Arthur Gray, East Walpole; Mr. George H. Sprague, Ludlow.

We have been enjoying fine summer weather this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace F. Spear are at Marshfield Hills.

E. Granville Pratt, Esq., was taken seriously ill yesterday morning.

The wife of Mr. Eben B. Glover on Spear street, is quite seriously sick.

The frequent showers have made many of the lawns look green and beautiful once more.

The highway department is filling up the muddy places in the Square with crushed stone.

Mr. S. A. Miller on Coddington street, and Mr. Harold Rogers on Bigelow street, are to exchange residences.

J. Walter Bradley will sell at auction, on Saturday next, a house and 10,000 feet of land on Water street.

John Foster of Foster Bros., is spending his vacation in Maine. He promises to bring home some big game.

Rev. H. D. Dietz returned from his vacation on Tuesday evening. He has now gone back to the city to live.

Miss Teena Cleaves and Miss Cora Dyer have today for Stockton Springs, Maine, where they expect to spend a month or more.

Mrs. L. E. Prince and daughter, Mrs. E. A. Westcott, of Wollaston, left on Thursday for a few weeks' outing at St. John, N. B., and Digby, N. S.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sheppard left last Saturday for a trip through the mountains. They are accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Davidson of Newton, and Miss Carrie Trask of Weymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Pollard have returned from their outing at New Hampshire. Mr. Pollard left the train at Concord, N. H., and finished his journey on his wheel a distance of some 50 miles.

Arthur Lound and George Lavitt have returned from Kingsfield, Me., where they have been for the past few weeks. Although they went fishing all the time, all they brought home to show for it was a brown bear skin.

Miss Augusta C. Hardwick has left her residence on Wood street, and gone to California, to take care of her brother, who is in quite poor health. She some years ago went to the Pacific shore and knows somewhat the pleasures and fatigue of a week's travel on the cars.

Owing to heavy mow cut having been engaged by another party for Saturday afternoon the game of ball between the Quinys and Randolphs will be played at North Weymouth. The Randolphs have secured Kild of last year's Salems for the battery and a rousing good game is expected.

WEST QUINCY.

Miss F. R. King of Boston is the guest of Miss N. L. Gray of Crescent street.

Dr. E. S. Simpson of Braintree will conduct the services in the Methodist church, next Sunday.

The building of the Quincy Quinys company's works at West Quincy is fast approaching completion. Some of the machinery has arrived, and the works will be ready to be put in operation by the time the new railroad is completed.

Miss Florence Thayer of Crescent street, has gone to Central Falls, R. I., for three weeks.

A granite shed on Centre street was entered Monday night and two bush barrels valued at $14 stolen.

Miss Emma P. Kimball of Crescent street spent a few days the first of the week at Providence, R. I.

The water department are laying the pipe on Copeland street at the rate of 500 feet a day.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Virgin and daughter are at Sherburn.

Morton A. Turner of Crescent street, has gone to Palermo, Maine, on a visit.

Methodist church, West Quincy.

Rev. E. W. Virgin, pastor. Dr. E. S. Simpson will speak morning and evening.

ATLANTIC.

The two latest to join the Billings street bicyclists are Miss Lillian Hammond and Dr. Bruce. Who next?

The Atlantic Land Company has opened a branch office on their land in Atlantic.

Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., on Tuesday evening held his first quarterly conference at 10 A. M. Sunday School at 12 M. Prayer meeting of the Epworth League at 6:30 P. M. Praise service and preaching at 7:30 P. M. Topic of evening discourse, Musical instruments in divine worship.

QUINCY POINT.

Mrs. H. M. Federhen is visiting friends at Mattapan.

The Quincy & Boston power station is being painted red.

Miss Annie Burke is the guest of Mrs. Frank H. Holt of Mill street.

The Washington school house is being refurnished on the second floor.

The steam launch Philomina was reported as being at Bar Harbor, Me., Tuesday.

The City of Quincy carried about eight hundred Sunday. The pretty little steamer continues to grow in favor, and every day scores of ladies take their children for a sail.

Mrs. and Daniel McNeil of Wharf street were greatly surprised on Friday last by a number of their friends. Miss Dyer of Worcester presented them with an elegant butter knife, the blade being of gold and silver.

The evening was passed by playing games, music and singing, and all had a good time.

Mrs. F. W. Perry is visiting friends in Randolph.

Warren Hayden of the Point is working at present in Hyanis, Mass.

A large crowd was present Tuesday evening at Quincy Quinys. A pleasant May spent by young and old, and as they retired to their separate homes, accompanied by several substantial tokens, that Mr. Johnson might see many such happy evenings.

Although he is 71 years old, and in broken health he is still able to enjoy such times, and the friends from Boston and the several wards of this city, who helped him to pass the day so happily, are pleased to think that this little steamer was marked with such joyful effect.

QUINCY CYCLE CLUB.

Run Sunday to Crescent Beach.

Last Sunday the club ran to Nantasket. The club wishes to express its thanks to Capt. Dyer of the Eagles, for a copy of his publication upon Massachusetts clubs and wheelmen.

Regular monthly meeting Monday, August 12, 8 o'clock. Members are urgently requested to be present, as important business will be transacted.

Schedule tax rate this year is $12.70, a decrease of $1.30 from 1893.

The tax rate on Newport for 1894 is $15.70, a decrease of $1.30 over 1893.

WOLLASTON.

Mrs. Sarah A. Williamson of Wollaston has purchased the estate of P. H. Blanchard on Keith street, Weymouth.

Miss Howard of Wollaston is at Hyanis, a guest of Miss French, daughter of Supt. French of the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R.

She will also pass a portion of this month at the summer residence of Mr. A. I. Bradley at Five Islands, Maine.

Mr. Walter Whittemore and family of Wollaston are at the Cape.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Walter Arnold of Wollaston, will pass the month of August at their summer cottage at Stony Beach, Hull.

Five new members were admitted to the Wollaston Cycle club last week and several more applications will be acted upon this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Baker of Wollaston, started on Saturday for the White Mountains, via Portland, where they will stop a few days. They will visit the summit of Mt. Washington and other points of interest.

Rev. H. Austin of the PATRIOT is enjoying a vacation in Maine.

Rev. C. W. Wilder expects to go to Old Orchard Beach for a few days, leaving Wollaston on Monday or Tuesday next.

The official board of the Methodist Episcopal church in Wollaston, held a meeting held Aug. 24, voted the pastor, Rev. C. W. Wilder, a vacation of two weeks.

A committee of the Methodist Episcopal church is engaged in raising funds for a new organ. Rev. C. W. Wilder will preach next Sunday evening, "Musical Instruments in Divine Worship." At the close of the sermon all present who have not already subscribed toward the organ fund will have an opportunity to do so.

Presbyterian Church.

Rev. W. Stoddard, pastor. Morning service at 10:30. Subject: "The Temptation of Christ." Sunday School at close of service. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Subject: "Backsliding." Y. P. S. C. E. Tuesday evening. Congregational prayer meeting Thursday evening. Come and welcome.

NORFOLK DOWNS.

Mrs. Greenard and her two children, Chester and Edith, of Norfolk Downs, have returned from a two weeks' visit to Greenfield, N. H.

The estate of E. M. C. Woodworth at Norfolk Downs, has been sold to Albert E. Hoxney.

Norfolk Downs already has a resident physician. Dr. J. N. Jones has had the courage to hang out a single there, corner Billings road and Vane street, and is meeting with success. His weekly health talks in the PATRIOT are also appreciated.

Mr. Wardworth has moved from Wollaston Park to Abington.

Mr. Keith's new house at Wollaston is nearly completed.

Miss Emma Wheeler has returned from her vacation much improved in health.

Mr. Harry Wheeler has moved from Roxbury to his house at Wollaston Park.

Cap. E. A. Snow left home Tuesday for a vacation at Newport, where he will spend a few weeks with relatives and friends.

Mr. Elias Harlow, wife and son of Westboro, Mass., spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Henry Milbury, at Wollaston Park.

Mr. George Vinton of Wollaston Park is in poor health and the extreme hot weather has nearly prostrated him, but hopes are entertained for a speedy recovery.

Miss Eleanor Ross of Wollaston left this week for St. John, N. B., where she will spend a few weeks with relatives and friends.

The Wollaston bakery, A. C. Ray proprietor, is becoming noted for its excellent ice cream.

MILTON.

Rev. George S. Avery, evangelist, who is conducting the tent meetings at South Quincy, will preach at the Baptist church, at East Milton, on Sunday morning, at 10:30.

Mrs. William Robertson is at Concord, N. H.

Puffer, the druggist, is putting in new fixtures in his new store in the Elbowthorpe.

Large crowds enjoy the weekly open air concert of the Milton band, on Thursday evenings.

William McGrath has returned from his visit to Central Harbor, Me.

Selectman and Mrs. J. Albert Simpson are in New Hampshire for a few days.

Eugene Gallagher, clerk at T. L. Pearce's office, has on his vacation next week.

Leonard Ferguson caught a seventeen pound bluefish last Sunday off Boston Light.

The new school building on Church street, East Milton, is practically completed, and will be dedicated some time this month. The building is a model one. At the main entrance there is a wide corridor extending the whole length of the building. On either side of the main entrance are two master's offices and the other as teachers' room. From the corridor, doors lead into the classrooms, and the schoolroom. The one at the extreme north will be used as the kindergarten room, and as it has large folding doors, that and the next room can be thrown into one large room if necessary.

Two broad stairways lead to the upper floor, from the corridor, which is arranged in the same manner as the first floor with the exception that there is a good sized room which will be used as a drawing and painting room.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, AUGUST 18, 1894. VOL. 58. NO. 33. FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy, No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday.
At Boston, HOTEL PELHAM, Monday, Wednesday, Friday.

DR. CHAS. S. FRENCH,
DENTIST.
All kinds of work in Dentistry done in the
best manner.
GAS OR ETHER ADMINISTERED.
No. 80 Hancock Street,
Quincy, Aug. 8.

DR. C. R. SHERMAN,
DENTIST.
Room 5 and 6, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office hours, 8 to 12, 1 to 5, usually evenings
7 to 9.

DR. G. R. ENGLAND,
DENTIST.
11 Chestnut Street, Quincy, Mass.
Connected by telephone.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
Surgeon Dentist.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain,
with the "Boston Ventilate" Vapor.
DEDHAM, QUINCY, NORWOOD.
At Quincy office, French's Building,
WEDNESDAYS.
At Dedham Fridays and Saturdays.
At Norwood Mondays and Saturdays.
July 25.

F. S. DAVIS, M. D.,
HOMOEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN.
No. 5 Elm Street, Quincy.
Connected by Telephone.
OFFICE HOURS: 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., and 7 P. M. to 9 P. M.
Quincy, Oct. 23.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.,
Specialist, Orthodontia.
REMOVED TO
NO. 7 TEMPLE PLACE.
New Building, Quincy, Mass.
Office hours: 9 A. M. to 4 P. M., and 7 P. M. to 9 P. M.
Quincy, Oct. 23.

W. W. JENNINGS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
37 BIRCH STREET, Quincy, Mass.
Office hours: 9 A. M. to 1 P. M., 2 P. M. to 5 P. M., and 7 P. M. to 9 P. M.
QUINCY OFFICE, ADAMS BUILDING.
Room 2.
8 to 10 A. M., 6 to 9 P. M.
Quincy, May 26.

JOHN W. MCANARNEY,
Counselor-at-Law,
Room 1, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Saturdays, at the office of COTTER &
JENNETT, 220 Washington Street, Boston.
August 11.

NOTICE.
The Board of Water Commissioners will hold further notice, held meetings every Thursday evening in Room No. 4, Durgin &
Merrill's block, at 7 1/2 o'clock. All persons having business with the board are requested
to present it at these meetings.

HERBERT T. WHITMAN,
JAMES H. STEVENS,
JOHN T. CAVANAGH,
Quincy, June 25, 1892.

CITY OF QUINCY.
The Overseer of the Poor
WILL be at his office in the CITY
HALL, from 10 to 12 A. M. on SAT-
URDAYS.
Z. S. ARNOLD, Overseer.
Quincy, Feb. 24.

J. J. KENLEY,
PLUMBER.
All orders promptly attended to at reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed.
NO. 9 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY.
In office formerly occupied by the City's Gas Light Company, Quincy Avenue.
Jan. 6. P. O. Box 808.

W. G. SEARS,
Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting,
WELLS DRIVEN
AND PUMPS REPAIRED.
SHOP IN PIERCE'S BLOCK,
Corner Washington and Hancock Streets,
QUINCY MASS.

E. M. LITCHFIELD,
HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting,
and all its branches will receive prompt attention. Residence, Quincy Avenue.
All work executed in a workmanlike
manner.
Quincy, March 12.

JOHN F. KEMP,
MACHINIST,
Bicycles Repaired.
82 WATER STREET, SOUTH QUINCY.
Sept. 18.

H. T. WHITMAN,
CIVIL ENGINEER
—AND—
SURVEYOR,
ADAMS BUILDING, QUINCY.
Hours, 8 to 9 A. M.
Boston Office, 85 Devonshire Street.
Hours, 12 to 2 P. M.
N. B. Plans of nearly all the Real Estate
in the City of Quincy can be found at my office.
May 28.

THOS. W. LINCOLN,
Awning Maker,
266 Washington Street,
QUINCY POINT.
ITALIAN AWNINGS,
ALL KINDS OF STREETS,
MADE IN THE BEST MANNER,
AT VERY MODERATE PRICES.
—FOR—
STORES, HALLS, PRIVATE RESIDENCES,
BEACH HOUSES.
Best of references given.
May 5.

Lace Curtains
Grass Bleached and Refinished.
EQUAL TO NEW.
James Oliver & Son
South St. Opposite Dr. Harlow's.
Box 25, Quincy Point, Mass.
Aug. 4.

H. O. SOUTHER,
MASON AND CONTRACTOR.
AGENT for Akron Drain and Sewer Pipe,
Quincy, Mass.
Plain and Ornamental Brick Work,
Plastering and Cement Work.
ORNAMENTAL CENTRES
FURNISHED AND PUT UP.
Shop—No. 4 Canal St.
Residence—No. 12 Washington St.
Quincy, Mass.

House Cleaners, Attention!
QUINCY
ELECTRIC CARPET CLEANING WORKS.
Carpet taken up, cleaned and relaid in
the best manner at short notice.
W. W. ADAMS, G. B. LINCOLN.
Orders may be left at T. F. Mitchell's or lock box 252, Quincy, Oct. 17.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
Nathaniel Nightingale,
Grantee St., near Post Office.
BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
PEREZ JOYCE,
Quincy Avenue near Liberty Street.

Faxon's New Block,
Opposite City Hall, Quincy.
WALL PAPER.
F. T. APPLETON
HAS the largest stock of Wall Paper in Quincy and can sell as low as any Boston dealer, having
Twenty Thousand Rolls in Stock
Of the Latest Designs.
First-class Work Guaranteed.
Room Mouldings and Window Shades to Order.
Residing Writers and Sweepers.
Sept. 1.

Granite Firms.
MERRY MOUNT GRANITE CO.
Incorporated 1881. Manufacturers and Dealers in Granite and Monumental Work. Quarries near Quincy Adams Station, Quincy.
Established 1844.
MCGRATH BROS.,
Large stock of Finished Monuments and Talent in Monumental and Cemetery Work. Quarries near Quincy Adams Station, Quincy.
Established 1844.

FULLER, FOLEY & CO.,
Granite Manufacturers and Dealers. Work
opposite West Quincy Depot.
O. T. ROGERS GRANITE CO.,
Successors to O. T. Rogers & Co. M. P.
Wright, Gen. Workmen. Granite Statuary and Reliefs. Building and Monumental Granite.
Cemetery work a specialty. P.O., W. Quincy.

MCDONNELL BROTHERS,
Wholesale Dealers in Dark Blue and Gray
Quincy Granite. Granite Statuary and Reliefs. Building and Monumental Granite.
Cemetery work a specialty. P.O., W. Quincy.

THOMAS & MILLER,
Manufacturers of Monumental and Cemetery
Work and Statuary. P. O. address, Quincy
Branch Office, 18 Lake Ave., Saratoga, N. Y.
GEO. H. HITCHCOCK & CO.,
Medium Blue Quincy Granite for Building
and Cemetery Work. Quarry and Office
Quincy, Mass. Post Office address, Quincy.

JOSS BROTHERS,
Monumental Granite Works. Granite Statuary,
Quincy. Best of stock, and workmanship
guaranteed. All orders promptly filled.
E. F. CARR & CO.,
(Successors to Frederick & Field.)
Established in 1839. Monuments, Cemetery
Work, Granite Statuary and Reliefs. Quarries and Works, Quincy, Mass.

CRAIG & RICHARDS,
Granite Co. Wholesale Dealers in all kinds of Granite and Monumental Work. Quarries
and Works, Quincy, Mass.

BADGER BROTHERS,
Granite Dealers and Machinists. Monumental Granite of all Descriptions. Celebrated Ashland Emery for sale. West
Quincy.

MILLER & LUCE,
Wholesale Manufacturers of Art Monuments
from special designs. Works and Office,
West Quincy. Boston Office, 178 Tremont.
JOHN FALLON & SONS,
Quarries and Dealers in Rough and Dressed
Granite for Building and Monumental Work.
Quarry on Quarry Street. Address, Quincy.

THOS. F. BURKE & BROS.,
Manufacturers of Monuments and every description of Cemetery Work. Office and Works, Willard St., West Quincy.

HERBERT F. NYE,
TEACHER OF
PIANO, ORGAN, VOICE.
Residence—Coddington Street.
P. O. Address—Box 579, Quincy, Mass.
At home Tuesday evenings.
Feb. 23.

FRANK C. CILBERT,
Teacher of Piano-forte.
190 Hancock St. Quincy.
Sept. 6.

C. H. ABBOTT,
Piano and Organ Tuner
BATES REPAIRABLE
Workmanship Guaranteed.
ORDERS RECEIVED AT
E. B. SOUTHER'S NEWS DEPOT,
Washington Office, 12 West Street.
16 years' experience in
Piano and Organ Tuning.

FRANK A. LOCKE.
Best of references and thorough work. All orders promptly attended to. Quincy office,
John O. Holden's Jewelry Store. Boston
office, Ross' Music Store, 32 West Street.
Washington office, Ross' periodical store.
WARREN D. HIGGINS,
Architect and Builder.
Can show you a large number of Piano
for Houses which will cost from $100 to $10,000.
Residence, 7 Faxon Avenue, Quincy
May 21.

WALTER S. RANDALL,
Carpenter and Builder,
183 1/2 State Street, Quincy.
HAS removed to his new residence on Bigelow Street. He is prepared to furnish estimates for house building, and will give prompt attention, and warrant a continuance of past favors.
Quincy, July 1.

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER
Pearl Street,
SOUTH QUINCY.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
Joining PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
Hancock Court, Quincy, Mass.

ELUCUTION, PHYSICAL CULTURE
—AND—
DRAMATIC ACTION.
MISS ELISIE RUSSELL, will receive a limited number of pupils at 211 HAN-COCK STREET, QUINCY, TUESDAYS
and FRIDAYS.
Will also arrange and direct
PANTOMIMES, GREEK TABLEAU, and STATURE POSES.
March 10.

Quincy Savings Bank,
145 Hancock Street, Quincy.
President, RUFERT F. CLAPLIN.
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MARSH.
Treasurer and Secy., GEORGE L. GILL.
Board of Investment, RUFERT F. CLAPLIN,
EDWIN W. MARSH, JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
ELIAS A. PERKINS.
BANK HOURS: (On and after November 1, 1893)—From 8:30 to 12 A. M. and 2 to 4
P. M.
Deposits placed on interest on the first
Tuesday of January, April, July and October.
Quincy, Oct. 7, 1893.

JOHN G. THOMAS,
Slate, Tin, Copper and Composition
ROOFING.
Also Ready Roofing of all kinds.
Slate Roofs Cheaper than Shingles,
and makes your roof fire proof.
Residence, Warren Ave., Wollaston.
East side of Old Colony Railroad.
June 16.

F. H. CRANE & SONS,
Dealers in
HAY, GRAIN, FLOUR AND FEED
—also—
BRICK, LIME, HAIR, CEMENT
PLASTER AND DRAIN PIPE.
Bowker's Fertilizers and all kinds of Putty Supplies, Thetford Road.
Washington St., Quincy.
Branch Store at Quincy Adams.
Telephone, 219-4. Jan. 7-11

Ranges and Parlor Stoves!
Large Assortment and Low Prices.
PLEASE CALL AND EXAMINE before purchasing elsewhere. We also keep on hand a large stock of
GRATES AND LININGS
Kitchen Furnishing Goods,
Zinc, Lead Pipe, Sheet Lead
Iron Sinks, Etc., Etc.

TIN ROOFING
A SPECIALTY.
All Furnace Work and Jobbing
will be promptly attended to.
Good Work and Low Prices Guaranteed
—AT—
SANBORN & DAMON'S.
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

COMER'S
COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.
FOUNDED 1840
Reopens September 4th.
A thorough and practical course of study in
BUSINESS AND SHORTHAND,
54 YEARS AND 23,000 PUPILS
Spoken for itself. Prospectus free by mail or call.

CITY SCAVENGER.
TILLY Undergoes has been reappointed
by the Board of City Scavenger
and will attend to all orders at short
notice.
Particular attention is given to see that the work is done thoroughly and disinfesting all places.
PRICES: For vaults, $1.50 per ton; Cesspools, 75 cents per load.
Additional price of 25 cents per load.
All orders promptly attended to.
PETER MCCONARY.
Quincy, Feb. 18.

W. H. BENNETT
I am prepared to do all kinds of Grading and Jobbing. Garden work done
at short notice and reasonable prices.
Also Light Draining, Cesspools built and repaired. Order taken for cesspool cleaning.
CARETAKERS.
A word to house cleaners. I have been in the business twenty years as caretaker, and all my work is done by hand and at very low prices.
Agent for Laven Dyeing, Bathing, Grass
Stain, Stripes and Flowers of all kinds furnished to order at short notice.
All orders promptly attended to.
Residence, Faxon Block, 24 Chestnut St.
Lock Box 261, Quincy.
April 7.

Education & Employment
COMER'S
COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.
FOUNDED 1840
Reopens September 4th.
A thorough and practical course of study in
BUSINESS AND SHORTHAND,
54 YEARS AND 23,000 PUPILS
Spoken for itself. Prospectus free by mail or call.

COMER'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,
660 Washington St., cor. Beach,
BOSTON, MASS.
July 21. 8w toe

CITY SCAVENGER.
TILLY Undergoes has been reappointed
by the Board of City Scavenger
and will attend to all orders at short
notice.
Particular attention is given to see that the work is done thoroughly and disinfesting all
places.
PRICES: For vaults, $1.50 per ton; Cesspools, 75 cents per load.
Additional price of 25 cents per load.
All orders promptly attended to.
PETER MCCONARY.
Quincy, Feb. 18.

W. H. BENNETT
I am prepared to do all kinds of Grading and Jobbing. Garden work done
at short notice and reasonable prices.
Also Light Draining, Cesspools built and repaired. Order taken for cesspool cleaning.
CARETAKERS.
A word to house cleaners. I have been in the business twenty years as caretaker, and
all my work is done by hand and at very low prices.
Agent for Laven Dyeing, Bathing, Grass
Stain, Stripes and Flowers of all kinds furnished to order at short notice.
All orders promptly attended to.
Residence, Faxon Block, 24 Chestnut St.
Lock Box 261, Quincy.
April 7.

JAMES R. WILD,
Manufacturer of all kinds of Carriages, Wagons
—AND—
Harness,
16 AND 18 HANCOCK STREET,
QUINCY, MASS.

REPAIRING A SPECIALTY.
Practical Horse Shoeing.
Telephone No. 9709.
June 5.

S. SCAMMELL,
Wheelwright,
CARRIAGE BUILDER
AND PAINTER.
—ALSO—
HORSE SHOEING AND JOBBING
By First-class Workmen.
All orders promptly attended to and
faithfully executed.
Thankful for past favors, a liberal share of
patronage is solicited.
Shop, Quincy Avenue.

NEW Millinery
NEW STOCK OF
HATS AND BONNETS.
Latest Styles in Shapes, Colors and Material.
Mourning Goods a specialty.
MISS S. H. HUSSEY,
121 Hancock Street.
Opp. The Greenleaf.
Quincy, Oct. 13.

F. H. CRANE & SONS,
Dealers in
HAY, GRAIN, FLOUR AND FEED
—also—
BRICK, LIME, HAIR, CEMENT
PLASTER AND DRAIN PIPE.
Bowker's Fertilizers and all kinds of Putty Supplies, Thetford Road.
Washington St., Quincy.
Branch Store at Quincy Adams.
Telephone, 219-4. Jan. 7-11

Ranges and Parlor Stoves!
Large Assortment and Low Prices.
PLEASE CALL AND EXAMINE before purchasing elsewhere. We also keep on hand a large stock of
GRATES AND LININGS
Kitchen Furnishing Goods,
Zinc, Lead Pipe, Sheet Lead
Iron Sinks, Etc., Etc.

TIN ROOFING
A SPECIALTY.
All Furnace Work and Jobbing
will be promptly attended to.
Good Work and Low Prices Guaranteed
—AT—
SANBORN & DAMON'S.
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

COMER'S
COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.
FOUNDED 1840
Reopens September 4th.
A thorough and practical course of study in
BUSINESS AND SHORTHAND,
54 YEARS AND 23,000 PUPILS
Spoken for itself. Prospectus free by mail or call.

COMER'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,
660 Washington St., cor. Beach,
BOSTON, MASS.
July 21. 8w toe

CITY SCAVENGER.
TILLY Undergoes has been reappointed
by the Board of City Scavenger
and will attend to all orders at short
notice.
Particular attention is given to see that the work is done thoroughly and disinfesting all
places.
PRICES: For vaults, $1.50 per ton; Cesspools, 75 cents per load.
Additional price of 25 cents per load.
All orders promptly attended to.
PETER MCCONARY.
Quincy, Feb. 18.

W. H. BENNETT
I am prepared to do all kinds of Grading and Jobbing. Garden work done
at short notice and reasonable prices.
Also Light Draining, Cesspools built and repaired. Order taken for cesspool cleaning.
CARETAKERS.
A word to house cleaners. I have been in the business twenty years as caretaker, and
all my work is done by hand and at very low prices.
Agent for Laven Dyeing, Bathing, Grass
Stain, Stripes and Flowers of all kinds furnished to order at short notice.
All orders promptly attended to.
Residence, Faxon Block, 24 Chestnut St.
Lock Box 261, Quincy.
April 7.

JAMES R. WILD,
Manufacturer of all kinds of Carriages, Wagons
—AND—
Harness,
16 AND 18 HANCOCK STREET,
QUINCY, MASS.

The Quincy Patriot.
PUBLISHED
Saturday Mornings,
GREEN & PRESCOTT
Editors and Proprietors.
THE PATRIOT is published in the
only City in Norfolk County, and is
one of the oldest newspapers in the
State, being established in 1837.

OFFICE OF PUBLICATION,
No. 115 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
TERMS:—$2.50 per year in advance. $3.00
if not paid before the 1st of January.
N. ELIZABETH GREEN. ORR W. PRESCOTT.

Poetry.
A Summer Night.
I feel the breath of the summer night,
The trees, the vines, the flowers are astir
With tender desire.
The white moths flutter about the lamp,
Enamored with light,
And a thousand sighs softly sing
Of love and longing.
But I am alone and how can I sing
Praises to thee?
Come, Night! unveil the beautiful soul
That waits for me.
—ELIZABETH STODDARD.

Miscellany.
An Electrical Elopement.
So partly out of pique and partly because her parents disapproved of the match, she promised to elope with him.
It wasn't to be any trivial elopement, a getting married before the register in London and going to Paris for a few weeks, but a run to Liverpool, a marriage there by special license, and a trip by fastest steamer to New York. Arriving there, they would cross America, and gradually work their way around the world back to London in a year or two. George Web-ley was rich and could easily afford this kind of a wedding tour. In old times the parents of Tilly Webley would have been more anxious that their daughter should marry George Webley rather than the poorer, but of course more moral, young man, Tom Bantley. But times had changed, and it was the daughters that now looked for money with their lovers.
The girl admitted to herself that she liked Tom Bantley best, but he certainly had treated her very badly. They had had an appointment for a picnic up the river, but without a word Tom had gone away, and worse still, he had sent no explanation or excuse for his desertion. "Tilly thought she would teach him a life-long lesson, and knowing well that her parents would oppose the match, and especially in view of this, she had arranged for the special license at Liverpool, she would meet him at Exton station on the twenty-seventh, and together they would journey to the seaport town." Tilly knew that if you are in a hurry, "I said," "we can send all the telegrams you want from Quenestown just as well as from here or Liverpool."
"Oh, I know that," answered Tilly, determinedly. "I know enough to go, so
be afraid."
George laughed, and the train sped on to Liverpool. When it slowed up at Rugby station Tilly leaned affectionately
over the railing and said to her friend
George, "I am going to give you a cup of tea."
"Now, George, you go over to the refreshment room and eat all you have an appetite for. I don't think I care for anything until we reach Liverpool!"
"Bring me the answer when we get to Rugby!"
George swung himself into his compartment saying: "Just as I thought, not a blessed thing to eat here, but we wait ten minutes at the next stop and I may be able to get you anything you wish. I say,"
he added, "you're not telegraphing to your friends about this, are you?"
"Oh, not about this," she replied quickly. "I am only sending some necessary
telegrams, that is all."
"You know if you are in a hurry," he said, "we can send all the telegrams you want from Quenestown just as well as from
here or Liverpool."
"Oh, I know that," answered Tilly, determinedly. "I know enough to go, so
be afraid."
George laughed, and the train sped on to Liverpool. When it slowed up at Rugby station Tilly leaned affectionately
over the railing and said to her friend
George, "I am going to give you a cup of tea."
"Now, George, you go over to the refreshment room and eat all you have an appetite for. I don't think I care for anything until we reach Liverpool!"
"Bring me the answer when we get to Rugby!"
George swung himself into his compartment saying: "Just as I thought, not a blessed thing to eat here, but we wait ten minutes at the next stop and I may be able to get you anything you wish. I say,"
he added, "you're not telegraphing to
your friends about this, are you?"
"Oh, not about this," she replied quickly. "I am only sending some necessary
telegrams, that is all."
"You know if you are in a hurry," he said, "we can send all the telegrams you want from Quenestown just as well as from
here or Liverpool."
"Oh, I know that," answered Tilly, determinedly. "I know enough to go, so
be afraid."
George laughed, and the train sped on to Liverpool. When it slowed up at Rugby station Tilly leaned affectionately
over the railing and said to her friend
George, "I am going to give you a cup of tea."
"Now, George, you go over to the refreshment room and eat all you have an appetite for. I don't think I care for anything until we reach Liverpool!"
"Bring me the answer when we get to Rugby!"
George swung himself into his compartment saying: "Just as I thought, not a blessed thing to eat here, but we wait ten minutes at the next stop and I may be able to get you anything you wish. I say,"
he added, "you're not telegraphing to
your friends about this, are you?"
"Oh, not about this," she replied quickly. "I am only sending some necessary
telegrams, that is all."
"You know if you are in a hurry," he said, "we can send all the telegrams you want from Quenestown just as well as from here or Liverpool."

Boiling Meats.
Boiling is a branch of culinary art that
is understood by comparatively few cooks,
although it is generally supposed to be the most simple form of cookery known. It is a fact that in kitchens where the cook
understands her business actual boiling appears to be very rarely used, excepting for a few minutes at a time, and then
the number of hours necessary must be reported. The Boston Assessors interpreted
the law simply that the number of hours
must be returned, but the Assessors
in other places took it literally and taxed
each hour. In this case the tax on the fowls were reported last year in Manchester, according to Secretary Olin's statistics. Finally, however, the law was found to work hardship to widows and other poor people, and the tax on the fowls was abolished. It is estimated that there are over 15,000
cycloes owned in Boston, but they are not likely to be taxed for many a year to come.
—Boston Journal.

Boiling Meats.
Boiling is a branch of culinary art that
is understood by comparatively few cooks,
although it is generally supposed to be the most simple form of cookery known. It is a fact that in kitchens where the cook
understands her business actual boiling
appears to be very rarely used, excepting
for a few minutes at a time, and then
the number of hours necessary must be reported. The Boston Assessors interpreted
the law simply that the number of hours
must be returned, but the Assessors
in other places took it literally and taxed
each hour. In this case the tax on the fowls were reported last year in Manchester, according to Secretary Olin's statistics. Finally, however, the law was found
to work hardship to widows and other
poor people, and the tax on the fowls was abolished. It is estimated that there are over 15,000
cycloes owned in Boston, but they are not likely to be taxed for many a year to come.
—Boston Journal.

Boiling Meats.
Boiling is a branch of culinary art that
is understood by comparatively few cooks,
although it is generally supposed to be the most simple form of cookery known. It is a fact that in kitchens where the cook
understands her business actual boiling
appears to be very rarely used, excepting
for a few minutes at a time, and then
the number of hours necessary must be reported. The Boston Assessors interpreted
the law simply that the number of hours
must be returned, but the Assessors
in other places took it literally and taxed
each hour. In this case the tax on the fowls were reported last year in Manchester, according to Secretary Olin's statistics. Finally, however, the law was found
to work hardship to widows and other
poor people, and the tax on the fowls was abolished. It is estimated that there are over 15,000
cycloes owned in Boston, but they are not likely to be taxed for many a year to come.
—Boston Journal.

Boiling Meats.
Boiling is a branch of culinary art that
is understood by comparatively few cooks,
although it is generally supposed to be the most simple form of cookery known. It is a fact that in kitchens where the cook
understands her business actual boiling
appears to be very rarely used, excepting
for a few minutes at a time, and then
the number of hours necessary must be reported. The Boston Assessors interpreted
the law simply that the number of hours
must be returned, but the Assessors
in other places took it literally and taxed
each hour. In this case the tax on the fowls were reported last year in Manchester, according to Secretary Olin's statistics. Finally, however, the law was found
to work hardship to widows and other
poor people, and the tax on the fowls was abolished. It is estimated that there are over 15,000
cycloes owned in Boston, but they are not likely to be taxed for many a year to come.
—Boston Journal.

Boiling Meats.
Boiling is a branch of culinary art that
is understood by comparatively few cooks,
although it is generally supposed to be the most simple form of cookery known. It is a fact that in kitchens where the cook
understands her business actual boiling
appears to be very rarely used, excepting
for a few minutes at a time, and then
the number of hours necessary must be reported. The Boston Assessors interpreted
the law simply that the number of hours
must be returned, but the Assessors
in other places took it literally and taxed
each hour. In this case the tax on the fowls were reported last year in Manchester, according to Secretary Olin's statistics. Finally, however, the law was found
to work hardship to widows and other
poor people, and the tax on the fowls was abolished. It is estimated that there are over 15,000
cycloes owned in Boston, but they are not likely to be taxed for many a year to come.
—Boston Journal.

Boiling Meats.
Boiling is a branch of culinary art that
is understood by comparatively few cooks,
although it is generally supposed to be the most simple form of cookery known. It is a fact that in kitchens where the cook
understands her business actual boiling
appears to be very rarely used, excepting
for a few minutes at a time, and then
the number of hours necessary must be reported. The Boston Assessors interpreted
the law simply that the number of hours
must be returned, but the Assessors
in other places took it literally and taxed
each hour. In this case the tax on the fowls were reported last year in Manchester, according to Secretary Olin's statistics. Finally, however, the law was found
to work hardship to widows and other
poor people, and the tax on the fowls was abolished. It is estimated that there are over 15,000
cycloes owned in Boston, but they are not likely to be taxed for many a year to come.
—Boston Journal.

Boiling Meats.
Boiling is a branch of culinary art that
is understood by comparatively few cooks,
although it is generally supposed to be the most simple form of cookery known. It is a fact that in kitchens where the cook
understands her business actual boiling
appears to be very rarely used, excepting
for a few minutes at a time, and then
the number of hours necessary must be reported. The Boston Assessors interpreted
the law simply that the number of hours
must be returned, but the Assessors
in other places took it literally and taxed
each hour. In this case the tax on the fowls were reported last year in Manchester, according to Secretary Olin's statistics. Finally, however, the law was found
to work hardship to widows and other
poor people, and the tax on the fowls was abolished. It is estimated that there are over 15,000
cycloes owned in Boston, but they are not likely to be taxed for many a year to come.
—Boston Journal.

Boiling Meats.
Boiling is a branch of culinary art that
is understood by comparatively few cooks,
although it is generally supposed to be the most simple form of cookery known. It is a fact that in kitchens where the cook
understands her business actual boiling
appears to be very rarely used, excepting
for a few minutes at a time, and then
the number of hours necessary must be reported. The Boston Assessors interpreted
the law simply that the number of hours
must be returned, but the Assessors
in other places took it literally and taxed
each hour. In this case the tax on the fowls were reported last year in Manchester, according to Secretary Olin's statistics. Finally, however, the law was found
to work hardship to widows and other
poor people, and the tax on the fowls was abolished. It is estimated that there are over 15,000
cycloes owned in Boston, but they are not likely to be taxed for many a year to come.
—Boston Journal.

Boiling Meats.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, AUG. 18, 1894.

Death of John Quincy Adams.

John Quincy Adams is dead. Such was the announcement that came like a shock to the citizens of Quincy on Tuesday, for hardly was there a man better known or more highly respected than John Quincy Adams.

The news of Mr. Adams' death was a great surprise, for few knew that he was ill. When he was in Europe he contracted malaria and ever since his return, a few months ago, he has not been enjoying the best of health and has been gradually failing, although nothing serious was anticipated.

About two weeks ago he had a slight shock of apoplexy, the result of weakness, soon rallied and was apparently on the road to recovery. Tuesday about 10 a. m. he sustained another shock, but did not rally and shortly after five o'clock he passed away.

He was the eldest son of Charles Francis Adams, and was born in Boston, September 22, 1853, and was graduated from Harvard college in 1883.

He spent several years abroad with his father, who was United States Minister to London. Returning he settled in Quincy and has resided here ever since that time, occasionally however making a European trip.

In public life Mr. Adams was well known. In 1867, 1868 and 1869 he was the Democratic candidate for Governor but was defeated. He was elected to represent this district in the Massachusetts Legislature in 1870 and 1871, and in 1872 was a candidate for the Vice Presidency on the ticket with Charles O'Connor.

In 1875 he was a candidate for Lieutenant Governor and for the Legislature, and was elected to the latter office. He has also served twice since that time.

In 1884 he was nominated for congress in the second district, but declined in favor of Dr. William Everett.

In town affairs Mr. Adams has always taken a deep interest, and for many years officiated as moderator at all of the town meetings. He was a member of the school board for several years. He has also been identified with many projects for public improvement.

He leaves a widow, three sons and a daughter. His children are Charles Francis Adams, 24, a member of the present city government, George H. Adams, Arthur Adams and Abigail Adams.

Nothing could have been less ostentatious than the funeral services Thursday afternoon over the remains of our townsman. Many citizens regretted very much that they were not permitted to attend and thus show their respect. Had the ceremonies been public the funeral would have been one of the largest ever held in the city, and would have included prominent officials of the nation, state and city, and others distinguished at the bar and in educational, charitable and other movements.

But the burial was private, quiet and simple, in accordance with the wishes of the family. Placed here, were at half past six in Quincy and most of the stores and offices of the city were closed during the afternoon from three to four o'clock.

The family took a final look at the remains at noon, when the casket was closed not to be reopened. The casket was of broadcloth with heavy silver trimmings, the inscription being on a solid plate.

*****
* SEPT., 1893. *
* JOHN QUINCY ADAMS. *
* AUG., 1894. *
*****

The services took place at three o'clock and were conducted by the Rev. D. M. Wilson, formerly pastor of the First church. Only the immediate family were present. There was no music and no pall bearers.

At the cemetery quite a number of citizens gathered in the vicinity of the grave, most of them poor people who had often been befriended by Mr. Adams. Rev. Mr. Wilson offered prayer, and then the casket was lowered into its brick vault, which was covered with heavy stone slabs.

Greater Boston Commission.

Governor Greenhalge named the Metropolitan District Commission, Thursday, which is to consider a greater Boston, or a commission governing surrounding municipalities, and one of the three gentlemen is a respected citizen of this city. The members are: William B. Rice of Quincy, Osborne Hovey, Jr., of Brookline, and Charles P. Curtis, Jr., of Boston. The commissioners are to receive no remuneration for their services, but may incur necessary expenses not exceeding $4000.

The bill of Representative Cook of Boston which was presented to and adopted by the recent Legislature included these cities and towns in the Metropolitan district—Chelsea, Everett, Malden, Saugus, Woburn, Melrose, Stoneham, Woburn, Winchester, Medford, Somerville, Cambridge, Arlington, Lexington, Belmont, Watertown, Waltham, Newton, Brookline, Dedham, Milton, Hyde Park, Wintrop, Revere, Lynn, Nahant, Swampscott, Marblehead, Quincy, Weymouth, Hingham, Hull.

Mr. Rice is one of the largest taxpayers both of Boston and Quincy, and is prominent in the affairs of each. He was at one time chairman of the executive committee of Boston business men. In Quincy he has served on the board of park commissioners, and was the founder of the Quincy Hospital, in which he is deeply interested. He has served the state on the Governor's Council, and is an exceptionally good man for the position.

CITY BRIEFS.

Miss Lizzie O'Hara is at Narragansett Pier, R. I.

The schools will reopen two weeks from next Tuesday.

Letter Carriers Willett and Farrell are taking their vacation.

The wife of Mr. Eben B. Glover on Spear street, is quite sick.

Several of our well known citizens are reported as being seriously ill.

Ralph Pitts has been awarded a $200 scholarship at Harvard college.

Rev. Alfred Manchester of Salem will preach in First church Sunday.

Miss Emma Allen of Ware is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Titon.

D. E. Wadsworth & Co. now carry a complete stock of Standard patterns.

Mr. Dennis Connelly lost his second child by diphtheria Saturday morning.

There was a hop last evening at the Quincy yacht clubhouse at Houghs Neck.

The annual picnic of St. John's parish will be held at Lovell's grove, August 22.

Shoemakers will be pleased to learn that the Drake shoe factory will be reopened.

The frequent showers have made many of the lawns look green and beautiful once more.

Quinys vs. Whitmans in the Old Colony League at Merry Mount park this afternoon.

Miss Alice K. Prescott returned Saturday from a month's outing at Vining Villa, Sibley Beach, Hull.

Miss Nightingale, clerk in the office of the Commissioner of Public Works, is enjoying her vacation.

J. Walter Bradley will sell at auction, this afternoon, a house and 10,000 feet of land on Water street.

Mr. Frank P. Hill and Mr. Edward L. Goodridge of the PATRIOT are spending two weeks in Scituate, N. H.

Mr. S. A. Miller on Coddington street, and Mr. Howard Rogers on Bigelow street, are to exchange residences.

Work has been commenced on the foundation for the addition to the chapel of the Congregational church.

Geo. W. Jones and others, who have been enjoying a yachting cruise for several days, are expected home today.

Walter B. Wilson, Fleet Captain of the Merrymount Yacht club, and Mrs. Wilson have gone to Maine for a few weeks.

Everett and Charles Hardwick, the sons of Henry E. Hardwick, Esq., left on Wednesday for a visit in Dublin, N. H.

If any of our readers are in want of extra strawberry plants they should get the "Marshall," for sale by W. G. Prescott.

Mr. and Mrs. John O. Holden and Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Babcock have gone to Nantucket and Cotuit City for a few days.

The annual dinner of the Granite Manufacturers Association of Quincy will take place today at Hotel Nantasket, at 1 o'clock.

Several Quincy Scotchmen attended the picnic of the Boston Celtic club on Thursday.

The people's party propose to hold rallies in this city every evening next week. These meetings will be held one in each ward.

It does not look now as though the City Council would take any vacation this year as there is another meeting next Monday evening.

The street department are cutting down the hill on South street near the residence of Terence Keenan. It will be taken down about four feet.

Many complaints are being made of boys stealing fruit. If a few of them were brought before the court it might put a check to their operations.

City Treasurer Adams continues in a precarious condition, being unable to take any food. He has rallied some but no operation has yet been performed.

Miss Kittle Walsh, one of the operators of the Telephone exchange, is on her vacation, which she is passing with friends at the Holo cottage at Houghs Neck.

City Treasurer Bryant N. Adams is seriously ill at his residence on canal street. A consultation was held Monday, and the physicians give but little or no hope of his recovery.

The telegraphic news from London announce that the flag over the United States Consulate was lowered to half-mast out of respect for the memory of John Quincy Adams.

There must be quite a respectable number of the grandsons of presidents living in this country. But how many of them are as worthy of their ancestors as the late John Quincy Adams?—Globe.

There is to be an interesting running race at Brookline Saturday afternoon on the trotting park at 4 o'clock for a purse of $200 between the 500 pounds of Quincy and the 500 pounds of Boston.

Mrs. George W. Jones and Mr. Joseph C. Morse won the prizes at the whist party given at the Granite City club rooms on Wednesday evening. The company indulged in nice peaches and grapes at the close of the contest.

The Paul Revere Wagon's Relief Corps propose to take an excursion to Nantasket on the City of Quincy, next Wednesday, in order that they may enjoy the harbor trip and a famous Nantasket fish dinner. They will go on the 11.30 boat.

Thursday a number of Quincy's business men, among whom were Quincy Rogers, Lester M. Pratt, John Curtis, 24, Fred Hardwick, A. Denton, Bert Lambert, S. F. Willard and James W. Pierce, embarked on the good steam yacht Gita to make a pleasure cruise.

Every summer Miss Vining plans several entertainments for the amusement of the guests at Vining Villa, Hull, Thursday evening she gave a musicale, the programme for which included some of the best professionals of Boston. Several Quincy people went down to Hull for the evening.

Both the special excursions of the steam City of Quincy, Tuesday evening, were pretty parties and enjoyable trips. On the 7.30 trip the boat landed at Wessagusset and took aboard forty, and a delightful sail was had among the islands. At 10 p. m. the boat took the Sons of Veterans and others for an outside trip, returning at 1 o'clock.

Miss Alice Litchfield returned Tuesday from a very pleasant trip to Bustin's Island, Maine. She was at the Bay View cottage with a party of young ladies, among whom were: Mrs. M. Kendall of Washington as chaperon, Miss Carrie Look of Dorchester, and the following from Freeport: Miss Alice Orne, Miss Minnie Brackett, Miss Carrie Brackett, Miss Mattie Kille, Miss Edith Bennett, Miss Cora Bennett, Miss Sarah Kendall, Miss Chas. Townsend.

New arrivals at the Greenleaf are:—Mr. Wesley Tyler, Thomas John, Boston; J. P. Master, E. L. Young, A. Thayer, Stoneham; C. S. Brooks, Fitchburg; Miss Jennie Colgan, Worcester; Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Sheppard, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Frederick D. Ely, Dedham; Mrs. W. E. Armstrong, Newton Center; Mrs. A. E. Pope, G. Hubbard, New York; Clara A. James, Wilmington; George Mann, Brockton; Harry F. Schuber, New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gibbs, Toledo; Mr. and Mrs. L. Wight, Brookline; Miss K. Hubbard, East Milton; Charles Lingis, Marlboro.

WOLLASTON.

Miss Alice Dunham of Wollaston is visiting friends in Quincy.

Mr. R. B. Smith of Wollaston has returned from a few weeks' visit in Amsterdam, N. Y.

Ralph B. Daniels of Wollaston returned Wednesday from a two weeks' visit to Wollaston, N. S.

Miss Margaret Thompson of Wollaston left Friday for St. John, N. B., where she will spend a couple of weeks.

Miss Margaret P. Ross, one of the efficient nurses at the Quincy City hospital, is enjoying a couple of weeks' vacation at her home in Wollaston.

The Wollaston Club held five hundred applications for membership to act upon Friday. The club held a moonlight run to Nantasket Thursday evening, and on Sunday the run will be to Brant Rock, starting at 7 a. m.

Mr. Edward L. Mitchell and daughter of Wollaston are visiting at New Bedford and Onset.

Mr. James C. Bates of Wollaston met with a severe accident to his right ankle, on Tuesday.

Mr. Samuel Brown of Wollaston is building a large green-house in the rear of his residence.

The engagement is announced of Miss Charles E. Thayer of Bath, Me., and Rev. Stephen H. Brown of Wollaston.

Rev. Charles G. Abbott will preach at the Wollaston M. E. church on Sunday. At the evening service the sermon will be especially young men.

Miss Mary C. Bates has been added to the Wollaston club, making now a total membership of 41.

Another surprise at the Duck's Nest, Wollaston, last week. Starrett has been doing the pipe sheet, with indifferent success as compared with Brainerd's and Field's magnificent scores of 20 straight, each. But Starrett's had his innings and came out with flying colors with 22 straight. If he can do it he will be cheered and hailed as he would have undoubtedly won the score up higher.

At the Duck's Nest, Wollaston, on Wednesday evening, Brainerd broke 23 day pipes, thus tying Starrett's score.

Chester street.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

Some three weeks ago, during a severe storm, a large willow tree that for years has beautified Chester street, Wollaston, was blown over, completely blocking up the thoroughfare. The limbs of the fallen tree extended upwards to a height of 20 feet.

Chester street, much to the surprise of the abutters when they read this article, is a private way, although it has been laid out and travelled over for 20 years. The city, through carelessness, has never, as required by law, marked the street with the warning sign: "Not a public way, dangerous passing." To all intents and purposes so far as the public is concerned, this is an accepted street, as without the warning sign the city is liable for any damage occurring on it.

SOUTH QUINCY.

Miss Eleanor Roche of South Quincy is visiting friends in Quincy.

Mr. McKay of Liberty street had a narrow escape Saturday night from a serious accident. He came out from Boston on the late train, somewhat the worse for liquor, and attempted to get off at South Quincy, where the train had started. In doing so he fell and the moving train, Officer Nicol who witnessed the accident signalled the train to stop and John was rescued from his perilous position.

Masters Willie McCabe and David Warner of Penn street are visiting friends in Harrison Square and Brookline respectively.

Mr. Granville S. Sweetland, clerk at Frank Brewer's, is on a week's vacation at Rockport, Maine.

Mrs. Barry and daughter, Miss Hunter, of Portland, Me., are visiting at Mrs. Alfred Hunter's, Pleasant street.

Rev. W. Steele, pastor of the First church, at 10.30. Subject: "One greater than the Temple." Sunday School at close of this service. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Subject: "Common Sense." Y. P. C. E. S. Tuesday evening. Congregational prayer meeting Thursday evening. Come and welcome.

Work has been commenced regrading Cross street, and curbing the sidewalk on the west side.

Rev. E. W. Virgin and family of West Quincy are spending a part of their vacation at Shelburne Falls, Mass.

Mrs. B. Clark and daughter, Miss Belle Clarke, corner of Pleasant street and Sawyer avenue, Dorchester, have returned from a very pleasant trip to the mountains.

Miss Helen E. Lynch of Avon is the guest of Miss Emma F. Kimball.

The water pipes in the street placed along Common street preparatory to being laid, Miss Minnie Whiting, at Frank Brewer's, is on a three weeks' visit at Wintrop.

The analysis by State Assayer Bowker of the Shawmut Spring water is published today. He finds it an excellent water.

The Pilgrim leaves here tomorrow for Boston.

Some of the Point people had their first attack of sea-sickness Thursday night.

Master Carlton McNeil, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McNeil, Thursday evening, gave a party to his little friends last Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 5.30 o'clock. It being his fourth birthday. All had a good time. They gave him several presents.

A few weeks ago the PATRIOT noted that this was the first service for many years that no vessel had come up to Quincy Neck. But this year is not to be an exception, as two have recently entered.

A teamster from Boston ran into another team at Quincy Point Thursday evening, and was thrown out. It was thought for awhile that he was dead, but he was dead drunk. Officer Connelly cared for him.

Graham's factory which has been running on half time started up on full time last Monday.

What has become of that resolution in regard to the removal of the firemen at Quincy Point that was referred to a joint committee of the City Council some months ago? Is it not about time to make a report?

The following letters are advertised at the Quincy Point post-office: N. E. Hayton, Miss Minnie Ramsey.

Miss Margaret A. DeLoria has gone to Nova Scotia for two or three months' vacation.

MILTON.

John R. Martin of Squam, N. H., had his fingers quite badly jammed Thursday at the Granite Railway yard.

Mrs. Charles H. Beare has returned from her summer trip to Maine.

The new school building at East Milton will be dedicated next Thursday afternoon. Invitations have been issued to the school committees in surrounding towns and cities.

J. Herbert Newcomb is at home on his vacation.

Miss Orisa Baxter, Miss Emily Baxter and Miss Vina Brackett are at Elliot, Me.

Miss Josie Gallagher is visiting at Plymouth.

Stoddard Hardwick of Quincy is visiting his grandmother Mrs. Chapp on Adams street.

John Newcomb, one of the old stand bys, who has not been on a pleasure trip for several years, broke his record last week by making a flying trip to Meredith, N. H.

James A. Daley, clerk at T. L. Pearce's store, goes on his vacation next week.

A Trip to Minot's Light.

Nearly three hundred ladies and gentlemen from Quincy and Weymouth appeared at the wharf of the steamer City of Quincy Thursday evening to participate in the moonlight sail. At 8 o'clock with a shrill whistle, the ladies were cast off and the outward trip was commenced.

The boat sailed up by the Marine park at South Boston and then rounded down to the beach and back to the wharf. The moon was gorgeous and the water glistening under its rays was handsome. Everybody was happy for awhile, but when they got outside it was the fishes who were happy.

Quincy Cycle Club.

Run Sunday to Brant Rock; start 7 A. M.

Run Friday evening to Nantasket; start 7 P. M.

Run Saturday evening to Lovell's Grove; start 7 P. M.

At the meeting Monday evening William Parsons was elected president to take the place of E. E. Hoxie resigned, and J. W. White was elected secretary to take the place of B. A. McLean resigned.

Several of the club members are talking of tackling the triangle from Boston to Providence to Worcester to Boston some time in September.

John E. Drake & Co.

There were filed at Dolham Mendon the schedules of John E. Drake and Stoddard Williams, both of Quincy, doing business as John E. Drake & Co., manufacturers of boots and shoes. Liabilities amount to $42,200. Individual liabilities of John E. Drake, $3,700, and individual liabilities, $3,280. Individual liabilities of Stoddard Williams amount to $7,525. Assets of firm: Real estate and buildings in Quincy, mortgaged to Mr. John O. Holden for $2,600; also machinery, tools, stock, etc., and bills receivable. Mr. Williams has no assets. John E. Drake's assets are real estate at Quincy, mortgaged for $30,300; horses and carriage, also two mortgages aggregating $1,800.

Granite Cutters in Office.

At a meeting of the Quincy branch of the Granite Cutters' National union held Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: President—William Taylor. Vice President—Alex. Kirkland. Corresponding Secretary—James McAdams.

Financial Secretary—Frank Morrison. Treasurer—Nicol McBride. Standing Committee—Alex. Chalmers, John McDonald and Harry Ruden.

Figuring Committee—Angus McIntosh and Alex. Kirkland.

The summer is almost gone and it is time to be thinking about that new stove of over $1000 on the result, all but one being even. A bet of $4000 was made that Harbinger would outlast Bearie three minutes actual time.—Journal.

HOUGHS NECK.

A large number were present Monday evening at the concert given on Houghs Neck in aid of the new Catholic church, and quite a sum will be realized. The programme consisted of piano solo by Miss Agnes G. Daly; solos by Daniel J. Padula, James F. Woods, Madame Barutis, Mrs. W. J. McKay, Mrs. David Hilly at Atlantic; vocal duets, Misses Katie and Julia Woods, and Messrs. James Nagle and Alexander McDonald; reading by Miss Eleanor Carroll and Miss Emma L. Dooley; humorous selections by John H. O'Brien and William McGill; harp solos by Thomas Scanlon and harp selections by Miss Nora L. Convey. A social dance followed the entertainment.

The hoodlums at the Neck make night anything but quiet for the residents, as their amusement seems to be tipping over boats, smashing windows, etc. For variation they assume themselves by throwing stones at the bell on the engine house. This however did not seem satisfactory, so the other night about 10 o'clock they tied a string to the tongue of the bell and ran it across the street back of a cottage and had commenced to ring the bell when the string broke and put a stop to their delirium. The residents think it is urgent need of night police so that they can get a little sleep. As it is now a police man only puts in appearance on Sunday and the balance of the week the hoodlums have their own way. Some of the people have tried to get appointed as special police, so as to protect their own property but found that they could not as they were not residents of Quincy.

Frank Packard and family of Brockton are at the new cottage, the Outlook. They have as a guest Miss Ina McIlvina of Whitman.

The guests this week at the Happy Thought at Houghs Neck, Miss Rose Lines, Miss Katie and Lizzie McKay, Mrs. B. Clark and daughter, Miss Belle Clarke, corner of Pleasant street and Sawyer avenue, Dorchester, have returned from a very pleasant trip to the mountains.

Miss Helen E. Lynch of Avon is the guest of Miss Emma F. Kimball.

The water pipes in the street placed along Common street preparatory to being laid, Miss Minnie Whiting, at Frank Brewer's, is on a three weeks' visit at Wintrop.

The analysis by State Assayer Bowker of the Shawmut Spring water is published today. He finds it an excellent water.

The Pilgrim leaves here tomorrow for Boston.

Some of the Point people had their first attack of sea-sickness Thursday night.

Master Carlton McNeil, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McNeil, Thursday evening, gave a party to his little friends last Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 5.30 o'clock. It being his fourth birthday. All had a good time. They gave him several presents.

A few weeks ago the PATRIOT noted that this was the first service for many years that no vessel had come up to Quincy Neck. But this year is not to be an exception, as two have recently entered.

A teamster from Boston ran into another team at Quincy Point Thursday evening, and was thrown out. It was thought for awhile that he was dead, but he was dead drunk. Officer Connelly cared for him.

Graham's factory which has been running on half time started up on full time last Monday.

What has become of that resolution in regard to the removal of the firemen at Quincy Point that was referred to a joint committee of the City Council some months ago? Is it not about time to make a report?

The following letters are advertised at the Quincy Point post-office: N. E. Hayton, Miss Minnie Ramsey.

Miss Margaret A. DeLoria has gone to Nova Scotia for two or three months' vacation.

MILTON.

John R. Martin of Squam, N. H., had his fingers quite badly jammed Thursday at the Granite Railway yard.

Mrs. Charles H. Beare has returned from her summer trip to Maine.

The new school building at East Milton will be dedicated next Thursday afternoon. Invitations have been issued to the school committees in surrounding towns and cities.

J. Herbert Newcomb is at home on his vacation.

Miss Orisa Baxter, Miss Emily Baxter and Miss Vina Brackett are at Elliot, Me.

Miss Josie Gallagher is visiting at Plymouth.

Stoddard Hardwick of Quincy is visiting his grandmother Mrs. Chapp on Adams street.

John Newcomb, one of the old stand bys, who has not been on a pleasure trip for several years, broke his record last week by making a flying trip to Meredith, N. H.

James A. Daley, clerk at T. L. Pearce's store, goes on his vacation next week.

A Trip to Minot's Light.

Nearly three hundred ladies and gentlemen from Quincy and Weymouth appeared at the wharf of the steamer City of Quincy Thursday evening to participate in the moonlight sail. At 8 o'clock with a shrill whistle, the ladies were cast off and the outward trip was commenced.

The boat sailed up by the Marine park at South Boston and then rounded down to the beach and back to the wharf. The moon was gorgeous and the water glistening under its rays was handsome. Everybody was happy for awhile, but when they got outside it was the fishes who were happy.

Quincy Cycle Club.

Run Sunday to Brant Rock; start 7 A. M.

Run Friday evening to Nantasket; start 7 P. M.

Run Saturday evening to Lovell's Grove; start 7 P. M.

At the meeting Monday evening William Parsons was elected president to take the place of E. E. Hoxie resigned, and J. W. White was elected secretary to take the place of B. A. McLean resigned.

Several of the club members are talking of tackling the triangle from Boston to Providence to Worcester to Boston some time in September.

John E. Drake & Co.

There were filed at Dolham Mendon the schedules of John E. Drake and Stoddard Williams, both of Quincy, doing business as John E. Drake & Co., manufacturers of boots and shoes. Liabilities amount to $42,200. Individual liabilities of John E. Drake, $3,700, and individual liabilities, $3,280. Individual liabilities of Stoddard Williams amount to $7,525. Assets of firm: Real estate and buildings in Quincy, mortgaged to Mr. John O. Holden for $2,600; also machinery, tools, stock, etc., and bills receivable. Mr. Williams has no assets. John E. Drake's assets are real estate at Quincy, mortgaged for $30,300; horses and carriage, also two mortgages aggregating $1,800.

Granite Cutters in Office.

At a meeting of the Quincy branch of the Granite Cutters' National union held Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: President—William Taylor. Vice President—Alex. Kirkland. Corresponding Secretary—James McAdams.

Financial Secretary—Frank Morrison. Treasurer—Nicol McBride. Standing Committee—Alex. Chalmers, John McDonald and Harry Ruden.

Figuring Committee—Angus McIntosh and Alex. Kirkland.

The summer is almost gone and it is time to be thinking about that new stove of over $1000 on the result, all but one being even. A bet of $4000 was made that Harbinger would outlast Bearie three minutes actual time.—Journal.

ATLANTIC.

Prof. C. J. Brown and daughter Blanche are spending a short vacation in Plymouth, N. H.

John Ramsdell, Mrs. James Burr and Miss Jennie Coombs are attending the camp meeting at Hamilton.

Miss Mary C. Alwood of Baltimore is on a visit to Mrs. David Hilly at Atlantic.

A. K. Hill of Squantum was thrown from his carriage on Depot street, Atlantic, Tuesday evening, and somewhat bruised and scratched.

Work on the reconstruction of the Squantum causeway began last week and travellers have found it nearly as difficult to ride through the new gravel as it once was through water.

A. J. Cummings of Dorchester, whose body was found in the Cambridge reservoir last Sunday, at one time resided in Atlantic, where he was employed at the news agency of Eben Stocker. His funeral took place Wednesday at 2.30 from the People's church and was conducted by Rev. H. P. Winter, assistant pastor, and Rev. D. A. Grunison. The interment was at Mt. Hope cemetery.

Mr. Aubrey Blasted has purchased one of the houses belonging to the Atlantic Land Company, and has moved into it.

The Atlantic Land Co. have put on a large at the Atlantic depot.

Mrs. E. J. Waterhouse of Atlantic is the latest addition to the lady bicycle riders.

Rev. Henry E. Gorton former clerk of the church will preach. Rev. Walter R. Reed is located at Sugar Hill, N. H., for the month of August. He has in charge the little summer church there. "St. Matthew's in the Mount." This church is opened on Sunday, and is supported by the guests at the hotels and cottages.

Lowell's tax rate this year is $17.40, an increase of six cents over 1893.

THE RISING SUN and SUN PASTE STOVE POLISH.

WE have yielded to the importunity of our customers to manufacture a perfect Paste Polish. We offer the "SUN PASTE" and recommend it for an after-dinner shine, and to touch up spots. Applied and polished with a cloth. Does not dry up or rust the box.

"The RISING SUN" Stove Polish in cakes has been upon the market thirty years, has an annual sale of three thousand tons, and for economy, durability and brilliancy, and for general blacking of a stove it is still unsurpassed. Middlesex St., Quincy, Mass., U. S. A.

Beautifully White Clothes

"I like Ivoryine better than any Washing Powder I have ever used. It makes my clothes so beautifully white and clean."

Mrs. C. A. SUTHERLAND, Pleasantland, Me.

"I like Ivoryine exceedingly. I consider the cake of Ivoryine soap in each package worth more than the price of the whole package."

Mrs. F. A. SPRINGER, Sanford, Me.

Mount Horeb CASTILE

ABSOLUTELY PURE OLIVE OIL

Beginning April 1, 1895, every package of MOUNT HOREB in its splendid cake of soap. If you want to try a cake, send four cent stamps, but we would rather have you buy a package of MOUNT HOREB of your grocer, and get the soap free.

THE J. B. WILLIAMS CO., Glastonbury, Conn.

Makers of William's Celebrated Shaving Soap for 50 years.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Sucking Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria has adapted children that I recommend it as superior to any preparation known to me." H. A. ARONSON, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is no universal and its merits so well known that it need not be supererogatory to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CHARLES HARTY, D. D., New York City.

"For several years I have recommended 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so. It has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., 154th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

THE CASTORIA COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY

WILSON'S MARKET

—IS THE—

Headquarters in the City of Quincy for MEATS, FRUIT AND VEGETABLES.

1843 ESTABLISHED 1843

ALSO DEALERS IN GROCERIES AND WEST INDIA GOODS.

GEORGE F. WILSON & CO.,

Wilson's Building, Hancock Street, Quincy

Spring Curry Comb

Clock Spring Blade. Soft as a Brush. Fits every Curve. The Only Perfect Comb. Used by U. S. Army and by Barnum and Foreign Circles, and Leading Horsemen of the World. Ask your Dealer for It. Sample mailed post paid 25 cents. See our page on the family SPRING CURRY COMB CO., 100 Lafayette St., South End, Boston.

The HONEST KID

ACKNOWLEDGED BY THE HIGHEST AUTHORITY.

The Massachusetts Board of Health

IN THEIR 24th REPORT (1893)

make the statement that Sarsaparilla containing Iodide of Potassium are unsafe to use, excepting under the supervision of an experienced physician, and that their continued use tend to impoverish instead of purifying the blood. Also that in many cases they act as a DIRECT POISON, and cause serious trouble, defeating the object for which they are taken.

ALL THE LEADING SARSAPARILLAS were analyzed and found to contain this poisonous chemical in various quantities, EXCEPTING ALLEN'S, which was found entirely free from Iodide of Potassium or other chemicals, and to be purely vegetable, thereby verifying our claim that it is the "HONEST KIND."

This is an unprejudiced statement made by the most scientific body of men in New England as a WARNING TO THE PUBLIC against the use of dangerous and injurious medicines. ALLEN'S is the HONEST KID, the safe kind, and the kind that CONQUERS DISEASE.

Physicians and druggists unite in its recommendation.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

The Largest Bottle on the Market for $1.00. Trial Bottle, 50 cts.

SOLD BY ALL DEALERS.

USE ALLEN'S SARSAPARILLA

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, AUG 18, 1894.

A Query.

When we pause to gaze around upon this word of ours, And note the fine lines of the trees the color of the flowers, We feel a sense of kinship, and all our woes forget; Our hearts cry out, "This world is mine, mine to improve"—and yet, What is beyond?

We gaze up at the azure sky at eve when all is bright; We feel a holy, soothing calm steal from the soft moonlight, And each small star looks down from heaven like angel's watchful eyes; Our whole soul sits in ecstasy, but ah! do we surmise?

What is beyond? When soul and heart are both impressed by all our eyes have seen, By blaze of sun we saw by day, at eve the pale moon's gleam; Then we realize that Death, who comes so still and cold, Will free our spirit, guiding us to where God will unfold.

What is beyond?

RUTH BARKETT.

Quincy, Mass.

—White buckles are being picked in Dighton.

—A lady in Roxbury has made a collection of 30,000 buttons and has been 30 years in doing it.

—The salvation army is getting ready to leave for the last time of next month for a tour of Canada and the United States.

—There is a woman living out in Indiana who has rejoiced in twelve names and eleven husbands. She is now sixty years old and has seven sets of children.—Clinton Courier.

—The new $1,000 silver certificates have on the left hand a face and bust which is said to resemble the famous Josie Mansfield. Look on them in your vest pocket and note the resemblance.

—The portrait of himself which Henry Clay pronounced the best, is to be found in a patchwork quilt now on exhibition in a Kentucky county fair. It ornaments the central square of the quilt, and is valued at one thousand dollars.

—Ex-President Harrison recently received a $25,000 fee for a four hour's argument in behalf of the owners of a street railway franchise. That pays better than the Presidency, and puts a man practically on a "for revenue only" plank.

—Brother Morse at his first election put a barbed wire fence around his district. It cost a little more in the first place, but then it never needs any repairing, which is economy in the end.—Whitman Times.

—And Brother Gerry Brown is going to give out a pair of Populist pants and try sitting down on that fence.—Brooklyn Enterprise.

—England appears to be a healthy country for children. A London paper offered a prize of a guinea to the lady reader who could prove that she had had the largest family. The prize was divided between Mrs. Bassant, of South Lambeth, and Mrs. Hutchinson, of Paley Bridge, Yorkshire, each having 25 children. The first 10 children on the list had an average of 18 children each.

—Young ladies look out for your watches. The Brooklyn Enterprise says that a young lady in that city had a gold watch. She showed it to a young man. "Let me look at it," he said. She gave it to him and he walked off with it. She cannot get him to return it, and the police say they would interfere unless the man sells or pawns the watch. As long as he keeps it the whole matter is merely a breach of trust.

—T. V. Powderly in an address recently said: "Every strike that takes place on a railroad is a strike against the whole country. Our railroads are so closely identified with the life of the nation that when you stop any one of these arteries through which the life-blood of the nation's prosperity flows, you injure those whom you least expect to injure and whom you would least desire to harm."

—When the zinc or tin lining grows slabby, give it a coat of white paint. After this has dried apply several thick coats of white enamel, waiting for each application to dry before adding the next. In this way a thick enamel coating is laid upon the metal, giving it the appearance when completed, of porcelain. The enamel lined tub is not only much daintier in appearance, but can be kept in order more easily than zinc or tin, a damp cloth wiped across the surface being all that is needed to retain the purity of coloring.

Mrs. Putnam, Fortistadale, Mass., says:

"That Bearing-Down Feeling

and dizzy, faint, gasping after air, as if I were as soon as I began to take Allen's Compound, and I am like one raised from the dead. I was sick with stomach trouble so long I thought I never could get well."

Boston has a water storage capacity for 17,468,843 gallons, which is considered 430 days' supply.

Anecdotes.

Sympathizing friend—"Did Mr. Flynn leave any will?"

Mrs. Flynn—"Land sakes alive! I hope not, I saw enough of his will when he was alive."

Johnson—"Old Shipwright has lost another mark."

Brown—"Indeed! Which one was it?"

Johnson—"The pug."

"Ma," said a newspaper man's son, "I know why editors call themselves 'we.'"

Ma—"Why?"

Son—"So's the man that doesn't like the article will think there are too many people for him to tackle."—Washington Star.

Hottel McGinnis—"It is mean of you to always abusing your friend Jones behind his back."

Gus De Smith—"I can't see it that way. If I abuse him to his face he will pound the life out of me."—Times Herald.

Visitor—"Well Johnny, I suppose your father thinks the twins are something wonderful?"

Johnny—"Yes, but (in a confidential whisper) I could lick 'em both together."

Fond parent—"I fear, young man, that you seek my daughter's hand solely for her wealth."

Young man—"Well, look at her candidly and mention what other qualification she possesses, will you?"

Hingham Polo Club.

It was a very large and select gathering that watched the annual Hingham games of the Hingham Polo club, Saturday afternoon at Hingham and among them were a number of Quincy's 400. There were ten events in all of special interest to Quincy people as ex-Councilman C. M. Bryant, who is a member of the club, participated in several of them, although he was not fortunate enough to carry off any of the prizes.

The first event was a half mile race on the flat for open poles only. There were six entries. Mr. Bryant got the lead at the start but was overhauled by H. Braman, who finished 1 minute 34 seconds.

The quarter mile run on the flat was won by Mr. Pay in 20 1/2 seconds.

Nine started in the third which was a 100-yard dash, which was also won by Mr. Pay in 7 1/2 seconds.

The other events took place on the polo field the first of which was a polo ball and bucket race, which consisted of taking four balls, one at a time from a given point and placing them in a bucket. There were five starters and the event was won by H. Braman.

The fifth event was a bending race for polo ponies. Each competitor raced up and down a line of posts leaving a post alternately on the right and left. Knocking down a post disqualified a rider. The race was run off in heats. In the first heat Mr. Williams won and in the second Mr. Bryant, in the final struggle between Mr. Bryant and Mr. Williams, both broke, the winner and the whole race was run off again and was finally won by Mr. Forbes.

The sixth event, a cigar and umbrella race was very amusing. The ponies were brought to the starting point with the cigar in their mouths and the umbrella in their hands. The race was run off in heats. In the first heat Mr. Williams won and in the second Mr. Bryant, in the final struggle between Mr. Bryant and Mr. Williams, both broke, the winner and the whole race was run off again and was finally won by Mr. Forbes.

The seventh event was to drive a polo ball between two goal posts from a line 200 feet away. This was won by H. Braman.

The next event was an egg and spoon race. Each competitor to ride over the course with a spoon containing an egg. The spoon to be held in one hand. This race was won by Mr. Forbes with Mr. Bryant second.

The sixth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The seventh event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The eighth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The ninth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The tenth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The eleventh event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The twelfth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The thirteenth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The fourteenth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The fifteenth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The sixteenth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The seventeenth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The eighteenth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The nineteenth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The twentieth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The twenty-first event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The twenty-second event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The twenty-third event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The twenty-fourth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The twenty-fifth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The twenty-sixth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The twenty-seventh event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The twenty-eighth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The twenty-ninth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The thirtieth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The thirty-first event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The thirty-second event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The thirty-third event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The thirty-fourth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The thirty-fifth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The thirty-sixth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The thirty-seventh event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The thirty-eighth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The thirty-ninth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The fortieth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The forty-first event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The forty-second event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The forty-third event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The forty-fourth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The forty-fifth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The forty-sixth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The forty-seventh event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The forty-eighth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The forty-ninth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The fiftieth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The fifty-first event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The fifty-second event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The fifty-third event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The fifty-fourth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The fifty-fifth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The fifty-sixth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The fifty-seventh event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The fifty-eighth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The fifty-ninth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The sixtieth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The sixty-first event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The sixty-second event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The sixty-third event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The sixty-fourth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The sixty-fifth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The sixty-sixth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The sixty-seventh event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The sixty-eighth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The sixty-ninth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The seventieth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The seventy-first event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The seventy-second event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The seventy-third event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The seventy-fourth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The seventy-fifth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The seventy-sixth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The seventy-seventh event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The seventy-eighth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The seventy-ninth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The eightieth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The eighty-first event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The eighty-second event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The eighty-third event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The eighty-fourth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The eighty-fifth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The eighty-sixth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The eighty-seventh event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The eighty-eighth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The eighty-ninth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The ninetieth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The ninety-first event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The ninety-second event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The ninety-third event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The ninety-fourth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The ninety-fifth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The ninety-sixth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The ninety-seventh event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The ninety-eighth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The ninety-ninth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The hundredth event was driving a ball across the field, through the goal posts and back to starting point. This was won by H. Braman.

The Painless Foot.

We are apt to fancy that if we have dipped our feet in warm soap and water, that we have done all that is necessary for their welfare. But, in sooth, we have then only begun, since there are a number of other things that need attention if we wish our feet to be in a perfectly healthy condition, and be able to render us, without suffering or annoyance, all the service we may demand. Thus if the feet are clammy and cold, as often happens in the case of those who are afflicted with rheumatism, it is certain that there is no circulation of blood in them, and that the feet are in a state of paralysis, which, being too profuse, keeps the feet damp and cold through its evaporation. To prevent this, we should give the feet a bath every night or morning in hot water with enough ammonia in it to be perceptible to the nose; and if the perspiration is of the kind that is offensive, then there are various drugs of the nature of iodine that one's physician will prescribe, which put into the foot-bath are excellent correctives of the trouble.

But there are many people whose feet are not only cold, but are also dry and hard, and with horny skin and brittle nails. A perpetual tendency to corns is a quality of this kind, and it is apt to be then a very uncomfortable one, and one that is very difficult to get rid of. It is a quality of this kind, and it is apt to be then a very uncomfortable one, and one that is very difficult to get rid of.

It is a quality of this kind, and it is apt to be then a very uncomfortable one, and one that is very difficult to get rid of. It is a quality of this kind, and it is apt to be then a very uncomfortable one, and one that is very difficult to get rid of.

It is a quality of this kind, and it is apt to be then a very uncomfortable one, and one that is very difficult to get rid of. It is a quality of this kind, and it is apt to be then a very uncomfortable one, and one that is very difficult to get rid of.

It is a quality of this kind, and it is apt to be then a very uncomfortable one, and one that is very difficult to get rid of. It is a quality of this kind, and it is apt to be then a very uncomfortable one, and one that is very difficult to get rid of.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, AUGUST 25, 1894. VOL. 58. NO. 34. FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

CITY OF QUINCY.
The Overseer of the Poor
Will be at his office in the CITY HALL from 9 to 10 A.M. on SATURDAYS.
Z. S. ARNOLD, Overseer.
Quincy, Feb. 24.

NOTICE.
The Board of Water Commissioners will, on further notice, hold meetings every Thursday evening in Room No. 3, Durgin & Merrill's block, at 7:45 o'clock. All persons having business with the board are requested to present it at these meetings.
H. T. WHITMAN, Water Commissioner.
JOHN T. KAYASAGH, Chairman.
JAMES H. STERON, Secretary.
Quincy, June 25, 1892.

JOHN W. MCANARNEY,
Counselor-at-Law,
Room 3, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
Hancock Street, Quincy.
Saturdays, at the office of COTTER & KENNY, 209 Washington Street, Boston.
August 11.

W. W. JENNESS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
87 Milk Street, Boston, Mass.
Office Hours, 9 to 5 P.M. Rooms 21 and 22
QUINCY OFFICE, ADAMS BUILDING.
OFFICE HOURS: 9 to 10 A.M. and 2 to 4 P.M.
Quincy, May 26.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.
Specialist.....Orthodontia.
REMOVED TO
No. 7 TEMPLE PLACE.
New Building, Boston.
Office Hours: 9 to 10 A.M. and 2 to 4 P.M.
Residence, 100 Linden Place, Quincy.
Quincy, Oct. 23.

F. S. DAVIS, M. D.,
HOMOEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN,
No. 5 Elm Street, Quincy.
Connected by Telephone.
OFFICE HOURS: 9 to 10 A.M. and 2 to 4 P.M.
Quincy, Oct. 23.

DR. CHAS. S. FRENCH,
DENTIST,
All kinds of work in Dentistry done in the most skillful manner.
GASOLINE ADMINISTERED.
No. 40 Hancock Street,
Quincy, Aug. 8.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 5 and 6, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
Hancock Street, Quincy.
Office Hours, 9 to 12, 1 to 5.
Residence, Greenleaf Street.
Quincy, Oct. 23.

DR. G. R. ENGLAND,
DENTIST,
11 Chestnut Street, Quincy, Mass.
Connected by telephone.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
Surgeon Dentist.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain, with the "BOSTON VIBRATOR VAPOR."
DEBHAM, QUINCY, NORWOOD.
At Quincy office, French's Building.
WEDNESDAYS.
At Dedham Mondays and Tuesdays.
At Norwood Fridays and Saturdays.
July 28.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy, No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston, HOTEL PELHAM, Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

WALTER S. RANDALL,
Carpenter and Builder,
HAS removed to his new residence on Bigelow Street. He is prepared to furnish estimates for house building, and will give prompt attention to all orders for a continuance of past favors.
Quincy, July 1.

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER
Pearl Street,
SOUTH QUINCY.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
JOBS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
Hancock Street, Quincy, Mass.

WARREN D. HIGGINS,
Architect and Builder,
Can show you a large number of Plans for Houses, which will cost from $100 to $10,000.
Residence, 7 Faxon Avenue, Quincy
May 21.

H. O. SOUTHER,
MASON AND CONTRACTOR.
AGENT for Akron Drain and Sewer Pipe, Quincy, Mass.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
JOBS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
Hancock Street, Quincy, Mass.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED
PEREZ JOYCE,
Quincy Avenue near Liberty Street.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED
Nathaniel Nightingale,
Granite St. near Post Office.

F. H. CRANE & SONS,
Dealers in
HAY, GRAIN, FLOUR AND FEED
—also—
BRICK, LIME, HAIR, CEMENT
PLASTER AND DRAIN PIPE.
Bowlers' Fertilizers and all kinds of Fertilizers, Thorough Food.
Washington St., Quincy.
Branch Store at Quincy Adams.
Telephone, 219-4. Jan. 7-14

H. T. WHITMAN,
CIVIL ENGINEER
—AND—
SURVEYOR,
ADAMS BUILDING, - QUINCY.
Hours, 8 to 9 A.M.
Boston Office, 85 Devonshire Street.
Hours, 12 to 2 P.M.
N. B. Plans of nearly all the Real Estate in the City of Quincy can be found at my office.
May 28.

W. G. SEARS,
Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting,
WELLS DRIVEN
AND PUMPS REPAIRED.
SHOP IN PIERCE'S BLOCK,
Corner Washington and Hancock Streets,
QUINCY, MASS.
March 24.

J. J. KENLEY,
PLUMBER.
All orders promptly attended to at reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed.
No. 9 Temple Street, Quincy.
In office formerly occupied by the Citizens' Gas Light Company.
P. O. Box 808.
Jan. 6.

DRAMATIC ACTION.
MISS ELSIE RUSSELL will receive a limited number of pupils at 211 HANCOCK STREET, Quincy, TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.
Will also arrange and direct.
PANTOMIMES, GREEK TABLEAUX, and STATUE POSSES.
March 10.

FRANK C. GILBERT,
Teacher of Piano-forte,
190 Hancock St. Quincy.
Sept. 6.

C. H. ABBOTT,
Piano and Organ Tuner
RATES REASONABLE.
Workmanship Guaranteed.
Orders Received at
E. B. Southern's News Depot.
Quincy, Jan. 13.

16 years' experience in Piano and Organ Tuning.

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
No. 51 Hancock Street.
Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,
Robes and Hens.
Having had several years' experience in the Undertaking business, the subscriber hopes to merit the confidence of all calls to merit share of patronage.
JOHN HALL.
Quincy, Mar. 10.

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER.
Office and residence corner of Canal and Mechanics Streets.
Quincy, Feb. 6.

House Cleaners, Attention!
QUINCY
ELECTRIC CARPET CLEANING WORKS.
Carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid in
the best manner at short notice.

W. W. ADAMS, G. B. LINCOLN.
Orders may be left at T. F. Mitchell's or lock box 202, Quincy Postoffice.
Quincy, March 17.

AUSTIN & WINSLOW'S
Quincy and Boston Express
Boston Office. Leave.
34 Court Square, 8.30, 11.00 A.M. 3.30 P.M.
25 Merchants Row, 8.00, 12.00 A.M. 4.00 P.M.
75 & 77 Kingston St., 9.00, 12.00 A.M. 4.30 P.M.
67 Franklin Street, 9.00, 12.00 A.M. 4.30 P.M.
Quincy Office, 52 Washington St.
Leave at 7.15, 8.15, 9.15 A.M. and 12.45 P.M.
Telephone 9-2, Quincy 2386, Boston.
Baggage checked to all depots and steamboats. Particular attention to early trains and boats.

ABBOTT & MILLER'S
Quincy and Boston Express.
Quincy Office, South and West Quincy.
Boston Office, 32 Court Square, 42 Franklin Street, 7 Merchants Row, 15 Devonshire
Street.
Quincy Office, Crane's Furniture Store.
Order Box, C. B. Tilton's.
South Quincy-Order Box at W. H.
Doble's Store, Depot and B. E. Hall's, and West Quincy-Post Office and Depot.
Leave Quincy for Boston, 9 A.M. Leave
Boston for Quincy, 2.30 P.M.
G. M. MILLER, General Manager.
Furniture and Piano Moving and General
Training. Post Office Box 97, West Quincy.
Telephone 554. Jan. 5-14

WILLIAM GARRITY'S
Quincy and Boston Express.
Leave Quincy at 9 o'clock, A. M. and
Boston at 1.30 P. M.
Quincy-Orders may be left at Whitney &
Stable, W. H. Doble's, B. E. Hall's, and the Bible.
Boston-374 Washington Street, 15 Devonshire Street, 4 1/2 South Market Street, and 10 Faneuil Hall Square.
N. B. Furniture Moved and Parties accommodated at short notice.

INSURANCE AGENCY.
ESTABLISHED in Quincy in the year
1849 by
W. PORTER.
Insurance effected in reliable and safe
Stock and Mutual Offices.
By W. PORTER & CO.,
At No. 27 State Street, Boston.
Residence, Hancock Street, Quincy.

DORCHESTER
MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE CO.,
OF BOSTON.
P. O. Address, Neponset, Mass.
JANUARY 1st, 1894.
Amount at Risk, $2,170,880.00
Cost to Reinsure and Pay Losses, 29,974.73
Cash Assets, 149,257.50
Deposit Notes, 418,143.39
Total Available Assets, 287,375.62
THOS. F. TEMPLE,
President and Treasurer.

W. D. C. CURTIS,
Secretary.
Dividends, 1 year, 3 years, 5 years' policies
25 50 75 per cent.
This Company insures Buildings and Household Furniture only strictly on the mutual plan.
It is now paying dividends on one and two year policies, 25 per cent; on three year policies, 50 per cent; on 5 year policies, 75 per cent.
J. WHITE BELCHER, President.
ELIJAH HOWE, Jr., Sec. and Treas.
HAROLD B. SPEAR, Agent for Quincy
April 28.

ETNA INSURANCE COMPANY
HARTFORD, CONN.
Incorporated 1819. Charter Perpetual.
Losses Paid in 75 Years $72,755,000.
JANUARY 1st, 1894.
Cash Capital, $1,000,000.00
Reserve for Re-insurance, 300,000.00
Reserve for Unpaid Losses, 100,000.00
Reserve for Unpaid Losses, 100,000.00
Total Assets, $1,400,000.00
JOHN HARDWICK & CO.,
GRANITE STREET.
Agents for Quincy.

QUINCY
Mutual Fire Insurance Co
INCORPORATED IN 1831.
COMMERCIAL BUSINESS IN 1831
CHAS. A. HOWLAND, WILLIAM H. FAY,
President, Secretary.
CASH FUND JANUARY 1, 1895.
$627,778.42
(A gain of $17,751.82)
SURPLUS OVER ALL LIABILITIES,
$375,961.81
(A gain of $13,839.98)
AMOUNT AT RISK,
$382,543,088.
(A gain of $649,821.1)
Losses paid in 1892, $50,352.29
Dividends paid in 1892, $65,380.98
Jan. 21.

Quincy Savings Bank,
145 Hancock Street, Quincy.
President, RUFERT F. CLAPIN,
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MAIRIS,
Treasurer and Secy, GEORGE L. GILL,
Board of Investment, RUFERT F. CLAPIN, EDWIN W. MAIRIS, GEORGE L. GILL,
ELIAS A. PERKINS.
Deposits placed on interest on the first
Tuesday of January, April, July and October
Quincy, Oct. 1, 1893.

RAY'S
HOME MADE
BREAD
At Wollaston Bakery,
TAYLOR BUILDING.
Wollaston, Aug. 4.

W. H. BENNETT
I have prepared to do all kinds of Grading and Jobbing, Garden Work
done at short notice and reasonable prices.
Also Light Tinning, Casing, and repairs. Order taken for cesspool cleaning.
CARPETS CLEANED.
A word to house cleaners. I have been in the business two years as carpet cleaner, and my work is done by hand, and at very low prices.
Sent for Lawn Dressing, Batts, Grass Seed, Shrubs and Flowers of all kinds for-
nished to order at short notice.
All orders promptly attended to.
Residence, Faxon Block, 24 Chestnut St.
Lock Box 361, Quincy.
April 7.

Cypress Lumber and Shingles,
Spruce and Hard Woods,
Hard and Soft Pine,
Cypress Doors and Finish,
Gutters, Conductors, Moldings, etc.
Mill Work of Every Description.
Send for our book, "Cypress Lumber and
its uses."
THE A. T. STEARNS LUMBER CO.,
NEPONSET, MASS.
Feb. 11.

CITY SCAVENGER.
The undersigned has been reappointed
by the Board of Health as City Scavenger,
and will attend to all orders at short
notice.
Particular attention is given to see that the work is done thoroughly and disinfected all
places.
PRICES: For vaults, $1.50 per load
for Cesspools, 75 cents per load.
Additional price of 25 cents per load between May 15th and October 1st.
PETER MCCONARTY,
Quincy, Feb. 18.

THOS. W. LINCOLN,
Awning Maker,
266 Washington Street,
QUINCY POINT.
ITALIAN AWNINGS,
ALL KINDS OF STRIPS,
MADE IN THE BEST MANNER,
AT VERY SHORT NOTICE.
STORES, HALLS, PRIVATE RESIDENCES,
BEACH HOUSES.
Best of references given. 4m
May 5.

E. M. LITCHFIELD,
HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting,
and all its branches will receive prompt attention. Residence, Quincy Avenue.
N. B. Furniture Moved and Parties accommodated at short notice.
Quincy, March 12.

Education & Employment
GOMERS
FOUNDED
COMMERCIAL
COLLEGE
1840
Reopens September 4th.
A thorough and practical course of study in the following branches:
BUSINESS AND SHORTHAND,
Preparatory young people to earn their own living.
Individual instruction, positions for pupils, expert teachers. Our record of
54 YEARS AND 29,000 PUPILS
Speaks for itself. Prospectus free by mail or at office.

COMER'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,
666 Washington St., cor. Beach,
BOSTON, MASS.
July 21. 8w too

Prices Sure to Advance.
BUY YOUR COAL AT ONCE.
White Ash Stove, $5.25
White Ash Egg, 5.00
White Ash Furnace, 5.00
Lehigh Furnace, 5.25
Lehigh Egg, 5.25
Shamokin Stove, 5.50
Shamokin Egg, 5.50
Red Ash Stove, 5.75
Franklin Egg, 7.00
Franklin Stove, 7.00
OUR SPECIALTY:
Excelsior Nut, $5.25.
Which we guarantee equal if not superior to any nut coal named.
Highest grade Bituminous Coal.
—Also—
A Full Line of Masons' Materials.

Geo. E. Frost,
488 Neponset Avenue,
NEPONSET.
Telephone connection.

FURNITURE MOVING
N. C. HERSEY,
With Thirty years experience in Furniture Moving, has built another furniture moving business, and is now moving furniture from one place to another, and from one town to another.
Special attention given to the moving of Pianos and Organs.
Tip-top work done at hard time prices.
All orders left at my office, No. 5 Granite
Street, or at my house, 100 Franklin Street, will be promptly attended to.
Quincy, June 9.

RAY'S
HOME MADE
BREAD
At Wollaston Bakery,
TAYLOR BUILDING.
Wollaston, Aug. 4.

W. H. BENNETT
I have prepared to do all kinds of Grading and Jobbing, Garden Work
done at short notice and reasonable prices.
Also Light Tinning, Casing, and
repairs. Order taken for cesspool cleaning.
CARPETS CLEANED.
A word to house cleaners. I have been in the business two years as carpet cleaner, and my work is done by hand, and at very low
prices.
Sent for Lawn Dressing, Batts, Grass Seed, Shrubs and Flowers of all kinds for-
nished to order at short notice.
All orders promptly attended to.
Residence, Faxon Block, 24 Chestnut St.
Lock Box 361, Quincy.
April 7.

Cypress Lumber and Shingles,
Spruce and Hard Woods,
Hard and Soft Pine,
Cypress Doors and Finish,
Gutters, Conductors, Moldings, etc.
Mill Work of Every Description.
Send for our book, "Cypress Lumber and
its uses."
THE A. T. STEARNS LUMBER CO.,
NEPONSET, MASS.
Feb. 11.

CITY SCAVENGER.
The undersigned has been reappointed
by the Board of Health as City Scavenger,
and will attend to all orders at short
notice.
Particular attention is given to see that the work is done thoroughly and disinfected all
places.
PRICES: For vaults, $1.50 per load
for Cesspools, 75 cents per load.
Additional price of 25 cents per load between May 15th and October 1st.
PETER MCCONARTY,
Quincy, Feb. 18.

THOS. W. LINCOLN,
Awning Maker,
266 Washington Street,
QUINCY POINT.
ITALIAN AWNINGS,
ALL KINDS OF STRIPS,
MADE IN THE BEST MANNER,
AT VERY SHORT NOTICE.
STORES, HALLS, PRIVATE RESIDENCES,
BEACH HOUSES.
Best of references given. 4m
May 5.

E. M. LITCHFIELD,
HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting,
and all its branches will receive prompt attention. Residence, Quincy Avenue.
N. B. Furniture Moved and Parties accommodated at short notice.
Quincy, March 12.

The Quincy Patriot.
PUBLISHED
Saturday Mornings,
—BY—
GREEN & PRESCOTT
Editors and Proprietors.
THE PATRIOT is published in the
only city in Norfolk County, and is
one of the oldest newspapers in the
State, being established in 1837.
OFFICE OF PUBLICATION,
No. 115 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
TERMS:—$2.50 per year in advance. $3.00
if not paid before the end of the year.
W. ELIZABETH GREEN. GEO. W. PRESCOTT.

Poetry.
A Summer Shower.
The evening, and of sea and land
The sultry air hangs like a pall.
Of shadows through the forest fall,
And the dews of heaven are on the fawn,
While falling anemones mark their tread
So stealthily. Now a breeze wafts; then
The waving tree-tops overhead
Hold caressing convulsions they yield,
With one accord, in one wild rush,
To wafting whirlwind on their wheels.
A torrent, and the brook, now flush,
Surges with wild, impetuous roar.
Among the rocks, white thunders crash,
And forked lightnings o'er and o'er Light up the scene with flash on flash.
—Denore's Family Magazine.

Miscellany.
Portrait of Lady Beatrice.
I remember perfectly how it happened.
I received an invitation from my old friend and fellow-student, Stanley Harcourt, to spend a week with him at Harcourt Park. Although my friendship with Stanley dated back to days at Eton, I had never visited the Park, and I accepted with alacrity.
Before starting, I slipped into my pocket
my latest purchase at "the old curio shop"
—a bracelet of twisted gold, with a miniature on it, surrounded by diamonds.
The bracelet, I felt convinced, had a history, although Mr. West, the sole proprietor of the shop, could give me no information concerning it. I admired the portrait extremely. It represented a man of about eight-and-twenty, with a sad, pensive face.
From the dress, I concluded that it had been painted some time in the fifteenth century.
I considered the bracelet a treasure, and I anticipated surprising Stanley with my good fortune, at the same time making him green with envy.
Arriving at my destination, I found a cordial welcome. Slightly under an ideal host, but Lady Harcourt, his mother, did the honors most gracefully. His sister Edith I had not seen for years, and I found her charming girl. And as for Harcourt Park, it was fascinating.
"You are to choose your room, old fellow," said Stanley, as we were exploring the grounds. "What will you have?"
Tower, the Queen's Best; east wing,
—Charles II.'s; west wing, —Queen Anne's; northern projection, —George I.'s; southern projection, George III.'s; and the rest, grand medley, principally Victorian in the thirty-fifth year of her reign. You see you can choose any period of history and your favorite scenery, but if you have an eye to comfort, I should recommend Victoriaria.
All orders left at my office, No. 5 Granite
Street, or at my house, 100 Franklin
Street, will be promptly attended to.
Quincy, June 9.

RAY'S
HOME MADE
BREAD
At Wollaston Bakery,
TAYLOR BUILDING.
Wollaston, Aug. 4.

W. H. BENNETT
I have prepared to do all kinds of Grading and Jobbing, Garden Work
done at short notice and reasonable prices.
Also Light Tinning, Casing, and
repairs. Order taken for cesspool cleaning.
CARPETS CLEANED.
A word to house cleaners. I have been in the business two years as carpet cleaner, and my work is done by hand, and at very low
prices.
Sent for Lawn Dressing, Batts, Grass Seed, Shrubs and Flowers of all kinds for-
nished to order at short notice.
All orders promptly attended to.
Residence, Faxon Block, 24 Chestnut St.
Lock Box 361, Quincy.
April 7.

Cypress Lumber and Shingles,
Spruce and Hard Woods,
Hard and Soft Pine,
Cypress Doors and Finish,
Gutters, Conductors, Moldings, etc.
Mill Work of Every Description.
Send for our book, "Cypress Lumber and
its uses."
THE A. T. STEARNS LUMBER CO.,
NEPONSET, MASS.
Feb. 11.

CITY SCAVENGER.
The undersigned has been reappointed
by the Board of Health as City Scavenger,
and will attend to all orders at short
notice.
Particular attention is given to see that the work is done thoroughly and disinfected all
places.
PRICES: For vaults, $1.50 per load
for Cesspools, 75 cents per load.
Additional price of 25 cents per load between May 15th and October 1st.
PETER MCCONARTY,
Quincy, Feb. 18.

THOS. W. LINCOLN,
Awning Maker,
266 Washington Street,
QUINCY POINT.
ITALIAN AWNINGS,
ALL KINDS OF STRIPS,
MADE IN THE BEST MANNER,
AT VERY SHORT NOTICE.
STORES, HALLS, PRIVATE RESIDENCES,
BEACH HOUSES.
Best of references given. 4m
May 5.

E. M. LITCHFIELD,
HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting,
and all its branches will receive prompt attention. Residence, Quincy Avenue.
N. B. Furniture Moved and Parties accommodated at short notice.
Quincy, March 12.

RAY'S
HOME MADE
BREAD
At Wollaston Bakery,
TAYLOR BUILDING.
Wollaston, Aug. 4.

W. H. BENNETT
I have prepared to do all kinds of Grading and Jobbing, Garden Work
done at short notice and reasonable prices.
Also Light Tinning, Casing, and
repairs. Order taken for cesspool cleaning.
CARPETS CLEANED.
A word to house cleaners. I have been in the business two years as carpet cleaner, and my work is done by hand, and at very low
prices.
Sent for Lawn Dressing, Batts, Grass Seed, Shrubs and Flowers of all kinds for-
nished to order at short notice.
All orders promptly attended to.
Residence, Faxon Block, 24 Chestnut St.
Lock Box 361, Quincy.
April 7.

Cypress Lumber and Shingles,
Spruce and Hard Woods,
Hard and Soft Pine,
Cypress Doors and Finish,
Gutters, Conductors, Moldings, etc.
Mill Work of Every Description.
Send for our book, "Cypress Lumber and
its uses."
THE A. T. STEARNS LUMBER CO.,
NEPONSET, MASS.
Feb. 11.

CITY SCAVENGER.
The undersigned has been reappointed
by the Board of Health as City Scavenger,
and will attend to all orders at short
notice.
Particular attention is given to see that the work is done thoroughly and disinfected all
places.
PRICES: For vaults, $1.50 per load
for Cesspools, 75 cents per load.
Additional price of 25 cents per load between May 15th and October 1st.
PETER MCCONARTY,
Quincy, Feb. 18.

THOS. W. LINCOLN,
Awning Maker,
266 Washington Street,
QUINCY POINT.
ITALIAN AWNINGS,
ALL KINDS OF STRIPS,
MADE IN THE BEST MANNER,
AT VERY SHORT NOTICE.
STORES, HALLS, PRIVATE RESIDENCES,
BEACH HOUSES.
Best of references given. 4m
May 5.

E. M. LITCHFIELD,
HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting,
and all its branches will receive prompt attention. Residence, Quincy Avenue.
N. B. Furniture Moved and Parties accommodated at short notice.
Quincy, March 12.

RAY'S
HOME MADE
BREAD
At Wollaston Bakery,
TAYLOR BUILDING.
Wollaston, Aug. 4.

W. H. BENNETT
I have prepared to do all kinds of Grading and Jobbing, Garden Work
done at short notice and reasonable prices.
Also Light Tinning, Casing, and
repairs. Order taken for cesspool cleaning.
CARPETS CLEANED.
A word to house cleaners. I have been in the business two years as carpet cleaner, and my work is done by hand, and at very low
prices.
Sent for Lawn Dressing, Batts, Grass Seed, Shrubs and Flowers of all kinds for-
nished to order at short notice.
All orders promptly attended to.
Residence, Faxon Block, 24 Chestnut St.
Lock Box 361, Quincy.
April 7.

Cypress Lumber and Shingles,
Spruce and Hard Woods,
Hard and Soft Pine,
Cypress Doors and Finish,
Gutters, Conductors, Moldings, etc.
Mill Work of Every Description.
Send for our book, "Cypress Lumber and
its uses."
THE A. T. STEARNS LUMBER CO.,
NEPONSET, MASS.
Feb. 11.

CITY SCAVENGER.
The undersigned has been reappointed
by the Board of Health as City Scavenger,
and will attend to all orders at short
notice.
Particular attention is given to see that the work is done thoroughly and disinfected all
places.
PRICES: For vaults, $1.50 per load
for Cesspools, 75 cents per load.
Additional price of 25 cents per load between May 15th and October 1st.
PETER MCCONARTY,
Quincy, Feb. 18.

THOS. W. LINCOLN,
Awning Maker,
266 Washington Street,
QUINCY POINT.
ITALIAN AWNINGS,
ALL KINDS OF STRIPS,
MADE IN THE BEST MANNER,
AT VERY SHORT NOTICE.
STORES, HALLS, PRIVATE RESIDENCES,
BEACH HOUSES.
Best of references given. 4m
May 5.

E. M. LITCHFIELD,
HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting,
and all its branches will receive prompt attention. Residence, Quincy Avenue.
N. B. Furniture Moved and Parties accommodated at short notice.
Quincy, March 12.

On a low divan reclined a man, of perhaps nine-and-twenty. His eyes were closed; his face was very pale; but it was not the pallor of death. His dress corresponded to the period of the day, and he was, although he looked ten years his senior. The face was very familiar.
Somewhere, and I racked my brain in vain to remember where, I had seen that face. It was the face of my old friend and fellow-student, Stanley Harcourt.
I was in all probability a few moments, perhaps only seconds. A door seemed to open somewhere in the rear, and the girl entered, bent down over the man and listened; then she knelt at his side. When she rose, the jeweled dagger slipped to the floor. Her hands trembled now, but the face remained unchanged.
Once more the face indicated, and when I could distinguish the true color, and that the face was far lovelier than I had before seen it, I was struck by the fact.
People were at all surprised when five
years later she became Countess de Russion. Poor Beatrice! I thought I should have known her sooner, and yet all the heart was very straightforward and manly at the time. But as for Lady Beatrice, why, man, it nearly killed her. In that one night, her hair turned white as snow. Oh, they say she was 'ragged,' and that she was far lovelier than I had
before seen it, I was struck by the fact.
People were at all surprised when five
years later she became Countess de Rus-
sion. Poor Beatrice! I thought I should have known her sooner, and yet all the
heart was very straightforward and manly at the time. But as for Lady Beatrice, why, man, it nearly killed her. In
that one night, her hair turned white as snow. Oh, they say she was 'ragged,' and that she was far lovelier than I had
before seen it, I was struck by the fact.
People were at all surprised when five
years later she became Countess de Rus-
sion. Poor Beatrice! I thought I should have known her sooner, and yet all the
heart was very straightforward and manly at the time. But as for Lady Beatrice, why, man, it nearly killed her. In
that one night, her hair turned white as snow. Oh, they say she was 'ragged,' and that she was far lovelier than I had
before seen it, I was struck by the fact.
People were at all surprised when five
years later she became Countess de Rus-
sion. Poor Beatrice! I thought I should have known her sooner, and yet all the
heart was very straightforward and manly at the time. But as for Lady Beatrice, why, man, it nearly killed her. In
that one night, her hair turned white as snow. Oh, they say she was 'ragged,' and that she was far lovelier than I had
before seen it, I was struck by the fact.
People were at all surprised when five
years later she became Countess de Rus-
sion. Poor Beatrice! I thought I should have known her sooner, and yet all the
heart was very straightforward and manly at the time. But as for Lady Beatrice, why, man, it nearly killed her. In
that one night, her hair turned white as snow. Oh, they say she was 'ragged,' and that she was far lovelier than I had
before seen it, I was struck by the fact.
People were at all surprised when five
years later she became Countess de Rus-
sion. Poor Beatrice! I thought I should have known her sooner, and yet all the
heart was very straightforward and manly at the time. But as for Lady Beatrice, why, man, it nearly killed her. In
that one night, her hair turned white as snow. Oh, they say she was 'ragged,' and that she was far lovelier than I had
before seen it, I was struck by the fact.
People were at all surprised when five
years later she became Countess de Rus-
sion. Poor Beatrice! I thought I should have known her sooner, and yet all the
heart was very straightforward and manly at the time. But as for Lady Beatrice, why, man, it nearly killed her. In that one night, her hair turned white as snow. Oh, they say she

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, AUG. 25, 1894.

Daylight Robbery.

One of the boldest robberies ever committed in Quincy transpired Wednesday morning in City Square at the clothing store of C. F. Derby in the Adams building.

About 7 o'clock two men entered the store, which was at that hour in charge of a boy, and one of them made a small purchase for which he tendered a $10 bill, which the boy changed.

The other man then said he would like to look at some trunks and the boy took him to the back of the store. While there the first man who was at the front end of the store rifled the money drawer of $30 and then walked out of the store and beckoned to the man with the boy, at which they both started for the depot. The boy soon discovered the loss and notified Chief Hayden who hastened to the store where he arrived just in time to see the 7:32 train pull out with the men aboard. Chief Hayden telegraphed to Boston to police headquarters to detain the men on the arrival of the train, but word came back that the men got off at Neponset and that the officers there had been notified to look out for them.

The man who robbed the money drawer Wednesday morning did not have an opportunity to enjoy his ill-gotten gains, as he was arrested at Neponset before noon.

It seems that when the two men left Quincy they got off at Neponset, where they tried the same game, without success, however.

They entered the store of J. B. Light on Neponset avenue, where one of the men asked the young lady clerk to show him some stockings. The tall man of the two asked if she had any objection to his putting them on and the young lady, who was so kind, consented to his doing so. Meanwhile, the other man walked about the store to the safe. The combination was off, but as he turned the knob there was a click, which alarmed the lady, who screamed, and the men hurriedly left. Although parties gave chase, the men separated and got away.

Later Officer Hook saw a man lying under the trees on Ashmont street, that answered the description of the Quincy man, and arrested him.

The arrested man gave the name of William A. Stanton but refused to give his residence. The man was taken to police headquarters, where he was identified as John P. Sheldon, a famous crook, who had done some work all over the country, and had served time in several prisons.

Chief Hayden of Quincy was notified of the arrest of Officer McKay and Derby by Station 11, and the boy pointed out the man who had been identified as John P. Sheldon as the man who had done the robbery.

Another thing that will seem to connect him with the Quincy break is that he had the shirt bought in Quincy, which was tied in a paper with Derby's name on it, and some cigars which were purchased at Derby's drug store in the morning. He also had over $100 in money.

Chief Hayden got a warrant for him which Officer McKay took to the North court Thursday morning where the fellow was arraigned for the Neponset racket and held in $1000 for grand jury.

Inspector Gerraghty of Boston identified Sheldon as the man who had been convicted in Boston for larceny on Jan. 20, 1875, or about the time of the Boston fire. He served forty-eight months for that offense.

Special Officer Shields of the inspector's force identified him as a man whom he convicted under the name of Egan on Sept. 13, 1892, on the charge of larceny, and for which he served 12 months. He has also served a term in Sing Sing prison.

Railroad Accident.

Local passenger train No. 841, which leaves Boston at 7:55 P. M., threw out of running order for over four hours Tuesday night when the Old Colony system, Wednesday evening.

Just before the train reached Furnace brook bridge at Wollaston, one of the journals on the rear wheel of the rear truck to the engine's tender broke, throwing the forward wheels of that truck off the track. The engineer closed his throttle and applied the air brakes instantly, bringing the train to a stop within a hundred feet of the bridge. The engine had reached the bridge there might have been a serious disaster.

Conductor Peckham immediately walked to Quincy and telephoned to Boston for the breaker and a crew. The passengers all left the train and walked to Quincy.

In the meantime Chief Train Despatcher Wright and his assistants at the Boston depot had to do some lively work to get the trains around the obstruction. All through trains were run over the Granite branch.

The outward locals were run from Atlantic to Quincy on the inward track. The 9:10 train out was one hour late and the other trains were delayed about the same time. The inward train which leaves Wollaston at 9:17 was delayed until 9:35 and so on.

At 10:40 the wrecker and a crew under the charge of Master Mechanic Willis arrived and began operations.

Chief Train Despatcher Wright of Boston was also on the wrecker. He proceeded to the Quincy depot and from that time on operated the Plymouth division from that station, co-operating with his assistants at Boston.

The wrecking crew jacked up the tender removed the rear wheels from the rear trucks, rolled them over the blocks and under a new set and the blockade was raised shortly after 12 o'clock Thursday morning.

John Quincy Adams Will.

At Dedham on Wednesday there was filed the will of the late John Quincy Adams of this city, which was executed Sept. 24, 1870.

It is a very brief document, covering less than half a sheet of commercial note paper. The will contains no public bequests, the entire estate being given to his wife, Mrs. Fannie C. Adams, who is made executrix of the will. The four children are bequeathed nothing in the will, which, however, states that the property left to his wife is so given in the full confidence that she will make such disposition of it during her lifetime and trust distribution of it among their children at her decease or before, as he himself would have deemed wise and prudent. The will was witnessed by C. F. Adams, Jr., Charles H. Richardson and Joseph H. Paine.

Young Men's Christian Assn.

The boys returned from Idlewild Camp, Silver Lake, Thursday morning.

The men's meeting for the past two Sundays have been held in Glad Tidings tent, Liberty street, South Quincy, and have been so well attended that it will be held there next Sunday at 3:30. Frank L. Avery will speak.

Arrangements are being made to start classes in clay modeling and drawing, beginning the first week in October.

The Jubilee band continues to have interesting sessions on Wednesday evenings and a cordial invitation is extended to all young men to spend a pleasant and profitable evening. The Bible study begins at eight o'clock.

Don't forget the special excursion to Newport on Tuesday, August 28th. Special train and greatly reduced rates from Taunton, and all principal stations to Harrison Square. Are you going? If not, why not?

CITY BRIEFS.

Asa A. Pope is at Brant Rock.

The City Council is taking a three week vacation.

Schools re-open one week from next Tuesday.

Miss Stella Hughes has returned from Randolph.

The School Committee will meet next Tuesday evening.

Miss Sadie Humphrey is passing her vacation in New Hampshire.

Robert McLean, clerk at Saville & Jones' store, is on his vacation.

The Woman's Relief corps took the steamer trip Wednesday.

John Barbeck, meat cutter at Rogers Bros., is on his vacation.

It was four years ago, Aug. 19, that the Quincy accident happened.

Officer Hanson, accompanied by Mrs. Hanson, has gone to Maine.

Geo. Jones is having an extension to his vacation. The sea air did it!

Charles Cook, engineer of the steamer, is on his vacation this week.

Sept. 17, W. Lull of the public schools has returned from his vacation.

The annual picnic of St. John's parish will be held today at Lovell's grove.

Rumor has it that Miss Tena Cleaves has become a professional banjoist.

William Westland, clerk at C. B. Tilton's, is on his vacation this week.

Miss Katie H. Allison has gone on a two weeks trip to Europe and other places.

Mr. Paul Adams of Evansonville, Ill., a son of City Treasurer Adams, is in town.

There has been fifty-one boats entered for the Quincy Yacht club's open regatta.

Ladies' day of the Merry Mount yacht club will probably be held early in September.

Harry M. Butterfield, formerly of Quincy, is in town for a few days on a business trip.

The family of Mr. H. E. Ricker of Bigelow street are at Germantown for two weeks.

N. B. Furnald boats of a large cucumber, 12 inches long and 12 inches in circumference.

Note the change in the timetable of the steamer City of Quincy to go into effect next Monday.

The Misses Osborne of Bigelow street have returned from Lowell accompanied by their young cousins.

Mr. Frederick F. Green, his wife and her sister left Friday for a fortnight's vacation in Nova Scotia.

The street railway is fitting up a waiting room under Ripley's Cycle room for the conductors and motormen.

The residence of William Garrity on Cottage street, will be a great addition to the street when completed.

Sigourney Butler is mentioned as a successor to Josiah Quincy as chairman of the Democratic State Committee.

Boston must have got a heavier rain Monday than Quincy, but our washerwoman thinks they had enough.

Mr. George Austin of Arlington is spending his vacation with his cousins, the Misses Osborn, No. 2 Baxter place.

Mrs. George T. Mace left last week for a two weeks' outing at Enfield Center, N. H., with Mr. Mace's good boy.

Mrs. Malcom McQuarrie, accompanied by her mother and daughter, have returned from Riverside, after a week's sojourn.

Mr. George Richards has been missed of late at the Quincy grain store. He has been camping on Essex river, Cape Ann.

The illumination at Houghs Neck on Thursday was rather a poor affair compared with that of last year. The crowd was immense.

The Mt. Wollaston lodge, L. O. O. F., worked their third degree Tuesday evening on a candidate from John Hancock lodge of Wollaston.

Open regatta off Houghs Neck on Saturday at 3:30. There will be six classes including boats weighing from 15 to 25 feet. Good prizes are offered.

The prizes on Wednesday evening at the drive-whit contest by the members of the Granite City club was awarded to W. W. Fowell and Warren H. Ridout.

One of the Councilmen had a resolution which he intended springing upon the Council Monday evening, but for some reason best known to himself held it back.

Letter Carrier John Williams had the misfortune to have his bicycle stolen last week. He left it back of the post office for a few moments and when he went to go home it had disappeared.

The Greenleaf school begins its fall term on Sept. 10. This school has for many years stood high with our citizens, as it prepares the scholar in a most efficient manner to enter the Adams and Thayer academies.

The Temperance Temple of Chicago acknowledges the gift of $1,000 from Henry H. Faxon, Esq., of this city. This makes $2,000 he has given toward the "House Beautiful," and again shows his liberality and love for the temperance cause.

W. R. Lofgren, 20 Chestnut street, left on Tuesday last, by the new Fall River steamer, Priscilla, for New York for a short vacation. He is stopping at the Commodore hotel and is having a pleasant time, but expects to return on the Saturday evening boat.

The Quincy Granite manufacturers held their annual outing Saturday at Nantasket. Part of the party made the trip by the steamer City of Quincy, while others went down by car.

Hotel Nantasket, and from all reports they had a fine dinner and pleasant day.

Messrs. Jones, Pettengill, Winslow and Saville, returned Saturday night from their cruise in the White Swan, and now fish stories are in order and the proper question to ask is, "who is the bait?"

The White Swan did not participate in the Marblehead race.

The Board of Health will cause to be placarded the following contagious diseases, viz: Scarlet fever, diphtheria, and membranous croup, and all houses that have contained a case of scarlet fever, diphtheria or membranous croup will be made to be disinfected under direction of the Board of Health.

House 1 was called out on a still alarm about 12:30 P. M. Tuesday to extinguish a fire on President bridge which had been set by a passing locomotive. It is getting to be a common occurrence to have this bridge set fire and as it is always in the same place it will be a waste of time while the bridge will be weakened.

Boston papers report two Swedish girls, giving their names as Helen Jackson and Nellie Nelson of Quincy, being arrested by Inspector Knox Thursday afternoon on the charge of shoplifting. The girls were but 16 and 18 years of age. They were committed to the House of Detention and their friends notified of their whereabouts.

The Congregational church and Sunday School of Quincy will hold its annual picnic at Merry Mount park today. An extensive programme has been arranged, consisting of games of every description for both young and old. It is hoped that every member will make an effort to attend, and do their part to make the day enjoyable. Contribution of food are requested. Five cent. large fare from the church.

WOLLASTON.

The Rev. Horatio Gray of Boston will preach at Christ church, tomorrow.

The one blow on the fire alarm signal at 2 A. M. on Friday was a signal that the fire department had left Houghs Neck.

The residents of Edwards Hill are treated to an excellent concert by the Sons of Veterans Drum Corps every Monday evening.

Taxpayers must wait a few days longer for the tax rate. It may be announced Saturday, but possibly not until the first of the week.

The Savin Hill handicap race to be taken place today has been postponed, which means more boats in the Quincy open regatta.

Mrs. George A. Wardwell of Wollaston is visiting friends and relatives at her home in Livermore Falls, Me.

Jediah P. Jordan of Dorchester, formerly of Wollaston, is out with a letter with regard to his nomination as a candidate for the Republican nomination in this Congressional district.

A well known Quincy man was driving from Wollaston to Quincy, Thursday afternoon, on Newport avenue, when his horse suddenly reared and threw him to the ground. The horse was slightly bruised, and the harness injured a little, but otherwise there was no damage and he proceeded on to Quincy.

W. W. Simmons, Jr., a well known bicyclist of Wollaston went into training Wednesday evening as a hurdle jumper.

He was riding on the Quincy Point bridge when he came to a runaway horse he jumped over the fence onto the portion of the bridge used by the street railway, and then to avoid being run over by an electric car he jumped the other fence into the river.

He was rescued in an exhausted condition by Albert Smith and Edward Hyland who were in a row boat near by.

Mr. L. Howland Jones of Wollaston sails from New York for Europe today, on the North German Lloyd steamer Fulda.

Mr. Jones goes to Europe for a residence of two years or more to continue his studies of architecture.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Bates and family of Wollaston are enjoying a pleasant outing on the shores of Lake Winnepeaukee, N. H.

Flowers for the Daughters Home and the clock of Boston can be left with Miss Marion Taylor, 378 Hancock street, Wollaston, on Wednesday and Fridays.

Mr. Robert E. Price of Wollaston, who has been for some time connected with the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Boston, is now an adjuster of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. of New York, residing in that city.

Several weeks ago the papers chronicled the fact that the tower of the Wollaston bell had been struck by lightning and the hands to the westerly clock face were thrown out of gear, thus rendering them useless. There is now considerable complaint because the railroad officials do not have the clock repaired.

The Royal Yacht Club of Wollaston held its third race of the season on Frog pond, Wollaston, on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock before a large crowd of spectators.

The house on Central avenue formerly occupied by Mr. L. W. Nash has been sold again. This time to Mr. George Young of Cohasset, Me.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Wollaston Co-operative bank held on Tuesday evening $3,000 was paid at five and ten cents premium.

Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., the recently appointed presiding elder of the Boston South district, will make his first visit to the Wollaston Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday evening. He will preach at 7:30 o'clock and hold the district conference at the close of the service.

Wollaston Athletic Church.

Rev. James E. Bagley, pastor. The church will open Sept. 2d. Service at 10:45 A. M. and 8:00 P. M.

Rev. C. W. Winder, pastor. Class meeting at 10 A. M. Preaching by the pastor at 10:45 A. M. Sunday school at 12 M. Prayer meeting of the Epworth League at 6:30 P. M. Preaching at 7:30 P. M. by Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., Presiding Elder of the Boston South District.

ATLANTIC.

The ice cream party at Music hall last week under the auspices of the St. Anne's T. A. & L. society of Neponset was largely attended, and a good time enjoyed. George F. McFarland was floor director, and he was assisted by Thomas A. Horan and a large corps of aids.

Friends of Mrs. Samuel M. Wood of Atlantic will be grieved to learn of her death by brain disease on Sunday. Mrs. Wood was in her 60th year and was born at Middleboro, where the body will be taken for interment.

The exercise game of the fire department came to Atlantic Thursday to cover Ward Six, while the combination apparatus was at Houghs Neck.

L. T. Gurney is at Hanson for a few days.

Mary Sullivan of Old Colony street is at Hanson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hinkley have moved to Taunton.

Rev. J. H. Yeoman left again Friday for New Hampshire.

Mrs. W. S. Russell of Billings street is visiting her daughter at Taunton.

James F. Gay, Mrs. J. E. Curtin, and Mrs. Sarah Ayer are at Old Orchard.

Redner Coombs has returned from his vacation.

Robert H. Wilde has gone to Maine on a visit.

Herbert Coombs and family have gone to Maine for a short visit.

Henry Martens, new agent at Atlantic, has gone to New York on a brief trip.

Rev. J. H. Yeoman and party have returned from their trip to Nova Scotia.

Mr. Lapham of Boston has taken one of the Chase cottages on Appleton street.

W. W. Faxon, who has been at Colorado for several months, has returned to Atlantic.

A horse of T. Gurney had his leg broken in an accident last week, and had to be killed.

Mr. Spear of Boston, who has resided at Atlantic for several months, has returned to Boston.

Mrs. A. K. Whitaker and family of Boston, have returned from Providence, R. I.

Charles Harriman, meat cutter at T. Gurney's, moves next week to one of the new houses on Old Colony street.

DOWN AND PARK.

Henry F. Flaisted of Boston has moved into a new house on the corner of Faxon and Fry streets.

Mr. A. E. Linnell of Wollaston Park has returned from a month's vacation.

Mrs. James McLeod of Millbury is visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry Millbury of Wollaston Park.

Mr. William A. West is having a fine coat of paint put on his house on Davis street.

Mrs. George Stebbins and son Myron of Wollaston Park are visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Lowe of Woodstock Valley, Ct.

The lily pond on Capt. E. A. Snow's house at Wollaston Park is much admired by many, and it has now in bloom several beautiful red, white and blue lilies.

Master Harry Linnell, of Wollaston Park, having been presented with a miniature yacht by Capt. Teeksbury, stands ready to receive challenge from any yacht under 35 inches.

Three costly monuments in a Barre granite yard were damaged Wednesday night, causing a loss of $300. An arrest has been made.

SOUTH QUINCY.

Edward W. B. Nutting was granted a pension this week.

Mr. George H. Kendrick is spending his vacation at Downer Landing.

Mrs. James B. Pollock of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting her parents.

A. J. Williams has gone to North Corinth, Me., on vacation.

Mrs. Mary Powers of Franklin place has returned from her summer vacation, which was spent in Concord, N. H.

Auctioneer Joseph T. French sold at mortgagee's sale Monday, the Edward Arnold estate on Liberty street to J. Warren Nightingale for $1,600.

Joseph McConnel aged about 10 years, living on Mt. Pleasant, was bitten in the leg last week by a dog owned by Walter Street Italian. The wound was cauterized.

The boy claims the dog was set upon him by a girl.

Mrs. Kate Powers, of South Quincy has been visiting in Maine, to be the guest of Inspector D. C. McCarthy and family, formerly of Quincy.

Good Templars.

The following officers of Merry Mount lodge, No. 55, I. O. G. T., have been installed for the present term: D. G. C. T. Joel T. Watson, assisted by Mr. Kenneth McDonald and Miss Belle Lavers of Abbott lodge, Boston:

C. T. Alex. McCraig.

W. Mrs. A. M. McCraig.

Secretary, J. B. Bigelow, Jr.

A. S. Miss Abbie Ellis.

P. S. Arthur W. Lord.

T. C. M. Jennes.

C. Mrs. F. Somers.

Charles A. Robert.

D. M. Miss Bessie Weathe.

Sent. Miss Nellie Powell, pro tem.

P. C. T. Jas. C. Gillespie.

Subject: "Christ and Satan."

Rev. W. Stoddard, presiding service at 10:30.

Subject: "Christ and Satan."

Sunday school at close of service.

Evening service at 7 o'clock. Subject: "Zechen." Y. P. C. E. Tuesday evening, congregational prayer meeting Thursday evening. Come and welcome.

WEST QUINCY.

The Misses Allen T. and Anna B. Kelly of Copeland street have returned from a three weeks' vacation at Martha's Vineyard.

Rev. E. W. Virgin and family of West Quincy, returned from their vacation next week. They have spent a week at Shelburne Falls, Mass., in the valley of the Deerfield river. Mr. Tupper of Quincy High School is stopping there, his wife formerly resided in Shelburne Falls.

The Journal reporter Wm. H. Glennon of West Quincy to have been passing through Lincoln street Wednesday when a young man made a grab for his watch chain and ran, taking watch and chain worth about $10 with him. Glennon gave chase to the thief, who ran into the arms of Patrolmen Gallagher and Lynch of the Lagrange Street Station. At the police station the young man described himself as Frank Ryan, 23 years of age, and claimed to belong in Chicago.

Miss Addie Cashman is visiting at Scituate.

William Cashman is building a railroad between Scituate and Taunton.

William W. Burke, of the granite firm of Burke & Keefe, died Thursday morning at his residence on Kent street, after a lingering illness, aged about 43 years. He leaves a wife and three children.

Misses Nellie Callahan, Susie Hayward and Mary Hussey are on a three weeks' trip through Maine.

A good job is being done on Cross street. The new Quincy railroad is nearly completed.

The style of painting on the new engine houses in Wards Two and Four are very gaudy, the roofs of each being a bright green.

The report that the old powder house of the Oriental Powder Mills was destroyed by fire early Monday morning turns out upon investigation to be a fact. In fact, the house was a slight and a buggy top, all of which were destroyed. The cause was undoubtedly incendiary, and the loss is something like $300.

Miss George Glines of Miller street was in the railroad wreck at Concord last week, but fortunately escaped without injury.

Harry Campbell of West Quincy had the misfortune last year to lose his watch, which he heard nothing until it was returned to him this week by the party who found it, and had it returned to him by the present time.

Methodist Church, West Quincy.

Rev. E. W. Virgin, pastor. Morning service at 10:30 conducted by Rev. E. P. Cushman of Dedham; and Dr. L. S. Simpson of Boston. Preaching at 7:30 P. M. Sunday evening service at 6 o'clock, instead of seven the usual hour.

QUINCY POINT.

Mrs. Frank Perry of Arnold street has gone to Athol.

The new house built at Quincy Point is nearly ready for occupancy.

Make up your parties for Winthrop and go via steamer City of Quincy.

Mrs. R. J. Weeks and children returned Saturday from Kittery, N. H.

Councilman Charles H. Johnson has moved into his new house on River street.

The Columbus band gave a concert Sunday afternoon and evening at Quincy Point.

Labor day the steamer City of Quincy has been chartered to run between Boston and Winthrop. The great coaching parade will doubtless be the best thing of the kind ever held in this State.

The Glenbrook was in splendor with lanterns. Over the entrance flags were prettily draped and from a tall pole in front of the building were broad streamers of red, white and blue bunting.

C. H. Bray's cottage looked very pretty with its flags.

John Dolan of the D. J. N., besides having his home decorated with lanterns, flags and bunting, had fireworks.

The Mt. Pleasant, Ingleside, Murray's, Moondyne, Cedar Bluff, Tuckerman's, and the Mayflower of the Plains also were illuminated with lanterns in grand style.

The Glenbrook was in splendor with lanterns. Over the entrance flags were prettily draped and from a tall pole in front of the building were broad streamers of red, white and blue bunting.

C. H. Bray's cottage looked very pretty with its flags.

John Dolan of the D. J. N., besides having his home decorated with lanterns, flags and bunting, had fireworks.

The Mt. Pleasant, Ingleside, Murray's, Moondyne, Cedar Bluff, Tuckerman's, and the Mayflower of the Plains also were illuminated with lanterns in grand style.

The Glenbrook was in splendor with lanterns. Over the entrance flags were prettily draped and

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1894.

VOL. 58. NO. 35.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST.
Room 5 and 6, -Durgin & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office Hours, 8 to 12 to 5.
Residence, Greenleaf street.

DR. G. R. ENGLAND,
DENTIST.
14 Chestnut Street, Quincy, Mass.
Connected by telephone.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
Surgeon Dentist.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain,
with the "BEST VIBRATOR VAPOR."
DEDHAM, QUINCY, NORWOOD.
At Quincy office, French's Building,
WEDNESDAYS.
At Dedham Mondays and Saturdays,
July 28.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy, -30 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston, -HOTEL PELHAM, -Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. CHAS. S. FRENCH,
DENTIST.
All kinds of work in Dentistry done in the
best manner.
GAS OR ETHER ADMINISTERED.
No. 80 Hancock Street.
Quincy, Aug. 8.

F. S. DAVIS, M. D.,
HOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN.
No. 5 Elm Street, Quincy.
Connected by Telephone.
OFFICE HOURS until 9 A. M., and 2 to 5 P. M., and 6 to 7 P. M.
Quincy, Oct. 23.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.,
Specialist, -Orthodontia.
REMOVED TO
No. 7 TEMPLE PLACE.
New Building, Boston.
Office Hours, -9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Residence, -Linden Place, -Quincy.

W. W. JENNESS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
87 Milk Street, Boston, Mass.
Office Hours, 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. Rooms 28 and 29
Quincy office, Adams Building.
Office Hours, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Quincy, May 25.

JOHN W. McANARNEY,
Counselor-at-Law,
Room 1, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
Hancock Street, Quincy.
Saturdays, at the office of Durgin &
JENNEY, 200 Washington Street, Boston.
August 11.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
Nathaniel Nightingale,
Granite St. near Post Office.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
PEREZ JOYCE,
Quincy avenue near Liberty street.

W. H. BENNETT
Still prepared to do all kinds of Grading and Jobbing. Garden work done at short notice and reasonable prices.
Also Light Trenching, Cesspools built and repaired. Order taken for cesspool cleaning.

CARPETS CLEANED.
A word to house cleaners. I have been in the business two years as carpet cleaner, and all my work is done by hand, and at very low prices.
Agent for Lawn Dressing. Bulbs, Grass
Seed, Shrubs and Flowers of all kinds furnished to order at short notice.
All orders promptly attended to.

GRANITE FIRMS.
FULLER, FOLEY & CO.,
Granite Manufacturers and Dealers. Work
opposite West Quincy Depot.

McDONNELL BROTHERS.
Wholesale Dealers in Blue and Gray Quincy Granite. Finely executed Monument and a specialty. Norfolk Street.
Post Office address Quincy, Mass.

THOMAS & MILLER.
Manufacturers of Monumental and Cemetery
Work and Statuary. P. O. address, Quincy
Branch Office, 18 Lake Ave., Saratoga, N. Y.

GEO. H. HITCHCOCK & CO.
Medium Blue Quincy Granite for Building
and Cemetery Work. Quarry and Office,
Quincy Street. Post Office address, Quincy.

JOSS BROTHERS.
Monumental Granite Works (Garfield Street,
Quincy). Best of stock, and workmanship
guaranteed. All orders promptly filled.

E. F. CARR & CO.
(Successors to Frederick & Field.)
Established in 1830. Monuments, Cemetery and Building Work. Granite Statuary artificially carved. Quarries and Works at Quincy Street, Quincy, Mass.

CRAIG & RICHARDS
Granite Co. Wholesale Dealers in all kinds of Rough and Finished Granite. Quarry
at Adams Street. Works, off Water Street.

BADGER BROTHERS.
Granite Dealers and Machinists. Monumental Work of all Descriptions. Quarries and Work at Adams Street. Address, Quincy.

MILLER & LUCE.
Wholesale Manufacturers of Art Monuments
and Cemetery Work. Quarry and Office,
West Quincy. Address, 178 Tremont.

JOHN FALLON & SONS.
Quarriesmen and Dealers in Rough and Dressed Granite for Building and Cemetery Work.
Quarry on Quincy Street. Address, Quincy.

THOS. F. BURKE & BROS.
Manufacturers of Monuments and every description of Cemetery Work. Office and Works, Willard St., West Quincy.

MERRY MOUNT GRANITE CO.
Incorporated 1861. Manufacturers and Dealers in Monumental and Cemetery Work.
Works near Quincy Adams Station, Quincy.

McGRATH BROS.
Large stock of Finished Monuments and Table
Gravestones on hand. Works at Quincy
Adams Station. Established 1864.

H. T. Whitman,
CIVIL ENGINEER
AND SURVEYOR.
ADAMS BUILDING, - QUINCY.
Hours, 8 to 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Boston Office, 85 Devonshire Street.
Hours, 12 to 2 P. M.
N. B. Plans of nearly all the Real Estate
in the City of Quincy can be found at my office.
May 28.

C. A. BELCHER
OF BRAintree, AUCTIONEER
AND
Real Estate Agent.
Will soon open an office in Quincy.
More particulars next week.
Aug. 18.

NOTICE.
THE Board of Water Commissioners will
until further notice hold meetings every Thursday evening in Room 3, Durgin &
Merrill's Block, at 7 o'clock. All persons having business with the Board are requested
to present it at these meetings.

HEBERT T. WHITMAN, Water
JOHN T. CAVANAGH, } Commis-
JAMES H. STERSON, } sioners.
Quincy, June 25, 1892.

CITY OF QUINCY.
The Overseer of the Poor
WILL be at his office in the CITY
HALL, from 8 to 10 A. M. on SAT-
URDAYS.
Z. S. ARNOLD, Overseer.

H. O. SOUTHER,
MASON AND CONTRACTOR.
AGENT for Akron Drain and Sewer Pipe,
and will give prompt attention,
Plain and Ornamental Brick Work,
Plastering and Cement Work.

ORNAMENTAL CENTRES
Shop, -No. 4 Canal St.
Residence, -No. 142 Washington St.

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER
Pearl Street,
SOUTH QUINCY.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
JOINERY PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
Hancock Street, Quincy, Mass.

WARREN D. HIGGINS,
Architect and Builder.
Can show you a large number of Plans
for Houses which will cost from $1000 to $5000 to build.
Residence, 7 Faxon Avenue, Quincy
May 21.

WALTER S. RANDALL,
Carpenter and Builder.
Has removed to his new residence on Bigelow Street. He is prepared to furnish estimates for house building, and will give prompt attention, and solicits a continuance of past favors.
Quincy, July 1.

C. H. ABBOTT,
Piano and Organ Tuner
RATES REASONABLE.
Workmanship Guaranteed.
Orders accepted at
E. B. South's News Depot,
Quincy, Jan. 13.

16 years' experience in Piano and Organ Tuning.

FRANK A. LOCKE.
HERBERT F. NYE,
TEACHER OF
PIANO, ORGAN, VOICE.
Residence, -Coddington Street.
P. O. address, Box 925, Quincy, Mass.
At home Tuesday evenings.
Feb. 23.

FRANK C. CILBERT,
Teacher of Piano-forte,
100 Hancock St. Quincy.
Sept. 6.

Elocution, Physical Culture
AND
DRAMATIC ACTION.
MISS ELSIE RUSSELL will receive a limited number of pupils at 211 HAN-COCK STREET, QUINCY, TUESDAYS
and FRIDAYS.
Will also arrange and direct
PANTOMIMES, GREEK TABLEAUX,
and STATUE POSES.
March 10.

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER.
No. 51 HANCOCK STREET.
Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,
Robes and Habits.
Having had several years' experience in the Undertaking business, the subscriber hopes by strict attention to the wants of all callers to merit a share of patronage.

JOHN HALL.
Office and residence corner of Canal and Mechanics Streets.
Quincy, Feb. 6.

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER.

MILLINERY.
BARGAINS IN SAILORS
Mark-Down Sales
STILL CONTINUE!
ENTIRE STOCK CHEAP AS DIRT.

M. E. FISH,
10 CHESTNUT STREET, QUINCY.
Quincy, Aug. 10

MILLINERY.
The greatest Mark-Down Sale of TRIMMED HATS AND BONNETS
ever known in Quincy.

Call Early and Get Your Choice.

A. M. TINCLEY,
French Millinery Parlors.
Room 30 Adams Building,
QUINCY.

NEW
Millinery
NEW STOCK OF
HATS AND BONNETS.
In Straw and Frames.
Latest Styles in Shapes, Colors and Material.
Mourning Goods a specialty.

MISS S. H. HUSSEY,
121 Hancock Street.
Opp. The Greenleaf.

E. M. LITCHFIELD,
HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting, and all its branches will receive prompt attention. Residence, Quincy Avenue.
Quincy, March 12.

Ladies' and Children's
HAIR - DRESSING - PARLORS.
M. E. FISH,
10 Chestnut Street, - Quincy
SHAMPOOING, Singing, Bangs Cut, and all the latest styles in the latest style for Street and evening.
Dec. 10.

ETNA INSURANCE COMPANY
BARTFORD, CONN.
Incorporated 1833. Charter Perpetual.
Losses Paid in 75 Years $72,756,000.

JOHN HARDWICK & CO.
GRANITE STREET.
Agents for Quincy.

DORCHESTER
MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE CO.,
OF BOSTON.
P. O. Address, Neponset, Mass.

JANUARY 1st, 1894.
Cash Capital, $4,000,000.00
Reserve for Re-insurance, (Fire), $2,000,000.00
Reserve for Re-insurance, (Inland), $5,000,000.00
Reserve for Re-insurance, (Marine), $1,000,000.00
Reserve for Unpaid Losses, (Inland), $6,000,000.00
Reserve for Unpaid Losses, (Marine), $1,000,000.00
Net Surplus, $2,000,000.00
Total Assets, $19,000,000.00

JOHN HARDWICK & CO.
GRANITE STREET.
Agents for Quincy.

DORCHESTER
MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE CO.,
OF BOSTON.
P. O. Address, Neponset, Mass.

JANUARY 1st, 1894.
Amount at Risk, $27,176,880.00
Cost to Re-insure and Pay Losses, 299,074.70
Cash Assets, 249,257.00
Deposits, 418,141.20
Cash Surplus, 132,237.30
Total Assets, $27,865,589.20

THOS. F. TEMPLE,
President and Treasurer.
W. D. C. CURTIS,
Secretary.

1 year's 5 years' 10 years' policies
Dividends, 25 50 75 per cent.

Norfolk Mutual Fire Ins. Co.
DEDHAM, MASS.
Amount at Risk, $18,990,475.34
Cash Assets, 470,145.56
Total Liabilities, including
Re-insurance, 145,801.61

Amount of Cash Surplus, 238,234.96
Contingent Assets, 275,681.53
Total Available Assets, 513,916.49
This Company insures Buildings and Household Furniture only strictly on the mutual plan.
It is now paying dividends on its three year policy, 50 per cent.; on 5 year policies, 75 per cent.
J. WHITE BELCHER, President.
ELIJAH HOWER, JR., Sec. and Treas.
HOWARD B. SPEAR, Agent for Quincy
April 25.

QUINCY
Mutual Fire Insurance Co
INCORPORATED IN 1851.
COMMENCED BUSINESS IN 1851
CHAS. A. HOWLAND, WILLIAM H. FAY,
President, Secretary.

CASH FUND JANUARY 1, 1894.
$627,778.42
(A gain of $17,751.82.)
SURPLUS OVER ALL LIABILITIES,
$375,961.81
(A gain of $13,830.08.)
AMOUNT AT RISK, $32,563,088.
(A gain of $649,821.)

Losses paid in 1892, $50,352.29.
Dividends paid in 1892, $65,380.98.
Jan. 21.

INSURANCE AGENCY.
ESTABLISHED in Quincy in the year
1840 by
W. PORTER.
Insurance effected in reliable and safe
Stock and Mutual Offices.
By W. PORTER & CO.,
At No. 27 State Street, Boston
Residence, Hancock Street, Quincy

COMER'S
COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.
FOUNDED 1840
Reopens September 4th.
A thorough and practical course of study in
BUSINESS AND SHORTHAND.
Imparting young people to earn their own living,
and to acquire the habits of industry and economy.
54 Years and 29,000 PUPILS graduates for itself. Prospective free by mail at office.

COMER'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,
666 Washington St., cor. Beach,
BOSTON, MASS.
July 21.

JOHN G. THOMAS,
Slate, Tin, Copper and Composition
ROOFING.
Also Ready Roofing of all kinds.
Slate Roofs Cheaper than Shingles,
and makes your roof fire proof.

BEAUTIFUL MELODIES FOR
Violin and Piano
Twenty-Five Cents!!
WALTZ-Kathleen O'Connor.
Daisy Bell.
The Little Maid in Pink.
Won't You Be My Sweetheart.
All Popular, All Perfect Goods.
Price 25 cts. each or the five Pieces
for $1.00.

JEAN WHITE,
226 Washington St., Boston, Mass.
May 19.

RAY'S
HOME MADE
BREAD
At Wollaston Bakery,
TAYLOR BUILDING.
Wollaston, Aug. 4.

J. J. KENLEY,
PLUMBER.
All orders promptly attended to at reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed.
In 99 Temple Street, QUINCY.
On former formerly occupied by the Citizens'
Gas Light Company.

W. G. SEARS,
Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting.
WELLS DRIVEN
AND PUMPS REPAIRED.
SHOP IN PIERCE'S BLOCK,
Corner Washington and Hancock Streets.
March 24.

ADAMSON'S
BOTANIC COUGH BALSAM
CURES
COUGHS, COLD, ASTHMA,
HAY FEVER
AND ALL DISEASES LEADING TO CONSUMPTION
Regular Sizes 35¢ & 75¢

Lace Curtains
Grass Bleached and Refinished.
EQUAL TO NEW.

James Oliver & Son
South St. Opposite Dr. Harlow's,
Quincy, Aug. 4.

Quincy Savings Bank.
145 Hancock Street, Quincy.

President, RUFERT F. CLAFIN.
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MARSH.
Treasurer and Sec'y, GEORGE L. GILL.
Board of Investment, RUFERT F. CLAFIN,
EDWIN W. MARSH, JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
ELIAS A. PERKINS.
BANK HOURS: -On and after November 1, 1893: -From 8.30 to 12 A. M. and 2 to 4 P. M.
Deposits placed on interest on the first
Tuesday of January, April, July and October.
Quincy, Oct. 7, 1893.

YOU WEAR CORSETS.
Have
You Tried the FAMOUS
Mme. GRISWOLD'S
MAKE?
In all styles from $1.00 up
Corsets made to order, bound with pure silk. Wholesale, $3.00 and upwards. -J.G.
No. 7 Temple Place, Boston, Mass.
April 7.

The Quincy Patriot.
PUBLISHED
Saturday Mornings,
BY
GREEN & PRESCOTT
Editors and Proprietors.

THE PATRIOT is published in the
only city in Norfolk County, and is
one of the oldest newspapers in the
State, being established in 1837.

OFFICE OF PUBLICATION,
No. 115 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

TERMS: -$2.50 per year in advance. $3.00
if not paid before the close of the year.
W. ELIZABETH GREEN. GEO. W. PRESCOTT.

Poetry.
For the Patriot.

Of all the soothing powers on earth, that gives one rest,
I think that music's haunting strain could well be chosen best:
Its tender spell creeps through one's soul like some loved voice's caress.
There's music in the softest heart and gives them happiness.

There's music in the rolling wave and music
in the breeze,
The birds are wrapt in song and there is music in the trees;
The soft green birth to music and while young it lingers by,
But when that soon or late the strains are floating to the sky,
And there they mingle all in one, 'tis heavenly music then;
The single strains had gone from earth to join in one.

Miscellany.
His Surprise Party.

The village of Meredith was seven miles from the Darrington homestead, and it was quite an event in the lives of the Darrington women when they could manage to secure a horse to take them so long a distance. Mr. Darrington and his son drove to the village every week, but the old man thought the women folk belonged at home and had no reason to go beyond the gate at the end of the lane. There were other farm-houses near, to be sure, but Mr. Dar-rington was opposed to "havin' his wife and darters gab about to all the neighbors," and as he was very inhospitable when visitors did appear, everybody fell into the habit of letting the Darringtons severely alone.

It was a hard task for the mother and her two daughters, but they bore their lot uncomplainingly and toiled on day after day with no hope of a change. "I wish that there was a time when I could go to the village, and I think I shall," said the Darrington women, but the father refused to have company invited to the house. "Think I want all my hard-earned wittles up at strangers?" he asked, with a scowl, and that settled the question. The father and son were the only ones who went to the village, and the women folk were left to wait for the old man's return. The women would have won for them an easier life, for the old man was weak when a strong will was set against it, but they never thought of crossing father, so he became more tyrannical as his years increased.

One morning when Mr. Darrington announced his intention of driving to the village, Kate timidly ventured a request that she be allowed to accompany him;
but her father said that she must stay at home and look after the house. "I don't want you to go," he said, "for I don't want you to be seen at the village. You must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."
"I don't want you to go," he said, "for I
don't want you to be seen at the village. You
must stay at home and look after the house."

in his family, he knew. What could it mean? He felt the horse standing by the shed and hurried to the front door to solve the mystery. When he entered he felt that he certainly must be in dreamland.
The parlors that were generally stiff and gloomy were so decorated with flowers and green leaves that he scarcely recognized them as his own. His daughters were radiantly beautiful in dresses of pure white; he had forgotten until now what beautiful girls they really were - and his wife, in her most black and blue, was a woman of whom one might be proud. Then Bab looked more genteel than he had looked for many a long day. Mr. Darrington could not understand it, with his own household open and not at his command, and yet all of them as brave and smiling as if he had never forbidden them the pleasure of having company. But it was a delicious scene after all, and it must have been a hard-hearted man, indeed, who could fail to find enjoyment in it. And who was that coming towards him with outstretched hand? Could it really be Tom Doane, the friend of his happier years, the one who had vowed that he would never speak to him again? Yes, it was no other than that good old Tom, and he was no making the first advances, in spite of his saying, "Howdy, Joe? Seems natural, don't
it?"

"Yes, I must - I must say," stammered
Mr. Darrington, "powerful natural; but I must go and tidy up a bit, for I ain't fit to be seen."

In a dazed sort of way he left the room, but when he returned shortly after dressed in his very best suit, he was as bright and gay as any one present. He entered with all his heart into the merry-making of the evening, only stopping now and then to speak to the women folk and say, "I so sorry to see you here. I really began to fear I should never see you again."

John and his folks had arrived and were joining in the general hilarity when Joe Darrington entered the parlor the second time, but he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children,
and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children,
and he would not have left his wife and
children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have
left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children,
and he would not have left his wife and
children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have
left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children,
and he would not have left his wife and
children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have
left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children,
and he would not have left his wife and
children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have
left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children,
and he would not have left his wife and
children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have
left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children,
and he would not have left his wife and
children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have
left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children, and he would not have left his wife and children,

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 1, 1894.

Valuation of City.

The PATRIOT gives below the valuation of this city, both real and personal, for the past eleven years. It will be noticed that Quincy has more than doubled its wealth during the last decade; and that the Assessors' present valuation is over sixteen million dollars.

Year	Real Estate	Personal	Total
1878	$6,071,600	$1,652,578	$7,724,178
1879	6,322,775	1,705,081	8,027,856
1880	6,604,795	1,884,400	8,489,195
1881	6,887,800	1,912,265	8,799,065
1882	7,434,200	1,950,470	9,384,670
1883	7,852,250	1,978,400	9,830,650
1884	9,730,225	2,582,620	12,312,845
1885	10,468,200	2,309,210	12,777,410
1886	11,157,925	2,308,805	13,466,730
1887	12,472,575	2,348,840	14,821,415
1888	13,657,675	3,022,055	16,679,730
1889	14,968,175	2,729,280	17,697,455

In the past six years the city has grown even faster than in the previous decade, the per cent. of increase being over 72 per cent. It would have been even larger but for the hard times this year, and the fact that there have been large takings of taxable lands for the Blue Hill reservations, the playgrounds in each ward, the new High school, etc. The removal of Charles Francis Adams from the city has also been a severe blow, as he took with him about $150,000 of personal property and a fifth interest in the Adams Real Estate Trust.

The value of the real estate has increased in ten years from $6,071,600 to $14,968,175, and has more than doubled in eight years. The increase has been both in land and buildings, a great many new houses having been built, as the PATRIOT will show in a few days when the Assessors' complete report of the valuation of the city is published. The value of the personal property is also increasing, and the city is making the total of $17,697,455, making the total of $17,697,455, making the total of $17,697,455.

With two exceptions, the real estate of each ward has increased in value each year since 1880. Ward Two in 1880 and Ward Four this year reported losses.

The land of Ward One is by far the most valuable, in fact is nearly equal to that of the two next largest.

The Wollaston ward is of good second in value to the real estate, although the West Quincy ward held that place up to 1891.

The Atlantic ward passed the Quincy gain ward in 1885, and with another such gain as this year will pass Ward Three and Ward Four next year. The value of Ward Two is now less than in any other ward of the city.

Here are the figures showing the gain in valuation of real estate for one and five years:

Ward	Gain in One Year	Gain in Five Years
Ward One	$1,610,700	$1,116,150
Ward Two	22,250	222,040
Ward Three	43,965	547,450
Ward Four	740,220	1,400,570
Ward Five	1,400,220	1,400,220
Ward Six	198,710	804,475

Loss.

In personal estate Ward One is also decidedly in the lead, having nearly one-half the total. The other wards rank in this order—Three, Four, Two, Five and Six. The Atlantic valuation being very small.

In totals it will be seen that the Centre Ward pays over one-third the total tax, a fact that should be remembered when any one claims that the West Quincy ward is not its share of the improvement.

The Wollaston Ward pays nearly one-sixth while Ward Four, which is said to get all the improvements pays less than one-seventh of the taxes.

Comparison of Wards.

Year	Ward One	Ward Two	Ward Three	Ward Four	Ward Five	Ward Six
1880	$4,483,000	$1,236,000	$5,028,000	$2,750,000	$1,828,000	$1,828,000
1881	4,271,980	1,257,220	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000
1882	3,542,025	1,295,375	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000
1883	3,542,025	1,295,375	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000
1884	3,542,025	1,295,375	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000
1885	3,542,025	1,295,375	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000
1886	3,542,025	1,295,375	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000
1887	3,542,025	1,295,375	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000
1888	3,542,025	1,295,375	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000
1889	3,542,025	1,295,375	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000
1890	3,542,025	1,295,375	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000
1891	3,542,025	1,295,375	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000
1892	3,542,025	1,295,375	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000
1893	3,542,025	1,295,375	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000
1894	3,542,025	1,295,375	5,759,220	2,828,000	1,828,000	1,828,000

Farrington-Hollis.

One of the grandest weddings of Brantree was that of Thursday evening. Clouds threatened rain all day but did not mar the joyous occasion. The contracting parties were well known social young people, Miss Lucia Farrington of Brantree, and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hollis, of Quincy.

The ceremony took place at 7.30, in the old First church of Brantree, the edifice was beautifully decorated with palms and flowers.

The bride was charmingly gowned in a rich white satin, with a sash of white and pearl trimmings. She carried lilies of the valley and the same flowers and a pearl star, the gift of the groom, fastened her veil.

The maid of honor was Miss Grace White of Allston, whose gown was of white silk with chiffon and flowers.

There were four bridesmaids, Miss Isabel H. Farrington of Morehead, Minn., and Miss Annie L. Holbrook of Brantree, and two flower girls, Miss Edith of Brantree and Miss Sarah Shaw of Brantree.

The groom was escorted by his brother, Mr. Wilber E. Farrington, of Brantree, best man, and the ushers were: Mr. E. Stanwood Hollis of Brantree, Mr. Frank B. Wilde of Allston, Mr. Frederick W. Hollis of Allston, Mr. A. Hollis White of Brantree, Mr. Allen A. Thibault of Brantree, Mr. John Walker of Quincy, Mr. Frederick B. Rice of Quincy and Mr. William Holbrook of Brantree.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. E. H. Morrison, the organist, played the wedding march.

A grand reception followed the wedding ceremony from 8 to 10, at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis on Washington street, the house and grounds being brilliantly lighted by electricity.

The guests were received in a spacious tent on the lawn which was exquisitely decorated by Calder of Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Farrington were assisted in receiving by their parents and bridesmaids. Refreshments were served in an adjoining tent.

The future residence of the young couple will be in Chicago, where Mr. Farrington is in business.

CITY BRIEFS.

Caucuses this month.
How do you like the tax rate?
NO LINGER next Monday Labor day.
Dog days end September 5, next week Wednesday.
The Hall yacht club hold a postponed race today.
Col. Packard has our thanks for a box of nice pears.

Charles F. Adams and family have returned from Europe.
Fred A. Linscott is spending his vacation in Maplewood, N. H.
Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Tupper have returned from Shelburne Falls.

F. H. Crane and Sons sell the celebrated "Pillsbury's Best."
Note the new bargains offered by the Granite Clothing company.
The Board of Registrars of Voters will hold a preliminary meeting this week.

The Monotonic Yacht club will probably hold an open subscription race on Saturday Sept. 8.
Mr. William D. Clements of Concord, N. H., is visiting friends in Quincy this week.

City Treasurer Adams is reported quite comfortable and seems to improve almost daily.
Harry L. Berry has just returned from a three weeks' vacation along the Penobscot river, Maine.

Twenty-seven went from Quincy on the Newport steamer. The heavy fog kept many at home.
George Brackett who is at Kingsfield, Me., on his vacation is reported seriously with typhoid fever.

The election officers in each ward will probably be announced at the next regular meeting of the City Council.
William B. Rice of this city qualified on Saturday as one of the commissioners to investigate "greater Boston."

Miss Souther, the money order clerk at the Quincy post office, is on her vacation which is being spent in Maine.

The Quinys will have as opponents on Saturday, the crack team from Holbrook. There will also be games on Labor day.

Frank A. Locke, the popular piano tuner, returns Saturday, Sept. 1st, from his vacation and will be ready for business Tuesday.

C. A. Belcher, a popular auctioneer of Brantree, and well known to many of our citizens, has opened an office in Adams block.

Geo. O. Whitman has removed from Edwards street to No. 6 Goddington street, in the house formerly occupied by Mr. Miller.

The new high school building will probably be dedicated Saturday, Sept. 8. Work on grading the grounds has commenced.

There are 181 entries for the Y. M. C. A. bicycle races at Brockton, including J. Dunn, Jr., and G. W. Mitchell of Quincy in three events.

The dog officers are making a house to house canvass for unlicensed dogs. Owners are liable to be summoned into court summarily.

Russ B. Walker, well known in Boston and Quincy as a dancing master, died in Biddisford, Me., Sunday night after a lingering illness.

At the Granite City Club's whist contest on Wednesday evening, the prizes were taken by Miss Lizette E. Morse and Mr. Warren H. Hildout.

The continued cases of W. W. Burke, of Weymouth and Charles O. Miller of Brantree in the Quincy court this morning promise to be interesting.

A little boy who saw the circus parade the other day informed his father when he came home, that he saw an elephant, and had a tail on each end.

New voters must hereafter be assessed. Names of old voters will be dropped from the voting list if not assessed. Assessors cannot restore names either as easily as in the past.

The Quincy & Boston street railway carried about 50,000 passengers last week, an increase over the same week last year of 4,000 on the Mainet route, and 15,000 on the other routes.

Applications for admission to the Wood-ward Institute should be made today, between 2.30 and 4.30, as will be observed by a notice of the principal in another column.

Watson H. Braese, the new tax collector, can now be found at City Hall nearly every day. In addition to the city business, he will devote more time to real estate and auctioneering.

Superintendent Lill announces that the primary and grammar schools will open next Tuesday, Sept. 4, and the High not before Monday, Sept. 10. He also has a notice for the teachers and training class.

Frank T. Bassick closed a four months' engagement with the Wood Bros. circus at Brantree, Ill., Aug. 14, and is now en route with the Leon W. Washburn show for a fall and winter tour of the southern states.

The Quinys and Holbrooks play a championship game in the Old Colony league at North Weymouth on today, and on the afternoon of Labor day the Quinys and North Weymouth will play at Mount Pleasant.

Major Hedges is preparing a list of election officers soon to be appointed. Few changes are contemplated where efficient officers are willing to serve. Ward Four having been divided an extra list will be required in West Quincy.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Lee and daughter of Baltimore are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Weeks. Mr. Lee is an enthusiastic collector of minerals and has over 2,000 specimens which are open to all who visit Baltimore.

The picnic of the Congregational Sunday School on Saturday afternoon, at Merry Mount Park, was exceedingly enjoyable. It was attended by over 300, and there was a great variety of amusements and an abundance of refreshments.

The Republican conventions will be larger this year than the Democratic, because of the lack of representation, which is not usually the case. Quincy will send 31 delegates to the Republican State convention and only 22 to the Democratic.

Plans are being prepared for an addition to the new Woodward Institute, which will be made in the rear as viewed from Green street. The estate of William G. Sheen has recently been purchased by the board, but merely for an investment. The whole square is now owned by the Woodward Fund.

It is now City Treasurer Burgin. A portion of President's bridge is being rebuilt.
The tax bills will not be out for some weeks yet.
Miss M. E. Fish returned Thursday from her vacation.
Ex-Congressman and Mrs. George W. Morton will spend a few days in Nova Scotia.

Rev. H. Egan Cotton, the former rector of Christ's church, will preach Sunday morning.
A select fishing party has chartered the steamer City of Quincy for Tuesday, Sept. 11.

John H. Dinegar and family went to Houghs Neck this week for the month of September.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Emery and daughter returned Thursday from North Conway, N. H.

A patent has been granted to T. L. and T. J. Sturtevant of Quincy for a steam generator service.
Mr. J. A. McDonnell and family have returned from Houghs Neck, having spent a delightful season there.

A new timetable of Nantasket Beach trains goes into effect next Tuesday, which drops some of the trains.
Charles T. Tatman, of Worcester, is a guest of his roommate at Harvard, Mr. H. W. Porter of Adams street.

The Cleopatra is entered in the open yacht race at South Boston, Labor day and will be watched with interest.
George T. Waldron has been granted a patent this week for a coin releasing actuating mechanism for phonographs.

QUINCY POINT.
Miss Clara L. Graham has gone to "The Elms," Derry, N. H.
Miss Lucinda Hayden of South Brantree is the guest of Miss Leona Hayden of Quincy Neck.

Invitations are out for the marriage on Sept. 4 of Miss Helen M. Burgess of Bourneville to Mr. George W. Starbuck of Quincy, to take place in Bourneville.

Miss Mabel E. Oxford leaves Monday to accept a position in the schools of Orange. The City of Quincy will omit her trips to Nantasket on Labor day but they will be resumed on Tuesday. Ho, for Winthrop Monday.

Mr. Daniel C. McNeil and son James Cardon of Wharf street are spending a week's vacation with friends and relations in Boston and Chelsea.

Miss Rita May, the little daughter of George Thurber, entertained about a dozen of her young friends in Lovell's Grove, Tuesday, August 21, it being her fifth birthday. All had a good time. She received quite a number of presents among them a gold ring.

Another famous yacht, the Jubilee, was hauled up this week at Quincy Point, at the yards of McIntyre & Kirk, where she will undergo many changes.

Miss Mary Pierce of West Quincy is visiting in Brockton.
The Quincy Granite Company is putting in a large new polishing lathe.
Miss Bertie Turner of Crockett street is in China, Maine, for two weeks.

Miss Jessie Thayer has been appointed teacher in the South school in Burlington. Mrs. Isabelle Knight of Hudson spent a few days with friends in West Quincy this week.

Miss Mary Geer of West street returned Thursday from Aspinet, Me., where she said spent seven weeks.

Mrs. M. Lynch, accompanied by her daughter Mae of Avon, is visiting her sister Mrs. F. K. Kimball.

Quarter Railroad will take place Saturday morning, Sept. 8, when officials of the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R., the Railroad Commissioners, and others are expected.

At the fifteenth convention of the Massachusetts State Fireman's Association to be held at the Union chapel, QuinCY, September 5, 6, and 7, Mr. C. J. H. Tutman of this city, is to address the fireman. Subject, "The Call Fireman."

At the annual meeting of the Quincy Yacht Club, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Allen, formerly of this city, entertained the twelfth Massachusetts Veteran Association on Thursday at the old home of Daniel Webster at Marshfield, of which he is the present owner.

The local G. A. R., W. R. G. and S. of V. assisted in receiving and entertaining. A first class clam bake to 350 was served at 1 o'clock, which was followed by speeches.

George Fred Wilson.

Mr. George F. Wilson, one of Quincy's pioneer business men, died last Saturday after an illness of nearly five years' duration. Mr. Wilson was born in Quincy, 74 years ago last January, and has resided here ever since. In 1843 he commenced business in a small way travelling from house to house with meats. The business grew rapidly and he finally opened a grocery in the court room building, and since that time has always carried on business, being located at various times in the building now occupied by Miss Hubbard, C. B. Tilton and C. H. Johnson, the later standing where the Adams building now is. He erected the building occupied by him on Hancock street where he has been ever since, although for the past few years not actively engaged in business, he has always taken an interest in it.

He has had several partners during his business career, among whom were, James N. Blake, William A. Hodges, Alonzo Richards and Samuel B. Allen, but in later years he has been in business with his son, George H. Wilson.

He married Marie French Stetson of Randolph, and the fruit of this union was 10 children, all of whom have passed away but four, sons, George H. and William B., and two daughters, Mrs. W. E. Hove.

The funeral of Mr. George Fred Wilson took place Monday at two o'clock from his late residence on Hancock street, to the First church of Brantree, where the service was held. The interment was at Mt. Wollaston.

Sons of Veteran Notes.

At the 25th anniversary of Paul Revere Post 88, G. A. R., to be held Sept. 3d, Camp 27 has been invited to escort duty to the Massachusetts Department G. A. R. guests of the Post. The camp will leave G. A. R. hall at 6.15 p. m. and headed by the S. of V. Drum Fife and Bugle Corps will proceed to the depot and after receiving the distinguished visitors will escort them to the headquarters.

The camp will furnish the music at the exercises in Hancock hall and has engaged the services of the S. of V. Drum Fife and Bugle Corps who under the leadership of Mr. Charles Paine will assure an enjoyable entertainment. Messrs. Paine, George F. Paine, William Merrill and Charles Towse, the "Cornet Quartette," will render the "Vacant Chair" and other selections.

Advance of School Rates.
Where school children have been riding between Wollaston and Quincy, Atlantic and Quincy, and Quincy and Brantree for $1 per month, they will under the new rates on the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R., which goes into effect Sept. 1, have to pay $6 for three months, the minimum rate for commutation and school term tickets. One dollar, but $2 per month will cause dissatisfaction, and the new rates, particularly as the Quincy & Boston street railway has agreed to carry school children for a three cent fare. This is but six cents a day, or $1.80 per month if they attend every day.

WOLLASTON.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will resume their meetings, Sunday, Sept. 7th, at three o'clock, in the vestry of the Congregational church. Members and all others interested are invited to be present.

There was another big surprise party at the Duke's Nest, Wollaston, on Saturday evening. Mr. Daniel B. Lincoln broke 31 "T. D.'s," straight. This leaves Brantree's and Starrett's scores of 23 each, way behind. The boys will have to do some fine work to break the record.

Mr. Sylvester Brown, of Wollaston, principal of the Martin school, Boston, is the instructor of language and grammar at the New Hampshire Summer Institute, which is in session under the management of the state department of public instruction.

Mrs. Allen M. Janson of Wollaston is at Worcester.
Mrs. Edmund S. Taylor of Wollaston is at Biddeford, Maine, for a few days.
The Wollaston Unitarian church will be opened next Sunday. Services at 10.45. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. James E. Bagley.

There was a narrow escape from a big conflagration at Wollaston Wednesday. Shortly before five a. m. the night clerk's lamp in the window of Tucker's pharmacy exploded, throwing the burning oil over the building and setting it on fire. Engineer Holmes of the settlement fire engine happened along before the blaze had gained much headway and extinguished it. One of the large plate glass windows was shattered. Loss, $50. No alarm was turned.

The building is owned by E. H. Sanborn.
Al. Williams, the steward of the Duck's Nest, has inaugurated a pipe steam shooting contest. The tournament opened Wednesday evening and the season will last five weeks. Entry 24 and D. B. Lincoln 15. The team which represented the Wollaston Trap club at the Boston Shooting Association's tournament at Wollaston on Wednesday made a total score of 50 out of possible 60. The individual scores out of a possible 30 were as follows: H. M. Feltman 15, J. C. J. C. Morse 15, H. T. Whitman 15.

The annual meeting of the Epworth League of Wollaston, which will be held in the vestry of the Methodist Episcopal church, Thursday evening, Sept. 6, at 7.45 o'clock.

M. E. Church, Wollaston.
Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. Class meeting at 10 a. m. Preaching followed by Holy Communion at 10.45. Services at 12 m. Prayer meeting of the Epworth League at 6.30 p. m. Praise and preaching at 7.30 p. m.

Wollaston Unitarian Church.
Rev. James E. Bagley, pastor. Morning service at 10.45. Preaching by the subject of sermon: "Why go to Church?" Sunday School at 12 m. Regular services of the church in the vestry at 6.30 p. m.

DOWN AND PARK.

The Syntum yacht race has been postponed until Saturday, Sept. 8.

Union Fowler and others have petitioned the Board of Aldermen to remove the work on St. Christopher's church is progressing satisfactorily.

A grocery store has been opened in Poland block at Norfolk Downs.
Miss Emma B. Stratton of Wollaston is spending a few days at Capt. Snow's, Wollaston Park.

The foundation for a house is started near the beach in Wollaston Park for Mr. Cleaves of Roxbury.

Mr. Frank Skinner and Miss Isabel Sprague were the guests of Mrs. E. A. Linde, the past week.

Mrs. Thomas Atkins and son Ernest of Wollaston Park returned this week from a two months' trip "down east."

Some of the children of the school children have nearly arrived at the conclusion that the anti-election promises of the Democrats are to amount to nothing. Neither the promised school house or acceptance of roads improved, nor the materialized, nor the talk of low taxes. Further, they fear from the large gain reported in valuation in Wards Five and Six, that they will be called upon to pay their full share.

Capt. Eliza Atkins, from Washington, spent this week at his home in Wollaston Park.

ATLANTIC.

Atlantic girls now wear paper curls.
Mr. Nat Chubbard is at "White Rock," Rhode Island.

Miss Alice M. Currier of Lowell is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Yeoman.
Mrs. Charles R. Sanford has returned from a visit to her mother in Quincy. Mr. Frank Jenkins goes to Maine today to bring his family home.

The Seaside club of Atlantic attended the illumination at Nantasket last night. There is a great rivalry for passengers among the boats in the court room building. Seth Burrell of Walker street, is with a cruising party to the coast of Maine.

Mrs. John Randall entertained the "Walpole Carpenters' club" on Wednesday.
Some Atlantic gentlemen will take in the two days' excursion to Boothbay, Me., starting Sunday.

A new house is going up on the newly opened land at the head of Newbury avenue on the north side of Atlantic street. Three more boys have entered Atlantic street. The families blessed are Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Nyhan, Mr. and Mrs. Walters, and Mr. and Mrs. George Burr.

The Atlantic Ward is pleased to learn that it is the banner Ward in increase of valuation, and yet some individual taxpayers are anxious lest the Assessors have made them out too rich.

Memorial Church, Atlantic.
Rev. J. H. Yeoman, pastor. Services resumed Sunday Sept. 2. Preaching by the pastor at 10.45 a. m. Subject: "The Perils of Middle Life." Y. P. C. E. at 7.30 p. m.

Rev. H. E. Church, Atlantic.
Rev. Herbert D. Davis, pastor. Preaching at the Methodist hall at 11 a. m. by the pastor. Subject: "Signs of the Times." Preaching at 7 p. m. and Epworth League meeting at 6.15 p. m.

Democratic Delegates.
The Democratic State convention will be held in Boston, Monday, Sept. 8, and under the new caucus act all State congressional and councillor caucuses have been called for Thursday, Sept. 20, or Friday, Sept. 21. All caucuses for the nomination of delegates to the State convention and county officers will be held either Tuesday, Oct. 9, or Wednesday, Oct. 10.

The basis of representation has been fixed at one delegate at large for each city and town and each ward of a city, and one additional delegate for each 10

Granite Firms.
O. T. ROGERS GRANITE CO.
Successors to O. T. Rogers & Co. M. P. Wright, Gen'l. Manager, W. B. Hancock, Treas. Building and Monumental Granite, Cemetery work a specialty. P. O., W. Quincy.

McDONNELL BROTHERS.
Wholesale Dealers in Dark Blue and Gray Granite. Finely executed Monuments a specialty. Works, Water Street, Post Office address South Quincy.

THOMAS & MILLER.
Manufacturers of Monumental and Cemetery Work and Statuary. P. O. address, Quincy Branch Office, 18 Lake Ave., Sarsen, N. Y.

GEO. H. HITCHCOCK & CO.
Medium Blue Quincy Granite for Building and Cemetery Work. Quarry and Office Quincy Street. Post Office address Quincy.

JOS. BROTHERS.
Monumental Work, Granite, Marble, etc. Best of stock, and workmanship guaranteed. All orders promptly filled.

E. F. CARR & CO.
(Successors to Frederick & Field.) Established in 1830. Monuments, Cemetery and Building Work. Granite Statuary artistically executed. Quarries and Works at Quincy Street, Quincy, Mass.

CRAIG & RICHARDS.
Granite Co. Wholesale Dealers in all kinds of Rough and Finished Granite, Quarry, Office and Works, Water Street, Quincy, Mass.

BADGER BROTHERS.
Granite Dealers and Builders. Monumental work of all descriptions. Celebrated Ashland Quarry for sale. West Quincy, Mass.

MILLER & LUCE.
Wholesale Manufacturers of Art Monuments from special designs. Works and Office, West Quincy, Boston Office, 179 Tremont.

JOHN FALLON & SONS.
Quarries and Dealers in Rough and Finished Granite for Building and Monumental Work. Quarry on Quarry Street. Address, Quincy.

THOS. F. BURKE & BROS.
Manufacturers of Monuments and every description of Cemetery Work. Office and Works, Willard Street, Quincy, Mass.

MERRY MOUNT GRANITE CO.
Incorporated 1881. Manufacturers and Dealers in Monumental and Cemetery Work. Works near Quincy Adams station, Quincy, Mass.

McGATH BROS.
Large stock of Finished Monuments and Tablets constantly on hand. Works at Quincy Adams Station. Established 1854.

FULLER, FOLEY & CO.
Granite Manufacturers and Dealers. Work opposite West Quincy Depot.

W. W. JENNESS.
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW.
87 Milk Street, Boston, Mass.

QUINCY OFFICE.
8 to 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. Room 2.
Quincy, May 25. tf

JOHN W. MCANARNEY.
Counsellor-at-Law.
Room 1, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Hancock Street, Quincy.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN.
DENTIST.
Room 5 and 6—Durgin & Merrill's Block, Hancock Street, Quincy.

DR. G. R. ENGLAND.
DENTIST.
14 Chestnut Street, Quincy, Mass.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG.
Surgeon Dentist.
Treats absolutely without pain, with the "Bosworth Vacuum Vapour."

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS.
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.

DR. CHAS. S. FRENCH.
DENTIST.
All kinds of work in Dentistry done in the best manner.

F. S. DAVIS, M. D.,
HOMOEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN.
No. 5 Elm Street, Quincy.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.
Specialist, Orthodontia.
Removed to No. 7 Temple Place.

BOOTS & SHOES
Nathaniel Nightingale,
Gracie St. near Post Office.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
PEREZ JOYCE,
Quincy Avenue near Liberty Street.

W. H. BENNETT
Is still prepared to do all kinds of Grading and Jobbing. Garden work done at short notice and reasonable prices.

H. O. SOUTHER,
MASON AND CONTRACTOR.
A GENT for Akron Drain and Sewer Pipe, Quincy, Mass.

H. T. WHITMAN,
CIVIL ENGINEER
AND SURVEYOR,
ADAMS BUILDING - QUINCY.
Hours, 8 to 9 A. M.
Boston Office, 85 Devonshire Street.

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER
Pearl Street,
SOUTH QUINCY.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.

WARREN D. HIGGINS,
Architect and Builder.
Can show on a large number of Plans for Houses which will cost from $1000 to $15000.

WALTER S. RANDALL,
Carpenter and Builder.
HAS removed to his new residence on Bigelow Street. He is prepared to receive estimates for house building, and will give prompt attention, and solicit a continuance of patronage.

C. H. ABBOTT,
Piano and Organ Tuner.
RATES REASONABLE.
Workmanship Guaranteed.

HERBERT F. NYE,
PIANO, ORGAN, VOICE.
Teacher of Piano-forte.
190 Hancock St. Quincy, Mass.

FRANK C. CLIBERT,
Teacher of Piano-forte.
190 Hancock St. Quincy, Mass.

DR. G. R. ENGLAND.
DENTIST.
14 Chestnut Street, Quincy, Mass.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG.
Surgeon Dentist.
Treats absolutely without pain, with the "Bosworth Vacuum Vapour."

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS.
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.

DR. CHAS. S. FRENCH.
DENTIST.
All kinds of work in Dentistry done in the best manner.

F. S. DAVIS, M. D.,
HOMOEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN.
No. 5 Elm Street, Quincy.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.
Specialist, Orthodontia.
Removed to No. 7 Temple Place.

BOOTS & SHOES
Nathaniel Nightingale,
Gracie St. near Post Office.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
PEREZ JOYCE,
Quincy Avenue near Liberty Street.

W. H. BENNETT
Is still prepared to do all kinds of Grading and Jobbing. Garden work done at short notice and reasonable prices.

H. O. SOUTHER,
MASON AND CONTRACTOR.
A GENT for Akron Drain and Sewer Pipe, Quincy, Mass.

Quincy Savings Bank,
145 Hancock Street, Quincy.
President, RUPERT F. CLAFIN.
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MARSH.
Board of Investment, HERBERT F. CLAFIN, EDWIN W. MARSH, JOHN A. FIELD, EDWARD A. FARRIS.

Lace Curtains
Grass Bleached and Refinished.
EQUAL TO NEW.

James Oliver & Son
South St. Opposite Dr. Harlow's.
Box 25, Quincy Point, Mass.
Aug. 4. 3m

Ladies' and Children's
HAIR - DRESSING - PARLORS.
M. E. FISH,
10 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

J. J. KENILEY,
PLUMBER.
All orders promptly attended to at reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed.

W. G. SEARS,
Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting.
WELLS DRIVEN
AND PUMPS REPAIRED.

ADAMSON'S
BOTANIC COUGH BALSAM
CURES
COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA,
HAY FEVER
AND ALL DISEASES LEADING TO CONSUMPTION
Regular Sizes 35¢ & 75¢

AUSTIN & WINSLOW'S
Quincy and Boston Express
31 Court Square, Quincy.
Leave Quincy 8:30, 11:00 A. M., 2:30 P. M.
Arrive Boston 9:00, 12:00, 3:30 P. M.

WILLIAM GARRITY'S
Quincy and Boston Express
Quincy Office, 52 Washington St.
Leave Quincy 8:30, 11:00 A. M., 2:30 P. M.
Arrive Boston 9:00, 12:00, 3:30 P. M.

ABBOTT & MILLER'S
Quincy and Boston Express
Quincy Office, 52 Washington St.
Leave Quincy 8:30, 11:00 A. M., 2:30 P. M.
Arrive Boston 9:00, 12:00, 3:30 P. M.

QUINCY
Mutual Fire Insurance Co.
INCORPORATED IN 1851.
COMMERCE BUSINESS IN 1851

INSURANCE AGENCY,
ESTABLISHED IN Quincy in the year 1849 by
W. PORTER.

NEW
Millinery
NEW STOCK OF
HATS AND BONNETS,
In Straw and Frames.

MISS S. H. HUSSEY,
121 Hancock Street.
Opp. The Greenleaf.
Quincy, Oct. 13.

COMERS
FOUNDED 1840 COMMERCIAL
COLLEGE.

Reopens September 4th.
A thorough and practical course of study in Preparation for those who wish to enter the 54 YEARS OF TEACHING AND 20,000 PUPILS
Spoken for itself. Prospective free by mail or in person.

COMER'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.
666 Washington St., cor. Beach,
BOSTON, MASS.
July 21. 8w too

F. H. CRANE & SONS,
Dealers in
HAY, GRAIN, FLOUR AND FEED
BRIOK, LIME, HAIR, CEMENT
PLASTER AND DRAIN PIPE.

WASHINGTON ST., Quincy.
Branch Store at Quincy Adams.
Telephone, 219-4. Jan. 7-11

ADAMSON'S
BOTANIC COUGH BALSAM
CURES
COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA,
HAY FEVER
AND ALL DISEASES LEADING TO CONSUMPTION
Regular Sizes 35¢ & 75¢

AUSTIN & WINSLOW'S
Quincy and Boston Express
31 Court Square, Quincy.
Leave Quincy 8:30, 11:00 A. M., 2:30 P. M.
Arrive Boston 9:00, 12:00, 3:30 P. M.

WILLIAM GARRITY'S
Quincy and Boston Express
Quincy Office, 52 Washington St.
Leave Quincy 8:30, 11:00 A. M., 2:30 P. M.
Arrive Boston 9:00, 12:00, 3:30 P. M.

ABBOTT & MILLER'S
Quincy and Boston Express
Quincy Office, 52 Washington St.
Leave Quincy 8:30, 11:00 A. M., 2:30 P. M.
Arrive Boston 9:00, 12:00, 3:30 P. M.

QUINCY
Mutual Fire Insurance Co.
INCORPORATED IN 1851.
COMMERCE BUSINESS IN 1851

INSURANCE AGENCY,
ESTABLISHED IN Quincy in the year 1849 by
W. PORTER.

NEW
Millinery
NEW STOCK OF
HATS AND BONNETS,
In Straw and Frames.

MISS S. H. HUSSEY,
121 Hancock Street.
Opp. The Greenleaf.
Quincy, Oct. 13.

The Quincy Patriot.
PUBLISHED
Saturday Mornings,
GREEN & PRESCOTT
Editors and Proprietors.

THE PATRIOT is published in the
only city in Norfolk County, and is one of the oldest newspapers in the
State, being established in 1837.

OFFICE OF PUBLICATION,
No. 115 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

TERMS:—$2.50 per year in advance. $3.00
if not paid before the close of the year.
W. H. GREEN & PRESCOTT.

Poetry.
September.

The first pale yellow leaves fall flickering
From the tree's plump crown,
The ivy vine turns rosy in its arms,
Fair purple asters crown the way.

The thoughts that swing their ruddy apples
High
To let them drop where lowly crickets Chime.

The morns come late to twinkle on the dew,
Our fires are lit, we hail thee, Autumn-
time!

Sweet Summer followed when her swallows flew.
Irene Putnam.

Miscellany.
DORRY'S RANCH.

"Come out here and take up a claim, Dorry. John will help you. We can get a school for you, too, and you can make your home with us as long as you wish.
We will be glad to have you. Come right away."

This, with more of like import, wrote
Mrs. Sarah Harding, Dorothy Beckwith's older sister. She lived in western Dakota, where Dorothy's home, and her old one as well, was in western Dakota.

Sarah had been married to John Harding for a good many years. She was the oldest of a large family, while Dorothy was the youngest. Her husband was an honest and industrious farmer, but possessing a very temperament he had somehow failed to get on very rapidly. "He's too honest and industrious," said his wife bitterly, recalling the sharpness of sharper neighbors, who had overreached him.

John Harding, going with the rest, was fortunate enough to find a large tract of land still untaken, near a large creek (or a small river rather) whence he could obtain water for irrigation. Having built a house and raised a crop, he sent for his wife. Letters had since then come from them at frequent intervals, narrating their trials, celebrating their prosperity in the new strange life so far away.

It was a dreary, discouraged day in the summer—summer—when one of the New England officers gave her children; the skies about raindrops all day in a dull, gloomy way, as children sometimes do tears—chiefly because, having begun, it is difficult to leave off. Dorry was sitting in a desperate way temporarily, but she was not alone. Her brother's children brought her the letter from which we have quoted the opening paragraph.

It came like a gleam of sunlight. She read it over twice and then felt in ironing with a zeal which promised well for the end.

Dorry, aided by her sister, made a homelike interior. A rag carpet, a white bed spread, a small table with its white spread, her small store of bric-a-brac, and pictures made a pleasant room. Sometimes Dorry dined an imprudent lunch and invited the family, but she usually took her meals with them. She religiously kept her own house, one of the children staying with her. As the house was scarcely a stone's throw across the line and sister Sarah's an equal distance on the other side, the small domestic served the double purpose of an extra bedroom and to help Dorry hold down her ranch at the same time.

Of course there were certain formalities
"fling on the claim" yet to be attended to, but John kept saying: "No one will bother you. It is off the road so, no one will want it. But we'll go to—by-and-
by."

The weeks slipped away, and one day
he learned that a man had built a "dodge"
on the other side of the line with its pretty springs, and he was in no mood for joking.
He went to see him and order him off. He came back troubled and disgusted.

"The fellow says he can prove he made the first improvements, and he has filed on
it."

"I wanted you to attend to it before
this," put in Sarah.

"I know—I know, it's all my fault, but
I didn't think any one would want it."

"It may be all bluff," suggested his wife.

"I don't think so. He seems honest.
A right-looking chap. Better give up your ranch and go in partnership with him."

"This one," joked John clumsily.
John was in no mood for joking. He went to see him and order him off. He came back troubled and disgusted.

"The fellow says he can prove he made
the first improvements, and he has filed on
it."

"I wanted you to attend to it before
this," put in Sarah.

"I know—I know, it's all my fault, but
I didn't think any one would want it."

"It may be all bluff," suggested his
wife.

"I don't think so. He seems honest.
A right-looking chap. Better give up your
ranch and go in partnership with him."

"This one," joked John clumsily.
John was in no mood for joking. He went to see him and order him off. He came back troubled and disgusted.

"The fellow says he can prove he made
the first improvements, and he has filed on
it."

"I wanted you to attend to it before
this," put in Sarah.

"I know—I know, it's all my fault, but
I didn't think any one would want it."

"It may be all bluff," suggested his
wife.

"I don't think so. He seems honest.
A right-looking chap. Better give up your
ranch and go in partnership with him."

"This one," joked John clumsily.
John was in no mood for joking. He went to see him and order him off. He came back troubled and disgusted.

"The fellow says he can prove he made
the first improvements, and he has filed on
it."

We will not follow the long journey, almost as familiar now to the stay-at-home people as to the countless thousands of travelers. By some magic process we will precede her, and now we are waiting on the sidewalk in front of the Merchants' Hotel, as the eastern coach with its six horses comes gaily prancing up Main street. Dorry is helped out and greets himself and her, at her strange surroundings.

As she stands spell-bound, she finds that she obstructs the passage of an almond-eyed Chinaman with his basket of freshly laundered clothes on his shoulders.
The sign bear Jewish names and he is an Italian in yonder fruit shop. But it is an American voice which says, "Well, Dorry! So you've come? How'd'ya do?"
and turning finds John Harding, a tall sunburned farmer, smilingly regarding her.

"John! I didn't know you at first.
Where's Sarah?"

"She could never leave the children nor bring them very well. But we'll soon see her. It's only thirty miles and the road is lively."

When she was seated in the light wagon behind a lively pair of mustang ponies, she forgot her fatigue. To her preconceived notions of a wild Western town, everything seemed incongruously, marvellously strange. It looked a city with its brick blocks and plate-glass fronts.

Dorry's head spun around as they turned a sharp curve in the middle of the road. Above them towered the mountains—down below what are those?
Huge ants, or children making mud pies?
"Chinamen placing gold on the abandoned wheels of Gold King," she told herself. They were whirling past "The Best," but they are temperance people and do not stop. Up the long hill and by and by they can see far off a wonderful picture—the Plains—stretching out, a billowy plain, bathed in golden sunlight—stretching out for miles and miles, to the north and west, until its waves have the color of the "Rockies" themselves. Dorry holds her breath. She begins to realize that she is very far indeed.

But now, having as it were, safely placed our heroine in the bosom of her family, we will attend to the machinery and let the panorama unfold the months until the next July. It had been an unusually mild winter, succeeding a splendid summer. Dorry thought each passing day a dream of paradise, until it was Christmas. After the holidays were over, Jack Frost wrought some marvelous surprises, but Dorry saw no blizzards. "Never have I seen here," she told her sister.

There had been talk, of course, of "Dorry's ranch" from the first. There had been all his rights, homestead, pre-emption and the rest. He offered to cut the hay on shares if Dorry would take up the claim, and he proceeded to build the house required by law. It was of the variety denominated "shack," and consisted of only one room, but he had it properly divided, with a bedroom, a dining room, a parlor, a kitchen, a bath, and a small room for the stable.

Dorry, aided by her sister, made a home-
like interior. A rag carpet, a white bed
spread, a small table with its white spread, her small store of bric-a-brac, and pictures made a pleasant room. Sometimes Dorry dined an imprudent lunch
and invited the family, but she usually took her meals with them. She religiously kept her own house, one of the children staying with her. As the house was scarcely a stone's throw across the line and sister Sarah's an equal distance on the other side, the small domestic served the double purpose of an extra bedroom and to help Dorry hold down her ranch at the same time.

Of course there were certain formalities
"fling on the claim" yet to be attended to, but John kept saying: "No one will bother you. It is off the road so, no one will want it. But we'll go to—by-and-
by."

The weeks slipped away, and one day
he learned that a man had built a "dodge"
on the other side of the line with its pretty springs, and he was in no mood for joking.
He went to see him and order him off. He came back troubled and disgusted.

"The fellow says he can prove he made
the first improvements, and he has filed on
it."

"I wanted you to attend to it before
this," put in Sarah.

"I know—I know, it's all my fault, but
I didn't think any one would want it."

"It may be all bluff," suggested his
wife.

"I don't think so. He seems honest.
A right-looking chap. Better give up your
ranch and go in partnership with him."

"This one," joked John clumsily.
John was in no mood for joking. He went to see him and order him off. He came back troubled and disgusted.

"The fellow says he can prove he made
the first improvements, and he has filed on
it."

"I wanted you to attend to it before
this," put in Sarah.

"I know—I know, it's all my fault, but
I didn't think any one would want it."

"It may be all bluff," suggested his
wife.

"I don't think so. He seems honest.
A right-looking chap. Better give up your
ranch and go in partnership with him."

"This one," joked John clumsily.
John was in no mood for joking. He went to see him and order him off. He came back troubled and disgusted.

"The fellow says he can prove he made
the first improvements, and he has filed on
it."

"I wanted you to attend to it before
this," put in Sarah.

"I know—I know, it's all my fault, but
I didn't think any one would want it."

"It may be all bluff," suggested his
wife.

"I don't think so. He seems honest.
A right-looking chap. Better give up your
ranch and go in partnership with him."

"This one," joked John clumsily.
John was in no mood for joking. He went to see him and order him off. He came back troubled and disgusted.

"The fellow says he can prove he made
the first improvements, and he has filed on
it."

"I wanted you to attend to it before
this," put in Sarah.

"I know—I know, it's all my fault, but
I didn't think any one would want it."

"It may be all bluff," suggested his
wife.

"I don't think so. He seems honest.
A right-looking chap. Better give up your
ranch and go in partnership with him."

"This one," joked John clumsily.
John was in no mood for joking. He went to see him and order him off. He came back troubled and disgusted.

"The fellow says he can prove he made
the first improvements, and he has filed on
it."

"I wanted you to attend to it before
this," put in Sarah.

"I know—I know, it's all my fault, but
I didn't think any one would want it."

"It may be all bluff," suggested his
wife.

which sheltered her should be blown down.
Whither should she fly? The nearest house was over a mile away and in the direction of the storm so rapidly advancing.
She moaned out a prayer for help from the strongest arm of the storm. The school-house with the blow of a giant. Another and another, and every timber creaked and trembled as if it had been a sentient being. Then the rain and the wind came down in torrents and rattled like bullets.

Dorry clasped her hands; her lips were white, but she never removed her strained gaze from the storm.

"Can that flying shadow be a horse madly galloping? There's a rider to Dorry spang to the eastern door and threw it open. Already the man was off and leading his frightened steed into entryway of the outer hall. Drenched with rain, streams of water ran from his broad brow and he convulsed his face. He had spoken, the roar of the storm drowned his voice. As he raised his hand to remove his hat, a sudden broadside of half dashed the window-glass to atoms, and he broke down like a reed in the wind, everything. It seemed as if the frail building could not withstand the furious tempest. It was so dark they could barely see objects indistinctly.

In her terror Dorry clung to the stranger's arm, involuntarily, connected with the storm. The Englishman was of human compassion. When the lull came, she drew slowly away, but he put out a detaining hand, saying—
"The worst is over Dorry, do not be frightened."

Something in the voice sent the blood to her cheek. She looked up into—Jack Rexford's laughing yet wild blue eyes!

"Aren't you a bit glad to see me, Dorry?" he said.

And then—the doctors say—the reaction set in!

It was almost too much for her strained nerves, but Jack made the most of it

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 8, 1894.

To Be Opened Today.

Invitations are out inviting railroad men, officials, distinguished gentlemen, and the press to the formal opening of the Quincy Quinny Co. on Saturday afternoon. A special train will be run for the accommodation of invited guests leaving Boston at 1.05 p. m. and express to West Quincy. The programme includes a lunch at 2.30 in new building of the Quincy Granite Co. and a tour of the enterprise is commenced on all sides and the Quincy DAILY LEDGER of Saturday will be a souvenir number with a sketch illustrated by engravings of the directors.

The invited guests include: Railroad Commissioners, John E. Sanford, William J. Dale, Jr., and Everett A. Stevens.

James G. Harris, treasurer U. P. R. R., Frank B. Buttrick, assistant treasurer, Alexander Miller, secretary, James R. Kendrick, 3d vice president N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R.

Division Superintendent, E. G. Allen, J. C. Sanborn, A. L. Ackley, C. A. McAlpin and J. H. French.

E. H. Bryant, road master, C. P. Clark, general freight agent, George L. Winlock, assistant.

George H. Merrill, chief engineer, Austin W. Adams, treasurer O. C. Steamboat Co., D. B. Torrey, treasurer O. C. R. R.

George L. Keys, freight agent, Robert A. Gardner, president Rand Avery Supply Co., F. A. Choate, treasurer.

H. B. Chapin, general freight agent, Daniel C. Prescott, superintendent, Concord & Montreal R. R., George W. Armstrong, president Armstrong Transfer Co.

Henry H. Carter, Supt. of Boston, Edward F. Atkins, director U. P. R. R., John P. Spaulding, Revere sugar refinery, Oliver Ames, 2d.

Samuel Carr, A. S. Barnes, D. H. McGrath, Hon. Patrick Maguire, Hon. M. M. Cuniff, C. L. Dillaway, Hon. M. J. McKelrick, N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R., George W. Prescott, F. F. Prescott, George T. Magee.

Representative of Boston press. Invited guests of the directors of the Quincy Quinny Co. may take the special train at Boston at 1.05 p. m. Saturday, or may assemble in West Quincy at 1.15 p. m. to take the train at that point.

Guests in either case are respectfully requested to exhibit the Quincy Quinny Co. card, enclosed with the invitation, before entering the train.

Suitable provision will be made for extra cars on Quincy and Boston street railway.

Quincy Quinny Co.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Quincy Quinny Co. held Monday, the following Board of Directors were unanimously chosen: Luther S. Anderson, Clarence Durgin, Barnabas Clark, Edward Hawley, William A. Hodges, T. H. McDonnell, Andrew Milne, John Swinburn and James Thompson.

Barnabas Clark was re-elected treasurer and Andrew Milne, clerk.

At a subsequent meeting of the directors the organization was completed by the re-election of Thomas H. McDonnell as president and William A. Hodges as vice president.

High School Dedication.

The dedication of the new high school building will take place Tuesday afternoon but the exact time has not been fixed upon as yet. Governor Greenleaf has notified the committee that he will be present at the exercises unless something unforeseen happens.

More Free Delivery.

Postmaster Burke of the Quincy post office announces that the free delivery system will be extended October 1, and that two additional carriers will be put on.

Because of the pressure for extensions of the free delivery, and upon application of Postmaster Burke, two inspectors, Messrs. Parham and Snow were on the city August 13, and made a thorough inspection of the routes. They recommended extensions to Quincy Point and that West Quincy should be covered more thoroughly, and the department has acted accordingly.

Where the system has only extended to Southern Hill in the Quincy Point ward, the whole district will be covered twice daily on and after Monday, Oct. 1.

At present one mounted carrier has made all the collections and deliveries at West Quincy, but after October 1 it is hoped to cover all the district, the mounted carrier taking the outskirts while another carries the business section.

The Quincy Point office will be abolished on October 1, on the date of the above extensions. Miss Freeman has been assigned for years in the conduct of this office and her many friends will regret the change for her sake. Quincy Point had good mail facilities, there being three each way, but free delivery will be a great improvement.

With the extension of free delivery should come a more general numbering of houses. It is a great convenience for others besides letter carriers and requires but a small investment.

Young Men's Christian Assn.

Mr. George Watt is expected to lead the men's meeting Sunday afternoon. The services will be held in the rooms at 3.30.

The first meeting of the Women's auxiliary will be held Monday afternoon, Sept. 17. The annual state conference of the auxiliaries will be held at Somerville, on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 31 and 4th.

There was a large attendance of young men at the Jubilee band last Wednesday evening. This organization meets for social Bible study. Already thirty-seven young men have pledged themselves as members of the Bible class, to be conducted by Evangelist George S. Avery, beginning in October. The number will easily reach fifty and ought to be one hundred. If the results accomplished by Mr. Avery's class elsewhere are to be taken as a criterion, this class will prove the most helpful organization of the kind ever started in the city.

Already young men from Weymouth, East Milton, in addition to those of Quincy, have registered. No professed Christian young man can afford to neglect to study the word of God in this age of false teachings and worldliness. If he does, he is sure to lose his anchorage. The object of this class will be to teach men how to use the Bible in Christian warfare.

The following has just been received from the State office: "The third annual State Pentathlon meet, which was to have been held at Worcester, Saturday, Sept. 29, has been postponed by order of the State committee, until later in the year. It will probably be held in May or June, if the action of the State committee is favorable."

The Prohibitionists of Quincy will hold a caucus at Faxon hall, Saturday evening, at 7.30, to elect delegates to State Convention to be held at Worcester, Sept. 13.

The Brockton Daily Herald has suspended, only eight papers being issued.

CITY BRIEFS.

These are cat days.

Opters are in the market.

The Board of Registers is busy.

Would that it might have rained more.

Sunday was almost another yellow day.

Frank Barnes has been granted a pension.

The high school will probably open next Wednesday.

Next Wednesday the sun will set before six o'clock.

Invitation race of the Montauk Yacht club tomorrow.

The first of the real estate tax bills were sent out this week.

Carrier Williams is on his vacation, which he will spend in Cornwall, Me.

John W. Hersey and George Willett have gone to the G. A. R. convention at Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hardwick have returned after a pleasant outing in New Hampshire for two weeks.

Clerk Churchill of the Quincy court went to Nantasket Saturday for a week, and F. A. Spear is clerk pro tem.

Mr. Paul Adams, the only son of ex-treasurer Adams, returned last week to his business in Evanston, Ill.

Miss A. M. Tingley has returned from her vacation and will be found at her millinery on Adams in former times.

Miss Jennie Cushing with her sister Mary from South Weymouth, are visiting Mrs. E. W. H. Bass on Granite street.

Master William, son of John A. McDonnell, left on Tuesday evening for Montreal, where he begins his second year at college.

About 200 members and friends of St. George's church at Pawsey's Rock Island farm on Labor day, passing the day enjoyably.

Tax collector Brase will collect all unpaid taxes as well as the taxes of 1894.

Bryant N. Adams has acted as deputy for taxes of past years.

Harvey Beede, the popular and good-natured clerk at J. F. Merrill's, is taking a much needed rest in his farm in the suburbs of Dover, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Walter Hewitt left on Sunday last to visit Chicago and other cities in the West. They expect to be gone two or three weeks.

Harry Parker and Emmet Paul took part in the tennis tournament at Shawmut on Labor day. Atlantic has a number of promising tennis players.

It was rumored that a dog fight was to take place in Quincy on Monday night between out-of-town dogs, but as far as can be learned it did not come off.

The Harbinger-Beattie races for $500 are probably off, as Capt. David and Capt. Cavanaugh were unable to come to an agreement Thursday as to the courses.

The old parishioners of Rev. H. E. Cotton crowded Christ's church Sunday and gave the former pastor a royal welcome.

The choir was enlarged for the occasion.

At the Boston fair at Biddford, Me., Wednesday, Lady Blanche, owned by Mr. Joseph W. Dennen of Quincy, won first money in the 2.34 class; best time 2.32.

The Quincy Yacht Club gave the last one of its dancing parties at its club house Aug. 31. A large party from Quincy, Wollaston and Braintree was in attendance.

Abbie Barnes of Elm place has returned after a six weeks' visit in Peabody academy.

At a subsequent meeting of the directors the organization was completed by the re-election of Thomas H. McDonnell as president and William A. Hodges as vice president.

At the whist party on Wednesday evening by the members of the Granite City club, the first prize was taken by Mr. R. D. Sears and the second by Mr. Fred L. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Crane held their first "at home" Wednesday evening, at their residence on Elm street, at which time half a hundred friends called to extend congratulations.

"John Cotton, the Minister of Boston," a prominent figure in the early history of Massachusetts, was the subject of an Old South lecture in Boston Wednesday evening by Rev. J. C. Brooks.

The present and ex-pastors of St. Paul's Swedish M. E. church are prominent in the new New England Epworth League of Swedish Methodists; one is president, one secretary and the other treasurer.

Company K, 5th regiment, M. V. M., went to Weymouth, Mass., to attend the funeral of ex-Gov. Nathaniel Prentiss Banks. Col. Bancroft was in command and was expected to muster the whole regiment.

Something should be done by the Park Commissioners to keep the out of town people from occupying Elm street at park, for as it now is, respectable citizens of Quincy are practically crowded out on Sundays and holidays.

The race at Butler's pond Monday between boats owned by C. B. Tilton and T. B. Davenport resulted in a victory for the former, although Friend Crane says that he shall protest the race before the box of candy is delivered.

Mr. and Mrs. George O. Langley, who have been enjoying themselves with their horse and carriage in New Hampshire for the past fortnight, returned on Tuesday, after a very delightful trip. Langley says it is drier in New Hampshire than it is here.

Warren W. Adams, the new fire inspector, visited Dedham, Hyde Park and other places last week to investigate the causes of fires in those towns. There are so many mysterious or incendiary fires in this district that he will have his hands full.

The Assessors were at City Hall, Tuesday evening for the purpose of assessing those who might have been overlooked. But two persons however, put in an appearance. It is just necessary to pay a poll tax to vote, but it is necessary to be assessed. Are you assessed?

President Howland of the Quincy Mutual Fire Insurance company gave the employees of the office a delightful three days' outing, leaving Quincy Saturday they went to Montauk, where Sunday was spent, and Monday they returned via the Vineyard and New Bedford.

A kindergarten will be opened in Adams block Oct. 1st. This is something that is much needed in this city and no doubt will be largely attended. It will be in connection with the Greenleaf private school which will insure something good, as everything with that school stands high.

Mrs. Maria Mann of Adams street, one of Quincy's oldest and most esteemed residents, observed her ninety-first birthday anniversary on Saturday. Mrs. Mann was the recipient of many presents and was surrounded by her friends and entertained a large number of callers during the day.

Lady Blanche owned by Joseph W. Dennen of this city entered the 2.30 class at the Oslipale Valley fair in Cornwall, Me., Aug. 31 and made even better time than a few days ago. She was sent by Mr. Foley in 2.31.5, 2.31.4 and 2.32 and won in three straight in a class of five, for a $200 purse.

John Thompson & Son of this city should have attended the Thompson reunion at Halifax, Mass., Aug. 31, and obtained that contract for a $2000 monument to be erected over the remains of John Thompson late of Middleboro.

About 3000 Thompsons were in attendance. There was business meeting, dinner and post-prandial exercises. Reunions are held annually.

Our people do well after vacation in placing orders with Dummer, 70 Kneeland street, Boston, for butter and eggs. Also, fine teas, coffee and flour, free delivery.

—Avon water tanks are prohibited from using hose for sprinkling because of the scarcity of water.

WOLLASTON.

The City Council will meet next Monday evening.

Master William Wales is on a week's outing at Milford.

The Prohibitionists will hold a caucus on Saturday evening.

Mrs. E. P. Smith of Brockton is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Wales.

Miss Amy Alden and Miss Annie Briggs have returned from Europe.

Miss Caroline Barnes of Lowell is the guest of Mrs. Elias Larkin.

Mrs. Charles L. Coe has been spending the week at Poland Springs.

Miss Lillian Hammond has returned to her school duties at Brockton.

The new saddle horse of Miss Lella Moxon is much admired at Atlantic.

Miss Ada Blanche Thompson has entered the Framingham Normal School.

The incandescent street lamps at Atlantic burn only by fits and starts lately.

J. C. Pierce and Albert Richards are passing their vacation at Belfast, Maine.

John O'Brien, clerk at Southern's newsstand, is spending his vacation in New York.

The assessors added three names to the assessed list at their meeting Thursday evening.

The Woodward Institute will open next Monday, and new pupils will not be received after Sept. 17.

Miss Louise Dewey of Cohasset, a member of the Quincy training class, has accepted a position at Upton.

The Quincy & Boston street railway is fitting up a fine room under Hopley's cycle rooms for the conductors and motormen.

Many of the schools on the Cape will not open for a few weeks and several of the teachers are training in the Quincy schools.

Granite men will want the DAILY LEDGER Saturday with a sketch of the Quarry railroad and pictures of its directors.

Mrs. Helena Cordwell of this city was elected supreme court clerk at the recent convention of the Lythian Sisters in Washington, D. C.

Paul Revere Post 88, G. A. R., will participate in the dedication of the new high school next Tuesday, and will present a flag to the school.

Miss Hulda Olsen of this city was a bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Helene E. Lindholm and Mr. John S. Bachman at Wollaston, Thursday evening.

The scene in detail—Lincoln 13, 15 and 18; Starrett 23 and 11; Brainerd 33, 19, 18, 17, 16, 15 and 10; Field 20; Whitman 10 and 10; Emery 9 and 8; Gifford 8 and 7; Sanborn 11; King 8; Tucker 8; Malone 8; Ward 8; Gilliland 8; and 7; Leavitt 8; Benson 13; Marsden 8; Seals 8; Prince 5; Coates 9; Casey 8; Smith 9; Taylor 5; Osborne 7; Olney 7; Freeman 3.

Wollaston Epworth League.

At the meeting of the Epworth League of the Wollaston Methodist Episcopal church was held on Thursday evening, Sept. 6. The following board of officers was elected for the ensuing year:

President—Frank F. Grant.

First Vice President, Department of Spiritual Work—Leonard H. Stiles.

Second Vice President, Department of Mercy and Help—Mrs. Carrie H. Durgin.

Third Vice President, Department of Literary Work—Miss Edith Wilder.

Fourth Vice President, Department of Social Work—James L. Nesbitt.

Secretary—Charles W. Dixon.

Treasurer—John M. Ransom.

M. E. Church, Wollaston.

Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. Class meeting at 10 p. m. Preaching service at 10.45 p. m. Sunday school at 12 p. m. Junior League at 4 p. m. Prayer meeting of the Epworth League at 6 p. m. Praise and preaching at 7 p. m.

At the meeting of the Epworth League of the Wollaston Methodist Episcopal church was held on Thursday evening, Sept. 6. The following board of officers was elected for the ensuing year:

President—Frank F. Grant.

First Vice President, Department of Spiritual Work—Leonard H. Stiles.

Second Vice President, Department of Mercy and Help—Mrs. Carrie H. Durgin.

Third Vice President, Department of Literary Work—Miss Edith Wilder.

Fourth Vice President, Department of Social Work—James L. Nesbitt.

Secretary—Charles W. Dixon.

Treasurer—John M. Ransom.

M. E. Church, Wollaston.

Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. Class meeting at 10 p. m. Preaching service at 10.45 p. m. Sunday school at 12 p. m. Junior League at 4 p. m. Prayer meeting of the Epworth League at 6 p. m. Praise and preaching at 7 p. m.

At the meeting of the Epworth League of the Wollaston Methodist Episcopal church was held on Thursday evening, Sept. 6. The following board of officers was elected for the ensuing year:

President—Frank F. Grant.

First Vice President, Department of Spiritual Work—Leonard H. Stiles.

Second Vice President, Department of Mercy and Help—Mrs. Carrie H. Durgin.

Third Vice President, Department of Literary Work—Miss Edith Wilder.

Fourth Vice President, Department of Social Work—James L. Nesbitt.

Secretary—Charles W. Dixon.

Treasurer—John M. Ransom.

M. E. Church, Wollaston.

Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. Class meeting at 10 p. m. Preaching service at 10.45 p. m. Sunday school at 12 p. m. Junior League at 4 p. m. Prayer meeting of the Epworth League at 6 p. m. Praise and preaching at 7 p. m.

At the meeting of the Epworth League of the Wollaston Methodist Episcopal church was held on Thursday evening, Sept. 6. The following board of officers was elected for the ensuing year:

President—Frank F. Grant.

First Vice President, Department of Spiritual Work—Leonard H. Stiles.

Second Vice President, Department of Mercy and Help—Mrs. Carrie H. Durgin.

Third Vice President, Department of Literary Work—Miss Edith Wilder.

Fourth Vice President, Department of Social Work—James L. Nesbitt.

Secretary—Charles W. Dixon.

Treasurer—John M. Ransom.

M. E. Church, Wollaston.

Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. Class meeting at 10 p. m. Preaching service at 10.45 p. m. Sunday school at 12 p. m. Junior League at 4 p. m. Prayer meeting of the Epworth League at 6 p. m. Praise and preaching at 7 p. m.

At the meeting of the Epworth League of the Wollaston Methodist Episcopal church was held on Thursday evening, Sept. 6. The following board of officers was elected for the ensuing year:

President—Frank F. Grant.

First Vice President, Department of Spiritual Work—Leonard H. Stiles.

Second Vice President, Department of Mercy and Help—Mrs. Carrie H. Durgin.

Third Vice President, Department of Literary Work—Miss Edith Wilder.

Fourth Vice President, Department of Social Work—James L. Nesbitt.

Secretary—Charles W. Dixon.

Treasurer—John M. Ransom.

M. E. Church, Wollaston.

Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. Class meeting at 10 p. m. Preaching service at 10.45 p. m. Sunday school at 12 p. m. Junior League at 4 p. m. Prayer meeting of the Epworth League at 6 p. m. Praise and preaching at 7 p. m.

At the meeting of the Epworth League of the Wollaston Methodist Episcopal church was held on Thursday evening, Sept. 6. The following board of officers was elected for the ensuing year:

President—Frank F. Grant.

First Vice President, Department of Spiritual Work—Leonard H. Stiles.

Second Vice President, Department of Mercy and Help—Mrs. Carrie H. Durgin.

Third Vice President, Department of Literary Work—Miss Edith Wilder.

Fourth Vice President, Department of Social Work—James L. Nesbitt.

Secretary—Charles W. Dixon.

Treasurer—John M. Ransom.

M. E. Church, Wollaston.

Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. Class meeting at 10 p. m. Preaching service at 10.45 p. m. Sunday school at 12 p. m. Junior League at 4 p. m. Prayer meeting of the Epworth League at 6 p. m. Praise and preaching at 7 p. m.

At the meeting of the Epworth League of the Wollaston Methodist Episcopal church was held on Thursday evening, Sept. 6. The following board of officers was elected for the ensuing year:

President—Frank F. Grant.

First Vice President, Department of Spiritual Work—Leonard H. Stiles.

Second Vice President, Department of Mercy and Help—Mrs. Carrie H. Durgin.

Third Vice President, Department of Literary Work—Miss Edith Wilder.

Fourth Vice President, Department of Social Work—James L. Nesbitt.

Secretary—Charles W. Dixon.

Treasurer—John M. Ransom.

M. E. Church, Wollaston.

Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. Class meeting at 10 p. m. Preaching service at 10.45 p. m. Sunday school at 12 p. m. Junior League at 4 p. m. Prayer meeting of the Epworth League at 6 p. m. Praise and preaching at 7 p. m.

At the meeting of the Epworth League of the Wollaston Methodist Episcopal church was held on Thursday evening, Sept. 6. The following board of officers was elected for the ensuing year:

President—Frank F. Grant.

First Vice President, Department of Spiritual Work—Leonard H. Stiles.

Second Vice President, Department of Mercy and Help—Mrs. Carrie H. Durgin.

Third Vice President, Department of Literary Work—Miss Edith Wilder.

Fourth Vice President, Department of Social Work—James L. Nesbitt.

Secretary—Charles W. Dixon.

Treasurer—John M. Ransom.

M. E. Church, Wollaston.

Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. Class meeting at 10 p. m. Preaching service at 10.45 p. m. Sunday school at 12 p. m. Junior League at 4 p. m. Prayer meeting of the Epworth League at 6 p. m. Praise and preaching at 7 p. m.

At the meeting of the Epworth League of the Wollaston Methodist Episcopal church was held on Thursday evening, Sept. 6. The following board of officers was elected for the ensuing year:

President—Frank F. Grant.

First Vice President, Department of Spiritual Work—Leonard H. Stiles.

Second Vice President, Department of Mercy and Help—Mrs. Carrie H. Durgin.

Third Vice President, Department of Literary Work—Miss Edith Wilder.

Fourth Vice President, Department of Social Work—James L. Nesbitt.

Secretary—Charles W. Dixon.

Treasurer—John M. Ransom.

M. E. Church, Wollaston.

Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. Class meeting at 10 p. m. Preaching service at 10.45 p. m. Sunday school at 12 p. m. Junior League at 4 p. m. Prayer meeting of the Epworth League at 6 p. m. Praise and preaching at 7 p. m.

At the meeting of the Epworth League of the Wollaston Methodist Episcopal church was held on Thursday evening, Sept. 6. The following board of officers was elected for the ensuing year:

President—Frank F. Grant.

First Vice President, Department of Spiritual Work—Leonard H. Stiles.

Second Vice President, Department of Mercy and Help—Mrs. Carrie H. Durgin.

Third Vice President, Department of Literary Work—Miss Edith Wilder.

Fourth Vice President, Department of Social Work—James L. Nesbitt.

Prices Sure to Advance.

BUY YOUR COAL AT ONCE.

White Ash Stove.	$5.25
White Ash Egg.	5.00
White Ash Furnace.	5.00
Lehigh Furnace.	5.25
Lehigh Egg.	5.25
Shamokin Stove.	5.50
Shamokin Egg.	5.50
Red Ash Stove.	5.75
Franklin Egg.	7.00
Franklin Stove.	7.00

OUR SPECIALTY:
Excelsior Nut, $5.25,
Which we guarantee equal if not superior to any other coal made.

Highest grade Bituminous Coal.

A Full Line of Masons' Materials.

Geo. E. Frost,
488 Neponset Avenue,
NEPONSET.
Telephone connection.

THE RISING SUN and SUN PASTE STOVE POLISH.

WE have yielded to the importtunity of our customers to manufacture a perfect Paste Polish. We offer it "THE CARE AND FEEDING OF INFANTS." and recommend it for an after-dinner shine, and to touch up spots.
Applied and polished with a cloth.
Does not dry up or rust the box.

The "RISING SUN" Stove Polish in cakes has been upon the market thirty years, and has an annual sale of three thousand tons for economy, durability and brilliancy, and for general blacking of a stove it is still unsurpassed. MORSE BROS. & CO., Boston, Mass., U. S. A.

THE ONLY PERFECT SUBSTITUTE FOR MOTHER'S MILK.

SEND for circulars. MELLIN'S FOOD
Sole Agents: DOLBER-CODDAGE CO., BOSTON, MASS.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil.
It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria is the Children's Panacea
—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria. Castoria.
"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any preparation known to me." H. A. Auer, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."
C. A. MERRILL, D. D.,
New York City.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results."
EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., 125th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

"The recent accident to Mr. Hiram Maxim's flying machine has started again
in England the controversy over the practicality of 'soaring.' Mr. Maxim's machine is made to run, for experimental purposes, on a railway 100 feet long, laid down upon the grounds of his place near Beckley, in Kent. It is driven forward by two great propellers, worked by steam, and
the lifting power is gained from aeroplanes.
To prevent its rising from the ground
during experimental operation, an upper rail is provided, on the under side of which run dangled wheels connected by arms with
the body of the machine."

"The last locomotive built or ever to be built by the Old Colony N. Y. R. R. It is undoubtedly the finest engine in New England, says the Hingham Journal, and was designed by J. N. Lander, superintendent of mechanical properties."

"The largest inclosed body of water in the world is the Caspian sea."

Irring W. Larimore, physical director of
Y. M. C. A., Des Moines, Iowa, says he can conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm to athletes, gymnasts, bicyclists, football players and the profession in general
for bruises, sprains and dislocations. It acts for soreness and stiffness of the muscles.
When applied before the parts become swollen it will effect a cure in one-half the time usually required.
For sale by Druggists and Dealers Everywhere.

Quednotes.
She—"They say he married Miss Winkles for her money. Has she got money?"
He—"She must have lots of it. Have you never seen her?"—Life.

"Why," said Henry, "does the rich man in the play always fall in love with and marry the poor but respectable orphan?"
"It is probably because," said Robert,
"the poor but respectable orphan is the only
stage always wears such costly diamonds."

Playwright—Is her acting natural?
Manager (enthusiastically)—Natural?
Why, when she appeared as the dying
mother, last night, a life insurance agent who has her insured for $20,000, and who was in the audience, actually fainted.

Railroad President—That was a bad thousand, but it might have been a hundred times worse. Suppose those cars had taken fire? Phew! Why didn't they?
Superintendent—A lazy brakeman had let the fire go out.

President—Raise his salary.
It was merely an eye-glass that the young man wore, but Uncle Silas didn't know that.
"Jes' look at that!" he exclaimed to his wife under his breath.
"How d'ye reckon it happened?" she inquired.
"I'd no—unless maybe he's buying his spies on the installment plan."

John was building a chicken-coop, while Budge stood by looking on. John bruised his thumb and exclaimed, "O gracious!"
"What makes you say that?" asked Budge.
"What should I say?" rejoined John,
for his thumb ached.
"Well," said Budge, after reflecting a little, "you might say the 'mammies'."

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 8, 1894.

Going Back to School.

A merry tramp of little feet,
Just heard the sweet vibration!
The children over all the land
Have had a long vacation.
And back again they haste to take
In school the dear old days,
To measure out the days by rule,
With fair, unshadowed faces.

They troop along the city streets,
Grave eyes grow young that see them,
And wistful hearts from every blight
Of sin and pain would free them.
With the dusty ways of change,
With warts of flowers and grasses,
As if to music sweet and strange,
The brilliant army passes.

Along the quiet country roads,
By purple asters bordered,
At nine o'clock and half-past one,
The gay reviews are ordered.
And childish voices, clear and shrill,
Amaze the peeping throngs.
The streets and the fields are filled
With the tramp of the young.

Housekeeping in the bushes.
We older people like to watch
Our little lads and lassies,
As studiously they set to work
To make the world a better place.
Such happy brows are overcast
To con the pictured pages,
Such earnest wills are wrestling with
The story of the ages.

And sometimes sighing as we gaze—
So fast the hours are growing,
We think of darker skies to come
For these, so glad and glowing.
Pain would we keep the children still Brown-checked and blithe and ready,
With nothing hark in their lives
Than days of task and study.

But God, our Father's wiser love, Prepares them for the evil;
This year they shall have the war
With word and deed and devil.
God bless them in the coming years,
And guard the waiting places
Which lay-and-life he'll bid them fill—
His smile upon their faces.

—Sunday School Times.

Notes and Comments.

—The annual coaching parade at Winthrop on Monday was excellent, and many thousands visited this beautiful seaside to witness it.

—All over Massachusetts, and throughout the country, Labor day was observed as never before, and especially its popularity with the masses. In Boston on Monday the observance was especially notable.

—Colonel F. C. Pierce of Chicago is engaged in compiling the genealogy of the Whitney family of Massachusetts.
The emigrant ancestor settled here in 1635.
He has thus far succeeded in securing the names of 30,000 descendants of the original emigrant.

—The work on the state house extension in Boston is progressing very satisfactorily.
Preparations are being made to hang the bridge that connect the extension with the old state house. The present out-look is that the house of representatives for 1894 will meet in the new quarters in the extension. A temporary room is being fitted up for the senate, whether they will go until their quarters in the old building are made ready.

—The court house in Dedham is approaching completion. It is a solid, substantial, imposing building, as a nearly finished one any building can be. The removal of the old prison-looking front and the substitution of a handsome granite curbing and the front and rear steps buried with the twelve new granite posts, is a great improvement.
Norfolk county will have a court house as good as any in the state compared with its needs, and at an economical cost. Commissioner Morrell is giving unstinted time and excellent judgment to the management of the court.—Norfolk Advertiser.

—The United States Credit System Company is in the hands of a receiver, but it has liabilities of $540,000, and started a year ago with a capital of only $200,000.
It would seem that it lived up to its name.

—A Taunton lady has a cat which is very fond of music. For months she has taken up a position at the lady's side while she manipulates the keys, purring softly the while, but no other enjoyment was forthcoming. The lady paid no attention to the cat until the other day she was told that in her absence from home the cat counted the keys and did her best with her paws to duplicate the music brought forth by her mistress.

—The recent accident to Mr. Hiram Maxim's flying machine has started again
in England the controversy over the practicality of "soaring." Mr. Maxim's machine is made to run, for experimental purposes, on a railway 100 feet long, laid down upon the grounds of his place near Beckley, in Kent. It is driven forward by two great propellers, worked by steam, and
the lifting power is gained from aeroplanes.
To prevent its rising from the ground
during experimental operation, an upper rail is provided, on the under side of which run dangled wheels connected by arms with
the body of the machine.

—The last locomotive built or ever to be built by the Old Colony N. Y. R. R. It is undoubtedly the finest engine in New England, says the Hingham Journal, and was designed by J. N. Lander, superintendent of mechanical properties.

—The largest inclosed body of water in the world is the Caspian sea.

Irring W. Larimore, physical director of
Y. M. C. A., Des Moines, Iowa, says he can conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm to athletes, gymnasts, bicyclists,
football players and the profession in general
for bruises, sprains and dislocations. It acts for soreness and stiffness of the muscles.
When applied before the parts become swollen it will effect a cure in one-half the
time usually required.
For sale by Druggists and Dealers Everywhere.

Quednotes.
She—"They say he married Miss Winkles for her money. Has she got money?"
He—"She must have lots of it. Have you never seen her?"—Life.

"Why," said Henry, "does the rich man in the play always fall in love with
and marry the poor but respectable
orphan?"
"It is probably because," said Robert,
"the poor but respectable orphan is the only
stage always wears such costly diamonds."

Playwright—Is her acting natural?
Manager (enthusiastically)—Natural?
Why, when she appeared as the dying
mother, last night, a life insurance agent
who has her insured for $20,000, and who was in the audience, actually fainted.

Railroad President—That was a bad
thousand, but it might have been a hundred times worse. Suppose those cars had taken fire? Phew! Why didn't they?
Superintendent—A lazy brakeman had
let the fire go out.

President—Raise his salary.
It was merely an eye-glass that the young
man wore, but Uncle Silas didn't know that.
"Jes' look at that!" he exclaimed to
his wife under his breath.
"How d'ye reckon it happened?" she
inquired.
"I'd no—unless maybe he's buying his spies on the installment plan."

The Final Games.

On Saturday the Quinys defeated the Holbrooks, and the Institutes took the Whitmans into camp. Only one game was played today which resulted in victory for Institutes over Holbrooks.
Only two clubs have won fifty per cent.
of their games.

The standing up to date is:

Played.	Won.	Lost.	Per Cent.
Institutes,	17	15	52.88
Quinys,	15	11	44.44
Holbrooks,	18	8	66.66
Whitmans,	10	4	70.00
Handpicks,	16	4	80.00
Brantrees,	14	3	81.25

Quinys, 18; Holbrooks, 4.

The Holbrooks, with the aid of Soutter of Boston as pitcher visited North Weymouth, Saturday, with the intention of winning the game. The game was played after five innings had been played the visitors got completely discouraged and gave the game up, after playing two long hours, the score being 18 to 4 in favor of the Holbrooks.

The Holbrooks were very badly broke up over the non-appearance of Nolan, their catcher, but the game was started with Charles King as catcher and Soutter as pitcher. The latter did very poor work, giving seven runs, four hits and only four outs were made off his delivery.

In the absence of Connors who has a sprained finger, Slade was put in to pitch and did some very fine work. Three hits were made off his delivery. First the first inning after which only two scratch hits were secured.

The playing of the Quinys was very good, especially the batting of Faircloth, Slade and Norton, and the fine fielding of Pitts and Norton. The throwing of Burrell was also a feature.

The playing of W. King and Keener was of the highest order. The umpiring of Cray with an exception was the best ever seen in these parts.

Quinys, 18; Holbrooks, 4.

Earned runs—Quinys, 3. Stolen bases—
Quinys, 2. Hits—Quinys, 10. Errors—
Quinys, 2. Runs—Quinys, 18. Hits—Holbrooks, 8. Errors—Holbrooks, 4.

Two for Institutes.

The Institutes closed the league season with a victory, defeating the Holbrooks on Saturday 18 to 4, and on Labor day the Holbrooks 14 to 0. This gives them the Old Colony league championship handsly. The Quinys were really the only dangerous rivals.

The game of ball at Merry Mount park
Monday between the North Weymouth Quinys resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 18 to 4. The game was witnessed by a large crowd but was rather one-sided, as the visitors were much stronger and older than the home team.

Two Days' Shooting.

The Wollaston Trap Club held shoots on Saturday afternoon and on Monday forenoon.
At Saturday's shoot D. B. Lincoln with 10 birds was high man on the first string and Charles Prescott with 20 on the second string. Prescott broke 11 straight.
The club average on the first string was 11.1 and on the second 10.6.

Morse took part in Monday's shoot and was high man on both strings, breaking 17 on the first and 15 on the second.
Casey had not broken the second bird which he fired at he would have been whitewashed. The club average on the first string was 10, and on the second 8.3.

ON SATURDAY.

1st String.	2d String.
W. W. Mitchell,	10
D. B. Lincoln,	10
C. Prescott,	10
C. I. Prescott,	10
W. C. Tucker,	10
W. C. Tucker,	10
George Thompson,	10
J. G. Smith,	10

ON LABOR DAY.

1st String.	2d String.
J. C. Morse,	17
C. Prescott,	17
W. W. Mitchell,	17
H. B. Sanborn,	10
W. C. Tucker,	10
C. W. Tucker,	10
A. Williams,	10
F. Bates,	10

*Not a club member.

Beware of Outlets for Castoria the Contains Mercury.
As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system of circulation, it is not surprising that many cases of insanity have been traced to its use. It is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Castoria Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.
In buying Hall's Castoria Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney &
Co. Testimonials free.

*Sold by Druggists; price 75c per bottle.

—The famous Dr. Koch has found that if cases are taken in their early stages, a hospital is to be established in New York for the treatment of the disease by the new remedy. If the remedy is what is claimed for it, no time should be lost in harvesting its benefits.

—The United States government has recently decided to manufacture its own postage stamps, instead of having them made by private contractors. The new stamp is being used for gumming the stamps. This machine was recently made in Washington. On the trial run on August 11, of two of these machines,
18,000 stamps with 400 stamps to a sheet,
2,400,000 stamps, were gummed in nine hours.

—One of our local teamsters, who has heretofore done most of his pleasure riding with a horse, last Sunday caught a bicycle and started on a trip to the city. He was made the journey over all right, but on his way back he got pretty tired and his horse was decidedly wobbly. He needed about as much road as a man with "a jolt" on. A lady who was coasting along at a three mile an hour clip, and who was riding a modern bicycle, was startled by the man and his errand. The pedal of her machine fouled with his trousers and made an appealing ripping noise of our friend's neither extremely fast nor usually exhibited in society media, while he went off his wheel in a demoralized heap. This episode "made him tired" of wheel work and after pulling himself together and making some repairs in a cursory sort of a way, he continued on the return trip as walking mate to the wheel until near home, when he was summoned up courage and mounted again and bluffed into town with as much dignity and pride as if he had not been riding a pig last. But he doesn't want any more "bike" experience.—Mansfield News.

The Income Tax.

The new United States income tax is to be levied on the income of the present year, and for that reason it is interesting and more or less important to know just what the provisions are. The law provides that from January 1, 1895, till January 1, 1900, a tax of two per cent. on all incomes over $4,000 shall be collected, the tax each year being levied upon the gains derived from the income for the year ending December 31 next preceding the time for levying and collecting the tax. The tax is due and payable on or before the first day of July in each year, so that the tax to be collected next July will necessarily be on income for the calendar year 1894.

Every citizen of the United States, whether at home or abroad, whose income is more than $4,000 a year, is subject to the tax, and every person resident in the United tax, whether he is a citizen or not. The tax is levied upon all incomes exceeding $4,000 a year, whether derived from any kind of property, rents, interest, dividends, employment, or from any profession, trade, employment or vocation carried on in the United States or elsewhere, or from any other source whatever. Income from United States bonds excepted from the tax from federal taxation is not included, nor any income from dividends of any corporation which has paid its income tax.

Every person having an income of more than $5,000 during 1894 is required to make a sworn return of his receipts, and in case of his neglect or refusal to do this the collector may make such an assessment as he thinks right, and add fifty per cent.
to the amount as a penalty for non-compliance with the law. Those whose incomes are between $5,000 and $4,000 a year are required to make their return, but although they are not taxed. Any person may secure exemption for one year by declaring under oath that his income does not exceed $4,000 or that he pays an income tax in some other jurisdiction.

A tax of two per cent. is to be levied on the net profits of all banks, banking institutions, trust companies, savings institutions, fire, marine, life, and other insurance companies, railroad, canal, transportation, express, electric light, gas, water, street railway companies, and all other corporations, companies, or associations doing business for profit in the United States, no matter how created or organized, and not including partnerships.
The penalty for failure to make a sworn statement is $1,000, and two per cent. on the amount of taxes due for each month of delinquency.

Official salaries, including those of senators and representatives, when above $4,000, will be taxed, the amount of the tax being withheld when the salaries are paid. Salaries due to state, county, or municipal officers are exempted from the income tax.

Every corporation is required to make an annual return before the first Monday of March, beginning in 1895, of its gross profits; its expenses, exclusive of interest, annuities, and dividends; its net profit;
dividends, annuities, and interest; and the gross amount paid in salaries of $4,000 each or less; and the amount paid in salaries of more than $4,000 each, with the names and addresses of the recipients, and the amount paid to each. Corporation books are open to the inspection of revenue officers.

The Rockland Standard.

The excellent weekly has commenced its 41st volume. It was started by Charles G.
Easterbrook in 1864, and purchased by its present proprietor and successor, George S. Smith, in 1870. From that time to the present it has been a success—both financially and as a bright, new-sheet.
We can remember the Standard even before Mr. Smith became its editor, and during this long span of years it has borne up to excellent record, stamped by the careful and judicious management of its publisher.

The Cotton King.

At the Bowdoin Square Theatre Oct. 8th, Manager William A. Brady makes his second grand production, "The Cotton King," by Sutton Vane. Everybody who has seen this play in London, where it was enthusiastic over its merits. It is well written, well constructed, has splendid heart interest, good comedy, well worked realistic situations, and above all is going to be acted by good old-fashioned actors in this line of work. It is three years since Jack Mason appeared in melodrama at the Boston Museum. He is to play "The Cotton King" a part exactly suited to his methods.

Boston Theatre.

One cannot see "The Old Homestead" too much, and the audience this week at the Boston were made up largely of those who have witnessed the play before. But the performance as a whole is better than ever before, and is destined to have an even greater success than its first. The play is a nature itself, unadorned and unadorned. Uncle Joshua is the same happy, honest, shrewd New Hampshire farmer that hundreds of thousands have admired for years. Higher praise than this is needless.

TO LOOK NICE.

ALL WOMEN DESIRE IT.
Some Points About How to Accomplish the Desired End.
(OFFICIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)
It is the most natural wish in life with women—to feel well and look nice. It is born with them.
It makes a world of difference between the two little girls whether one is a tripper and the other is not. There is a bit of pretty lace or bright ribbon about her dress or on her hat.
Yet all women like to look like a queen. All watch for the least signs of fading. You have seen beautiful ladies, and you will soon find that they have lived fifty or sixty years of life.
Have you ever stopped to ask why the few look so lovely while the many around you are so faded?
You will find that no female beauties have secured their lives; no dreadful complaints, no irregular periods;
no bearing down, or any kind of uterine obstruction, or womb trouble.
You are not like them now, but you may become so. You will find that the secret of their high level of life is in their blood. You suffer, but there is a remedy.
Lidia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the great restorer ever discovered for women. It restores the blood and all irregularities to their natural healthy condition, and makes possible a lovely old age. It cures every form of female complaint, from leucorrhoea to tumors in the womb.

Household Receipts.

FRIED TOMATOES. Cut tomatoes in half, sprinkle with flour and a little salt.
Fry in butter, with cut side down. When fried brown put on a dish. Put a piece of butter and some milk in the frying pan. When it boils, pour over the tomatoes. Serve very hot.

PEARS. Small sweet pears are very good cooked in a syrup of one-half pound of sugar to a pound of fruit, add a small teaspoonful of water to every pound of fruit.
When the pears are nearly done, add some fine large raisins, cook until these are done, and can be eaten with hot.

CUCUMBER CATSUP. Take three dozen large cucumbers, six large white onions, peel and chop fine. Sprinkle with three-quarters of a pound of salt. Drain through a sieve twelve hours. Then add one teaspoonful of white mustard seed, half a teaspoonful of ground pepper. Mix well, put into small jars and cover with well cider vinegar, close tightly. It will be ready to use in a week.

FRENCH TOMATO SOUP. One quart tomatoes; three pints of boiling water;
seasoning: one teaspoonful of carbonate soda; butter, the size of an egg; one small onion, minced; one quart of milk.
Put tomatoes and onion over fire with the hot water; strain and run through colander.
Meanwhile, boil the milk, stir in soda and butter, and after one boil keep hot.
Season, adding soda to tomatoes, simmer five minutes and then stir in the milk.
Serve at once.

QUINCE JELLY. Peel, quarter and core a dozen or more sour, juicy apples and put them with the skin and cores of the apples in a kettle, filled with cold water and covered closely. Steam until soft and put in bag to drain over night; tie the top with a strong string and put a stick through the top and hang over a deep earthen dish.
The morning after add a large cup of sugar and sugar for every bowlful of jelly and boil fast for fifteen minutes, then pour in jelly tumblers.

Temperance.

Furnished for publication by the W. C. T. U.

A Plea for No-Licence.

Let me plead with the workmen to vote No-Licence. Here is what the rumseller has pledged himself to do if you vote licence: I shall deal in family spirits which will excite men to deeds of riot, robbery and blood; and by so doing diminish the comforts, augment the expenses, and endanger the welfare of the community. I will undertake at a short notice, to prepare victims for the asylum,
the poorhouse, the prison, and the gallows.
I shall deal in drugs which will deprive some of life, many of reason, most of prosperity, and all of peace, which will cause the fathers to become fiends; wives, widows; children, orphans; and all mendicants. I will cause many of the rising generation to grow up in ignorance. I will cause mothers to forget their offspring, and cruelly to take the place of love. I will deny the purity of the church, and cause temporal spiritual and eternal death, and if any should be so impertinent as to ask why I have the audacity to bring such misery upon a comparatively happy people, my answer is, money. Give me a licence in this land of liberty and I have a right to demolish the character, destroy the health, shorten the lives, and ruin the souls of those who choose to honor me with their custom. Those who wish any of the evils above specified brought upon themselves, or their dearest friends, are requested to meet the rum-sellers at the polls, and give them authority to do all that they have promised. Those who vote "Yes" must bear the responsibility of setting up a time-honored and legal shield. Those who vote "No" cannot have the sin of next year's drunkard, of next year's family suffering, mother's heartbreaking, and father's name laid at their doors. My dear friends, and brother, your neighbor may not know how you vote; God will, and God is your judge.

House Cleaners, Attention!

QUINCY
ELECTRIC CARPET CLEANING WORKS.

Carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid in
the best manner at short notice.

W. W. ADAMS, G. B. LINCOLN.
Orders may be left at T. F. Mitchell's or lock box 302, Quincy Postoffice.
Quincy, March 17.

Cypress Lumber and Shingles.

Spruce and Hard Woods,
Hand and Soft Pine,
Cypress Doors and Finish,
Gutters, Conductors, Mouldings, etc.

Send for our book, "Cypress Lumber and
its Uses."
THE A. T. STEARNS LUMBER CO.,
NEPONSET, MASS.
Feb. 11.

JOHN G. THOMAS,

Slate, Tin, Copper and Composition
ROOF

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1894.

VOL. 58. NO. 37.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.
Specialist, ..... Orthodontia.
RESIDENCE 70
No. 7 TEMPLE PLACE.
New Building, Boston.
Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.
Residence, --- Linden Place, --- Quincy.

F. S. DAVIS, M. D.,
HOMOEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN.
No. 5 Elm Street, Quincy.
Connected by Telephone.
OFFICE HOURS: 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., and 2 to 7 P. M., and 8 to 10 P. M.
Quincy, Oct. 22.

DR. G. R. ENGLAND,
DENTIST.
14 Chestnut Street, Quincy, Mass.
Connected by telephone.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
Surgeon Dentist.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain, with the "BOSTON VIBRATOR."
DEBHAM, QUINCY, NORWOOD.
At Quincy office, French's Building.
WEDNESDAYS.
At Dedham Mondays and Tuesdays.
At Norwood Fridays and Saturdays.
July 28.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy --- No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston --- HOTEL PELHAM --- Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. CHAS. S. FRENCH,
DENTIST.
All kinds of work in Dentistry done in the most perfect manner.
GAS OR ETHER ADMINISTERED.
No. 80 Hancock Street.
Quincy, Aug. 8.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST.
Room 2, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office Hours, 8 to 12, 1 to 5.

JOHN W. McANARNEY,
Counselor-at-Law.
Room 1, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
Hancock Street, Quincy.
Saturdays, at the office of CUTLER &
JENNEY, 200 Washington Street, Boston.
August 11.

W. W. JENNESS,
Attorney and Counselor at Law,
at 211 Main Street, Quincy, Mass.
Office Hours, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M., Rooms 38 and 39.
OFFICE HOURS: 8 to 10 A. M., 2 to 5 P. M.
Quincy, May 25.

CITY OF QUINCY.
The Overseer of the Poor
Will be at his office in the CITY
HALL from 10 to 10 A. M. on SAT-
URDAYS.
J. S. ARNOLD, Overseer.
Quincy, Feb. 24.

NOTICE.
THE Board of Water Commissioners will hold further notice, hold meetings every Thursday evening in Room No. 2, Durgin &
Merrill's block, at 7:45 o'clock. All persons having business with the board are requested
to present it at these meetings.
HERBERT F. NYE, Chairman.
JOHN T. CAVANAGH, Water Commissioner.
Quincy, June 25, 1894.

16 years' experience in
Piano and Organ Tuning.
FRANK A. LOCKE.

Best of references and thorough work. All orders promptly attended to. Quincy office,
John O. Holden's Jewelry Store, Boston
office, Room 10, 22 West Street,
Wollaston office, Room 1, periodical store.
FRANK A. LOCKE.

HERBERT F. NYE,
TEACHER OF
PIANO, ORGAN, VOICE.
Residence --- Coldwater Street.
P. O. Address --- Box 675, Quincy, Mass.
At home Tuesday evenings.
Feb. 23.

FRANK C. CLIBERT,
Teacher of Piano-forte,
190 Hancock St. Quincy.
Sept. 6.

C. H. ABBOTT,
Piano and Organ Tuner
RATES REASONABLE.
Workmanship Guaranteed.
ORDERS RECEIVED AT
E. B. Sauter's News Depot.
Quincy, Jan. 13.

W. G. SEARS,
Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting.
WELLS DRIVEN
AND PUMPS REPAIRED.
SHOP IN PIERCE'S BLOCK,
Corner Washington and Hancock Streets.
QUINCY, MASS.
March 24.

J. J. KENILEY,
PLUMBER.
All orders promptly attended to at reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed.
No. 9 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY.
In office formerly occupied by the Citizens'
Gas Light Company.
Jan. 6. P. O. Box 808.

House Cleaners, Attention!
QUINCY
ELECTRIC CARPET CLEANING WORKS.
Carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid in
the best manner at short notice.
W. W. ADAMS, G. B. LINCOLN.
Orders may be left at T. F. Mitchell's on lock box 292, Quincy Postoffice.
Quincy, March 17.

H. T. Whitman,
CIVIL ENGINEER
---
SURVEYOR,
ADAMS BUILDING, QUINCY.
Hours, 8 to 9 A. M.
Boston Office, 35 Devonshire Street.
Hours, 12 to 2 P. M.
N. B. Plans of nearly all the Real Estate
in the City of Quincy can be found at my office.
May 28.

CHAS. A. BELCHER,
AUCTIONEER.
REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
Justice of the Peace and Notary Public.
OFFICE: Room 3, Adams Building,
QUINCY.
HOURS: 7 to 10 A. M., 3 to 6 P. M. Monday, Friday and Saturday evenings, 7 to 9 P. M.
Sept. 1.

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER.
Office and residence corner of Canal and Mechanics Streets.
Quincy, Feb. 6.

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
No. 51 Hancock Street.
Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,
Robes and Habits.
Having had several years' experience in the undertaking business, the undertaker hopes to merit a share of patronage.
JOHN HALL.
Quincy, Mar. 10.

Elocution, Physical Culture
---
DRAMATIC ACTION.
MISS ELISE RUSSELL will receive a number of pupils at 121 HAN-COCK STREET, QUINCY, TUESDAYS
and FRIDAYS.
Will also arrange and direct
PANTOMIMES, GREEK TABLEAU,
and STATUE POSSES.
March 10.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
Hancock Street, Quincy, Mass.

WARREN D. HIGGINS,
Architect and Builder.
Can show you a large number of Plans
for Houses which will cost from $100 to $10,000.
Residence, 7 Faxon Avenue, Quincy
May 21.

WALTER S. RANDALL,
Carpenter and Builder.
HAS removed to his new residence on Hancock Street. He is prepared to furnish estimates for house building, and will give prompt attention to all orders.
Quincy, July 1.

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER
Pearl Street,
SOUTH QUINCY.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
PEREZ JOYCE,
Quincy avenue near Liberty Street.

BOOTS & SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
Nathaniel Nightingale,
Granite St. near Post Office.

BEAUTIFUL MELODIES FOR
Violin and Piano
Twenty-Five Cents!!
WALTZ --- Kathleen O'Connor.
--- Daisy Bell.
--- The Little Maid in Pink.
--- Won't You Be My Sweetheart.
All Popular. All Perfect Goods.
Price 25 cts. each or the five Pieces
for $1.00.
JEAN WHITE,
226 Washington St., Boston, Mass.
May 21.

WILLIAM GARRITY'S
Quincy and Boston Express.
Leaves Quincy at 9 o'clock A. M. and Boston at 2:15 P. M.
Quincy --- Orders may be left at Whitney &
Nash's W. H. Noble's, E. R. Hall's, and the Stable.
Boston --- 174 Washington Street, 15 Devonshire Street, 1-2 South Market Street, and Franklin Hall Square.
N. B. Furniture Moved and Parties accommodated at short notice.

ABBOTT & MILLER'S
Quincy and Boston Express.
Quincy Office, South and West Quincy.
Boston Office, 32 Court Street, 42 Franklin Street, 7 Merchants Row, 15 Devonshire
Street.
Quincy Office, Crane's Furniture Store.
Order Box, C. B. Titcomb's.
South Quincy --- Order Box at W. H.
Doble's Store, Depot and Brewer's Store.
West Quincy --- Post Office and Depot.
Leave Quincy for Boston, 9 A. M. and
Boston for Quincy, 2:30 P. M.
G. M. MILLER, General Manager.
Furniture and Piano Moving and General
Freighting checked to all depots and steamboats. Particular attention to early trains
and boats.

AUSTIN & WINSLOW'S
Quincy and Boston Express
Boston Office, Leave.
34 Court Street, 8:30, 11:00 A. M., 3:30 P. M.
35 Merchants Row, 8:00, 12:00 A. M., 3:30 P. M.
75 & 91 Kilby Street, 8:00, 12:00 A. M., 4:00 P. M.
76 & 77 Kingston St., 9:00, 12:00 A. M., 4:30 P. M.
67 Franklin Street, 9:00, 12:00 A. M., 4:30 P. M.
Quincy Office, 52 Washington St.
Leave at 7:15, 8:15, 9:15 A. M. and 12:45 P. M.
Telephone: 9-9, Quincy, 2386, Boston.
Freighting checked to all depots and steamboats. Particular attention to early trains
and boats.

Come one, come all,
And buy before fall,
Which soon will be here,
So goods that were dear
Will have to go quick,
At one awful big lick,
Make way for Fall Styles,
Which will come many miles
From the great metropolis,
And also from gay Paris,
So call soon, a bargain to make,
And a nice hat you'll get for not too late.

M. E. FISH,
MILLINERY.
10 CHESTNUT STREET, QUINCY.
Millinery and Hair Dressing.
Fancy Goods and Notions.
Hours, 12 to 2 P. M.

THE greatest Mark Down Sale of
TRIMMED HATS AND BONNETS
ever known in Quincy.

Call Early and Get Your Choice.
A. M. TINGLEY,
French Millinery Parlors.
Room 30 Adams Building,
QUINCY.

On same floor as Russell's studio.
NEW
Millinery
NEW STOCK OF
HATS AND BONNETS.
In Straw and Frames.
Latest Styles in Shapes, Colors and Material.
Mourning Goods a specialty.
MISS S. H. HUSSEY,
121 Hancock Street.
Opp. The Greenleaf.
Quincy, Oct. 13.

W. H. BENNETT
A word to house cleaners. I have been in the business two years as carpet cleaner, and all my work is done by hand, and at very low prices.
Agent for Lawn Dressing, Bulbs, Grass
Seed, Shrubs and Flowers of all kinds furnished to order at short notice.
All orders promptly attended to.
Residence, Faxon Block, 24 Chestnut St.
Lock Box 261, Quincy.
April 7.

Norfolk Mutual Fire Ins. Co.,
DEDHAM, MASS.
Statement January 1, 1894.
Amount at Risk, $18,986,176.34
Cash Assets, 470,145.50
Total Liabilities, including re-insurance, 145,810.61
Amount of Cash Surplus, 32,334.95
Contingent Assets, 75,941.53
Total Available Assets, 745,827.09
This Company insures Buildings and Household Furniture only strictly on the mutual plan.
It is now paying dividends on one and two
year policies, 5 per cent.; on three year policies, 50 per cent.; on 5 year policies, 10 per cent.
J. WHITE BELCHER, President.
ELIJAH HOWE, JR., Sec. and Treas.
HORACE B. SPEAR, Agent for Quincy
April 28.

QUINCY
Mutual Fire Insurance Co
INCORPORATED IN 1851.
COMMENCED BUSINESS IN 1851
CHAS. A. HOWLAND, WILLIAM H. BRYAN,
President, Secretary
CASH FUND JANUARY 1, 1893.
$627,778.42
(A gain of $17,751.82)
SURPLUS OVER ALL LIABILITIES.
(A gain of $13,839.98)
AMOUNT AT RISK, $22,583,088.
(A gain of $649,821.)
Losses paid in 1892, $50,352.29.
Dividends paid in 1892, $65,380.93.
Jan. 21.

INSURANCE AGENCY,
ESTABLISHED IN Quincy in the year
1849 by
W. PORTER & CO.
By W. PORTER & CO.,
At No. 27 State Street, Boston
Residence, Hancock Street, Quincy

DORCHESTER
MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE CO.,
OF BOSTON.
P. O. Address, Neponset, Mass.
JANUARY 1st, 1894.
Amount at Risk, $27,176,880.00
Cost to Re-insure and Pay Losses, 200,074.70
Cash Assets, 349,257.00
Deposit Notes, 418,349.39
Cash Surplus, 122,257.30
THOS. F. TEMPLE,
President and Treasurer.
Dividends, 1 year, 3 years, 5 years' policies
$5 $0 $5 per cent.

ÆTNA INSURANCE COMPANY
BARTFORD, CONN.
Incorporated 1819. Charter Perpetual.
Losses Paid in 75 Years $72,756,000.
JANUARY 1, 1894.
Cash Capital, $4,000,000.00
Reserve for Re-insurance, (Fire), 2,000,000.00
Reserve for Re-insurance, (Marine), 500,000.00
Reserve for Unpaid Losses, (Fire), 400,171.00
Reserve for Unpaid Losses, (Marine), 60,000.00
Total Assets, $6,500,000.00
Total Liabilities, $6,500,000.00
JOHN HARDWICK & CO.,
GRANITE STREET.
Agents for Quincy.

Burdett College
OF ACTUAL BUSINESS AND SHORTHAND.
624 Washington, cor. Kneeland Sts.,
BOSTON.
The following exclusive features have made the Burdett College the leading institution of its kind in the world.
It is the only College in Boston or Quincy which has the Patented System of Actual Business from the very first, which teaches business as it is, in both its English and Shorthand Departments.
It is the only College that teaches real business, and not the mere theory of it.
It is the only College that has a distinct department for the study of the English language, and not the mere theory of it.
It is the only College that has a distinct department for the study of the Shorthand
language, and not the mere theory of it.
Early registration necessary to secure a place. Prospective free. Tuition always low.

H. O. SOUTHER,
MASON AND CONTRACTOR.
AGENT FOR AKRON DRAIN AND SEWER PIPE,
Quincy, Mass.
Plain and Ornamental Brick Work,
Plastering and Cement Work.
ORNAMENTAL CENTRES
FURNISHED AND PUT UP.
Shop --- No. 4 Canal St.
Residence --- No. 142 Washington St.

Quincy Savings Bank,
145 Hancock Street, Quincy.
President, RUFERT F. CLAFIN.
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MARSH.
Treasurer and Secy., GEORGE L. GILL.
Board of Investment, RUFERT F. CLAFIN,
ELIAS A. PERKINS, JOHN F. CLARK,
EDWIN W. MARSH, JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
ELIAS A. PERKINS.
BANK HOURS: (On and after November 1, 1893) From 8:30 to 12 A. M. and 2 to 4
P. M.
Deposits placed on interest on the first
Tuesday of January, April, July and October.
Quincy, Oct. 1, 1893.

Ladies' and Children's
HAIR - DRESSING - PARLORS.
M. E. FISH,
10 Chestnut Street, - Quincy
Curling, Shampooing, Singeing, Bangs cut & Curled and Hair Dressing in all the latest styles for Street and evening.
Dec. 10.

Lace Curtains
Grass Bleached and Retinted.
EQUAL TO NEW.
James Oliver & Son
South St. Opposite Dr. Harlow's.
Box 25, Quincy Point, Mass.
Aug. 4.

ADAMSON'S
COUGH BALM
CURES
COUGHS,
COLDS, ASTHMA,
HAY FEVER
AND ALL DISEASES LEADING TO CONSUMPTION
Regular Sizes 35¢ & 75¢

JOHN G. THOMAS,
ROOFING.
Also Ready Roofing of all kinds.
Slate Roofs Cheaper than Shingles,
and makes your roof fire proof.
Residence, Warren Ave., Wollaston.
East side of Old Colony Railroad.
P. O. Box 144, Quincy.
June 13.

Fills the Bill.
B-L
Tobacco
satisfies every time.
Its flavor suits.

The Quincy Patriot.
PUBLISHED
Saturday Mornings,
---
GREEN & PRESCOTT
Editors and Proprietors.
THE PATRIOT is published in the
only city in Norfolk County, and is
one of the oldest newspapers in the
State, being established in 1837.
OFFICE OF PUBLICATION,
No. 115 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
TERMS: --- $2.50 per year in advance. $3.00
if not paid before the close of year.
M. ELIZABETH GREEN. GEO. W. PRESCOTT.

Poetry.
New Quincy High School.
DEDICATED SEPTEMBER 1894.

Vast old Egyptian sands for countless years
The pyramid of old-time Cleopatra gazed,
And silently watched the hopes and fears
Of centuries, now falling, now upraised.
Yet, through the lapse of time, its lips of stone
Had never whispered forth unto the world
The secret of its building, but unknown,
It kept the mystery, while the sand clouds hurled.

Their blinding storms upon its towering glow,
And robber winds lurked nightly in the
glow,
While desert birds and birds of omen creaked,
By walling cries pressed impending doom.
The years rolled by, till came an impious band,
Eager to work what time had spared to do;
Quick at the gesture of a lordling's hand,
Of gold, whereof the sun-lit sheen might blind
Some Cleopatra rich in Beauty's wiles.
Yet, after weary search, they came at last
By brutal force upon an angry way.
That led them first with trembling fear
Agast,
Adown, then upward rose, as if at bay,
Still onward toiling, to a room they came,
All gazed by great blocks of massive
stone,
Here surely was the treasure-house that fame
Had rumored of so widely --- here alone!

Into that chamber pressing fearful on,
With palling clouds and many a timorous
kneer,
What found these bold intruders, now so wan?
An empty casket in its silent heart!
And must men labor, suffer, bleed and die,
To build for tyrant royalty a tomb?
Weeping, History answers with a sigh:
"Such was, alas! in ancient times their doom."

For them the task, for them the master hand,
For them the groans and tears that slavery knows,
For them the famished lips unsung by bard,
For them the task that only death could close.

Not such the fate Columbia's workmen knew:
They carry stone and shape it proudly free,
Their grandly self-respecting way they go,
And add their part to glories yet to be.
In lofty building, monument and tower,
To grandly cherish with an artist's skill,
We mark a beauty, nobleness and power,
That glisters in our glorious land from ill.

On the Acropolis of Athens' wealth the soft blue Grecian sky, Built the Greeks a glorious temple, broad and beautiful and high, Firm and deep were the foundations, laid to last through countless years,
And the fame was consecrated by the prayers of bards and seers.

"Parthenon" they called that temple,
temple of Athens fair,
Virgin goddess, wisdom-lover, Queen of Athens sun-lit air,
Fearsless laid the din of battle, Patron of the Athenian town,
Lover of the Attic olive, lover of the violet crown.

Stately columns simply Doric beauty lent unto that fame,
Artists of the old-time genius to grand thoughts gave loosed rein:
Architraves above the columns, pediment,
and glorious frieze,
With its Pan-Athenian pageant, and its eternal power to please.
Noble, sacred Architecture! Sculpture pure
and not surpassed!
Manhood reaching up toward heaven, earthly
and makes your roof fire proof.

When moonlight babbled languid round
that marble temple fair,
And the nightingale with music filled the
soft, caressing air,
Then the soul was all enraptured with the
majesty and charm,
Still, was every baser passion, hushed was every alarm.

Athena, I have ever loved thee, even from
my childhood days:
I have pictured thee in fancy in the sunset's
golden haze:
I have loved thy hands and prophetic architects and sculptors grand,
Loved thy orators and statesmen, world-
renowned and peerless hand.

And the music of thy language lingers in my memory still,
All its majesty and sweetness gloriously
being still,
And thy thoughts forever spoken, and thy
deeds of deathless fame,
Through the ages they shall echo, city of il-
lustries name.

I had hoped ere yet last autumn tangles our Quincy woods to glow
With the crimson, golden splendor that
New England's forests know, Grown might be among the studies offered to
our Quincy youth,
As the finest means of culture in the eternal
search for truth.

The City of the Seven Hills her Colosseum
built,
And there before Rome's greedy eyes a sea
of blood was spilt:
These glowing eyes beheld with joy the
pangs of man or beast,
As starving eyes with ravenous glaze devour
a forbidden feast.
Ten times ten thousand people watched the
gladiators' fight,
And hailed each duty given thrust with frenzy of delight.

Here no maiden martyr, pure as snow on some
 lone Alpine height,
Took one last lingering look of earth, then turned to Heaven's light.

And while the Roman eagles flew victorious
o'er the world,
And while the Roman banners waved to
every breeze unfurled,
Such scenes as home-sapped Roman strength,
and gave Rome to the foe;
And those who smiled at captives' pain, bewailed their own dire woes.
What thought they built of massive stone a
' theatre of gore?
What thought the eager thousands swept through every crowded door?
What thought imperial Caesars sat in guilty
luxury then,
To watch the struggles, wounds and death of their own fellow-men?
Not stately buildings reared on wrong can "constitute a state,"
Not stone on stone, however grand, can make a nation great.

The storm-cloud, gathering mightily over the Gothic Northmen sky, Burst on the vaulted power of Rome, and found that power a lie.
And thus fell Rome, and Athens, too, fell thus Egyptian power --- Remorseless Fate ate bids her time, and wielded the appointed hour.
Egypt to build her royal tombs must crush
the people's right, Athens a fate to fabled Gods must martyr
keep in slavery could not quit."
And Roman cruelty must gloat o'er martyrs' dying breath,
Within a Colosseum reared for torture and for death.

God grant these lessons be not lost on this fair land of ours!
God grant no poison lurks unseen in fair Columbia's flowers!
And, when we build, we'll question first
what is the earnest-quest;
On Truth and Right we'll rear our walls, on these, and these alone!

Dear Quincy, City of beauty, by the shores of the sounding sea,
What song shall I sing in thine honor, what song is worthy of thee?
Shall I tell of our hero fathers who battled the Briton's power?
Shall I speak of the women heroic, of beauty and strength the flower?
Shall I tell how through siege and battle beneath War's blood-spent hail, Through hunger and want and grieving they suffered, but they could not quit." Shall I speak of our old-time statesmen and their burning love for our land?
Speak of Adams, and Quincy, and Hancock,
the world will understand.
The past in the casket of story, like a jewel flashes bright,
The present is hurrying past us, day dawns
and then comes night;
Let me sing of the glorious future; forth from the eastern skies
A dream of rosy promise hath gladdened our scaling eyes.

And I know by the day-spring beauty, by the glint of the growing light,
That an era is fast upon us with promise and bright.
Call the rich and the poor together within this noble hall,
Teach them the greatest lesson: God made and loves all.
Teach him who is poor in money, there is a greater wealth than this;
Send the poor boy to the college, he will hold his own; I say;
For knowledge, and wisdom, and honor belong to one class.
And the prizes of life are waiting for the star who shall surpass.
No caste, no class, no faction, no prejudice,
No North, no South, no East, no West --- Union's glorious light!

No warning of nation with nation, no clashing of hostile clans,
For come we from what state we may, we are all Americans.
Go! for the day-spring heraldeth her light in a golden shower!
Up! on the sky is written: "Now is the time."
Shortly after the appointed hour the exercises commenced and were carried out according to the following programme:

President of the Day, Dr. Joseph M. Sheahan
Chorus, His Honor, Mayor
Invocation, Rev. Daniel Munroe Wilson
Delivery of Building to Mayor,
Commissioner of Public Works
William N. Eaton
His Honor, Mayor
William A. Hodges
Acceptance, Chairman of School Board
Emory L. Crane
Reception of Keys, Frederick Allison Tupper
Remarks, His Excellency
Address, Gov. Frederick T. Greenleaf
Ole, My Quincy by the Sea,
High School
Words by Frederic Allison Tupper Presentation of Flag,
Paul Revere Post 88 G. A. R.
L. M. Holt, Commander
Star Spangled Banner,
Soloist, Miss Mary F. White
Joseph M. Sheahan, M. D., Sub-committee of the High school, who have been as president of the day, and who have served us faithfully many years in the history of our High school.

Hints on Health.
This department is under the charge of Dr. J.
NEWTON JONES, of Norfolk Down, who will contribute an article of general interest to our readers.

TYPHOID FEVER.
We have now reached the season of the year when typhoid or gastric fever usually is upon us. The months of August, September, October and November have been specially noted as the likeliest time for the outbreak of typhoid fever. We can readily understand the reason of this,
as the old-time genius to grand
thoughts gave loosed rein:
Architraves above the columns, pediment,
and glorious frieze,
With its Pan-Athenian pageant, and its
eternal power to please.
Noble, sacred Architecture! Sculpture pure
and not surpassed!
Manhood reaching up toward heaven, earthly
and makes your roof fire proof.

When moonlight babbled languid round
that marble temple fair,
And the nightingale with music filled the
soft, caressing air,
Then the soul was all enraptured with the
majesty and charm,
Still, was every baser passion, hushed was
every alarm.

Athena, I have ever loved thee, even from
my childhood days:
I have pictured thee in fancy in the sunset's
golden haze:
I have loved thy hands and prophetic architects and sculptors grand,
Loved thy orators and statesmen, world-
renowned and peerless hand.

And the music of thy language lingers in my
memory still,
All its majesty and sweetness gloriously
being still,
And thy thoughts forever spoken, and thy
deeds of deathless fame,
Through the ages they shall echo, city of il-
lustries name.

I had hoped ere yet last autumn tangles our Quincy woods to glow
With the crimson, golden splendor that
New England's forests know,
Grown might be among the studies offered to
our Quincy youth,
As the finest means of culture in the eternal
search for truth.

The City of the Seven Hills her Colosseum
built,
And there before Rome's greedy eyes a sea
of blood was spilt:
These glowing eyes beheld with joy the
pangs of man or beast,
As starving eyes with ravenous glaze devour
a forbidden feast.
Ten times ten thousand people watched the
gladiators' fight,
And hailed each duty given thrust with
frenzy of delight.

Here no maiden martyr, pure as snow on some
 lone Alpine height,
Took one last lingering look of earth, then
turned to Heaven's light.

And while the Roman eagles flew victorious
o'er the world,
And while the Roman banners waved to
every breeze unfurled,
Such scenes as home-sapped Roman strength,
and gave Rome to the foe;
And those who smiled at captives' pain, be-
wailed their own dire woes.
What thought they built of massive stone a
' theatre of gore?
What thought the eager thousands swept
through every crowded door?
What thought imperial Caesars sat in guilty
luxury then,
To watch the struggles, wounds and death of their own fellow-men?
Not stately buildings reared on

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 15, 1894.

The Woodward.

The second term of the Woodward Institute has opened most auspiciously. On Tuesday there were in attendance 119 young ladies, which number will probably be swelled to 125 before the time for entering closes.

Increased accommodations must be provided as every room is more than filled and the library has been given up for a recreation room, and at present there is no room in the building where the pupils can be accommodated at one time.

Although the institution has been open less than a year, its fame, if it can be said to have obtained such, has reached far and wide, for Miss Small informs us that she has had applications from twenty-two young ladies from other towns who desire to attend the institute who do not know that it is for Quincy girls only.

Plans are being made for additions to the building which it is hoped will soon be completed and the needed additions made. The corps of teachers this year is the same as that of the first term with the addition of Miss Kate Felice Overman, teacher of German and French, and Miss Georgiana Lane, teacher of drawing.

Lecture on Mexico.

Mr. George W. Pennington, of Brockton, a native of Quincy who has become widely known in the lecture field, has been engaged to deliver three brilliantly illustrated lectures on Mexico. Mr. Pennington has recently returned from that country, where he went with a special photographer to secure material for his lectures. The results were beyond his expectations, and he has prepared three lectures that for wealth of information and illustration, with reference to this almost unknown country, are the most interesting he has ever given. He opened his season in Brockton last week, and the Enterprise after referring to the crowded house said:

"George W. Pennington has delivered a great number of splendid lectures in this city, but none of them were superior to that delivered last night. The lecturer, on the evening of Labor day at Mass. State Hall, his eloquent word pictures of Mexico and the additional pictures of the country, his stories, anecdotes and reminiscences of his trip through Mexico, all served to make the evening one of the most enjoyable.

This course promises to be a rare treat for our people and Mr. Pennington will probably speak to large audiences in this city.

Price Speaking.

Wendell G. Corbitt, Esq., once more offers prizes for public declamation. Excellence in the regular rhetorical work of the school will be the basis on which contestants for these prizes will be selected. The results of previous contests have been a source of profit and gratification to all concerned. The prizes will consist of $75 worth of books by standard authors. There will be at least five prizes varying from $25 to $5.

Dr. Joseph M. Sheahan, sub-committee of the High school, again offers prizes for excellence in English composition and in translation from Latin and from French. The amount of the prizes will be $12 worth of books. Each class is offered a prize of $5 for the best English composition, and two dollars extra will be awarded the pupil who offers the best essay of all.

A prize of $5 is offered each of the following classes—Cicero, Virgil, Caesar and French.

The subjects for essays are as follows:

1. The Dangers of the Republic.
  2. The Autobiography of a Striker.
  3. The Maypole of Merry Mount.
  4. (Originally "Mare-Mount," see "New England Canaan.")
  5. Star-Gazing.
  6. Some Results of Selfishness.
  7. The Good Old Times.
- Class of 1895.
1. Practical Applications of the Lever.
  2. Historical Associations of the Stone Temple.
  3. A Ride from Quincy to Boston.
  4. Waste not, Want not.
  5. True Riches.
  6. In Search of the Golden Fleece.
- Class of 1896.
1. A Visit to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.
  2. Every Night has its Duty.
  3. An Old Attic.
  4. Paul Boyer's Ride.
  5. The Value of Latin.
  6. My Life Work.
- Class of 1898.
1. Why I Came to the High School.
  2. Pupils' Rights.
  3. A Journey Around My House.
  4. Nature Study.
  5. How Can I Make the Most of Myself?
  6. An Indian Summer Day-Drum.
  7. Why Salute the Flag?

The passages selected for translation are as follows:

Cicero, 1807, "Gallic War"—Book 4, Chapters 25 and 26.

Virgil, 1806, "Æneid"—Book 6, lines 205-236.

Cicero, 1805, "Pompey's Military Command"—Chapter 1.

French—Charles XII, "Book Second, Chapter First, as far as 'It partly purports a premature campaign'.

General Statements.

1. All translations and all essays must be handed in on or before Tuesday, 1894.
2. Translations and essays must be signed with an assumed name.
3. Together with each translation and each essay there must be handed in a sealed envelope containing: 1.—Both the assumed name and the real name of the pupil. 2.—A statement to this effect: "The essay or the translation offered by—(pupil's name) is my own unaided work."
4. Use examination paper. Write on only one side of the paper.
5. Neatness, spelling, and penmanship should be kept constantly in mind. Clear, vigorous, and idiomatic English is always acceptable to the judges.

In the DAILY LEDGER of Tuesday appeared the names of the alumni of the Quincy High school, a reprint from the City Book of 1892. The list is far from accurate. There are probably omissions, changes of name by marriage, and also deaths not noted by asterisks. Sup. Lall desires to obtain a correct list, as an annual association will soon be formed. As the edition of the Ledger of Tuesday is exhausted the list with some corrections will be republished on Monday. Please revise the names and send corrections, together with present addresses either to Sup. Lall, or Frank P. Prescott, 77, at Lincoln office. The list will be republished in the PATRIOT of Sept. 22, and it is hoped that then it will be as correct as possible.

Lawn Party.

A very pretty and largely attended lawn party was held Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. George McFarlane on Merrymount road, under the auspices of the Unity circle of King's Daughters. The grounds and pond were brilliantly illuminated and there were various tables for the sale of ice cream and cake and fancy articles.

There was also plenty of amusement provided in the form of boats upon the pond, a phrenologist, fortune-teller and appearance of the ghosts. There was also singing by a quartette composed of Messrs. Ferguson, Jones, Henry and Osborne, selections by Ross's Orchestra. A good sum was realized.

CITY BRIEFS.

Autumn begins Sept. 22.—Old Farmer's Almanac.

Mr. Samuel Crane is recovering from a serious illness.

The scenery is delightful on the new Quarry railroad.

A valuable estate on Franklin street is advertised for sale.

There was a slight frost in this vicinity Wednesday morning.

John McDougall, clerk at the Post office, is enjoying a vacation.

The nights will get the best of the days before the month is out.

Merrymount lodge, A. C. U. W., are to shortly occupy new quarters.

The old Ebenezer Bent store on Washington street, is being remodelled.

The hydrants are receiving their annual coat of black paint with white tops.

The programmes for the High School dedication were from the PATRIOT press.

Edwin W. Marsh has a sunflower stalk in his garden that has over 100 buds on it.

There were no games Saturday in the Old Colony League on account of rain.

Chief of Police Hayden has ten cases before the September term of the Superior court.

The enrolment at the High school will be published by classes in the LEDGER tomorrow.

Ex-City Treasurer Adams is rapidly sinking. There are but slight hopes entertained of his recovery.

Republican caucuses will be held next Wednesday evening in all wards of the city to choose all delegates.

The Registrars of Voters will meet next Thursday and Saturday evenings to put names on the voting lists.

Miss Charlotte Pratt of North Weymouth has accepted a position as organist of the Universalist church.

The new house of Eben W. Shepard Greenleaf street is up and boarded, and will be a fine residence.

Mrs. Levi D. Berry and children have just returned from a two months' vacation spent at Prospect Ferry, Maine.

The Thayer academy at Braintree opened Wednesday. The new Glover-White gymnasium will be dedicated early in October.

According to the Blue books the State tax of Quincy in 1893 was $10,375 and in 1894, $12,400; or $2,025 less this year than last.

Mr. Stedman Williams' family leave us this week and go to Baldwinville, Mass., to reside. Their many friends here will greet them.

The work of rebuilding President's bridge is slowly nearing completion. The old structure was demolished and replaced by a new one.

As the bonds of the recent appropriation have not been received as yet the Water Commissioners have taken no action in voting new extensions.

Chief of Police Hayden is having good luck with his cases in the superior court. He has secured a conviction thus far of nine out of his ten cases.

Henry H. Faxon was elected a vice president at the permanent organization of the Prohibitory State convention at Worcester on Thursday.

The hand in today's paper is conspicuous and there is no doubt that Quincy people will be glad to attend in large numbers the Brockton fair.

The Prohibition caucus elected these delegates to attend each of the conventions: W. W. Marple, Henry Chubbuck, Rev. J. H. Yeoman and Miss Eva Brown.

A preliminary meeting of the Quincy Musical and Social club was held Monday evening in Adams building. Forty-nine names were suggested for membership.

The steamer City of Quincy passes the sunken steamer J. Putnam Bradley on its regular trip to Nantasket, and many will take the opportunity thus presented to see her.

At a meeting of the Republican City committee held Wednesday evening, R. G. Sears was elected as treasurer to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Shaw.

The Guild of the Great Teacher will meet in the ladies' parlour Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Topic: "Mercy and not Sacrifice." All young people and others are welcome.

Mr. Johnson while driving Gavin & Hirtle's team on Temple street, this morning, was thrown out landing heavily on his side in the street. Fortunately he was not seriously injured.

Charles L. Prescott, of the Temple Street Fish Market, furnished a large tub of bait for the merchants who went on a fishing excursion Tuesday on board the steamer City of Quincy.

Antonio Masiac, the Italian held for the grand jury for the larceny of bush hammers at Quincy some weeks ago was sentenced at Dedham this week for two years in the State prison.

Evening services will be resumed in Christ's church on Sunday next at 7 p. m. The pastor will speak on "The Duty of Happiness." Music by the Vested choir of men and boys under the direction of Prof. F. Wrigley.

The new High school building is a grand place in which to hold reunions of the alumni and the school authorities encourage the formation of an association.

A preliminary meeting will soon be called.

The moonlight trip on the steamer City of Quincy have been discontinued because of the cool evenings. The day trips to Nantasket continue, and there will be a large party on the trip to Gloucester on Friday.

Saturday afternoon there will be a great game of ball at North Weymouth on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

Charles A. Howard and John O. Holden were the two leaders in the Old Colony league the Quinques and Institutes. The banners for this game will be: Quinques—Connors and Durrell; Institutes—Bass and Stack.

The members of the Granite City club and their ladies enjoyed a lively game of drive-wheel at the club rooms on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Warren H. Riddett took the lady's prize. Mr. Charles E. Stetson the gentlemen's. At the conclusion of the game nice peaches, plums and grapes were enjoyed.

ATLANTIC.

The Atlantic band will give a social dance at music hall the last of this month.

Miss Belle Moseley, bookkeeper at Timberlake & Small, is enjoying her vacation in New York.

The Quincy & Boston street railway have been granted a location in Neponset, from the bridge to the tracks of the old Mattapan branch of the N. Y., N. H. & H. railroad, and will commence at once to extend its tracks across the bridge to that point.

The Herald states that Dr. W. G. Kendall of Atlantic, captain of the mammoth road race to be given by the association of all the cycling clubs of this vicinity on Wednesday, Ten years ago no cycling event was considered complete unless the doctor took a prominent part in it, either as referee, judge or promoter, and it is with pleasure that we welcome his return to the fold.

The seventh reunion and dinner of the New England Society of California Pioneers was held on Saturday at the United States hotel, Boston. Among the directors elected for the coming year were Mr. William G. Prescott, of Quincy and Mr. Israel Waterhouse of Wollaston. Mr. Waterhouse first went to California by water in 1850, returning home in 1854. In 1857 he again went to California by water, residing there until 1860, when he came to Boston to reside.

Postmaster Wilde of Wollaston, who is always alive to the interests of the patrons of that office, has had another mail for Boston added, which closes at 6:45 A. M., and also a new one from Boston, which arrives at 7:25 P. M. This mail five Boston mails each way per day, and one to and from Quincy and the South Shore.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet on Friday at 3 o'clock in the Baptist church. Mrs. Carrington of Hyde Park, one of our State Superintendents, will address the meeting.

St. Christopher's church, now building on Hancock street has engaged an experienced director for their choir, now being formed. Persons wishing to join, may apply by letter to Box 72, Wollaston. The church will hold services on Friday, 1:21, 1:20 and 1:19. Jack Williams was the starter and timer.

The large Clifford has been hailed up at Quincy Point for the winter.

The steamer City of Quincy will make an outside trip Saturday afternoon.

John Kent of Arnold street had a night blooming cereus blossom on Tuesday night. Only the tax bills for Ward One are out. Quincy Point post may expect theirs Saturday or the first of the week.

Letters are advertised for the following named persons at the Quincy Post office: Miss May M. Dunn, Mrs. Allan J. Fowler and Mrs. George F. Frazee.

The Porter and Hayden families of Quincy Point, to the number of 40 or 50 had a family reunion on Tuesday at Lovell's grove. George Thurber served an excellent clambake. There was instrumental music and other attractions, and it was an enjoyable occasion.

The new Episcopal church on Hancock street, is nearing completion. Walter Holland, freeman at Norfolk Downs, has gone to Ohio, on a vacation trip.

A Detective Shot.

Somebody blundered at Braintree Saturday night and as a result Edward Sprague is in a dangerous condition at the City Hospital in Boston, having been shot by Edward P. Jackson, who supposed Sprague was a thief. For some time past the N. Y., N. H. & H. Railroad have had the jewelry stolen from the freight cars left standing on the side track.

Officer Damon was instructed to investigate the case and Saturday night, there were a number of cars at Braintree, he and Special Officer Jackson went to the place. It is stated they caught a man in the act of carrying off a load of sleepers which they obliged him to leave, but did not arrest him, as he was well known and could be found when needed for the place.

Unknown to Officers Damon and Jackson, Detectives Spratt and McKenzie were sent out from Boston to look out for the thieves.

Spratt and McKenzie were examining the journals when Damon and Jackson sprang upon them.

Officer Damon, it is alleged, told the two men he was an officer, but no attention was paid to it, and Spratt and McKenzie attacked Damon and Jackson with their bludgeons, when Jackson fired his revolver, the shots taking effect in Spratt's body.

Believing that Spratt and McKenzie were thieves, Jackson went to Boston with them, where Spratt was taken to the Massachusetts General Hospital.

Jackson and McKenzie were not allowed to return, but were locked up by officers of station 4, to be released Sunday.

One Hundred Members.

The Loyal Ladies of Clan McGregor No. 1, with their husbands and friends, celebrated the occasion of their attainment to 100 members, Tuesday evening. It was a brilliant and social event. Dancing was engaged in and kept up till about 11 o'clock, when a few of the ladies and gentlemen present contributed very much to the enjoyment of the evening by rendering various songs. A bounteous collation was served by the amusement committee and dancing was again resumed and kept up with spirit until 1 o'clock, when all joined hands around the hall and sang the old familiar song, "Auld Lang Syne." Mrs. Maggie Smith and Miss Henrietta Eason presided at the piano, and were accompanied by Mr. James Giles on the violin. Mr. D. M. Drummond acted as prompter. The floor was under the direction of the amusement committee.

Through an Open Draw.

Locomotive SS which takes the Cape express through Quincy to Boston about 1 P. M., daily, jumped through the open draw in Port Point channel Wednesday about 2 o'clock while running out to South Boston, and is still in the mud. The tow boat company are trying to raise it with a floating derrick. The engine was to take out the 5:10 train. It is valued at $6,000, but may not be much damaged. Engineer Whittemore and Fireman Clark escaped injury, but were suspended.

Thanks. Swithin Bros., monumental makers of this city, have our thanks for a handsome piece of polished granite which bears the following inscription:

"This was cut and polished from a granite which the First Railroad in the United States."

The block from which it was cut was used in building the railroad from North Weymouth to the Neponset river in 1828.

First Church. The first meeting of the Sunday School connected with the First Unitarian church, will be held tomorrow at twelve o'clock. It is very important that all the old scholars, as well as new ones joining the school this year, should come to this first meeting of the school, for the superintendent wishes to get the classes arranged and lessons begun as soon as possible. A hearty welcome is extended to all who may wish to join the school this year.

Saturday Shoot.

The rain on Saturday afternoon interfered considerably with the Wollaston Trap club scores. D. B. Lincoln was high man, breaking 15. The average was 11.6. But three club members took part in the shoot.

The three.

D. B. Lincoln, 1110010101110101010100-15
J. C. Moore, 1110010101010101010101-13
C. M. Walker, 111001010101010101010101-12
C. L. Prescott, 1110010101010101010101-11
R. E. Sanborn, 111001010101010101010101-10
C. M. Walker, 1110010101010101010101-9
J. C. Moore, 1110010101010101010101-8
D. B. Lincoln, 1110010101010101010101-7

"Not club members.

C. C. Damm, 70 Kneeland street, Boston, is better prepared than ever to furnish you with the Butter and Eggs at a moderate cost. Fresh delivery and goods guaranteed. Tear, coffee and flour was never so low in price.

2p0

Mr. A. T. Leavitt is now the high man of the pipe stem shoot at the Duck's Nest, Wollaston. He has broken 33 out of 50.

Mr. David A. Lincoln, a well known resident of Wollaston, died Wednesday.

The Herald reports Frank E. Poulton of Wollaston to have been arrested for embezzlement of $415 from the grocery store of George B. Emerson on Beach street, Boston, early in 1893. He waived examination and was held in $1000 for the grand jury.

The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the organ and an illuminated motto with the words, "Pilgrim union, welcome," was placed over the recess in the rear of the platform. In the vestry, arranged as a drawing room, and decorated with flowers, rugs and parlor lamps, from tables resplendent with china and silver ware, cake, coffee and fruit were served to visitors during the entire evening. The program was substantially as follows:

6 to 7 o'clock—Reception to Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., presiding elder, and other invited guests.

7 to 7:15—Business session. John Mansfield, of Atlantic, presided, and the minister in the chair. Singing by quartette consisting of Dr. Colgan, Mr. Bullock, Mrs. Saxe and Miss Baker.

7:15 to 7:30—Love feast in charge of C. W. W. Wollaston.

7:30—Address of welcome to visiting ladies by Miss Rena M. Chamberlin.

7:45 to 8:15—Introduction of invited guests to Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., presiding elder of the Boston south district, Rev. N. Upham of the Baker Memorial church, secretary of the New England district league, Rev. G. A. Phinney of the Dorchester church, president of the Boston district league, and Rev. C. Kimball of Dedham, president of the Boston west circuit. All made brief and happy responses, followed by a solo by Mrs. Saxe and singing by quartette, Mrs. Siggins taking the place of Miss Baker.

8:15 to 8:30—Address by Rev. Luther Freeman of Waltham, formerly pastor of the Wollaston church. Topic: "What to Live for." Singing by quartette, followed by the benediction by Dr. Mansfield. After that the church adjourned to the Kimball hall of Dedham, president of the Boston west circuit. All made brief and happy responses, followed by a solo by Mrs. Saxe and singing by quartette, Mrs. Siggins taking the place of Miss Baker.

8:30 to 8:45—Introduction of invited guests to Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., presiding elder of the Boston south district, Rev. N. Upham of the Baker Memorial church, secretary of the New England district league, Rev. G. A. Phinney of the Dorchester church, president of the Boston district league, and Rev. C. Kimball of Dedham, president of the Boston west circuit. All made brief and happy responses, followed by a solo by Mrs. Saxe and singing by quartette, Mrs. Siggins taking the place of Miss Baker.

8:45 to 9:00—Love feast in charge of C. W. W. Wollaston.

9:00—Address of welcome to visiting ladies by Miss Rena M. Chamberlin.

9:15 to 9:45—Introduction of invited guests to Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., presiding elder of the Boston south district, Rev. N. Upham of the Baker Memorial church, secretary of the New England district league, Rev. G. A. Phinney of the Dorchester church, president of the Boston district league, and Rev. C. Kimball of Dedham, president of the Boston west circuit. All made brief and happy responses, followed by a solo by Mrs. Saxe and singing by quartette, Mrs. Siggins taking the place of Miss Baker.

9:45 to 10:00—Love feast in charge of C. W. W. Wollaston.

10:00—Address of welcome to visiting ladies by Miss Rena M. Chamberlin.

10:15 to 10:45—Introduction of invited guests to Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., presiding elder of the Boston south district, Rev. N. Upham of the Baker Memorial church, secretary of the New England district league, Rev. G. A. Phinney of the Dorchester church, president of the Boston district league, and Rev. C. Kimball of Dedham, president of the Boston west circuit. All made brief and happy responses, followed by a solo by Mrs. Saxe and singing by quartette, Mrs. Siggins taking the place of Miss Baker.

10:45 to 11:00—Love feast in charge of C. W. W. Wollaston.

11:00—Address of welcome to visiting ladies by Miss Rena M. Chamberlin.

11:15 to 11:45—Introduction of invited guests to Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., presiding elder of the Boston south district, Rev. N. Upham of the Baker Memorial church, secretary of the New England district league, Rev. G. A. Phinney of the Dorchester church, president of the Boston district league, and Rev. C. Kimball of Dedham, president of the Boston west circuit. All made brief and happy responses, followed by a solo by Mrs. Saxe and singing by quartette, Mrs. Siggins taking the place of Miss Baker.

11:45 to 12:00—Love feast in charge of C. W. W. Wollaston.

12:00—Address of welcome to visiting ladies by Miss Rena M. Chamberlin.

12:15 to 12:45—Introduction of invited guests to Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., presiding elder of the Boston south district, Rev. N. Upham of the Baker Memorial church, secretary of the New England district league, Rev. G. A. Phinney of the Dorchester church, president of the Boston district league, and Rev. C. Kimball of Dedham, president of the Boston west circuit. All made brief and happy responses, followed by a solo by Mrs. Saxe and singing by quartette, Mrs. Siggins taking the place of Miss Baker.

12:45 to 1:00—Love feast in charge of C. W. W. Wollaston.

1:00—Address of welcome to visiting ladies by Miss Rena M. Chamberlin.

1:15 to 1:45—Introduction of invited guests to Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., presiding elder of the Boston south district, Rev. N. Upham of the Baker Memorial church, secretary of the New England district league, Rev. G. A. Phinney of the Dorchester church, president of the Boston district league, and Rev. C. Kimball of Dedham, president of the Boston west circuit. All made brief and happy responses, followed by a solo by Mrs. Saxe and singing by quartette, Mrs. Siggins taking the place of Miss Baker.

1:45 to 2:00—Love feast in charge of C. W. W. Wollaston.

2:00—Address of welcome to visiting ladies by Miss Rena M. Chamberlin.

2:15 to 2:45—Introduction of invited guests to Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., presiding elder of the Boston south district, Rev. N. Upham of the Baker Memorial church, secretary of the New England district league, Rev. G. A. Phinney of the Dorchester church, president of the Boston district league, and Rev. C. Kimball of Dedham, president of the Boston west circuit. All made brief and happy responses, followed by a solo by Mrs. Saxe and singing by quartette, Mrs. Siggins taking the place of Miss Baker.

2:45 to 3:00—Love feast in charge of C. W. W. Wollaston.

3:00—Address of welcome to visiting ladies by Miss Rena M. Chamberlin.

3:15 to 3:45—Introduction of invited guests to Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., presiding elder of the Boston south district, Rev. N. Upham of the Baker Memorial church, secretary of the New England district league, Rev. G. A. Phinney of the Dorchester church, president of the Boston district league, and Rev. C. Kimball of Dedham, president of the Boston west circuit. All made brief and happy responses, followed by a solo by Mrs. Saxe and singing by quartette, Mrs. Siggins taking the place of Miss Baker.

3:45 to 4:00—Love feast in charge of C. W. W. Wollaston.

4:00—Address of welcome to visiting ladies by Miss Rena M. Chamberlin.

4:15 to 4:45—Introduction of invited guests to Rev. J

The Quincy Patriot.

Published weekly, except on Sundays and holidays.

Death of Bryant N. Adams.

Ex-City Treasurer Bryant N. Adams, whose death has been hourly expected for some time past, died Tuesday morning shortly after 9 o'clock.

Mr. Adams was son of the late Josiah Adams, well known in Quincy as a pump maker, and was born in Quincy, Feb. 4, 1836. He received his education in the public schools, and later entered the employ of a Boston shoe firm for whom he auctioned many cases of boots. Later he was sent west as a drummer and was one, if not the first, of the eastern shoe men to enter the west. In 1850 he moved to the branch house in Kansas, of which Mr. Adams was placed in charge.

He remained there about four years when he returned to Boston where he remained until shortly after the close of the war. Then he opened a shoe store for himself in Norfolk, Va., where he remained about two years.

He again returned to Boston where he engaged in the shoe business for some time, when he returned to Quincy, where he began farming at Quincy Neck, gradually working into the auctioneering and real estate business. For some time up to the time of his death he did much at both his city business and at his time was always fully occupied.

In 1887 he was elected tax collector and served the town until it became a city when he was reappointed and served faithfully to the present year.

Shortly after the inauguration of the city government Mr. Adams was appointed as City Treasurer, succeeding Horace B. Spear. This office he has filled since that time, up to a few weeks ago when he resigned on account of failing health, his resignation taking effect Sept. 1.

This year in addition to being appointed City Treasurer Mr. Adams was appointed Principal Assessor, a position which he held on account of ill health.

He leaves a widow, and a son and daughter by a first wife.

Funeral services over the late Bryant N. Adams, ex-City Treasurer, were held Thursday afternoon from his late residence on Canal street. Mayor Hodges and most of the department officials of the city were present, and many other business associates, prominent citizens, relatives and friends.

Rev. Ellery C. Butler of the First church conducted the services, and he was assisted by ex-Mayor Fairbanks and ex-Mayor Porter. Mr. Adams was city treasurer, and tax collector under both executives and they each eulogized the deceased.

The remains were enclosed in a white casket.

The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. The widow's offering was a very large closed box inscribed "Final Adieu" and was inscribed "City Government," and there were other designs, bouquets, etc.

The interment was at Mount Wollaston. The following distinguished citizens acted as pall bearers: Mayor Hodges, ex-Mayor Porter, ex-Mayor Fairbanks, City Treasurer Burgh, Principal Assessor Federlin, Auditor John O. Hall, Assessor F. C. Pope, and Clerk of Council C. A. Spear.

About Ourselves.

A dissolution of the co-partnership, which has pleasantly existed for over a quarter of a century between the publishers of the QUINCY PATRIOT, is contemplated; and as there are many rumors about which have no foundation in fact, we briefly give our readers the particulars.

Both parties are agreed that their shall be a dissolution and both are anxious to secure complete control. Failing to agree as to the most equitable method of effecting the dissolution, Mrs. Green petitioned the Superior court for the appointment of a receiver, and the sale of the plant at public auction. The case came up Thursday before Judge Bradley in equity session in Boston, the plaintiff being Mrs. Green, by W. G. A. Pattee, Esq., and the defendant by Hon. Everett C. Bumpus. Mr. Prescott objected to the appointment of a receiver, and expressed a desire to take the plant at a price to be determined in any way the court might decide, claiming that he was in good health and able to carry on the business, while Mrs. Green was an invalid and unable to conduct the affairs. The plaintiff argued that there should be no discrimination between partners.

The court refused to appoint a receiver and did not endorse a public auction. It was then mutually agreed that a special committee be appointed to make an appraisal of the plant, and that he should then receive bids from the partners only, stating the amount they would give over and above appraisal. Meanwhile the business to continue as at present under the management of Mr. Prescott. The plant of Green & Prescott is a valuable one, which both of the partners fully realize, and it will be continued in the management of one or the other.

Run Over and Killed.

A serious runaway accident occurred Thursday morning on Elm street at the corner of South street.

Mrs. Ann Fay who resides on Union street, was on her way to church and reached the above corner when a horse attached to Goodhue's grocery wagon dashed down the hill and before Mrs. Fay could move, the horse struck her, knocking her down and passing over and continued in his mad career.

Mrs. Fay was carried into a neighboring house and Mrs. Welch and Sheahan were soon on hand and removed her to her home.

The physicians found that she was severely injured on the left side and perhaps internally.

Mrs. Fay died shortly after 11 o'clock from injuries received. She leaves several sons and a daughter.

The horse started from the yard of Charles Jones on South street where he had been left a few moments. The wagon was left on South street at the foot of the hill and the horse continued up town where he was stopped.

A Model Office.

We had the pleasure on Saturday last, with many other editors of the Suburban Press Association, of examining the new brick office of the Somerville Journal. It is a pretty building, very nicely arranged for the convenience of editors, reporters, compositors and pressmen; and in all respects is probably one of the best weekly newspaper offices in the country. It was built by the Journal Company for its own use, and has many modern improvements. We congratulate the company on its success, and hope it will continue to prosper; publishing, as does, one of the best weekly newspapers in Middlesex County.

After inspecting the building the editors were invited to the banquet hall in the corner building, where a lunch was served. After indulging in the good things on the table, J. O. Hayden, president of the Somerville Journal, called the editors to order and after welcoming the guests, introduced A. E. Winslow of Somerville as toastmaster.

Mr. Winslow after alluding to the prosperity of the Journal called as the first speaker Congressman Samuel W. McCall. He was followed by many others and a very pleasant hour was spent. In thirty minutes after the last speech, we were furnished copies of the Somerville Journal, hot from the press, containing a full list of the visitors, the menu, the speeches etc., and the full list of the ability of the office for quick and reliable news.

CITY BRIEFS.

Will Coddington street be widened? The High school now numbers 301. Will electric cars run to Braintree before now dies?

Note changes in timetable of N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. Mr. and Mrs. George Hinkley have gone to Washington.

And now the aspirants for office will get after the delegates.

Although we had a heavy rain the streets are getting dry again.

The much needed rain came this week and now the farmer rejoiced.

The new revised voting lists must be posted before Sept. 10, Oct. 6.

The annual report of the trustees of the City Hospital is being distributed.

Are you assessed? If not, your name will be dropped from the voting list.

Two fatal accidents in one day are a little too many for a city like Quincy.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Magee of Winthrop are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Magee.

The man killed on the railroad Tuesday evening has not been identified as yet.

Have you revised the High school alumni printed in Tuesday's LEADER?

The fall change on the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. will be made Oct. 14 or 15.

F. F. Lond of this city was on Monday elected treasurer of the old Second regiment.

Letter-carrier Thomas, who has been quite sick, was out Friday for the first time.

George Hardwick, one of the clerks at Rogers Bros. store, is on his vacation this week.

J. E. Moore was on Wednesday appointed a trustee on estate of J. L. Souther, late of Quincy.

The steamer J. Putnam Bradlee recently wrecked on Dolphin ledge has been towed to Boston.

Miss Alice J. Lawrence, a primary teacher at the Coddington school, has diphtheria.

The street railway will profit by the discontinuance of the Sunday trains on the Granite branch.

Foster Bros. have the contract to place a Gurney hot water heater in the Thomas Case Public Library.

W. L. Ripley of the Quincy Cycle room left Wednesday for a week's vacation at the lakes of New Hampshire.

Fred A. Perkins of this city has taken the contract for the new library building of brick in Alexandria, N. H.

The alumni of the Quincy High school numbers about 500. This should be a good field for an alumni association.

Nearly everybody at Houghs Neck, with the exception of those who remain all the year, have gone and the beach looks deserted.

At the session of the registrars of voters Thursday evening, thirty-four new names were added to the lists and five were re-elected.

Herbert W. Beattie, the sculptor, has received honorable mention for his models exhibited at the Columbian Exhibition in Chicago.

City Hall was closed Thursday afternoon during the funeral of ex-treasurer Bryant N. Adams, as were also the stores in the Centre.

Owen Turner of Coddington street can go Mr. Marsh one better. He has a sunflower 12 feet, 4 inches tall, with 400 blossoms.

Maple lodge, K. and L. of H., No. 218, initiated two candidates and received four new applications at its regular meeting Wednesday evening.

Miss Edith Randall, who went abroad last month, will prolong her stay. Miss Ruth Randall, her niece, a daughter of Mr. John C. Randall, will soon join her.

The Adams library, which for the last ten or more years has resided in Thomas Crane Memorial hall in this city, is being removed by Austin & Winslow's express.

It is fortunate to be a friend of Henry H. Haxson at this season, as the employee of the PATRIOT can testify. They were remembered this week with a basket of delicious peaches which he raised.

Merry Mount lodge, A. O. U. W., will hereafter supply its members each month with a copy of the paper issued by the lodge, which will take the place of the assessment cards usually sent out.

The two old steamships Carroll and Worcester, which have been at Nut island all summer, having all that was movable on them removed by Messrs. Butler & Murphy, were fired Monday morning.

The estate of Col. Wm. B. White, No. 1 Hancock street, has been sold by George H. Brown & Co. to Dr. J. F. Welch, who will occupy the premises as soon as alterations in the house have been completed.

Members of the Quincy Young Men's Congress may be interested in the news that Speaker Foster is still interested in the Cape Cod canal question. He appeared before a committee held at the Superior court in Boston, on Wednesday.

A South Braintree woman, too, was among the victims of those stationery peddlers who sold boxes of paper and envelopes, which the victims thought contained money, to two Campbell women last week, and a Quincy woman says.

A first hearing on composition in the insolvency case of J. E. Drake & Co., of Quincy, was held at Dedham on Wednesday. A new modified proposal of 25 per cent. in thirty days was offered and placed on file and case continued to Oct. 3.

The 33d degree Masons who were in attendance at the triennial session of the Supreme Council of Sovereign Grand Inspectors general in Boston this week, were conveyed to Nahant for a fish dinner Wednesday by the steamer City of Quincy.

Tuesday evening a large number of children congregated at 115 Granite street, the residence of Mrs. Bovey, to celebrate the twelfth birthday of her daughter, Martha. The young miss received many presents. Music was furnished by Miss Emily Smith.

The silver cup offered by the officials of the Merry Mount yacht club, and which has been held by C. B. Titton's Vigilant has been won by W. B. Wilson's Dipper. As the final holder of the cup must finish three consecutive races there is a chance for some more contests.

Mr. Joseph G. Brackett, one of Quincy's well known and respected citizens, celebrated his 85th birthday Sunday by family gathering at his residence on Elm place. Mr. Brackett has not enjoyed good health for some time, but we are pleased to note that he is now convalescent.

The report that Dr. F. S. Davis had been visiting in Woodstock, Vt., should be qualified, as it was a professional visit to Mr. F. N. Billings who for a number of winters made his home in Quincy. Mr. Billings was very sick for several months last spring but is now greatly improved in health.

Quincy will not be affected by the change in the postal department, whereby the advertising of uncalled-for letters has been abolished for the sake of economy. It is estimated that $20,000 will be saved annually by this step. In Quincy, however, no expense is attached to the advertising, as the DAILY LEADER prints them as news the first of each week, usually on Mondays.

The Guild will meet in the ladies' parlor at 7 o'clock. Subject: "The Lesson of Lowliness." All are invited to attend.

The Boston public library is still further enriched by the gift, from the town of Quincy, of the library of President John Adams. Beyond doubt, this is done through the influence of C. F. Adams, who is one of our most progressive men in intellectual life.—Record.

WEST QUINCY.

People of West Quincy like the extension of free delivery.

The hearing on the petition of the street railway for an extension from West Quincy to East Milton is advertised today.

Charles A. Bowen of Central Falls, R. I., is the guest of his cousin, Miss Georgia Thayer on Crescent street.

The bell on the hose house at West Quincy has been removed to the new house.

Miss Bertie Turner of Crescent street has left the Woodward institute to make a special study of elocution and music.

Edward Doble of West Quincy is attending college in Worcester.

The only child and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McQuarrie, aged eight years, was buried from her parents' residence, 104 State street, Wednesday afternoon. There was a profusion of flowers, among which were the following: A pillow with the words "Our Iva" in pink; a broken column with a dove, bearing the word "Cousin"; a blue bouquet; a large with a dove and the word "Iva"; a standing cross with the words "Our Grandchild"; a standing star with the words "Our Niece"; eight white roses and ferns tied with white ribbon; a number of bouquets from friends and neighbors, also a large cut flowers and smilax. The interment was at West Wollaston cemetery.

Miss Emily F. Bowen of Central Falls, R. I., is the guest of Miss Emma F. Kimball.

The N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. are rebuilding the sheds at West Quincy, recently partially destroyed by fire.

Methodist Church, West Quincy.

Rev. E. W. Virgin, pastor. Morning service at 10:30, conducted by the pastor. Subject: "Fruit of the Tree of Life." Young people's meeting at 6:30. Topic: "The Two Sons." Public service at 7. Address upon the Supernatural Book.

SOUTH QUINCY.

A large number of the friends of Miss Agnes Kennedy tendered her a surprise party Monday evening at Doble's hall, and it was a genuine surprise to every guest. The party was given by the friends of Miss Kennedy, who were served and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. The friends of Miss Kennedy did not go empty-handed and before they left for home they presented her with a handsome gold watch suitably inscribed.

Mrs. Zilpha C. Williams of North Cornville, Maine, is the guest of her son Mr. John D. Williams.

George Mitchell went to Dover, N. H., to participate in the bicycle race.

Frederick Church, South Quincy.

Rev. W. Steele, pastor. Morning service at 10:30. Rev. S. C. Gunn of Boston will preach. Sunday school at the close of this service. Evening service at 7, conducted by Mr. O. C. Colton. Y. P. S. C. E. Tuesday evening. Communion and prayer meeting Thursday evening. Come and welcome.

MILTON.

Employees in the Emerson piano factory of Boston, plucked in Nightingale's field, Milton, on Saturday.

A homestead estate in East Milton, belonging to J. P. Fenno, consisting of a large mansion house, stable and 20,000 square feet of land, has been purchased by Edward Cline of South Boston, for a permanent home. The property will be improved.

The Milton Republicans held their caucus Wednesday evening at the Town hall, and elected these delegates:

STATE.—William B. Weston, J. Merrill Brown, Edward L. Pierce, John Graham.

CONGRESSIONAL.—J. Merrill Brown, Samuel A. Moore, Albert A. Brackett, Arthur A. Hibbard.

COUNCIL.—Edwin B. Wadsworth, John Swift, Theodore T. Whitney, James H. Packard.

COUNTY.—J. Albert Simpson, J. Walter Bradley, John P. S. Churchill, Thomas B. Gordon.

SENATORIAL.—Frederic D. Leslie, Horace N. Plummer, Joseph P. Whitney, Arthur Eldridge.

REPRESENTATIVE.—J. Merrill Brown, M. Gardner, H. B. Reid, Theodore P. Whitney, Frank L. Gage, Charles H. Thayer, John Graham, John Swift.

The Congressional delegates are unpledged, but are known to favor Atwood.

Representative Vote.

The Representative vote of the West-mouth Quincy district of last year will be of interest:

Quincy.	West-mouth.
James H. Flint,	1,451 1,187 2,638
Charles L. Hammond,	1,043 959 2,002
George L. Westworth,	1,248 1,101 2,349
Albert V. Worthen,	1,210 1,165 2,375
Herbert M. Federlin,	1,281 855 2,136
Timothy F. Ford,	1,262 866 2,128
George A. Beedon,	73 185 258
James G. Hunt,	72 185 257
Blanks,	946 758 1,704

WEYMOUTH FAIR. Arrangements have been made with the Quincy Boston street railway to take all the citizens of Quincy to the Weymouth Fair next week; a large to connect with the cars at East Weymouth. The fair for the round trip will be but fifty cents.

The fair will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday and promises to be one of the best ever given by the society. There will be trotting, bicycle races, dog circus and many other entertainments that will delight our readers.

Double Anniversary.

On Saturday evening last, friends and relatives to the number of fifty from New York, Weymouth, South Weymouth, Waltham and Quincy assembled at the residence of P. P. Lond, 72 Washington street, to celebrate his 63d birthday and it was also his 77th anniversary of married life. The occasion was made one long to be remembered. Mr. and Mrs. Lond were presented with an oak extension table, chair, jardiniere and fern. The evening passed in singing, dancing, telling old time stories, (when Mr. and Mrs. Lond had to do their courting on the back door step) and listening to some very fine music. A beautiful collation was served.

Bible Study for Women.

The Christian young women of the city are of the opinion that it is not quite fair for the young men to have all the good things. They are securing the names of all women who would like to join a Bible class for three months, to be conducted by Evangelist George S. Avery. The class will be similar to that to be conducted by Mr. Avery in the Y. M. C. A., but will meet Thursday afternoon, probably in one of the churches.

People's Party caucus.

The People's party held a caucus in Hardwick's hall Wednesday evening for the purpose of nominating two candidates for the Legislature from this district. Delegates were present from Ward Three, Four and Five. Albert H. Kingsley of Ward Five and Frederick W. Hardwick of Ward Three were unanimously nominated. A city committee was also appointed for the ensuing year.

Read the Fall opening of French military at Miss Tingley's, in today's issue.

Wait for the best. Five dollars for a trip to Albany via Boston, Albany railroad, down the Hudson to New York; Fall River line to Boston. Starts Oct. 9th.

WOLLASTON.

Mrs. Alma Farnce Smith of Wollaston, sails for Europe on the 26th on the American Line "Paris."

The hall which is to be occupied by the John Hancock lodge, 1, O. O. F., of Wollaston is rapidly nearing completion. It is located over Boynton & Russell's store. Leading from the main hall, or lodge room there is a large banquet hall running about four-fifths the length of the building. A spacious kitchen opens from the banquet hall, also does a gentlemen's cloak room. Over the cloak room there is a good sized smoking room. The entire place will be lighted by electricity.

John Hancock lodge, 1, O. O. F., of Wollaston, worked the second degree for Crescent lodge at East Weymouth on Thursday evening.

James S. Whiting of the Wollaston correspondent of the DAILY LEADER and PATRIOT, is at the Cave Mountain house, Bartlett, N. H., for two weeks. Kindly forward all news direct to office of publication. Editor Doble of West Quincy is attending college in Worcester.

Last week Friday a certain Quincy express team pulled up on Newport avenue, Wollaston, behind a party of young ladies and one of the men in it, whose identity is kept, jumped out and began to chase them. This same party, it is alleged, has been making a practice of jumping from his wagon of late and chasing girls. It will not be well for him to repeat this many more times as steps have been taken to put a stop to it.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Wollaston Co-operative Bank held on Tuesday evening, $2,500 was sold at five cents premium. A new series of shares was put on sale, payable at the next meeting.

Mrs. J. N. Emerson, who has been quite ill for several weeks past, is improving in health, and on Thursday, in company with her sister, Mrs. W. G. W. Went, went to Hartford, Vt., to recuperate.

There are in our community bright men of acknowledged ability who absolutely refuse to advertise in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately well known to the purchasing public. They would not give $5 for a quarter of a column ad, but will spend Twenty Dollars for circulars and then make a discount of ten per cent. from wholesale prices on not less than One Thousand Dollars worth of cotton cloth just to call attention to their store. We venture the prediction that the Boston Bazaar will never be a success until the advertiser in the PATRIOT and yet expect an entirely new store to become immediately

THE RISING SUN and SUN PASTE STOVE POLISH.

WE have yielded to the importance of our customers to manufacture a perfect PASTE. We offer the "SUN PASTE" and recommend it for an after-dinner shine, and to touch up spots. Applied and polished with a cloth. Does not dry up or rust the box.

The "RISING SUN" Stove Polish in cakes has been upon the market thirty years, has an annual sale of three thousand tons, and for economy, durability and brilliancy, and for general blacking, of a stove it is still unsurpassed.

MORSE BROS. Proprietors, Canton, Mass., U.S.A.

Certificate of Analysis.

STATE ASSAYER'S OFFICE, 297 FRANKLIN STREET.
BOSTON, MASS., Aug. 13, 1894.

To F. J. Fuller, West Quincy, Mass.
The sample of Water submitted for analysis has been carefully examined, with the following results:

It contains in parts per 100,000 by weight:

Silica	5.000
Oxide Iron and Alumina	1.000
Lime, carbonate	.680
Magnesia, carbonate	.200
Sodium chloride	.200
Potassium chloride	.4818
Free ammonia	.0016
Alumino-iron ammonia	.0106
Total	5.0000

This is an excellent water of remarkable purity.

A. L. BOWKER, State Assayer.

Please compare this analysis with that of other waters.

Aug. 16-3t

Prices Sure to Advance.

White Ash Stove, $5.25
White Ash Egg, 5.00
White Ash Furnace, 5.00
Lehigh Furnace, 5.25
Lehigh Egg, 5.25
Shamokin Stove, 5.50
Shamokin Egg, 5.50
Red Ash Stove, 5.75
Franklin Egg, 7.00
Franklin Stove, 7.00

OUR SPECIALTY:
Excelsior Nut, $5.25,
Which we guarantee equal to or superior to any nut coal named.

Highest grade Bituminous Coal.

Also
A Full Line of Masons' Materials.

WATSON H. BRANEE,
AUCTIONEER,
Real Estate Agent
—AND—
JUSTICE OF PEACE.

The management of estates solicited. Refers to H. T. Whitman.

Residence, Wollaston.
May be seen daily at office of Tax Collector, City Hall, Quincy.
Sept. 15.

City Shoeing Forge.
DANIEL DESMOND, Proprietor.

Gentlemen's Driving Horses a Specialty.

The Best Material Used.

Geo. E. Frost,

488 Neponset Avenue,
NEPONSET.
Telephone connection.

Close Friendships

Dr. H. A. Tucker's
Valuable Remedies.

Reason introduction to our glasses, for the reason that they are made of the best quality. The very best and latest facilities are used in testing the eyes. Call and make the acquaintance of our optician and eye-glasses. They improve on acquaintance.

A. L. HODD, Optician,
2 Faxon Hood, Quincy.

Bradley Fertilizers

Now is the time to use these Standard Fertilizers which can be obtained at
A. J. Richards & Sons,
THE QUINCY AGENTS.
Headquarters for Flour, Hay, Grain, Straw, Lime,
BRICK and CEMENT.
The Quincy Grain Store.
(Near the Quincy Station).
Telephone 51-3. - - QUINCY
April 22.

Shawmut Spring.

The Shawmut Spring is located at the base of a high hill near the Metropolitan Park reservation, on land owned by the city.

This water has been in constant use by workmen from all the quarters in the vicinity, as well as residents of immediate surroundings, for fifty years at least.

Workmen and other persons have come from miles away to get water from this spring, while others, and well as are very much nearer to them, thus showing their appreciation of this water.

The location being at the base of the hill, with nothing but trees and rocks above it, and from cultivated fields or other polluted ground can enter it.

The unsatisfactory waters we are compelled to drink, and the serious afflictions of friends, induce me to offer this water to the public at a price which will make its merits well sustain the reputation with patrons that it now has with those who have long known it.

This water will be furnished at all patrons in such quantities as may be desired.

Water will be delivered at Six Cents per case of five gallons at Five Cents per gallon. Yours truly, F. J. FULLER.

West Quincy, July 1894.

Ranges and Parlor Stoves

Large Assortment and Low Prices.
PLEASE CALL AND EXAMINE before purchasing elsewhere. To also keep of hand a large stock of
GRATES and LININGS
Kitchen Furnishing Goods,
Zinc, Lead Pipe, Sheet Lead,
Iron Sinks, Etc., Etc.

TIN ROOFING

A SPECIALTY.
All Furnace Work and Jobbing
will be promptly attended to.

Good Work and Low Prices Guaranteed

SANBORN & DAMON'S.
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all leavening strength. - Latest U.S. Government Food Report.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co. W. Wall St., N. Y.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 22, 1894.

Single Copies 5 Cents.

THE PATRIOT OFFICE:
Quincy, Mass.,
C. F. Carlson, near Quincy Depot.
W. D. Ross, near Quincy Depot.
P. W. Brunschild, near Quincy Depot.
Post Office,
W. H. Doble's Store,
Henry Coran, Quincy Adams.
E. H. Doble & Co., West Quincy.
Miss Lark's Store, Jones Corner.
William Clark's, East Milton.
Old Colony Depot, Boston.
L. S. Houghton, Neponset.
Henry W. Weston, Braintree.
N. R. Procter, Braintree.

WEEKLY Sun Full Sun. Moon.
ALMANAC. Rises. Sets. Moon. Rises. Moon.
Saturday, Sept. 22, 5:22 5:42 4:00 4:20 12:00 A.M.
Sunday, " 23, 5:22 5:42 4:00 4:20 12:00 A.M.
Monday, " 24, 5:22 5:42 4:00 4:20 12:00 A.M.
Tuesday, " 25, 5:22 5:42 4:00 4:20 12:00 A.M.
Wednesday, " 26, 5:22 5:42 4:00 4:20 12:00 A.M.
Thursday, " 27, 5:22 5:42 4:00 4:20 12:00 A.M.
Friday, " 28, 5:22 5:42 4:00 4:20 12:00 A.M.
New Moon Sept. 29, 12:41 A.M.

Melange.

THE DAILY LEDGER.

This enterprising little sheet deserves encouragement and success, and anything "June" can do to help it along will be a pleasure. I have always been pleased at the courage of its editor in trying so hard to make a daily paper in a city so near Boston, and am glad to furnish an occasional article for the patriot. Patriot, especially when I find the LEDGER ready to assist in bringing such to the attention of the people. However, I am sorry to be obliged to differ most emphatically from the patriot's financial views for Quincy and its percentage theories in its criticism of my article on "Greater Boston."

I prefer to deal in actual figures when comparing figures of population and from the figures furnished me by the LEDGER itself I find that Boston has gained 58,000 while Quincy has gained 4,500, and that Boston's gain in five years is equal to three times the size of Quincy, though the latter has been struggling for twenty years to gain only 7,000 in population. It might carry this line of argument to a great length, for I have studied it carefully, but do not care to do so just now, but only wish to set the people thinking of a subject which in the near future will be called upon to decide for themselves.

THE LEDGER's article attempting to make Mayor Hodges responsible to a large degree for the high rate, I think is hardly fair. Instead of this it seems to me that in many quarters the attempt has been made of late to blind the people to the fact that the present state of affairs is due almost entirely to previous administrations and not to the present ones. THE LEDGER's idea of postponing the payment of the debt and thereby add extra interest to the original amount is unbusiness like and will be credited only to the kind-hearted desire of its editor to screen his close political friends. Instead of criticism for party effect, let the LEDGER join with "June" and trace up the $25,000 legal fees on the "Water purchase," the rumor that three or four times the assessed value is being paid for "playground land" and things of the same nature, and perhaps we may do our city a deal of good.

POLITICS.

To say that things are very warm in the political line is expressing it mildly. That which immediately interests Quincy is the Congressional contest. It is safe to say that Mr. McKittick will not be allowed to receive the regular Democratic nomination except there be dynamic concealed in the package. If he does not receive it, he will run as an Independent as before, but will be defeated if he receives it in the end. The Barrett-Hayes contest, indicates the nomination in this district of Harrison H. Atwood, as it shows a disposition on the part of the party to stand by a candidate who was defeated by independent votes after receiving the regular nomination. I understand some sort of a left-handed support is to be given by the Quincy delegation to Michael J. Murray, with the understanding that in case he can be nominated, his friends will cast their votes for Charles H. Porter of Quincy. Such half-hearted support will be of no benefit to Mr. Murray and adds to the chances of Mr. Atwood.

Judging from appearances up to date, our fellow-townsmen Dr. Everett, will not be a member of the next Congress.

Free postal delivery for the whole city ought to be in operation.

Chief Engineer Williams ought not to hesitate to resign in principle, and to leave the party of every objectionable man who is a disgrace to it. This was one of the reasons for his appointment. There are plenty of good, honest, sober, industrious men who would like the chance to become members and would make good freemen.

Beware of Councilman Holbrook's pet idea of setting off Squantum to Boston. Either the whole of Quincy or none should go.

That fishing trip was a corker, or I should say an un-corker.

Those people who think the A. P. A. society is not going to be a powerful factor in politics for a time at least, are not thoroughly informed. The society has many members right here in Quincy and they showed their strength in several Ways Wednesday night.

Killed on Railroad.

An unknown man was instantly killed by the cars Tuesday night while walking on the tracks in the rear of Wilson's granite sheds at South Quincy, being struck by the inward train due to leave Quincy at 10:28 Meridian, Boston, by and was killed as was where the injuries appeared to be.

He was a smooth-faced man, apparently about 30 years of age. He had on a dark blue chevron suit of clothes, a white shirt with a fancy front and a stand-up collar on which was the name P. Riley. He also had another collar in his pocket on which was the name N. A. Duffy and the clothes he wore were made by Egan & Phillips of Pittsburg, Pa.

In his pockets was a piece of tobacco, a bunch of cigarettes, ten cents in silver and a pawn ticket for $2.50 for a suit of clothes issued Sept. 15, by the Globe Loan Co. 128 Meridian street, Boston, the ticket being numbered 7.

Many persons have viewed the remains at Hall's undertaking rooms, but no one seemed to know him, and it is doubtful if either the names on the collars are his name.

Quincy Cycle Club.

An adjourned meeting held Monday evening Albert Stephenson was elected 1st Lieutenant to take the place of Walter MacArthur resigned. G. A. Leav was elected 2d Lieutenant to take the place of James Thomas resigned, and Harry Stephenson was elected on the board of directors. Three new members were also admitted.

Blind run Sunday Sept. 23. Start at 2 P.M.

Annual Debate.

The annual public debate of the St. John's Y. P. C. Association was held Monday evening at Plummer's hall and was largely attended.

There was a great deal of entertainment during the first part of the evening consisting of stereopticon views, songs by Miss Annie Roche; vocal duet, Miss Annie Roche and Miss Fannie McNally; instrumental duet by Mrs. Trepel and Miss McNally. Then came the debate on the following:

Resolved—That the church is in more need of writers than statesmen. Henry McNally and Thomas Greany, affirmative; Joseph W. McGrath and John Lyons, negative.

A. M. Bailey, a well known doctor of Eugene, Oregon, says his wife has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhea and used many remedies with little relief until she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which has cured her sound and well. Give it a trial and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. 25c and 50c bottles.

For sale by Druggists and Dealers Everywhere.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all leavening strength. - Latest U.S. Government Food Report.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co. W. Wall St., N. Y.

CITY COUNCIL.

The order granting the street railway location on Franklin street was not taken from the table at the meeting of the City Council Monday evening, and the election officers were confirmed without delay. All that was in the debate on the proposed dog ordinance is not reported, but it was the spice of the evening.

The absent members were Councilmen Babcock, Snow and Sullivan.

Mayor Hodges was present.

Mayor Hodges was present to assist in the drawing of three traverse jurors, and upon request Councilman Waterhouse drew out the names of Alfred L. Meade, D. Vinton Pierce and James Collins.

Swamp to be Drained.

A communication was received from the Board of Health asking for an appropriation of $150 for draining and improving the swamp on the east and west sides of the railroad track at Wollaston as part of the expense was to be borne by private parties. The order was laid on the table and later in the evening Councilman Babcock offered an order appropriating the amount, which was under the suspension of the rules passed to be ordered.

Election Officers.

The appointment of Judge Hodges for election officers came up and were confirmed without discussion.

Spartan Exhibition.

Councilman Holbrook presented a petition of James H. Donovan for a sparring exhibition at the public hall, Atlantic, Oct. 2. Laid on the table.

A Nuisance.

Councilman Clark presented a petition from Cook & Watkins to have the water flowing down Liberty street and flooded their office taken care of. To Committee on Sewers and Drains.

Reports of Committees.

The Committee on Streets reported an order for a public hearing Monday evening, Oct. 8, at 8 o'clock, on the petition of the Quincy & Wollaston street railway to lay tracks on Wollaston street.

The same committee reported favorably on orders granting permission of the Electric Light and Power Co. to erect poles on River and Phillips streets, and of S. H. Barnard to run a wire across Centre street. Under suspension of the rules both orders were passed to be ordered.

The same committee reported a resolution taking certain lands to lay out and extend Centre street, which was passed to its second reading.

The Committee on State Aid.

The Committee on State Aid recommended $3 per month to Charles S. Thomas, and $5 per month to Catherine McKeown.

The Committee on Streets.

The Committee on Streets asked further time on order improving Fountain square. Granted.

The Committee on Ordinances.

The Committee on Ordinances reported an amendment to proposed dog ordinance, so called, striking out the words "barking and howling" and "or in any other manner disturbs the quiet of any person" and adding the words, "does injury to any person."

The Committee on the Amendment.

Councilman Holbrook hoped the amendment would not be adopted. The amendment was adopted. The whole matter was amply covered by the statement of Councilman Holbrook, and the committee on the amendment was ordered to be dropped.

Councilman Holbrook said the amendment would not be adopted. The amendment was adopted. The whole matter was amply covered by the statement of Councilman Holbrook, and the committee on the amendment was ordered to be dropped.

High School Enrollment.

The most striking feature in the enrollment at the new high school is the large increase in number of boys. They are in a majority in the new class, an exception to the general, and there are in the school 10 boys. The number of girls is 170 and the total enrollment is 170 and two-thirds of the school. The number by classes is as follows:

Year.	Girls.	Boys.	Total.
Class '94.	22	1	23
Class '95.	22	1	23
Class '96.	22	1	23
Class '97.	22	1	23
Class '98.	22	1	23
Class '99.	22	1	23
Class '00.	22	1	23
Class '01.	22	1	23
Class '02.	22	1	23
Class '03.	22	1	23
Class '04.	22	1	23
Class '05.	22	1	23
Class '06.	22	1	23
Class '07.	22	1	23
Class '08.	22	1	23
Class '09.	22	1	23
Class '10.	22	1	23
Class '11.	22	1	23
Class '12.	22	1	23
Class '13.	22	1	23
Class '14.	22	1	23
Class '15.	22	1	23
Class '16.	22	1	23
Class '17.	22	1	23
Class '18.	22	1	23
Class '19.	22	1	23
Class '20.	22	1	23
Class '21.	22	1	23
Class '22.	22	1	23
Class '23.	22	1	23
Class '24.	22	1	23
Class '25.	22	1	23
Class '26.	22	1	23
Class '27.	22	1	23
Class '28.	22	1	23
Class '29.	22	1	23
Class '30.	22	1	23
Class '31.	22	1	23
Class '32.	22	1	23
Class '33.	22	1	23
Class '34.	22	1	23
Class '35.	22	1	23
Class '36.	22	1	23
Class '37.	22	1	23
Class '38.	22	1	23
Class '39.	22	1	23
Class '40.	22	1	23
Class '41.	22	1	23
Class '42.	22	1	23
Class '43.	22	1	23
Class '44.	22	1	23
Class '45.	22	1	23
Class '46.	22	1	23
Class '47.	22	1	23
Class '48.	22	1	23
Class '49.	22	1	23
Class '50.	22	1	23
Class '51.	22	1	23
Class '52.	22	1	23
Class '53.	22	1	23
Class '54.	22	1	23
Class '55.	22	1	23
Class '56.	22	1	23
Class '57.	22	1	23
Class '58.	22	1	23
Class '59.	22	1	23
Class '60.	22	1	23
Class '61.	22	1	23
Class '62.	22	1	23
Class '63.	22	1	23
Class '64.	22	1	23
Class '65.	22	1	23
Class '66.	22	1	23
Class '67.	22	1	23
Class '68.	22	1	23
Class '69.	22	1	23
Class '70.	22	1	23
Class '71.	22	1	23
Class '72.	22	1	23
Class '73.	22	1	23
Class '74.	22	1	23
Class '75.	22	1	23
Class '76.	22	1	23
Class '77.	22	1	23
Class '78.	22	1	23
Class '79.	22	1	23
Class '80.	22	1	23
Class '81.	22	1	23
Class '82.	22	1	23
Class '83.	22	1	23
Class '84.	22	1	23
Class '85.	22	1	23
Class '86.	22	1	23
Class '87.	22	1	23
Class '88.	22	1	23
Class '89.	22	1	23
Class '90.	22	1	23
Class '91.	22	1	23
Class '92.	22	1	23
Class '93.	22	1	23
Class '94.	22	1	23
Class '95.	22	1	23
Class '96.	22	1	23
Class '97.	22	1	23
Class '98.	22	1	23
Class '99.	22	1	23
Class '00.	22	1	23
Class '01.	22	1	23
Class '02.	22	1	23
Class '03.	22	1	23
Class '04.	22	1	23
Class '05.	22	1	23
Class '06.	22	1	23
Class '07.	22	1	23
Class '08.	22	1	23
Class '09.	22	1	23
Class '10.	22	1	23
Class '11.	22	1	23
Class '12.	22	1	23
Class '13.	22	1	23
Class '14.	22	1	23
Class '15.	22	1	23
Class '16.	22	1	23
Class '17.	22	1	23
Class '18.	22	1	23
Class '19.	22	1	23
Class '20.	22	1	23
Class '21.	22	1	23
Class '22.	22	1	23
Class '23.	22	1	23
Class '24.	22	1	23
Class '25.	22	1	23

—
 scene on the 3 O'clock Express

(OPPOSITE TO HER LATER READER: the passengers turned around in the cabin to better note the something unusual about the man.)

A noble-looking man had entered the car, full of love, four days ago, from fifteen to twenty years. The mother had come those days and when she saw that one of her rarely seen but beautiful men, a woman in ways a noble daughter had had some day, when some love. They were well behaved, well cared for, a little like the mother of large eyes, in speaking to her daughter, physical development.

Nature has provided a time for punishment, and, in the channels are obstructed, the creature's colored and blind, the mother's large eyes, in speaking to her daughter, physical development.

mother of large eyes, in speaking to her daughter, physical development.

ed, if necessary, to perform its office, and keep their daughters well informed as to matters concerning themselves." Irregularities, from whatever cause, are sure indications of organic trouble. With irregularities come dis-

Violent headaches often attack the stomach and kidneys. Stomach pains shoot everywhere. Excitability follows quickly, and then a despondency overwhelms the already distressed life. Unless the obstruction is removed at once, your daughter's future will be darkened.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily and is the most effective remedy for ir-or suspended action known.

SEPH T. FRENCH, - Auctioneer

Mortgagee's Sale

— OF —

Real Estate

BY Virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed, given erick J.erry to Ella M. Hadley (dated now Ella Hadley Clary), dated 1893 recorded with Norfolk Registry, Lib. 702, Fol. 126, for breach of condition of said mortgage and for the use of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises herein described, on Thursday, the 10th day of May, 1904, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at a singular the premises described in the mortgage deed, viz:

A certain lot of land situated in Quinlan County of Norfolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and containing 6.0 0 0 more or less, and bounded and defined as follows, viz: Beginning at a point in the easterly line of Robertson street and running 60 feet southerly from the southerly line of a private way called Ballou street and running in a southerly direction by Robertson street about sixty-nine (69)

book; thence turning and running westwardly, said brook about ninety (90) feet to Florence Walters; then turning running northerly sixty-five (65) feet, less, to a point which is ninety (90) feet easterly from said Ballou street and easterly of said Florence Walters; then turning and running easterly about (90) feet to said Robertson street and the point of said. Being a part of the first described in a certain deed from Walter T. Ballou and others to Florentine Walters, dated May 18, 1887, and recorded with Records in Lib. 597, Fol. 277.

The premises will be sold subject to said taxes, if any. The purchaser quired to pay $200 at the time and place above specified.

For further particulars apply to J. W. French, City, or F. T. Benner, 28 Cornhill, Boston, Mass.

ELLA HADLEY CLARY
(Formerly Ella M. Clary)
MORTGAGEE'S SALE
8-3

JOHN H. DINEGAN, Auctioneer

Mortgagee's Sale

BY Virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed, given by Linda G. Pierce and James Pierce, her husband, in the County of Norfolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to Samuel D. 1889, and recorded with the Records, libro 618, folio 551, and for breach of the conditions therein, will be sold at public auction, on TUESDAY, the second day of October, A. D., 1894, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage, namely:

No. 10, on a "plan of lots drawn by J. C. Ranger & Hobart, lying between the West and Centre streets in Quincy," said plan to be found recorded in the records of the City of Norfolk Deeds in Lib. 449, Fol. 109. The premises are bounded as follows, to-wit: Northernly on Town Hill street, sixty feet; easterly on lot No. 12 on said plan, one hundred and twenty-five feet; southerly on No. 3, on said plan, one hundred and twenty-five feet (49) feet; westerly, on land of Mrs. J. C. Ranger, one hundred and twenty-five feet.

Being a part of the premises conveyed by mortgagee, Celinda G. Pierce and Francis Torrey, by deed dated November 24, and recorded with Norfolk Deed Book 562, Fol. 135, and the same now secured by a mortgage for fourteen hundred dollars given by said mortgagees to Margaret Babcock, by deed dated March 20, 1889. Said premises will be sold subject to mortgage to said Babcock.

Terms cash.

SAMUEL D. RAMSDEN, Mortgagee.

Quincy, Sept. 15.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
FORFOLK, ss. PROBATE COURT
 O the Next-of-Kin, and all persons ested in the Estate of MAN F., EDWARD C., and CARR
HEWITSON,
 Quincy, in said County, minors.
 Whereas, Rachel S. Hewitson, the guardian and minors, has presented her petition nse to sell at private sale, in accordance offer named in said petition, or upon ns as may be adjudged best, certain re-therein specified, of her wards for the on are hereby cited to appear at a Part to be held at Dedham, in said Co.

Norfolk, on the third day of October, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to use, if any you have, why the same s be granted.

and said petitioner is ordered to serv by delivering a copy thereof to eac of the said days at least before said Cou publishing the same once in each we for successive weeks, in the QUINCY P newspaper published in Quincy, the last to be one day at least before said C
Witness, George White, Esquire, Judg Court, this seventh day of Septemb year one thousand eight hundred ety-four.

pt. 15. JONATHAN COBB, Regis-Commonwealth of Massachusetts
FOLK, ss. PROBATE CO.
O the Heirs-at-Law, Next-of-Kin, and other persons interested in the Estate DAVID B. STETSON, of Quincy, in said County, deceased,
Whereas, a certain instrument, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, has been presented to said Court, for probate; and Elia L. Stetson of Quincy, who prays that said testamentary may be issued to his heirs, therein named, without any you are hereby cited to appear at a Part to be held at Quincy, in said C

Norfolk, on the tenth day of Oct
D. 1894, at nine o'clock in the forenoon cause, if any you have, why the ould not be granted.

and said petitioner is hereby directed to solic notice of the same by publishing this in each week for three succe in the QUINCY PATRIOT, a news published in Quincy, the last publication day, at least before said Court, and by post-paid, or delivering a copy of this to all known persons interested in cause, seven days at least before said Court Witness, George White, Esquire, Judge

advertise in the Patriot

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 29, 1894.

Fire at Squantum.

It is generally admitted that if once a house at Squantum gets on fire it is quite sure to be destroyed before the department arrives, as it is two miles from the nearest apparatus and five miles from the central station.

This was Tuesday when the house of Henry Gild was discovered to be on fire. Mrs. Titus immediately pulled in an alarm from Box 65 and also notified the Chief Engineer by telephone.

The alarm sounded at 1:30 and the department hastened to the scene and made good time but the fire had made such headway that nothing was left but to quench the burning embers.

The cottage was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Dresser and they had built a fire in the parlor for the first time this season that morning. Mr. Dresser had noticed that the chimney was not in good repair and had notified the owner.

It had not been repaired by Mr. Dresser had taken a little cement and fixed it the best he could, but he probably overlooked the vital spot.

Shortly after noon Mr. and Mrs. Dresser went down to the beach and while there they noticed that their house was on fire. They hastened to the scene but when they arrived the house was a mass of flames and but little could be got out.

Mr. and Mrs. Dresser lost all they had except what they had on at the time. They had a lot of valuable furniture and paintings in the house, as well as a quantity of silverware and all their wardrobe.

After the ruins had cooled down somewhat, a search was made and in a corner boiler a large part of the heavy silverware was found. It was a little discolored but was probably unharmed.

The house was valued at about $1,100 and Mr. Dresser considers his loss not less than $2,500.

During the fire the hotel of Mrs. Titus near by took fire on the roof, but was extinguished, although the building will have to be reshingled.

If there is one thing the people of Squantum fear, it is a fire, for they realize that there is but little hope for them if a fire once gets the upper hand.

The large hotel of Mrs. Titus is unoccupied and rather than leave it to the ravages of the winter, Mrs. Titus will give the free during the winter months to some worthy family who would go through the care of it.

Miss Carrie M. Shunk.

Wollaston has lost one of her best known and most popular young people, and Quincy one of her brightest and most promising teachers by the death of Miss Carrie M. Shunk, which took place at her home on Saturday morning, Sept. 22.

Her death came as a great shock to her many friends, for although she was known to be out of health, yet it was hoped she would be sufficiently improved to take up her work as teacher on the first of October, and a substitute had been procured by the advice of her physician with this hope in view. But the malady of which there was evidence, suddenly assumed a pronounced and dangerous form, and after only a week's great suffering she passed away.

Her loss is deeply felt in the social community, as she was possessed of an affectionate and generous disposition, a bright and cultivated mind, and an earnest desire of purpose to be helpful to others that made her presence a constant source of cheer. Her life had become so intertwined with the daily work of many homes, that it would seem death's shadow had indeed fallen there. As an affectionate daughter and sister, her loss is a heavy one, and her friends are united in their grief.

Work on the addition to the Congregational church is being rushed rapidly along. It will probably be ready for occupancy before Christmas.

Although Newton is a very wealthy city, no person or firm there pays as large a tax as does Henry H. Faxon in this city. Only $2 pay over $2000.

Mrs. James W. Pierce who was injured by being thrown from her carriage is reported as comfortable this morning, and will probably recover.

City Treasurer Burghs has made the four per cent. bonds amounting to $30,000, recently authorized, at a good premium, Pope, Merrill & Co. paying $1,140.

A paper of Mr. Frederic A. Topper, principal of the High school, entitled "Hints to Teachers" appeared in the New York School Journal of last Saturday.

Hancock street between the Centre and Merry Mount park is receiving the attention of the street department. The method of repair is certainly questionable.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Crane celebrated the 40th anniversary of their marriage Wednesday evening, by a gathering of the immediate family at their residence on Washington street.

It is reported that Dr. Everett will take up his residence on Elm street, and that he will make the city a generous proposition for the acceptance of Miller avenue, which will be a great improvement.

Bicycle thieves are about again and it becomes necessary to chain their wheels when they leave them, as it is reported that a wheel was stolen from in front of the Adams building Saturday.

Mr. Alfred E. Billings of Boston, died at Houghs Neck, Monday, of typhoid fever, aged 30 years. Mr. Billings was an engineer and for several years ran the fast express between Boston and New London.

The alarm from Box 41 at 7:55 Monday night was rung in for a slight fire in McDonnell & Sons' blacksmith shop on Quarry street, evidently started by a piece of flying hot steel. No damage was done.

Bicycles of Brockton escape with less taxation than in this city, the valuation being $50 while the Quincy assessment is $75. The latter sum is high in a great many cases, in fact as much or more than the wheels cost.

Henry L. Kincaid of this city was on Monday admitted to membership in the Ancient and Honorable Artillery company of Massachusetts. The company will go to Washington next Monday.

The stockholders of the Old Colony railroad at the meeting Tuesday, voted to authorize the directors to issue bonds to the amount not exceeding $2,000,000. The board of directors were unanimously re-elected.

Samuel Brown had the thumb of his right hand taken off in a sole leather cutting machine at Wheeler's factory Wednesday. Mr. Brown has been out of work some time, and it was only that morning that he had resumed work.

We have previously spoken of those delicious peaches of Mr. Henry H. Faxon, but Saturday we received a dozen from the "top of the barrel," and they were beautiful and as good as they looked. In conference they were from nine to ten inches. Thanks, Mr. Faxon.

In the middle of the sidewalk at the corner of Canal and Bigelow streets, a pole supporting an arc light. Projecting therefrom at a height of five to six feet was an iron rod as long as the pole. It was someone's ugly wound some night of it. It should be removed.

Among the guests at the Greenleaf House are Dr. Frank J. Bonney, wife and daughter. They left Maine Wednesday and intend to remain a few days in this vicinity. The doctor looks nicely, and is delighted to visit Quincy, where he has spent many delightful hours.

The Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

CITY BRIEFS.

Office Mark E. Hanson is on the sick list.

Mr. Addison Hogan of New York is in town.

Mr. Rufus Foster has gone to Kansas to reside.

A silver medal will be in order for James Murray.

The voting lists are being printed at the PATRIOT office.

Mystic park had attractions Wednesday for many Quincy people.

The Sunday Schools of the Catholic churches will be resumed Oct. 7.

Five weeks to the State election and only nine weeks to the city election.

Dr. William Everett will preach in the First church, Sunday morning.

W. E. Brown is building a retaining wall between his property and Town brook.

1894 is very plentiful this year and consequently apples will be much cheaper than last year.

A large gang of men are at work grading the grounds about the High school building.

Mr. William Amory will close Seven Oaks in a couple of weeks and return to New York.

The foot ball season is approaching and it is about time the local teams were getting together.

The cellar for a new house for Edward Shaw is going on on Cherry avenue off Washington street.

It is rumored that a Chinese laundry is to be opened in the Ebenezer Bent building on Washington street.

Mrs. C. M. Lapham is moving into the tenements No. 24 and 26 in the brick block on Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Crane held their last "at home" Wednesday evening at their residence on Elm street.

The Daily Ledger's timetable of the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R., original with the city editor, goes in favor.

Madame See of New York will speak and give tests at Faxon hall on Sunday, at 7 p. m. She comes well recommended.

In spite of the hard times, the number of dogs licensed by the City Clerk already exceeds the number licensed last year.

The postal letter sheets have been discontinued, and parties who wish samples as souvenirs should purchase them at once.

On Saturday afternoon the Riverside Jesters defeated the Gloucesters by a score of 14 to 7, on the grounds of the latter club.

The Old Colony Grocers' association will take part next Monday in the parade on the opening of the World Food Fair in Boston.

Few in Quincy knew of the Hingham fair opening Tuesday. The management might have a crowd from Quincy by advertising.

Mr. Wollaston Lodge, I. O. O. F., has two candidates waiting to be initiated next week, and Tuesday evening received three applications.

At the Hingham fair, Tuesday, Arthur Parsons of this city captured the first prize, a silver medal, in the one mile open bicycle race, time 2:54.

Work on the addition to the Congregational church is being rushed rapidly along. It will probably be ready for occupancy before Christmas.

Although Newton is a very wealthy city, no person or firm there pays as large a tax as does Henry H. Faxon in this city. Only $2 pay over $2000.

Mrs. James W. Pierce who was injured by being thrown from her carriage is reported as comfortable this morning, and will probably recover.

City Treasurer Burghs has made the four per cent. bonds amounting to $30,000, recently authorized, at a good premium, Pope, Merrill & Co. paying $1,140.

A paper of Mr. Frederic A. Topper, principal of the High school, entitled "Hints to Teachers" appeared in the New York School Journal of last Saturday.

Hancock street between the Centre and Merry Mount park is receiving the attention of the street department. The method of repair is certainly questionable.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Crane celebrated the 40th anniversary of their marriage Wednesday evening, by a gathering of the immediate family at their residence on Washington street.

It is reported that Dr. Everett will take up his residence on Elm street, and that he will make the city a generous proposition for the acceptance of Miller avenue, which will be a great improvement.

Bicycle thieves are about again and it becomes necessary to chain their wheels when they leave them, as it is reported that a wheel was stolen from in front of the Adams building Saturday.

Mr. Alfred E. Billings of Boston, died at Houghs Neck, Monday, of typhoid fever, aged 30 years. Mr. Billings was an engineer and for several years ran the fast express between Boston and New London.

The alarm from Box 41 at 7:55 Monday night was rung in for a slight fire in McDonnell & Sons' blacksmith shop on Quarry street, evidently started by a piece of flying hot steel. No damage was done.

Bicycles of Brockton escape with less taxation than in this city, the valuation being $50 while the Quincy assessment is $75. The latter sum is high in a great many cases, in fact as much or more than the wheels cost.

Henry L. Kincaid of this city was on Monday admitted to membership in the Ancient and Honorable Artillery company of Massachusetts. The company will go to Washington next Monday.

The stockholders of the Old Colony railroad at the meeting Tuesday, voted to authorize the directors to issue bonds to the amount not exceeding $2,000,000. The board of directors were unanimously re-elected.

Samuel Brown had the thumb of his right hand taken off in a sole leather cutting machine at Wheeler's factory Wednesday. Mr. Brown has been out of work some time, and it was only that morning that he had resumed work.

We have previously spoken of those delicious peaches of Mr. Henry H. Faxon, but Saturday we received a dozen from the "top of the barrel," and they were beautiful and as good as they looked. In conference they were from nine to ten inches. Thanks, Mr. Faxon.

In the middle of the sidewalk at the corner of Canal and Bigelow streets, a pole supporting an arc light. Projecting therefrom at a height of five to six feet was an iron rod as long as the pole. It was someone's ugly wound some night of it. It should be removed.

Among the guests at the Greenleaf House are Dr. Frank J. Bonney, wife and daughter. They left Maine Wednesday and intend to remain a few days in this vicinity. The doctor looks nicely, and is delighted to visit Quincy, where he has spent many delightful hours.

The Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

At the Hingham fair on Wednesday, James Dunn, Jr., of Quincy, captured a one mile bicycle race, and the third prize, a bicycle clock in the five mile race. In the race of Tuesday the first prize was captured by Mr. Dunn instead of Mr. Parsons as stated in Wednesday's LEADER.

WOLLASTON.

"The Guild of the Good Shepherd will hold a series of social entertainments next Sunday at 6:30 o'clock.

News Agent Ross at Wollaston writes: The LEADERS and PATRIOTS of Saturday all gone. Please send more to supply demand, and increase the number.

Samuel Brown of Wollaston has nearly completed his large greenhouse which is 100x18, and has 1000 plants in a flourishing condition. Mr. Brown's father was some years ago the leading florist of Newport.

On shooting off the tie at the Duck's Nest, between C. M. Bryant and V. J. Emery for the meerschaum cigar holder, Emery won, breaking 4 out of a possible 10, to Bryant's 1.

Mr. C. G. Sherman is chairman of the Quincy ladies who will have charge of "Quincy day" at the World's Food Fair in Boston next month. They will select assistants.

Mr. Samuel P. Hanson of Wollaston and Miss Mabel A. Clifford of Atlantic were united in marriage Thursday evening. A reception followed at the residence of the bride's parents on Hancock street. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson will reside on Beach street, Wollaston, and will be at home on and after Oct. 15.

Mr. William Key of Wollaston is confined to his home by sickness.

Mrs. N. G. Nickerson of Wollaston, is at the East Branch House, Lower Bartlett, N. H.

Mr. Edmund S. Taylor of Wollaston has been sojourning at the Cave Mountain House, Bartlett, N. H. for the past week.

The disarrangement of the water supply of the fountain at Wollaston this week made the street opposite the depot very muddy.

The marriage of Mr. V. J. Emery of Wollaston and Miss Amy R. Chapman of Wollaston, was celebrated at Wollaston on Wednesday. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Emery left for an extended tour through the White Mountains. They will be at home after November 1 at their residence on Elmwood avenue, Wollaston.

Rev. Preston Gurney of Wollaston, preached the sermon, Wednesday morning at the Boston South Baptist association anniversary at the Stoughton Street church, Dorchester; subject: "The Epiphany or Opening Ministry of Christ in History." The churches at South Quincy and East Milton are in this association.

In our edition of last week we mentioned the Boston bazaar as expecting success without advertising. We have the kindest of feelings toward the proprietors of the bazaar, but as we have naturally had more experience we ventured a little friendly advice, as father to son. There is no obligation on their part to accept and as our advertising columns are more than paid for, we have no objection to their using our columns. We sincerely wish them the best of success.

